Called Meeting of City Council
Austin October 26, 1849.

In pursuance of a call by Alderman Brook, No. 1st, Raven No. 2nd, Sheehan the said meeting at 20 P.M. C. A. Scott Mayor.

The call was read.

The call was read.

The Mayor presided.

Aldermen Raven moved a call of the Council. Ball presented and the Mayor deposted the summon to attend.

Alderman Brook, Kellog, Strong and Sheehan answered to the summons.

The Mayor then stated that the object of the meeting was to discuss the prophecy of establishing a resolution of the City council adopted August 20, 1849
establishing quarantine.

At the request of the Council Mr. Bill Rogers and Mr. Kellogg expressed their opinions with regard to the advisability of raising the quarantine, and all considered that it would be quite safe to do so at this time.

The following resolution was then introduced by Alderman Sheehan.

Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin, That a resolution adopted at a called meeting of this council August 20, 1849, authorizing and empowering the Mayor to establish an effective quarantine, and employing therefor funds already at a salary of three dollars per day, and the same has hitherto exceeded, and that all officers
now engaged in quarantine duties be, unconditionally notified of the passage of this resolution.

That this resolution be published and take effect from and after four o'clock P.M. October 27, 1849.

Read final time and on motion the resolution was adopted and the resolution placed on its second reading by the following vote: Hayes, Alderman, Brooker, Kellogg, Nash, Raven, Sheehan, Strong & Vaughan.

Read second time and on motion by rules were further expedited and the resolution placed on its third reading by the following vote: Hayes, Alderman, Brooker, Kellogg, Nash, Raven, Sheehan, Strong & Vaughan.

Read third time and on motion passed by the following vote: Hayes, Alderman, Brooker, Kellogg, Nash, Raven, Sheehan, Strong & Vaughan.

On motion of Alderman Raven the foregoing resolution was ordered to be published in the Daily Democracy, Statesman, the State Gazette, and the Era, Capital.

On motion the council adjourned.
