Affidavit of A. Defferebaugh.

Mr. A. Defferebaugh, being duly sworn testifies that he was at that time an Alderman of the City of Austin and a member of the Board of the Printing Committee of the said City of Austin. He further says that he as Alderman of said Printing Committee made the contract for printing with Jno. D. Elliott, and that it was distinctly and plainly understood between himself and Jno. D. Elliott that payment for said printing could only be made in City Warrants, that said Elliott understood such to be the contract between himself and the City and took the contract and the Warrants.

Affiant, A. Defferebaugh,

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 9th day of July, 1875.
