Additional Backup Information

The City's Health and Human Services Department (HHSD) has contracted with the Sickle Cell Anemia Association of Austin (SCAAA), Marc Thomas Chapter since calendar year 2003 to serve clients with sickle cell disease and their families as well as targeted at-risk populations. This portion of the funding is for providing services to Travis County as stipulated in the Interlocal Agreement.

This action requests approval of the negotiation and execution of a 12-month contract for the 2011-2012 fiscal year between the City and SCAAA to provide SCAAA with up to $32,241, with three 12-month renewal options in an amount not to exceed $32,241 per renewal option, for a total amount not to exceed $128,964.

SCAAA program staff provide services in the following three major areas:

Client Services: sickle cell interventions such as medical referrals, case management, and working with other agencies that provide services to the sickle cell clients, advocacy, support, outreach, education and assistance to all persons and their families devastated by sickle cell disease. In addition, program staff conducts in-home and hospital visits to better address clients' needs.

Education: conduct educational sessions to both affected individuals and their families and various organizations that provide services to the sickle cell clients, and conduct and attend health fairs to target at-risk populations in an effort to increase knowledge and raise awareness about sickle cell disease.

Outreach: collaborate with various agencies such as Seton Family of Hospitals, Children's Hospital, The Children's Haven of Austin, The Blood and Tissue Center, Huston Tillotson University, Austin Community College, churches, schools, neighborhood centers, Texas Education Agency, Texas Department of State Health Services, and other agencies and community groups to ensure maximum support for clients and their families. These and other community partners are encouraged to modify their services and volunteer resources to better address sickle cell clients' needs.
