Austin, Texas, Nov. 21, 1892.

Reconsideration of vote To the Hon. John McDonald, Mayor, and Board of Aldermen as to lease of the of the City of Austin:

Capital Ice Factory.

Gentlemen - Your Special Committee appointed to investigate property leased to a company, then known as the Capital Ice Factory, for the purpose of manufacturing ice by the city of Austin, beg leave to report, after careful investigation, find that there is no such company existing at this time, nor has there been for several years, said Company having ceased operations as such for a period of five years or more, and not likely to resume as such in the future. Said Company having sold all the machinery from the premises; and Geo. B. Simplician is now the lessor of said property for other purposes contrary to said lease.
Your Committee would therefore recommend that said lease, according to the reading thereof, be declared null and void.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 10, 1892.

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council of the City of Austin
N. B. Hancock Gentlemen - Having received a plurality of the votes cast for Alderman in the 8th Ward at the asks to be installed. Election of December 5th, 1892, I respectfully ask to be installed as such Alderman and that it be declared that no valid Contest is pending for said Office.

1st. Because no Contest was filed within three days after the return of the result of the Election by the judges to your honorable body.

2nd. Because no Contest was filed before the meeting of your honorable body tonight.

3rd. Because no notice of Contest was served on me.

Respectfully,

N. B. Hancock.

The following was then read:

Austin, Texas, Dec. 10, 1892.

H. B. Hancock, Esq.:

Sir - You are hereby notified that I will Contest your right to be installed as an Alderman of the City of Austin for and representing the Eighth Ward of said City, to which position you claim to have been elected at an Election held in said Eighth Ward on the fifth day of Dec., 1892, and at which Election, I was a Candidate for such position.

On the grounds for such Contest I claim, allege and will prove that a large number of ballots, totalling

Fifty-five, were deposited at said Election with your name only on them, which said ballots were counted for you and all of which ballots were cast by persons not legally entitled to vote in the Eighth Ward for Alderman at said Election that the names and residences of such persons so illegally voting at said election are at this time not fully known to me, but a list of same will be furnished to you in a reasonable time after I shall have had an opportunity to inspect the poll books of said election, which I cannot do until tonight.

Respectfully,

A. H. S. Knobell.

Alderman Sinn moved that the hearing of the hearing of contest of the election, held in the Eighth Ward Dec. 5th, 1892, be fixed for Thursday Dec. 15, 1892, at 10 o'clock a.m. Alderman Sinn moved to amend the motion, by striking out "noon a.m." and inserting in its stead "1 p.m." The amendment was adopted.

At the next meeting the motion made by Alderman Linn by striking out "Thursday" and inserting instead thereof "Saturday".

The amendment was adopted and the motion as amended was carried.

It was then moved that the Council stand adjourned until Saturday at 3 p.m. Adopted.

Milton Morris,
City Clerk.
