RE: Pine Street Station, 414 Waller

To Interested Parties:

Elizabeth Purcell and other interested citizens attended our meeting on Wednesday, October 14th 2015 to voice their concerns about the future of the property at 414 Waller (Pine Street Station). It appears that there is some confusion as to whether the property is eligible for historic zoning and/or other historic designations. The Travis County Historical Commission would like to see a clarification of the historic status of the site and the improvements as well as the future plans for the property.

Our interest in this area extends to the entire project since the proposed Saltillo Plaza Development occupies the historic footprint of the Masontown freedmen's colony of the late 1800's. We feel it important that all due diligence be performed to identify and document any and all historic properties in the area of potential effect of the development, and recognition of those sites felt to be significant.

Respectfully yours,

Bob Ward Chair, Travis County Historical Commission Cc/Steve Sadowsky to Steve, Kalan, Iorelei, Madeline, Grace, Mary, Terri, Arif, Emily, Blake, Michelle, David, reji, Pamela,

YES, I can most certainly see art classes in this space. I guess it will be private lessons. One student, one desk and a easel. Max occupancy in that space will be.....5. Isn't the occupancy for a 558 sq. ft. spaced, based on a business occupancy 1/100? So 5 1/2 people max. will be allowed in that building at one time if they get it zoned business. But they said they would have art classes.

TABLE 1004.1.1 MAXIMUM FLOOR AREA ALLOWANCES PER OCCUPANT FUNCTION OF SPACE FLOOR AREA IN SQ. FT. PER OCCUPANT

Business areas 100 gross

Educational Classroom area Shops and other vocational room areas 20 net 50 net

OOPS! Does this really look like they have any good intentions for any of this property? The CO on this building will not accommodate more than 5 and 1/2 people if they zone it as a business. But they are going to have art in there?

I was not correct. The only two rooms big enough to have classrooms total 268 sq. ft. which would be counted under Shops and other vocational room areas at 50 net leaving an occupancy of 5.36 occupants allowed in the building at one given time. Art classes would not fall under "classes" because an art class would require hands on. So in this instance they could not even fit in a half a person. Now of course they could have it as an Art Gallery which would make it assembly which is 5 net which is standing room only. But they will have no walls left to display art work on because there will only be one wall left that will not exist when they remove the doors and the pass through window that the dispatcher used to sit and monitor the deliverables to Humble Oil. That window is truly one of the most remarkable parts of this building. Oh, but thats right, the new owner has a place for these art classes. Is that what Capital Metro said? A Bathroom or a side bar? And according to Steve a Plaque is not even proposed. Only Photo documentation of these buildings.

ELIZABETH Purcell	austin, TX	2015-09-30	To save the reason Austin became the Art and Music Capital of the United States
Christopher Kinlaw	San Francisco, CA	2015-09-30	I believe the Pine Street station building can be restored and incorporated into the Plaza Saltillo development plan.
Pamela Booton	Austin, TX	2015-10-02	Pine Street Station and artist Reji Thomas have contributed so much to our Austin art community! Thank you all for signing!
Lowell White	Austin, TX	2015-10-02	Pine Street Station is an important part of our community!
Aubrey Parker	Port Lavaca, TX	2015-10-02	Regi belongs here as a world class artist!
Rebecca Arthur	Buda, TX	2015-10-03	I was there! Reggie allowed me to sell paintings in her studio at East Austin Studio Tour! Reggie is amazing and tireless in her efforts to promote art to the public, and help newbie artists. Long Live Pine Street Station. Thank you, Reggie
Susan Haney	Austin, TX	2015-10-03	Reji and the Pine Street Station are important to East Austin. Please sign.
Jamie Minton	Austin, TX	2015-10-03	pine street station is what is makes Austin a great city,, not these glass buildings with no life that are replacing everything.
Sarah Parrish	Austin, TX	2015-10-03	to save an amazing place that has done so much for east austin and is getting railroaded unfairly by capital metro
Dudeman Delahou	Austin, TX	2015-10-03	Gentrification of the original Austin.
susan fisher	Austin, TX	2015-10-03	My son is an artist
Kerry Lokey	Scotts Valley, CA	2015-10-04	It is near and dear to my heart
scott St.John	Ft.Worth, TX	2015-10-04	Its the rt thing to do!
Stephen Wright	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I love these buildings, so much history, so much art!
Brian Joseph	Brooklyn, NY	2015-10-05	Preserve historical landmarks in East Austin.
Jason Ice	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	This was materializing into a cool community spot and it was I/has been really heart breaking to see it locked up and empty
Ruth Glendinning	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Reji created an amazing space long before East Austin was 'discovered'. This is the history that made Austin magic.
Eric Rodriguez	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	This is a great art studio with some of the best and interesting artists I've had the pleasure of meeting and becoming friends with. Great location. Also artists from surrounding places know of this place. It would be a sad day in the austin art community to see this building taken away.
Deborah Tolar	Santa Fe, NM	2015-10-05	Art wonderland should not be destroyed! Creative genius in place since at least 1979!
Jason Manley	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Creative culture requires venues of all sorts, and the roots of Austin are not grown in multi-million dollar venues, corporate chain coffee shops, or the like. Austin thrives because it has places for artists to plant their seeds and grow. The gardens require protection.
Duggan Flanakin	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I have frequented Hope Market for years, and art shows there.
David Lamplugh	Austin,, TX	2015-10-05	Honestly? Because the city basically bumrushed artists who made the east side cool enough for yuppies to live there, and then announced they might put in a stupid Walmart. That's why.

