The Mayor presented the following Vita message on an ordinance passed April 16th 1883

Mayor office

Austin Tex April 20 1883

To the Honorable City County of the City of Austin Gentlemen

I return herewith an ordinance entitled an ordinance for the relief of persons, whose property has been sold for Taxes and bid in by the City passed by your honorable body April 16 1883 without my approval to the same

The ordinance passed Dec 6 1880 and now in force covers the same object and renders this unnecessary while the defect in the present ordinance sought to be covered can only be done by an ordinance that will not invalidate an ordinance providing for the sale of real estate which has not been redeemed within two years as prescribed by ordinance passed January 3 1881

I respectfully recommend, the passage of an ordinance herewith submitted permitting persons to real estate sold for Taxes to the City of Austin

Very Respectfully
to A. L. Taylor
Mayor

The question being with the Council upon reconsideration agree to pass the ordinance not with standing the veto of the Mayor it was lost by the following vote nays Aldermen Metz Kinney Brueggerhoff Radkey Mueller & Platt. Yeas none

An Ordinance was introduced for the relief of persons whose real estate had been sold for City Taxes where two years had expired since date of sale The ordinance was read first time

On motion the Council adjourned

J. L. Russell
City Clerk
