Residential Zoning Review - Kristin Kibling - 974-6444

I have reviewed the above mentioned residential permit review submittal and have REJECTED it based upon the following comments that will require your ACTION:

- 1) Due to the legal description of your lot, you will need to provide a Land Status Determination report from the Development Assistance Center located on the 1st floor of 505 Barton Springs.
- 2) Your legal description has changed since the last permit. In the last permit the lot size was 31,336sf with an FAR of 13.7%. Now, the lot size is 9339sf and you are over the 40% FAR limit for lots within Subchapter F boundaries. There may be reason to go to BOA, RDCC or other means to get this approved for permit. Please be aware that we will know more once the LSD has been approved.
- 3) Your demolition permit has been sent to the Historic Department due to its location within a National Historic Registered District. No additional action is required on your part.

- 8/21
- 4) Please revise your job valuation breakdowns to show what the "addition/new construction" costs are from the "remodel/repair" costs. See page 1 of the application.
 - 5) Please give me the width of the driveway approach at the property line.
 - 6) Please submit all updates at intake during the hours of M/W/F 8am-11am and W 1-3pm. Updates will not be accepted at any other time.
 - 7) All zoning plan updates are to be submitted in triplicate, with 1 set being a small set on 11x17" paper or smaller and 2 sets on 11x17" or larger. All sets are to be to scale, legible and exact copies. Please read technical requirements if necessary.
 - 8) We only accept scales found on an architectural and engineer's scale: 1/16", 1/8", 1/4", 1/2" 1", 3/32", 3/16", 1/8", 3/8", 3/4", 1 1/2", 1":10', 1":20', 1":30', 1":40', 1":50' and 1":60'
 - 9) I do not accept walk in appointments or requests at intake. You may make an appointment if needed to clarify comments by emailing or calling me @ Kristin.kibling@austintexas.gov
 - 10) Plans will remain in my possession and will only be accessible through appointment only.