Whitney Victory II	Albuquerque, NM	2015-10-05	CapMetro tried to manhandle a disabled vet, cost her over 100K direct and 100K on the building, had her harassed and put 2000 artists out on the street on land my family signed over years ago.
Alicia Evans	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Pine Street Station is the core of Creativity, Art, and a way of life for many Artist in Austin Texas. Pine Street Station has inspired Glass Artistist, painters, publishers, writers, entertainers, cartoonists and many more countless individuals that have contributed to the feel and beauty of Austin Texas. To loose the Mecca and the need of expression through Art in the center of Austin Texas will be a travesty to the culture that made Austin, Austin. All this was made possible by Rejina Thomas. Rejina Thomas is a pillar for the Austin art scene and should alway be the pillar that holds the craddle for inspired up and coming Artists. Amen
LaTonya Foster	Sugar Land, TX	2015-10-05	I know of a handful of artists who apprenticed at the stone carving workshop at pinestreet or with Reji Thomas' studio.
Jennifer Rosas	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Why destroy everything that made Austin to make Austin.
Chuck Becker	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Because Austin is losing to many historic buildings to new construction
Kathleen Peschel	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Save the Station!!
Martha Quinn	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I want to preserve as much of old Austin as possible.
Cathleen Day	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	These modest frame buildings communicate "Old Austin," in a way a museum exhibit never can. Walking into this art studio was like time-traveling to decades past, when our town had many small workshops for black smithing, harness making, tool making and other trades. Please, preserve this small example of the true "olden days."
jeff berry	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I spent 3 years working inside pine street station in the late 90's early 00's for both Register Thomas glass studio and Archaic stone who shared the building at that time. I have been in pine street within the last year and while it does require work it is still quite structurally sound and is piece right out of history and once it's gone we will never get it back. No one will be fighting to save the commercial Plaza slated to replace it a hundred years from now if it even lasts that long. Is that not reason enough alone?
Issa Artoonist	Santa Fe, NM	2015-10-05	I am signing this petition because community spaces for artists are dearly important.
Bak Zoumanigui	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I support the Austin art community.
Russell Porter	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I'd like this landmark preserved Thanks
joey hudgins	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	save it please! We're losing our identity every day
Alexa Ray	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I'm tired of seeing landmarks like this demolished and not creatively incorporated into new development. Please consider keeping this landmark alive.
Zach Knox	Spring, TX	2015-10-05	I've performed there, witnessed spectacles of amazing talent and beauty there and I'm sick of Austin destroying that which used to make it great stuart casey	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	This is one of east austin's crown jewels. If Pine Street Station were to disappear, it'd be a blow to the community that lives East Austin's mantra of originality, expression and collaboration, as well as the communities that visit the area regularly to get a taste of that life.
Carolyn Pavlik	Kalamazoo, MI	2015-10-05	Historic buildinggreat artist
Wendy kyle	Topanga, CA	2015-10-05	I luv Pine St station! It's an important part of the community.

