NEIGHBORHOOD PLAN ADOPTION DATE: March 27, 2003

PLANNING COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION: On November 8, 2011, the motion to approve staff's recommendation for a plan amendment to change to recreation/open space, was approved by Commissioner Sandra Kirk's motion, Commissioner Richard Hatfield seconded the motion on a vote of 6-1; Commissioner Jean Stevens voted against the motion (nay); Commissioners Danette Chimenti and Donna Tiemann were absent.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Recommended

BASIS FOR STAFF'S RECOMMENDATION: The plan amendment request meets the following plan goals and recommendations:

Parks, Recreation, and Public Facilities Goals

- Goal 15: Protect and enhance existing parks, recreational facilities, and open spaces. (Sector Plan)
- Goal 16: Ensure that parks are safe places that are welcoming to families. (Gov/JT)
- Goal 17: Provide opportunities for cultural arts, recreation and leisure activities/services for all ages. (Gov/JT)
- Goals 18: Design public facilities and open spaces that serve as community gathering places. (Gov/JT)

Environmental Goals

- Goal 19: Improve the environmental quality of the neighborhood. (Gov/JT)

Future Use of Vacant or Under-Utilized Properties

In the Govalle/Johnston Terrace area there is some room for future development and reuse of properties that are currently vacant or under-utilized.

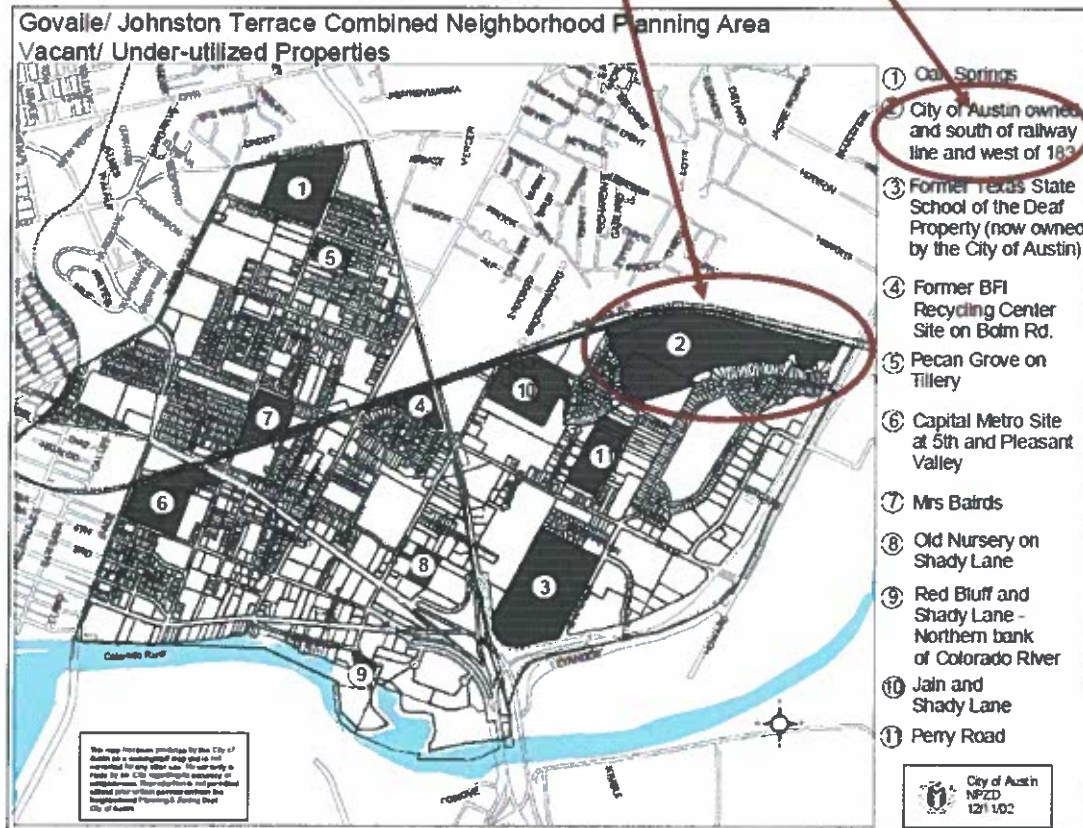

Many of the vacant or underutilized properties are publicly owned. The neighborhood has expressed interest in the use of publicly owned land within the Govalle/Johnston Terrace Neighborhood Planning Area. Generally speaking the neighborhood supports the preservation of open space in the neighborhood. The neighborhood supports limitations on further development on these properties and the preservation of as much open space as possible. The neighborhood also supports larger vacant properties being linked as part of a pedestrian and bicycle network that allows safe, non-automobile travel between these areas and also allows residents from other areas (such as east of US 183) to access parks, trails and other places within Govalle/Johnston Terrace.

