To the Hon Mayor and City Council 3 Oct 18th 1902 of the City of Austin

Report
City Atty
Claim
against Co
Hospital

Gentlemen:
In accordance with the direction of a resolution of your body, I have negotiated with the County Judge and members of the Commissioners Court of Travis County, for the purpose of reaching, if possible, a settlement of a claim of the City against the County for money alleged to be due the City for maintaining and operating the City and County Hospital. The result of such negotiations is that the County refuses to pay any part of the claim mentioned, until its claim against the City for repairs to the Congress Avenue bridge across the Colorado river and for alleged repairs to the approaches of said bridge is settled.

In accordance with the further direction of said resolution, I have drawn and am ready to file a petition in proposed suit against the County on claim first above mentioned.

I hereby formally report the above facts, and request your final instructions as to whether or not the suit shall be filed.

Alderman Maddox moved that the City Attorney be directed to proceed in the matter as directed in the original resolution, which motion prevailed.
