Disciplinary Action shall be administered for the purposes of:

- 1. providing corrective action that helps Employees understand expectations to modify behavior or performance for success in the organization;
- 2. deterring the same or similar behavior or performance by the Employee in the future;
- 3. reinforcing the City's commitment to Municipal Civil Service Rules, applicable personnel policies, procedures, Departmental rules, and administrative bulletins; or
- 4. discharging an Employee from the City workforce, if management reasonably concludes the Employee's conduct was so egregious that continued employment would be incompatible with the City's values and expectations, or that lesser Disciplinary Action has been or would be ineffective.

B. Factors Considered in Administering Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary Actions under these Rules shall be applied for the purposes stated in Part A, above, in a manner that takes into account the following factors:

1. the nature and severity of the Employee's conduct;
2. the Employee's prior work history and disciplinary record;
3. the manner in which similar conduct has been addressed in the past by the Department;
4. any mitigating or aggravating circumstances surrounding the conduct at issue; and
5. the impact of the action on the City's functions, operations, and ability to maintain the public's trust.

C. Review Prior to Disciplinary Action.

No Disciplinary Action referred to in these Rules shall be effective unless, prior to such action, the Employee shall have received at least three (3) Business Days advance written notice of a pre-disciplinary meeting to permit the Employee to respond to the potential action. The written notice shall state at a minimum, the date of the meeting, the potential action, and the reasons for the potential action and that the Employee may elect to respond in person or in writing to the written notice. Pre-disciplinary written notice shall be provided and shall be delivered to the Employee (and a representative if designated by the Employee) in person, or mailed to the Employee's last known address shown in the City's personnel records via certified mail, or electronic mail when possible, along with a copy of any final investigation report (if applicable and not prohibited by law) related to the potential action. Providing such written notice and opportunity for an Employee to respond to the notice shall constitute compliance with the requirements of this paragraph.

D. Employee Representation

1. When an Employee May Bring a Representative

- a) An Employee may bring a representative of his/her choice to the following types of meetings: a pre-disciplinary meeting, a meeting formally requested by management at which discipline will be issued, a performance improvement plan (PIP) issuance meeting, and an Investigatory Interview at which the Employee is a complainant or Respondent (hereinafter referred to collectively as "meetings").

2. Requests for a Representative

- a) During an Investigatory Interview, if the investigator interviewing a witness reasonably believes that the witness may become a Respondent, the investigator must immediately inform the witness of such, and shall offer the witness an opportunity to request a representative. Additionally, a complainant or Respondent may make a request for representation during an Investigatory Interview.

If the representative is not available at that time to attend the Investigatory Interview, the Respondent may request that the interview be rescheduled. If so, the Department shall reschedule the Investigatory Interview to occur within three (3) Business Days of the original Investigatory Interview date, unless both parties agree to a longer period of time.

- b) For all other meetings where a representative is permitted,
 - i. A minimum of 24-hour's notice of the meeting date and time shall be provided to the Employee, unless otherwise stated in these Rules.
 - ii. For a meeting scheduled in advance, if the Employee informs the Department at least 24-hours prior to the meeting that the Employee will bring a representative to the meeting, but the Employee's representative is not available to attend at the scheduled meeting time, the Department will reschedule the meeting as set forth below.
 - iii. The Department shall reschedule the meeting to occur within three (3) Business Days of the original meeting date, unless both parties agree to a longer period of time.
 - iv. A good-faith effort shall be made to schedule meetings that take into consideration the representative's schedule.
 - v. If the meeting is rescheduled and the Employee's designated representative is not available to attend, it is the responsibility of the Employee to find an alternate representative and the meeting shall proceed as rescheduled with or without a representative present.
- c) During an Investigatory Interview, if the investigator interviewing a witness fails to immediately inform a witness when the witness has become a Respondent and offer the witness an opportunity to request a representative; and to reschedule the interview as set forth above, this failure shall be considered by the Commission in making a determination on an Appeal of a resulting Disciplinary Action issued under these Rules.

3. Role of the Employee Representative

- a) During a meeting, a representative may participate as follows, as long as the representative does not unreasonably interfere with the proceedings as determined by the representative of the City:
 - i. Be informed of the subject matter;
 - ii. Consult privately with the Employee;
 - iii. Speak;
 - iv. Request a break;
 - v. Ask for clarification regarding a question; and

- i. File an Appeal or complaint/grievance on behalf of the Employee and schedule any associated meetings;
- ii. Propose remedies to resolve the Appeal or complaint/grievance;
- iii. Speak on behalf of the Employee during the meeting, although the representative may not testify as though to provide personal knowledge of the Employee;
- iv. Ask questions during the meeting or hearing; and
- v. Correspond with the supervisor/HR staff on the status of the Appeal or complaint/grievance.

E. Written Notice of Disciplinary Action.

No Disciplinary Action referred to in these Rules shall be effective until management has provided the Employee with a written notice of such Disciplinary Action. The written notice of Disciplinary Action shall state at a minimum, the method in which the Employee responded to the Pre-Disciplinary meeting notice (e.g., in person, in writing, or no response provided) and the final Disciplinary Action. Such notice shall be provided to the Employee as follows:

- 1. by delivery of the notice to the Employee in person; or
- 2. if the Employee is not present in the workplace, by sending the notice via certified mail, or electronic mail when possible, to the Employee's last known address as shown in the City's personnel records.

B. Employee's Election to Use ADR Process

At the time of filing a notice of Appeal, an Employee may elect to participate in a voluntary ADR Process coordinated through the Ombuds Office.

C. Confidentiality of ADR Process

The ADR Process is intended to be separate from the hearing process and shall not stop or extend the timelines of the Appeal process under these Rules. To achieve this purpose:
