Additional Backup Information

Since 2003, the City of Austin and Travis County have shared the cost of one Assistant District Attorney position, which is devoted to handling criminal matters in the Downtown Business District. The Agreement has been prepared through a negotiation process. The proposed Interlocal agreement would be effective on October 1, 2012, for a term of one year from its effective date, and would automatically renew for an additional year unless terminated by either party. Under the Agreement, the City will pay the County a total of $20,000. If the city and county opt to renew, the City will pay the County $20,000 for one additional year.

The Assistant District Attorney will work primarily on crimes of violence, career criminal, narcotics and nuisance abatement matters in cooperation with the City and its Police Department. The Assistant District Attorney designated as the Downtown Business District Attorney shall provide services designed to eliminate the illegal activity of known criminals; eliminate activities related to the sale and distribution of narcotics; and eliminate nuisance activities from properties within the City in accordance with applicable laws. The Attorney's services also include advising officers of the Austin Police Department on legal matters associated with defining and preparing a prosecutable case.
