Mr. Kleeman – received your phone message, but sorry, no confirmation from Brent/Chair yet on 12/9 special meeting date.

What I'm anticipating is that the case will be called into the record at the 11/9 meeting, so you will need to be there.

Re: Resubmittal of October 2011 Appeal of Approval of the Construction of an Outdoor Amphitheater; SP-2011-185C and associated Restrictive Covenant ("Site Plan"); and Resubmittal of May 2013 Appeal of a Building Permit 2013-002081 PR ("Building Permit"); 53 Acres Located at 8901 S. H. 71 W

Dear Chairman Harding and Members of the Board of Adjustment:

This firm represents the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association ("HCEHOA") and the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association ("CBPOA") (collectively, "Appellants"). With this letter, I am re-filing copies of the appeals originally submitted to City staff in October 2011 and May 2013. The purpose of this letter is to explain why these appeals are just now being forwarded to the Board of Adjustment ("BOA") and to demonstrate that Appellants have diligently sought to have these appeals heard by the BOA.

The 53 acres located at 8901 S.H. 71 West ("Property") is situated between and among the Hill Country Estates, Covered Bridge, and West View Estates neighborhoods. At all times, the Property has been zoned Rural Residential ("RR").

On October 12, 2011, staff administratively approved the Site Plan and associated Restrictive Covenant that authorized the construction of a large permanent outdoor amphitheater as a principal use under Religious Assembly and also made outdoor concerts, theatrical performances, and other events as principal uses under Religious Assembly. On October 21, 2011, Appellant HCEHOA appealed the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant. A complete copy of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant appeal is enclosed ("Site Plan Appeal"). The Land Use Determinations regarding the outdoor amphitheater and outdoor activities made in approving the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant are the subject of the Site Plan Appeal.

Despite filing of the Site Plan Appeal within 20 days of the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant and meeting all other requirements of the City Code to have standing to appeal, City staff did not forward the appeal to the BOA. Exhibit 1. Staff asserted that all Land Use Determinations regarding the outdoor amphitheater and the outdoor activities were made in a December 23, 2008 private email from Director Guernsey to Carl Connelly and that all appeal rights relating to the December 23, 2008 email expired in January 2009. Staff first notified Appellants and the public in July 2011 of the existence of the December 23, 2008 private email. Other than the reference to the December 2008 email, staff did not identify any other deficiencies in the Site Plan Appeal.

In March 2012, Appellants sued the City and Director Guernsey seeking, in part, a court order to compel City staff to forward the Site Plan Appeal to the BOA. The City filed a motion challenging Appellants' right to even bring the lawsuit and asked to have the lawsuit dismissed. In May 2013, the trial court granted the City's motion to dismiss the lawsuit. Appellants appealed the trial court ruling.

In May 2013, the City approved the first building permit for the outdoor amphitheater. Appellants submitted to City staff appeals of the approval of the Building Permit. Copies of the May 2013 appeals are enclosed ("Building Permit Appeals"). In June 2013 staff refused to forward the Building Permit Appeals to the BOA based on Appellants not filing an appeal within 20 days of the December 23, 2008 email. Exhibit 2. Other than the reference to the December 2008 email, staff did not identify any deficiency in the Building Permit Appeal. The Land Use Determinations regarding the outdoor amphitheater and outdoor activities made in approving the Building Permit are the subject of the Building Permit Appeal.

In July 2013, Appellants submitted to staff an appeal of staff's decision to not forward the Building Permit Appeal to the BOA ("Third Appeal"). Staff did not bother to respond to the Third Appeal. A copy of the Third Appeal is enclosed as Exhibit 3. The Third Appeal challenged the staff's decision to ignore Section 211.010(b), Texas Local Government Code that mandates that upon notice of the filing of an appeal, the responsible official shall immediately forward the file to the board of adjustment. Section 25-1-185 of the City Code imposes a similar mandate on staff.

There is a fourth appeal filed by Appellants in December 2013 challenging interpretations regarding Section 25-2-921(C) of the City Code that regulates outdoor activities. The interpretation of Section 25-2-921(C) is pivotal to the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeals. Staff also refused to forward this appeal to the BOA. Discussion of that appeal will be addressed later in the brief supporting the appeals.

The Court of Appeals issued a ruling in early May 2015 in favor of Appellant HCEHOA. During the three years the Appellants spent in litigation seeking to enforce their appeal rights, the outdoor amphitheater has been completed and has already hosted 9 concerts and one movie between July 19, 2015 and September 20, 2015. Concert music is heard inside many homes in the Hill Country Estates neighborhood.

