Additional Backup Information

This contract is for mattress collection and recycling processing services to work collaboratively with Austin Resource Recovery (ARR) to reduce the quantity of mattresses and box springs being disposed of in landfills. The contractor will provide personnel, vehicles and necessary equipment for the prompt collection and transport of used mattresses and box springs generated by ARR's residential customers. The contractor will follow ARR's Bulky Collection route schedule, working concurrently with ARR's Bulky Collection crews on each route, and will also provide on-call collection service to fulfill out-of-cycle service requests from ARR customers. The contractor will also operate a processing facility to receive, pre-treat and deconstruct mattresses and box springs; bale and store the separated commodities; and market and ship the materials to downstream processors.
