Called Meeting

Austin Tex, January 14th 1881

Mayor L. M. Crooker, presiding.

Roll called — Present — Aldermen Boardman Duff, Pratt, Sheehan, Lobin and Wahrenberger

Absent — Aldermen Mely Nalle and Robertson.

Quorum present.

Alderman Wahrenberger moved, which was duly seconded a call of the council. Carried.

The marshal was dispatched for the absent aldermen.

The minutes of the regular meeting January 3rd 1881 were read and approved

On motion Alderman Wahrenberger was excused from fine for non attendance at the called meeting of the city council on account of sickness.

Alderman Mely appeared and answered to his name.

Alderman Lobin moved that the call be suspended. Carried.

The mayor stated that he had called the council together to see what action should be taken in reference to the ordinance vacating the ordinance of the Houston and Texas Central Railway Company.

Alderman Lobin presented a substitute to an ordinance read at council meeting of January 3 1881. Ordinance read first time.

Alderman Lobin moved that it be referred to a special committee of three aldermen who should report as soon as practicable. Carried.

The mayor appointed on said committee: Aldermen Lobin, Boardman and Duff.

There being no further business the council adjourned.
