Additional Backup Information

The City's Health and Human Services Department has identified several projects that qualify for the 1115 Medicaid Waiver Program that would prevent disease, encourage healthy behaviors, reduce the incidence of communicable disease, and lower health care costs for residents and families served in the City of Austin, Texas.

Therefore, this resolution directs the City Manager to include certain unfunded projects in the City's 1115 Medicaid Waiver Program application and to report back to the City Council within 90 days with a fiscal analysis and funding strategy for those projects. It also directs the City Manager to consider the leveraging opportunities for the 1115 Medicaid Waiver Program projects as a priority for one-time funding.