This plan encourages the following uses on these publicly owned properties. The plan also makes recommendations for some of the vacant private properties in the area.

City of Austin owned land south of railway line and west of 183

This Neighborhood Plan supports the preservation of this area as open space. This area is classified as Priority Woodland and the neighborhood supports its preservation.

Neighborhood representatives also support the idea of developing a trail system through this area, if it can be done without threatening the environment. There are currently proposals for a trail along the northern side of the rail line. Representatives in this planning process would like to see linkages made between that trail and the Johnston Terrace neighborhood including Johnston High School. It is envisioned that this trail system could link residents in neighborhoods east of 183 to Govalle Park and other destinations.

This Neighborhood Plan emphasizes the importance of creating a linked network of trails throughout East Austin that would link areas east of 183 to the Cross Town Bikeway and a future Boggy Creek Trail. Linkages between local parks and schools to this system of trails were also seen as important.

This area may also be appropriate for some form of park space. Neighbors report that the picnic tables in Govalle Park fill quickly on weekends and that this property south of the railway line may be an appropriate location for more picnic areas with tables and amenities. This recommendation is again balanced with the priority of environmental protection for this area.

Transportation

Goal 9: The transportation network should be safe, accessible and attractive to pedestrians, bicycles, and vehicles. (Gov/JT)

Key Principles: Improve the pedestrian and bicycle infrastructure in the neighborhood. (Gov/JT)

Goal 10: Provide access to, from and through the neighborhood by providing a neighborhood-friendly system of transportation. (Gov/JT)

Key Principles: Enhance the pedestrian and bicycle network in the neighborhood and ensure linkages to the broader network of pedestrian and bicycle pathways. (Gov/JT)

Bike Lanes

- 3.13 Support the construction of a bike path along Boggy Creek that would also provide links to the Cross Town Bikeway.

Sections of the right of way along Boggy Creek could be used for an bike path. This section is near Allan Elementary School.

Staff Analysis: The Govalle/Johnston Terrace Neighborhood Plan recommends that this City-owned property remain as open space and to be use for bike and pedestrian trails.

The plan amendment and zoning change requests will allow for the creation of the pedestrian and bike trails recommended in the plan and will also preserve the undeveloped areas as open space.

BACKGROUND: The plan amendment and zoning applications were filed on July 27, 2011, during the open period for City Council-approved neighborhood plans located on the east side of I.H.-35.

The City of Austin's Parks and Recreation Department is planning a trail project that consists of a 7.3 mile trail that will begin in Govalle Park and end at Johnny Morris Road and Daffan Lane. A portion of this trail project is located within the boundaries of the Govalle/Johnston Terrace Combined Neighborhood Plan. (See map on page seven).

The Govalle/Johnston Terrace Combined Neighborhood Plan was completed under the City of Austin's Neighborhood Planning Program and was adopted as part of the Austin Tomorrow Comprehensive Plan on March 27, 2003. The boundaries for the planning area are Oak Springs on the north, Airport Boulevard on the east, Town Lake on the south, Pleasant Valley to 7th Street to the Northwestern, and Webberville on the west.

PUBLIC MEETINGS: The plan amendment community meeting was held on Wednesday, September 21, 2011. Three hundred and seventy-seven notices were mailed to property and utility account holders within 500 feet of the property, in addition to neighborhood organizations registered with the City. Thirteen people attended the meeting, including two city staff members.

Greg Montes, PARD, said the City of Austin's Parks and Recreation Department is planning a trail project that consists of a 7.3 mile trail that will begin in Govalle Park and end at Johnny Morris Road and Daffan Lane. The trail will be 10 feet wide, concrete trail that will be ADA compliant. There will be a 7 feet clear zone on each side of the trail

Q: Is the design of the trail decided?