Kyle Wilson	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	It doesn't need to be changed, it has more worth than that of a brand new Condo. Many soul's have passed through these walls.
Natalie Scott	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	the cultural events and community impact that Pine Street Station has provided for Austin over the past 30 years.
brooke gonzales	Taylor, TX	2015-10-05	I love the pine st. Station!
Kathryn Millan	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I have attended many arts events, readings and musical events at Pine Street Station, as well as the farmer's market. I have supported Reji in her community endeavors and have been one of the artists that was able to have a presence at EAST because she makes her space available to others. It is a marvelous old building with beautiful trees. It is nice to keep a semblance of old Austin. This city has sold its soul to developers. There are already many apartments on that stretch. We can't have the apartment complexes everywhere. This old station has so much character. It sits so well on its corner. It is a soothing place, actually, with the old trees around it. Please preserve some historic aspects of East Austin.
Manuel Arsiaga	Waco, TX	2015-10-05	I want to save Pine Street Station it has been an oasis of art culture music and an atmosphere that has not only kept Austin weird but also been the driving force behind being creative here in the Austin area they gave artists a home away from home.
Nevin Watkins	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I love this place.
Jeffrey Edwards	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	10 years of my blood sweat and tears are in that building.
Alvaro Zermeno	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I have great memories here as a participant of many of their great art shows
Sebastien Coles	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I've had many good memories in this building and it has character and a history and life to it. Tearing down things senselessly for progress sake is ridiculous. Let the city retain some of it's former identity. Let it still have a soul. Slow down and stop gentrification. It doesn't have to be like this.
Cynthia Alderete-Earle	Wimberley, TX	2015-10-05	Save Pine Street Studio Save the arts!
Angel Laveaux	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I love this place.
Brandon Wallace	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	We need our artistic and historic centers intact in our community. Regi Thomas owns the Pine Street Station. To take it from her only to give it to another, wealthier constituent that will further develop a new set of high-rises and/or trendy shops is unacceptable, and not the purpose of eminent domain (unless the seizure is for legitimate public use).
helen daley	chelsea, MI	2015-10-05	I have spent happy hours in this building. It is important that Austin retain the buildings and features which make it the special quirky city which it is and we dearly hope it remains.
Jean Marie Pennington	Albuquerque, NM	2015-10-05	I am a supporter of Austin culture.
Acacia Mack	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I learned a lot there.
Harald Nicolas Stazol	Germany	2015-10-05	I love history
Becky Schmitz	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	Pine Street Station is one of the only in house artist communities available in Austin. Not only does it give artist's and patrons a like a place to share and indulge in artistic culture, but it is a historic landmark. The seizure of this property was a great mistake, demolishing this landmark will ruin a HUGE part of what the Austin art scene is all about. To anyone attacking this opportunistic land mark, SHAME ON YOU!
Jeffrey Turrow	Moorpark, CA	2015-10-05	I trust my fellow associates and their causes to save historical landmarks

