Additional Backup Information

In Fiscal Year 2011-2012, the City of Austin expects to receive continued federal funding through four U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) entitlement grants: Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME), Emergency Shelter Grant (ESG), and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA). In order to receive these HUD grants, the City must submit an annual Action Plan that provides the community needs, resources, priorities, and proposed activities with regards to housing, community development, economic development and public services.

The requested action is to set the date for a public hearing in accordance with the City of Austin's Citizen Participation Plan (CPP), which sets forth the City's policies and procedures for citizen participation in the development of each annual Action Plan. As required by the CPP and Texas Local Government Code Chapter 373, the steps for public participation include four public hearings: two before the Austin City Council and two before the Community Development Commission (CDC). A 30-day public comment period is required on the draft Action Plan.

and Community Development Program.

The two initial public hearings are conducted to receive citizen input on the community's needs and service gaps. The public hearing before the CDC was held on March 29, 2011 and the public hearing before the Austin City Council was held on April 7, 2011. The CDC conducted an additional public hearing on March 8, 2011, in accordance with the 2008 African-American Quality of Life Final Report. The report recommended that a public hearing be conducted to solicit input from local small businesses and organizations on the use of federal economic funding. Neighborhood Housing and Community Development (NHCD) promoted the public hearing through various outreach efforts, including direct outreach to the community, local service providers, government agencies, the African American Resources Advisory Commission and East Austin businesses.

The draft Action Plan and Community Development Program will be made available for public comment on June 10, 2011. During the 30-day public comment period, two public hearings will be conducted, one before the CDC and one before the Austin City Council. It is anticipated that the Austin City Council will take final action on the Fiscal Year 2011-2012 Action Plan and Community Development Program on July 28, 2011. The Fiscal Year 2011-2012 Action Plan and Community Development Program are due to HUD on or before August 15, 2011.