A. A private firm was used to design the trail and to look for at-grade trail heads, which are safer for trail users.

Q. Is there an alternative route other than through East Boggy Creek?

A. No.

Q. Did the City just acquire this land?

A. In 2008 Public Works and Watershed transferred the land to Parks and Recreation Department.

Q. The land is zoned SF-3-NP, why wasn't it zoned for public use when the Parks Department receive the land?

A. Land is rarely zoned P-Public when the Parks Department acquires the land. Parks will wait until it has plans for the property before it submits a zoning change application.

Q. There could be safety issues on this trail. There are transients in the area and a fire two weeks ago. There are children and schools in this area and the trail will be a magnet for crime.

A. There are similar trails in the single family area and people use it. The more people use the trails, then there will be less crime on it.

Q. Will it be a 24-hour trail?

A. Parks has a curfew of 10:00 p.m. There will not be lights on the trail, so it will probably not be used at night.

Q. This is a bad area with homeless people living on trails that exist in the area.

A. There will be Park Rangers and also Austin Police Department who will monitor the trails.

Q. The existing Govalle Park is not well maintained, why expand the park with more potential users when the City does not maintain the park with the few users that it has.

A. The city can use parkland dedicated money to make improvements to the park.

Q. Where is the money coming from for the 7.3 mile trail?

A. Most of it is Federal money.

Q. Is the East Boggy Creek Greenbelt in the flood plain?

A. Parts of it are, but most of the land is not. The creek was channelized by the Army Corp of Engineers, so there is not much flooding in the area.

Daniel Llanes, member of the Govalle/Johnston Terrace Combined Planning Contact Team, said they will not support the rezoning of the property (approximately 44 acres) that is not within the flood plan because they want affordable housing on that part of the tract. The part of the property within the flood plain (approximately 22 acres) they will support the rezoning to P-Public for the trail. The plan document has the following housing goals:

Housing

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| Goal 5: | Maintain an affordable and stable housing stock. (Sector Plan) |
| Goal 6: | Foster and protect existing neighborhoods. (Sector Plan) |
| Goal 7: | Rehabilitate existing deteriorating housing stock. (Sector Plan) |
| Goal 8: | Increase opportunities for people to live in close proximity to daily needs such as shopping and transportation. (Gov/JT) |

Greg Montes explained that the Parks Department owns the land and cannot let the property be used for affordable housing without the public referendum of Austin voters. Greg provided the following documentation from the City's Charter, Texas Local Government Code and from the Texas Constitution and Statutes. See pages 11 through 14 as support material. This information was confirmed by the City Attorney's office.

One letter in opposition was submitted, in addition to one comment form in support of the project.

Subject: Zoning cases for Govalle/Johnston Terrace Neighborhood Planning Area

Dear Commissioners:

On behalf of the Review Committee for the Govalle/Johnston Terrace Neighborhood Planning Team, please accept this email as our formal request to postpone Case #C14-2011-0083 - 5200 Bolm Rd & 5509-5609 Stuart Circle, scheduled to be heard before the Planning Commission on October 11th, 2011. We request a two-week postponement.

We request a postponement for the following reasons:

1. C-14-2011-0083 is part of the NPA-2011-0016.01 that has been postponed until October 25th, 2011 due to renotification by staff, 2. C-14-2011-0083 and NPA-2011-0016.01 is being requested for discussion before the Community Development Commission on their October 11th, 2011 meeting.

We further request that the two PARD requests be kept together and that all be postponed from Oct. 11 to Oct. 25th. This will make it easier and less time consuming for the involvement of our neighborhood residents.

The 66 acres, referred to as the Boggy Creek Greenbelt, are all zoned Single Family, and 44 acres (2/3rds of property) have the potential to have housing built on them, affordable housing that the plan calls for and that the community would like to see. This 66 acres was a City property transferred, not purchased with PARD Bond money. Therefore we feel that we need to investigate the possibility of constructing both the trail that PARD is requesting and much needed affordable housing. This would create a similar opportunity to the Tillery Square development (43 homes) and the Betty Dunkerly HHSD campus which dedicated 6 acres for affordable housing, both City owned.

