Additional Backup Information

On March 21, 2013, Council directed Health and Human Services Department staff to fund $146,000 for River City Youth Foundation within the existing social services contracts unallocated budget.

River City Youth Foundation is located in the Dove Springs community and provides a neighborhood-based safe place and learning center for low income, at risk youth and their families. Funding for two programs, Dove Springs Youth Services and Summer of Safety, would be continued for twelve months from October 1, 2013-September 30, 2014.

Dove Springs Youth Services program offers a neighborhood-based safe place and learning center for low income, at risk youth and their families. Services include: after-school services, counseling tutoring, case management, supervised culturally and linguistically relevant mentor-mentee matches, and parent involvement activities.

Summer of Safety program provides a professionally staffed summer camp that offers recreational, therapeutic, nutritional, technological, educational, and family support services for youth in the Dove Springs area.
