Unless exempted from continuing education, all persons must comply with continuing education requirements established by the Texas Administrative Code, Title 37, Part 13, Chapter 441. Persons who fail to comply with continuing education requirements are eligible for renewal of certification, but cannot perform regulated fire duties, after 1 January 2012, until meeting the continuing education requirements. Violations may subject the department and/or individual to administrative penalties pursuant to Chapter 419.906, Texas Government Code.

A completed Continuing Education Exemption Form (TCFP-009) for each individual exempted from continuing education requirements must accompany this signed renewal statement. A copy of the form should be kept on file with the department's C.E. records.

The head of department whose signature appears below certifies that all individuals appointed to fire protection duties with this organization have completed the required continuing education, or meets the exemption requirements stated above. Furthermore, each person for whom an Arson Investigator certification is being renewed holds a current peace officer license with T.C.L.E.O.S.E. and that they are commissioned by the above entity.