Clair Cole	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I want to keep Austin the genuine, creative, beautiful city I grew up in.
Marisol Andres	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I love and support Pine Street Station
Shannon Fannin	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I am an artist that has shown with this gallery twice. This is an Austin landmark. Reji and her staff have always supports local artists, and it would be heartbreaking to lose such an important venue.
Mary Baughman	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I support local artists.
Angelina Zulas	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I'm signing because this building means so much to so many. Artists from all over this city and beyond have used this space as a collaborative way to showcase artistry and culture to the community.
Kimberly Huey	Round Rock, TX	2015-10-05	Save Pine St. STation! It's an Austin landmark! One of the first places which struck my eye when I moved here from MX citya new found painter with a lost guitar.
F. Hunter Jones	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	That building was a piece of Austin and nurturing place for dozens of artists to collaborate and grow. It cannot be replaced. You would be destroying a piece of what made Austin so great to begin with.
Stacy Rodolph	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	I support Pine St Station and don't want it to be torn down!
jules esh	Chicago, IL	2015-10-05	Austin and the character that attracts so many to the city is being torn to the ground without a second thought to make room for high rises, chains and parking lots. It's disgusting and a real shame. Sad. Wish we would take the time to appreciate these special places and find sustainable ways to keep Austin, Austin.
Luis Giraldo	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	This is art and austin east side and city wide history
Debra Hines	Austin, TX	2015-10-05	It is a historic landmark that should be preserved for the community.
rebecca lobas	Seven Hills, OH	2015-10-05	I want to keep Austin weird!!
Nickole Bobley	Spring, TX	2015-10-06	I am signing because my friend Hunter Jones produced art here. It is a special place where art is sacred and artists exchange ideas and support one another. Places like this are important to society at large. Keep it as is a home for artists to do their work. Thank you.
Dan LYnch	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	the space is a creative venue for up and coming artists of all types. Austin is quickly loosing affordable performance and gallery space in the city.
Melissa McCall	Sedro-Woolley, WA	2015-10-06	I am an artist from Austin TX and Pine Street Station is a place where artists and people alike can coexist in a creative space and share ideas, good times and good art. It is a collaborative underground artist community that thrives here and it's an Austin staple for artisans alike to expand so please let us keep this beautiful space that inspires so many people.
Brian Hill	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	love this place!
Andrew Fender	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	I'm signing because I want to keep my city the way it has always been.
Jennifer Ramirez	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	I'm in support of saving Pine Street as a venue for the love & support it has shown to local art & artists, focusing on art that is raw, unique & on the fringe. This is where I first truly immersed myself into the local art scene & met many of the artist I now call friends.
Berlynn Rojas	Pflugerville, TX	2015-10-06	Pine street hold a lot of memories and history!
Mary Gordon	New York, NY	2015-10-06	Because saving it is the right thing to do to save the artistic soul of Austin.
Collin Decker	Denton, TX	2015-10-06	You're a fool if you don't.
Nicole Cruz	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	sacred land inches
Thryn Murray	Chicago, IL	2015-10-06	I love this place.

Jonathan King	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	This city has lost its soul and the city officials don't give a rat's a because they are as corrupt as much as governor Wheels.
Pamela Crawford	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	The history of Austin is being demolished and replaced with sterile non descript lofts. Lets save some of our culture!
Holli Winfree	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	this is what makes Austin, Austin. Keep our history alive! It's so important for our community and to share these amazing landmarks to friends/family who travel to see Austin. It's comforting to live in a community that has culture and history. Our austinites love to show our new friends what we love about our city. If this continues, what exactly will we love anymore? Austin is special! After being in another state for 11 years I made my way back, as the city and the amazing people here pulled me back to my home. A home in which I barely recognize. However, what remains I hold dear, as so many others do.
Barbara Kirkendall	Laguna Hills, CA	2015-10-06	I lived in Austin and remember the historic building and want to save it for future generations
Sandy Collins	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	I'm interesting in saving what little left of Austin there is.
Andrew Kownacki	Leander, TX	2015-10-06	I am disheartened with the changes I have seen in the city of Austin since I've moved here. The displacement of local culture by wealthy living in high rise condos dictating what to do about the music on 6th street, and actually winning is idiotic, the removal of the food trailers on south congress, and I am fervent about an artists space where they work. Many people do not know the difficulty in procuring such a space, and beaches the affluent often describe it as an eyesore, it shouldn't give the offended eye to do a damn thing about it. Austin needs its flavor of funky things and the people who make it unique.
Don Cowley	Pflugerville, TX	2015-10-06	I want to
William Heath	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	Im signing this petition because developers are looting the East Austin recklessly displacing many people. The record jumps in property values are harming creative communities and forcing manu people to leave our city.
Tom Blacker	London, United Kingdom	2015-10-06	I wish you luck in saving your businesses
jacob mauldin	austin, TX	2015-10-06	Artistic expression as well as newer heritage is extremely important to stay true to and to recognize the beautiful things that made this city so amazing, and cherish them.
Sardo Numspa	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	Art
Nora Hansel	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	I grew up in Austin and have seen it change a lot. Pine st station is a piece of old austin community and while we can't stop changes from happening, we can refuse to let a vital piece of culture be destroyed.
Debi Sigrest	Pflugerville, TX	2015-10-06	Austin as changed so much in my lifetime that I want to keep as much of it the same as possible.
Jacob Wilson	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	pine st station is part of the history of this city. It has been kept in excellent condition. Save more than toilet rooms!!
Michael Thomas	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	Keep Austin weird and classy.
Shauna Woullard	Austin, TX	2015-10-06	Pine Street Station has been a vital part of the East Austin art scene and should be recognized as an Austin Historic Landmark.
Noe Flores	Tempe, AZ	2015-10-06	Keep art alive
Amy Beaman	Burbank, CA	2015-10-06	I'm a realtor, if like to change development some day.
sherrill broussard	San Antonio, TX	2015-10-06	An artist created his art there.