We seek assistance from the Planning Commission to find a way to make possible the development of affordable housing on this City owned property.

Thank you for your assistance,
Daniel Llanes, Chair
Govalle/Johnston Terrace Neighborhood Plan Contact Team

Letter from Govalle/Johnston Terrace Resident

October 4, 2011

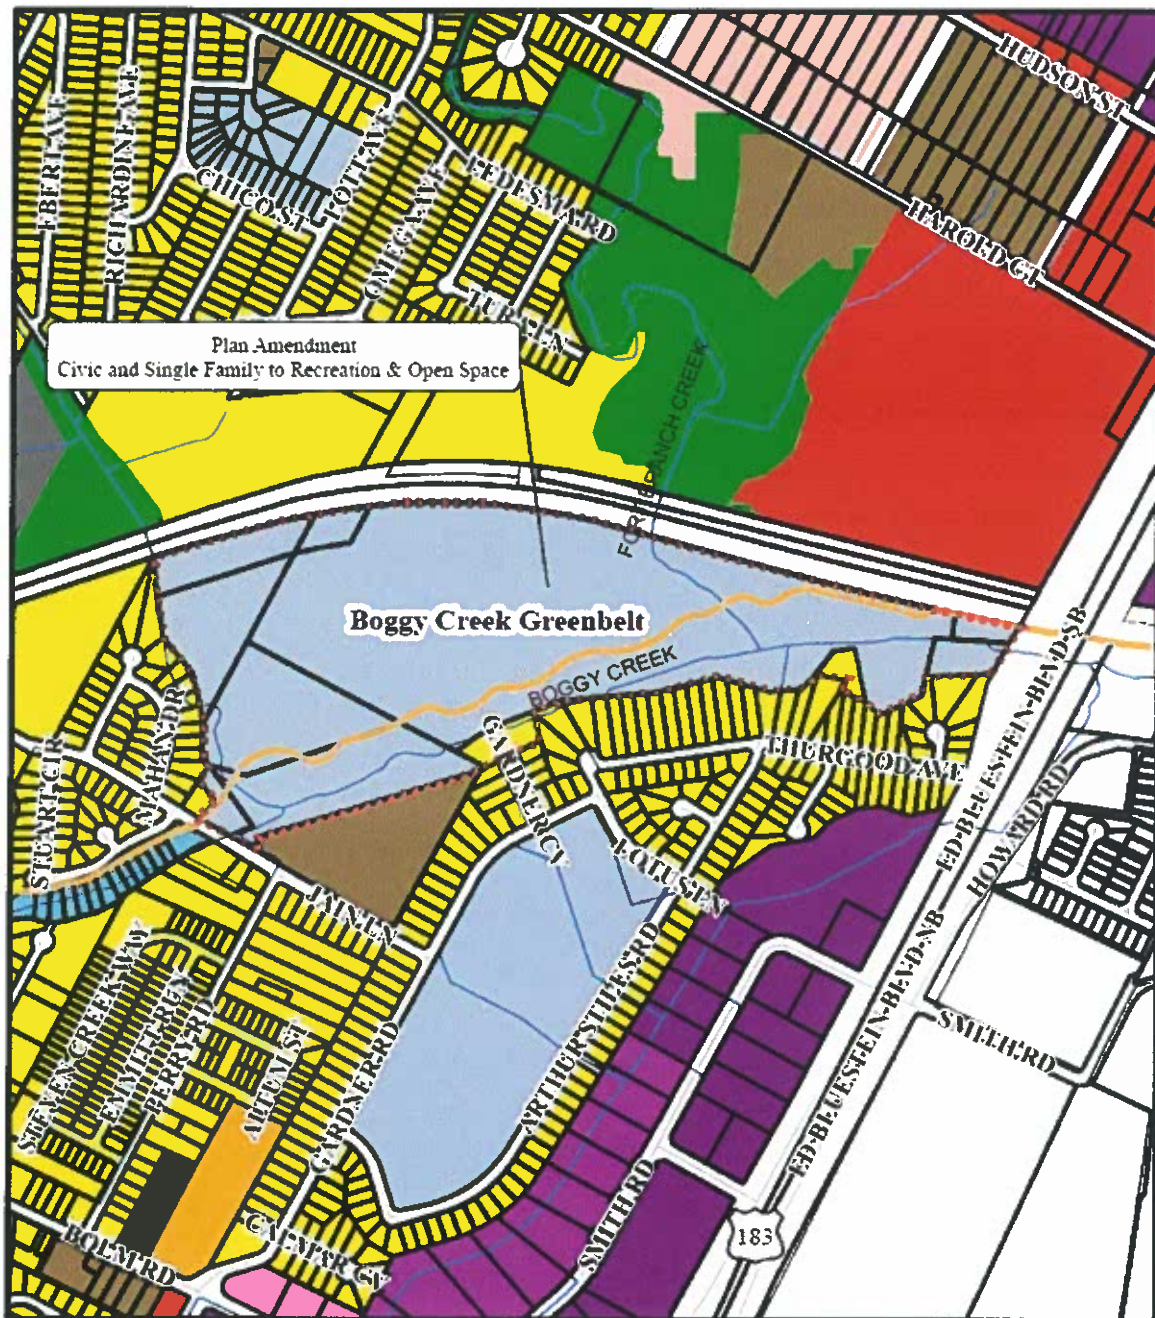

Dear Planning Commission,

My name is Angelica Noyola. I have a family home in the Johnston/ Govalle Terrace Neighborhood. I am against the implementation of a Trail system in the Boggy Creek Green Belt. That land has been zoned SF3 and should be made available for affordable housing. The City has not maintained the park presently located in the area very well for years and I fear that another addition of Park Land will go unkempt as well. The City of Austin Watershed Department did not consult the public before gifting the land it owns to the Parks and Recreation department, knowing it was zoned SF3. I attended a meeting regarding this issue and the area residents were not well informed on the issue at hand or the premise of the meeting to be held. I myself only heard of the meeting from another individual. Mailers were sent out but perhaps a better job could have been done with detailing the issue. At the meeting some residents were still confused as to what was entailed in the proposal. If Planning Commission truly wants the communities input I believe another meeting should be held to discuss the scope of the project. It is worrisome that so much has been done on the project before community input was sought. I would have thought that community input would have been the first thought since we would be most impacted by the proposed changes.

If the Planning Commission decides to give the go ahead to this project you will be adding to the problematic issues we currently have with the transient camps. There has been an increased problem with transient camps in the green belt area. Austin Police Department just 1 and a half weeks ago removed a transient camp from the Boggy Creek greenbelt. I feel that if given a paved way to venture deeper into the area that the problem will become