

HISTORIC LANDMARK COMMISSION
MAY 20, 2013
APPLICATION FOR A CERTIFICATE OF APPROPRIATENESS
C14H-1994-0018
David C. Parker Property
2404 Rio Grande Street

PROPOSAL

Install a metal longhorn sculpture in the front yard.

PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS

---

The sculpture, which is already there, is a steel outdoor sculpture, created by Frederick Prescott. It is 10 feet high, 18 feet wide, and 20 inches deep, and painted burnt orange. It is set in a small bed in the front yard of the house.

STANDARDS FOR REVIEW

---

The Commission's Standards for Review of applications for Certificates of Appropriateness do not incorporate any landscape features.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

---

Not reviewed.

---

Approve the application, with the recommendation that the applicant return with an application for the front yard sign as soon as possible. The applicant has indicated that the existing sign is temporary and will come in with an application for a permanent monument-style sign in the near future.