logan pentecost	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	I have loved this place, and have helped set up many shows here. This place is like a home, and so many memories for SXSW were made here shannon boxell	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	The art culture in this City makes it a unique and wonderful place. This is what needs to be preserved in Austin
Nancy Yslas	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	Freedom of art is an expression of humanity, history of austin need to no disapear
Louis Castillo	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	Save Austin.
staci wilt	spring, TX	2015-10-07	austin doesn't need another crane or high rise condo in it's skyline.
Jennifer Kleiman	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	We need to keep some of what made austin the great creative city it is instead of building more freakin' condos
Carol Nichols	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	We're losing too much to develop every square foot of Austin. Save this property.
Jacob Koehler	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	Apparently you have to sign things all the time to keep culture alive in Austin anymore.
Ruben Gaztambide	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	We are destroying our city and all its character in the name of profit david braddy	austin, TX	2015-10-07	I love my town. Stop the development. Keep old places. Please. Do it.
Mollie Gattin	Waxahachie, TX	2015-10-07	Historical buildings should be preserved.
Emily Steinberg	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	Preserve Austin's history and uniqueness!
Raul Jimenez	Tyler, TX	2015-10-07	Local art needs a place to live and thrive. Please don't tear this place down!
Bug Davidson	Roxbury, MA	2015-10-07	I saw Reji Thomas speak before the commission end of last month, I support her efforts and think her work should be honored, not thrown away for fat cat developers.
Natassia Smith	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	There are other alternatives to demo! Keep it as a cultural center as well as a transportation hub!
Adrienne Balkany	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	This is historic and needs to be preserved. Find something else to tear down.
Kelsey Moore	Tampa, FL	2015-10-07	This artist/owner was awesome and a big influence on young artists. His studio needs to stay!! Please don't bulldoze MORE of Austin's history!!
Emily Francis	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	ive showed art here before, they opened their doors to me as a young artist, they deserve to keep their doors open.
Karoline Spence	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	I'm signing because we shouldn't do away with all of the things that give Austin character.
Genevieve Grinstad	Austin, TX	2015-10-07	I want the community who lives in the neighborhood to have a say in what buildings get demolished, and how the pace of the place we live and work changes.
Natalie Lake	Austin, TX	2015-10-08	I love this building. It meets every definition of historical. It is a piece of art history of old Austin. Please keep it.
Traa Anders	Austin, TX	2015-10-08	This site is an integral part of Austin's history and a big part of the art community here.
Breanna Johnson	Austin, TX	2015-10-08	Love this place!

Llory Wilson	Port Townsend, WA	2015-10-13	Pine Street Station housed the creative soul and spirit of Reji Thomas for decades. Because of her vision, many more artists created there as well. To demolish a vortex of creativity- is this what Austin lets happen?
Nailah I Akinyemi- Sankofa	Austin, TX	2015-10-14	I'm signing because this art space is/was a vital and much needed support system for the arts in [East] Austin. Pine Street Station is an important/iconic space in Austin and has historical significance Austin art scene; as well as Austin history. No other space like this existed before Reji Thomas created/opened it and none will probably ever come again if it is taken away. Tearing down this space would be like tearing down a historic church, the tower at UT or picking up and moving Lady Bird Lake. We need this space and history to remain in place and supported!
Adrienne Isom	Austin, TX	2015-10-14	It is essential that we preserve historic buildings, and items. RE: Pine Street Station, 414 Waller

To Interested Parties:

Elizabeth Purcell and other interested citizens attended our meeting on Wednesday, October 14th 2015 to voice their concerns about the future of the property at 414 Waller (Pine Street Station). It appears that there is some confusion as to whether the property is eligible for historic zoning and/or other historic designations. The Travis County Historical Commission would like to see a clarification of the historic status of the site and the improvements as well as the future plans for the property.

Our interest in this area extends to the entire project since the proposed Saltillo Plaza Development occupies the historic footprint of the Masontown freedmen's colony of the late 1800's. We feel it important that all due diligence be performed to identify and document any and all historic properties in the area of potential effect of the development, and recognition of those sites felt to be significant.

