AGENT: Armbrust & Brown, PLLC (Eric deYoung)

SUMMARY STAFF RECOMMENDATION:
Staff recommends granting the termination of the 1972 Restrictive Covenant as it applies to this property.

PLANNING COMMISSION ACTION:
January 27, 2015: APPROVED TERMINATION OF THE 1972 RESTRICTIVE COVENANT AS ITAPPLIES TO THIS PROPERTY, AS STAFF RECOMMENDED, BY CONSENT
[J. STEVENS; R. HATFIELD – 2ND] (7-0) D. CHIMENTI; L. VARGHESE – ABSENT

DEPARTMENT COMMENTS:
The subject two lots (see Exhibit A) are a portion of Tract 12 identified in the original 497 acres known as "The Crossing". The Restrictive Covenant that accompanied the 1972 zoning change applies to the entire 497 acres and restricts the total number of dwelling units to 4,658, and assigns Tract 12 (a total of 41.44 acres in size) to 22 dwelling units/acre and a total of 912 units.

The property was rezoned to the general community – conditional overlay (GR-CO) combining district in 2002 (C14-02-0055). The Conditional Overlay limited development to 2,000 vehicle trips per day and neighborhood commercial (LR) zoning regulations, and prohibits auto rentals, auto repair services, auto sales and auto washing (of any type). In the absence of adding the MU combining district, the 2002 rezoning did not allow for residential uses to occur.

The 1972 Restrictive Covenant as it applies to the subject property was amended in 2008 to allow for GR-CO uses as identified by the 2002 ordinance.

With the adoption of the ERC Regulating Plan, the tract was identified as an Urban Residential subdistrict (C14-2012-0111b). The Urban Residential subdistrict allows for residential-attached uses to occur including townhouses, condos or multifamily dwellings. Development standards include a maximum of 40 feet, 65 percent impervious cover and a maximum floor-to-area ratio of 0.75 to 1.
The overall goal of the restrictive covenant amendment is to remove the potential for the 1972 Restrictive Covenant to be inconsistent with the standards established by the East Riverside Regulating Plan (ERC zoning) and the Urban Residential subdistrict that applies to this property.

A site plan for 32 townhouses is in process (SP-2014-0177C).

4. The number of acres designated to each tract is approximate and adjustments to the total number of dwelling units for a specific tract will be based upon the true number of acres contained within a tract as shown on the preliminary plat and the total dwelling units for a specific tract will be shown on said preliminary plat and will be based upon the number of acres multiplied by the designated density provided for said tract as indicated above. The preliminary plat will indicate the density requirements as indicated above and all final subdivision plans must be in conformance with these density restrictions and must be so designated on the recorded plan(s). Although adjustments because of approximation as to acreage shall be allowed as set forth above the overall density limitation of 4,658 units shall not be exceeded unless otherwise agreed to by the City of Austin and the Owners.

5. If any person, persons, corporations or entity of any other character shall violate or attempt to violate the foregoing agreement and covenant, it shall be lawful for the City of Austin, a municipal corporation, its successors and assigns, to prosecute proceedings at law, or in equity, against said person, or entity violating or attempting to violate such agreement or covenant and to prevent said person or entity from violating or attempting to violate such agreement or covenant.

6. If any part or provision of this agreement or covenant herein contained shall be declared invalid, by judgment or court order, the same shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions of this agreement, and such remaining portion of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

7. The failure at any time to enforce this agreement by the City of Austin, its successors and assigns, whether any violations hereof are known or not, shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel of the right to do so.

8. This agreement may be modified, amended or terminated only by joint action of both (a) a majority of the members of the City Council of the City of Austin, or such other governing body as may succeed the City Council of the City of Austin, and, (b) by the owners of the above described property at the time of such modification, amendment, or termination.