My clients are concerned that some may view the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeal as legally moot with the completion and operation of the outdoor amphitheater. The appeals are not moot for several reasons, including Sections 25-1-411 to 418 of the City Code that authorize the suspension and revocation of an improperly issued permit. The City conceded this point when the City opposed Appellants application to the Court of Appeals to issue its final order early so that Appellants could seek relief from the trial court before the City issued the certificate of occupancy for the outdoor amphitheater. The City argued, in part, that the Appellants would not suffer any loss of rights under the City Code:

“Appellants have adequate administrative avenues to challenge any action taken by the City before the trial court takes up the issue of Appellants’ first administrative appeal on the merits . . . if the City eventually agrees with Appellants, the sound permit and/or certificate of occupancy can be revoked even if already issued.” Exhibit 4.

On June 11, 2015, the Court of Appeals denied Appellants’ application for the early issuance of the Court’s final order. The City issued the certificate of occupancy for the outdoor amphitheater in early July 2015. On August 12, 2015 Brent Lloyd notified me that staff would forward the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeals to the BOA.

As previously stated, the purpose of this letter is to inform the BOA of the procedural history of the delays in the BOA receiving the appeals. A letter brief in support of the appeals will be submitted once a hearing date has been determined.

Sincerely,

SNEED, VINE & PERRY.P.C.

CITY OF AUSTIN
APPLICATION TO BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT
INTERPRETATIONS
PART I: APPLICANT'S STATEMENT
(Please type)

STREET ADDRESS: 8901 West State Highway 71, Austin, Texas 78736.

LEGAL DESCRIPTION: 53.11 acres as described in a Restrictive Covenant recorded in Document No. 2011146026, Official Public Records of Travis County, Texas ("Property")

_____
Lot (s) _____ Block _____ Outlot _____ Division _____

ZONING DISTRICT: RR

We, Kim Butler, on behalf of myself and as Authorized Agent for Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association and Frank Goodloe, on behalf of myself and as Authorized Agent for Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc., affirm that on May 28, 2013, we hereby apply for an interpretation hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

Planning and Development Review Department interpretations regarding building permit 2013-002081 PR ("Building Permit") are:

1. A building permit may be issued for an outdoor amphitheater within an RR zoning district to authorize outdoor amusement, outdoor social activities and outdoor recreation if the putative principal use is Religious Assembly.<sup>1</sup>
2. The decision to issue the building permit for the outdoor amphitheater in question necessarily includes the following interpretations:
  - a. Outdoor Religious Assembly activities are allowed by right in RR zoning districts.
  - b. The site development permit SP-2011-0185C authorizes outdoor Religious Assembly activities.
  - c. The site development permit SP-2011-0185C authorizes community recreation, club/lodge uses and activities in the amphitheater.
  - d. The site development permit SP-2011-0185C authorizes the amphitheater to be an outdoor amphitheater, meaning the amphitheater does not have to be a fully enclosed building.

- e. An outdoor amphitheater is a principal use under Religious Assembly.
  - f. Musical and theatrical performances, including ballets, concerts, and plays are principal uses or activities allowed under a Religious Assembly use.
  - g. The phrase "in a temporary or permanent building" in the definition of Religious Assembly means any structure that requires a building permit.
  - h. Principal uses under Religious Assembly, include, non-religious activities, community recreation, club/lodge activities, musical and theatrical performances and any type of fund raising activity as long as the religious entity receives financial benefits from the activity and do not require a conditional use permit in the RR zoning district.
3. City staff has the authority to determine the standing of an aggrieved party and the timeliness of any filed appeal without notifying the Board of Adjustment of the filing of the appeal.
  4. City staff has the authority under Section 25-2-2 and other provisions of the LDC to "back date" an interpretation and use the date selected by City staff as the basis for rejecting an appeal and not forwarding the appeal to the Board of Adjustment.
  5. City staff has the authority under Section 25-2-2, LDC to modify the scope and terms of a "back dated" interpretation and still refuse to forward to the Board of Adjustment an aggrieved party's appeal of the modified interpretation.
  6. The Director of the Planning and Development Review Department ("PDRD") has the authority under Section 25-2-2, LDC, to issue a use determination that converts a prohibited outdoor activity described in Section 25-2-921(C) into an allowed outdoor activity.
  7. The Director of PDRD has the authority under Section 25-2-2, LDC, to issue a use determination that converts a conditional use into a permitted use.
  8. The Director of PDRD has the authority, at his sole discretion, to enlarge, expand or add to activities allowed under a defined zoning use by entering into a contract with the landowner.
  9. The Director of PDRD has the authority to grant to a landowner vested rights to specific uses for a piece of property.