worse. There is a Junior High School less than 500 ft from the proposed trail. As well as a High School less than a 1000 ft away. The increased "stranger" traffic causes a major concern. Austin Police Department has had numerous complaints of violence on existing trails such as the trail which runs along Lady Bird Lake. Given the fact that there are so many children in this area I am fearful of the impact it could have on them.

My final thought is this: How can the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department dare ask that we accept a trail in our backyard when they have FAILED to maintain a safe environment at an existing park which will lead into the trail? I thank you for your time and attention to my concerns. I know that you will make your decision with the best interest of the existing community in mind.

Respectfully,
Angelica Noyola
Johnston/Govalle Terrace Resident

- (3) the park is no longer usable and functional as a park;
- (4) the proceeds of the sale will be used to acquire land for park purposes;

- (6) the park is conveyed pursuant to an ordinance adopted by the governing body of the home-rule municipality, unless within 60 days from the date of the public hearing the governing body of the home-rule municipality is presented with a petition opposing the conveyance which contains the name, address, and date of signature of no less than 1,500 registered voters residing within the municipal limits of the municipality; then, the governing body of the home-rule municipality shall either deny the conveyance or shall approve the conveyance subject to the election required in Subsection (b); or

- (7) the conveyance involves an exchange of two existing parks, situated within a home-rule municipality with a population of more than one million, that together total 1.5 acres or less in size, that are located within 1,000 feet of each other, that are located in an industrial area, that have been found in a public hearing to no longer be usable and functional as parks, and that are conveyed pursuant to an ordinance, adopted by the governing body of that municipality, that has an effective date before December 1, 1993.
