

RESOLUTION NO. _____

WHEREAS, “Ban the Box” is a national movement with the goal of increasing employment opportunities for people with past criminal convictions by removing questions from the employment application regarding past criminal history; and

WHEREAS, many other cities and counties throughout the United States, including Boston, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Alameda County and Travis County, have adopted new employment application practices in support of the “Ban the Box” initiative; and

WHEREAS, There are 5,000,000 ex-offenders in the United States, and 25,000 ex-offenders in Travis County; and

WHEREAS, the inability to obtain employment contributes to a host of problems including high rates of unemployment, recidivism and increased crime; and

WHEREAS, there is an increasing need for all employers to work with public and private agencies to find employment opportunities for ex-offenders; and

WHEREAS, positions that work with vulnerable populations including children and the elderly, and safety sensitive job positions will continue to require full criminal background investigations on job applicants; NOW THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

The City of Austin declares a commitment to increase job opportunities for individuals with previous criminal convictions. The city will amend its employment application to no longer require disclosure of past criminal history during the initial job application process for certain job positions within the city.