Respectfully yours,

1101 E. 5th and 414 Waller - Plaza Saltillo Development

Elizabeth,

Yes, as you and I discussed, my letter was intended as a comment on the activity itself for the track relocation. Based on my letter as written and my recollection of the project, we did not think the track relocation would have any effect on historic properties. I specifically did not comment on the eligibility of the buildings in my response about the project.

Please let me know if you have any more questions.

Thank you,

Linda

to Steve, Kalan, Iorelei, Madeline, Grace, Mary, Terri, Arif, Emily, Blake, Michelle, David, reji, Pamela,

YES, I can most certainly see art classes in this space. I guess it will be private lessons. One student, One desk and a easel. Max occupancy in that space will be.....5. Isn't the occupancy for a 558 sq. ft. spaced, based on a business occupancy 1/100? So 5 1/2 people max. will be allowed in that building at one time if they get it zoned business. But they said they would have art classes.

TABLE 1004.1.1 MAXIMUM FLOOR AREA ALLOWANCES PER OCCUPANT FUNCTION OF SPACE FLOOR AREA IN SQ. FT. PER OCCUPANT

Business areas 100 gross

Educational Classroom area Shops and other vocational room areas 20 net 50 net

OOPS! Does this really look like they have any good intentions for any of this property? The CO on this building will not accommodate more than 5 and 1/2 people if they zone it as a business. But they are going to have art in there?

Ya right! Where?

to Steve, Kalan, Iorelei, Madeline, Grace, Mary, Terri, Arif, Emily, Blake, Michelle, David, reji, Pamela,

I was not correct. The only two rooms big enough to have classrooms total 268 sq. ft. which would be counted under Shops and other vocational room areas at 50 net leaving an occupancy of 5.36 occupants allowed in the building at one given time. Art classes would not fall under "classes" because an art class would require hands on. So in this instance they could not even fit in a half a person. Now of course they could have it as an Art Gallery which would make it assembly which is 5 net which is standing room only. But they will have no walls left to display art work on because there will only be one wall left that will not exist when they remove the doors and the pass through window that the dispatcher used to sit and monitor the deliverables to Humble Oil. That window is truly one of the most remarkable parts of this building. Oh, but thats right, the new owner has a place for these art classes. Is that what Capital Metro said? A Bathroom or a side bar? And according to Steve a Plaque is not even proposed. Only Photo documentation of these buildings.

TWENTY PROPERTIES. NUMBER 7 ON THE MAP IS THE PROPERTY WE HAVE HAD A DIALOGUE REGARDING FOR OVER A YEAR. ATTACHED ARE THREE OF THE HUNDREDS OF PAGES OF DOCUMENTS THAT ARE PUBLISHED ON THE CITY OF AUSTIN WEBSITE. FOR 13 MONTHS CAPITAL METRO HAS OPENLY STATED THAT THESE BUILDINGS HAVE BEEN DOCUMENTED TO HAVE NO HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE. THESE DOCUMENTS WERE ONLY FOR THE RELOCATION OF THE TRACKS AND NOT FOR THE BUILDINGS. During a subsequent eviction hearing, Ms. Thomas did not contest Capital Metro's assertion that she was in default under the terms of her lease. At that time, the judge awarded possession of the building to Capital Metro and gave Ms. Thomas five days to vacate the property in compliance with the law. Capital Metro has been working with Ms. Thomas for several weeks to make arrangements to vacate the property. Capital Metro has granted Ms. Thomas two time extensions to remove her belongings.

Recently, a series of articles have appeared in the Austin Chronicle regarding the Pine Street Station property, located at 5th and Waller. The articles contain several inaccuracies that we are seeking to clarify now.

Ms. Reji Thomas was delinquent in rent owed to Capital Metro since last spring and notice was sent to her in July that she was in default on her lease with the Authority. No effort or agreement was made to remedy the default on the lease and in September, Capital Metro proceeded with legal action to exict her from the property.

The building was reviewed by two outside organizations and in both cases it was determined that this building does not meet the requirements of a historical building. As part of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) review process required for potential future use of the property, the Texas Historical Commission determined that Capital Metro's proposed use of the property would have no effect on historical properties. We have provided the consultant's report regarding potential historical buildings on the site to Mr. Steve Sadowsky, the Historic Preservation Officer for the City of Austin for your review.

from the Capital Metro board in 2014 to build a mixture of housing, retail and a park on 10 acres in East Austin owned by the transit agency.

