

Definition of an Intersection

An intersection is the area that falls within the dotted red line; it begins behind the stop bar or crosswalk, if present; where there are no markings, it begins at the point of curve.

Point of Curve = the point where the curve begins; where a curb transitions from a straight line to a curve.