

City Council Room

Austin, May 10, 1841

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Austin, according to a resolution passed at the last meeting of the City Council, met for the purpose of sitting as a Board of Appeal with reference to the assessments of the real and personal property situate and found in the first ward of the City.

Roll called:—

Present: Mr. J. Muscivola, President of the Board, Aldermen Messrs. J. Belmont, J. L. Bucas, E. S. Eggleston, Henry Madison, J. R. Robinson. Absent: Mr. Adams, E. W. Wheelock.

There being no appeals from the property owners, as the law directs, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted, confirming the list as approved by the Mayor.

On motion of Alderman Eggleston the Board of Appeal adjourned sine die.

J. J. Gentry, Recorder.

A Resolution approving and confirming the assessments of Real and Personal property in the first ward of the City of Austin for the year 1841.

Be it Resolved, by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Austin, sitting as a Board of Appeal, That the Assessment List for the 1st Ward, as made by the Assessors and Collector for the year 1841, and approved by the Mayor, be approved and confirmed, there having been no objections filed as required by law.