But more than 14 months later. Capital Metho and the Domain developer have yet to complete negotiations on a master development algement for the long-planned project on the former raily and just east of interstate 35. Capital Metro had spent almost $150,000 through June on outside legal help in hammering out the still incomplete agreement.

Reese Contractors to move the track to the strip's south side, near East Fourth Street, and add a second track alongside it for about 2.000 feet. But even that movement forward — delayed by two previous bid attempts that first yielded no takers, and then only one bidder could be hamstrung by lack of funding.

Endeavor, according to the minimal details provided publicly during the spring 2014 procurement battle with three other finalists, said it would build about 800 apartments on the site, with 25 percent of them defined as "affordable." Endeavor's pitch also included a 60,000-square-foot grocery store, 50,000 square feet of retail and a 1.7-acre park that would be dedicated to the city.

City Council Member Sabino "Pio" Renteria, whose District 3 includes the Saltillo tract, has been involved for years in discussions about what to do with the site. He and other neighborhood activists lobbied Capital Metro for well over a decade to develop the site in a way least likely to disrupt the area.

Renteria said it was his understanding that the deal has been held up, at least in part, by the need for the city to "vacate" ownership of short pieces of side streets such as Brushy, Medina and San Marcos that intrude into the site. Beyond that, Renteria said, Endeavor would now like permission to build a structure as high as 120 feet near I-35, an entitlement that losing bidder Saltillo Collaborative had said it wanted for a hotel. He also said that Endeavor, which at one time wanted to build the development in phases, now wants to do all of it in one phase.

COULD SOMEONE EXPLAIN WHAT IT MEANS THAT ENDEAVOR IS HELD UP BY THE NEED FOR THE CITY TO "VACATE" OWNERSHIP? TWENTY BUILDINGS. NONE OF WHICH CAPITAL METRO OWNED. TWENTY OF WHICH POSSIBLY COULD BE RECOGNIZED AS HISTORIC. TWENTY BUILDINGS THAT CAPITAL METRO HAS IN THE PROPOSED PLAZA SALTILLO DEVELOPMENT PLAN. I HAVE SUBMITTED A PIR FOR ALL INFORMATION RELATED TO ANY DEMOLITION PERMITS IN THIS VICINITY APPROVED BY THE HISTORICAL LANDMARK COMMISSION DATING FROM JULY 2013 TO PRESENT. SEVERAL OF THESE BUILDINGS HAVE ALREADY BEEN DEMOLISHED. WE ARE JUST HOPEFUL THAT THE PAPERWORK SUBMITTED FOR DEMOLITION PERMITS OF ANY OF THESE 20 BUILDINGS WAS NOT THE SAME PAPERWORK FILED ON THE "HUMBLE OIL DEPOT".

CAPITAL METRO'S DOCUMENTATION INDICATES PLANS TO MOVE ONLY THE TOILET ROOM, SMALL DISPATCH OFFICE, AND ENTRY WAY. THEY ARE NOT SHOWING ANY PLANS FOR RELOCATION OF ANY OF THE WAREHOUSE, WHICH WAS THE BACKBONE OF THE ORIGINAL HUMBLE OIL DEPOT, ALTHOUGH THAT HAS BEEN DECLARED HISTORIC.

THESE ERRONEOUS PLANS APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN APPROVED BY THE HISTORIC LANDMARK COMMISSION WHICH CONTRADICTS THEIR RULING.

CLEARLY, WHERE THE ORIGINAL BUILDING OF THE WAREHOUSE ENDS AND WHERE THEY ADDED ON BEFORE 1935 IS EVIDENT BY THE CHANGE IN SIZE OF THE LOADING DOCK DOORS AND WINDOWS.

THIS IS NOT ACCEPTABLE.

PICTURES ARE COMPLIMENTS OF CAPITAL METRO. PLEASE EXCUSE THEIR MISUSE OF THE WORD HISTORICAL WHICH SHOULD BE "HISTORIC SECTION" AND THE SPELLING ERROR ON THE WORD STATION. IT SHOULD BE PINE STREET STATION.
