Additional Backup Information

On October 6, 2011, the City Council established a Bond Election Advisory Task Force to develop recommendations related to a potential future bond package. Since that time, the Task Force held numerous meetings and utilized the feedback of the community to develop its bond package recommendations. These recommendations, as well as staff recommended bond packages, were presented to Council on June 26, 2012. Extensive detail regarding the bond development process as well as the Task Force and staff recommended bond packages can be found at the following website: <http://www.austintexas.gov/bonddevelopment/>
