Hon. J. W. Robertson, Mayor, Presiding.

Roll Call. Present, Aldermen Alexander, Brush, Caldwell, Campbell, Fisher, Graham, Jones Odell, Platt, Phillips, Schuber, Townsend, Walker, Warren, Wartham - 15.

Absent: Aldermen Anderson, Cummings, Metz, Schneider, Wellmer - 5.

The following Call was read:

Austin, Texas, Dec. 8, 1888.

To the City Council,

In Compliance with the provisions of Art. 255, Revised Civil Ordinances, I hereby call a special meeting of the City Council to be held on Saturday next, December 10, 1888, at 7 p.m. for the purpose of Counting the votes as cast at the late general election, and for the purpose of making provision for the installation of the Mayor and Aldermen elected at said election, and to transact such other business as may then be laid before the City Council.

Respectfully,

J. W. Robertson, Mayor.

Alderman Fisher moved to take up an Ordinance appropriating money for the purpose of paying approved bills. The motion Carried, and Alderman Odell introduced the Ordinance which was entitled "An Ordinance appropriating the sum of $4,186.04 for the purpose of paying approved accounts." The Ordinance was read first time, after which Mayor Robertson asked the Council to Consent to the remission of balance of fine and costs assessed in the Recorders Court against Aaron Robinson, part of the fine having been worked out. On motion, the Council agreed to the remission.

The Mayor also asked the Council to assent to the remission of $3.50 paid by Mrs. Pfannerkuche to redeem her milk cow from the pound. The Council Concurred in the remission. A motion was then made to suspend the rules and place the ordinance on its second reading, which was adopted by the following Vote: Yeas - Aldermen Alexander, Brush, Caldwell, Campbell, Fisher, Graham, Jones, Odell, Platt, Phillips, Schuber, Townsend, Walker, Warren, Wartham - 15.

The Ordinance was then read a second time, after which Alderman Wartham moved to amend section one of the ordinance by adding $10 for the purpose of paying Dr. C. B. Fisher for medical attention given to a city patient. Adopted.

Alderman Caldwell moved to amend the same section by adding $3.50 for the purpose of paying to Mrs. P. Fannekuche the amount of pound fees paid by her to redeem her milk cow from the pound. Carried.

The Caption was then changed to conform to the amendments, which increased it to the sum of $4,199.54. Motions were then made to suspend the rules and place the ordinance on its third reading, and that it do now pass, both of which were adopted by the following Vote:

Yeas - Aldermen Alexander, Brush, Caldwell, Campbell, Fisher, Graham, Jones, Odell, Platt, Phillips, Schuber, Townsend, Walker, Warren, Wartham - 15.

On motion, the Committee was discharged. Alderman Fisher introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin, That a special meeting of the City Council is hereby called to meet on Thursday, December 15, 1887, at 7 p.m., for the purpose of publicly installing Hon. Joseph Nalle in the office of Mayor of the City of Austin, for the ensuing term of two years, and also for the purpose of installing the new board of aldermen".

Alderman Campbell introduced the following,
which was unanimously adopted.

[Hon. W. B. Northam, president of the Board of Aldermen, took the Chair.]

Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin, That inasmuch as Hon. John W. Robertson, mayor of Austin, has for the last four years presided over the deliberations of this body, and is now,
by his retirement from office, about to sever
the pleasant relations which have existed between us during that time, we, as a body, hereby, tender to him our most hearty thanks for the uniform Courtesy, ability and dignity which have characterized the administration of the affairs of the office during his incumbency; that we part with him ^{with} none but the kindest feelings and ~~that~~ with the hope that happiness and success may attend him in whatever line of life
his future lot may be cast.

Mayor Robertson in the Chair.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

Milton Morris,
City Clerk.