We feel the correct interpretations are:

1. Within the RR zoning district, Religious Assembly activities may occur only inside a fully enclosed permanent or temporary building.
2. Site Development Permit SP-2011-0185C authorizes only Religious Assembly activities in the amphitheater.

3. Pursuant to Section 25-2-6(B)(41), LDC, the only allowed uses under Religious Assembly are "organized religious worship and religious education. Private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities are excluded from the Religious Assembly use.
4. The amphitheater shown on Site Development Permit SP-2011-0185C must be a fully enclosed building because Section 25-2-921(C) prohibits outdoor Religious Assembly. Other outdoor activities are also prohibited in the RR zoning district.
5. Community recreation and club/lodge uses and facilities are not allowed on the property because no conditional use permit has been issued to authorize these uses and activities.
6. Outdoor public, religious, patriotic, or historic assembly or exhibit, including a festival, benefit, fund raising event, or similar use that typically attracts a mass audience are prohibited in the RR, SF-1, SF-2 and SF-3 zoning districts.
7. For purposes of Section 25-2-921(C), LDC the term "outdoor" means a space that is not fully enclosed in a building by permanent, solid walls and a roof.
8. A permanent outdoor venue cannot be constructed if the uses of the venue are prohibited from taking place outdoors.
9. Musical and theatrical performances, including ballets, concerts, and plays are not principal or incidental uses or activities allowed under a Religious Assembly use.
10. An aggrieved party, who is not the permit applicant, may appeal a permit approval, including a permit that incorporates an earlier interpretation by City staff.
11. All appeals filed with the Board of Adjustment must be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. Only the Board of Adjustment has the authority to make determinations of standing and timeliness.
12. The Director of PDRD does not have the authority under Section 25-2-2, LDC to make outdoor activities prohibited by Section 25-2-921(C) permitted uses.
13. The Director of PDRD does not have the authority to under Section 25-2-2, LDC to convert a conditional use to a permitted use.
14. The Director of PDRD does not have the authority to enter into contracts with a landowner that grant the landowner special privileges, including expansion of the type of uses and activities that may occur under a defined zoning use. Land use and zoning are regulatory functions and should not be implemented through contracts unless approved by the City Council.
15. The Director of PDRD does not have the authority to grant vested rights to specific uses and structures on a piece of property.

NOTE: The board must determine the existence of, sufficiency of and weight of evidence supporting the findings described below. Therefore, you must complete each of the applicable findings statements as part of your application. Failure to do so may result in your application being rejected as incomplete. Please attach any additional support documents.

1. There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to the specific intent of the regulations or map in that:

The decision to issue the Building Permit includes an interpretation of the uses allowed under Religious Assembly that differs significantly from the requirements found in Chapter 25-2 of the Land Development Code ("LDC"). First, the folder on the City of Austin website for this building permit shows the following uses: Religious Assembly, amusement, social and recreation building. The description of the uses allowed under the building permit include uses that are in the nature of community recreation and club/lodge which are explicitly excluded from the description of Religious Assembly: "The use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities." (emphasis added) A copy of the folder on the building permit as it appears on the City of Austin website is included with this appeal.

Second, the description of Religious Assembly specifies two allowed activities: organized religious worship and religious education. The Building Official has ignored this limitation and expanded the principal uses allowed under Religious Assembly to include musical and theatrical performances, and exhibits, including festivals, benefits, fund raising events and similar uses that attract a mass audience.

Third, the Building Official has ignored the prohibitions of Section 25-2-921(C), LDC and has issued a building permit for a permanent outdoor venue in a RR zoning district to be used for prohibited activities and has authorized activities that are explicitly prohibited.

Fourth, the building permit describes the amphitheater as a recreational building associated with Religious Assembly. Community Recreation requires a conditional use permit in the RR zoning district. No such conditional use permit has been issued for the Property.

Fifth, Section 25-2-921(C), LDC modifies the phrase "in a permanent or temporary building" found in Section 25-2-6(B)(41), LDC to mean a fully enclosed building. Since Religious Assembly cannot take place outdoors in a RR zoning district, Religious Assembly must take place indoors. Therefore, the only reasonable interpretation of the word "building" in the description of Religious Assembly is a fully enclosed structure. For further guidance, Section 9-1-2(5) of the City Code defines "outdoor" to mean a space that is not fully enclosed by permanent, solid walls and a roof.

There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to the specific intent of the regulations controlling the procedures relating to the filing of an appeal of an administrative decision.

The Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association filed an appeal to the Board of Adjustment in October 2011 regarding 1) a restrictive covenant signed by the owner of the Property and approved by the Director of PDRD; and 2) the approval of site development permit SP-2011-0185(C). City staff decided that every issue raised in the appeal was untimely even though the appeal had been submitted to Susan Walker within 20 days of the date of the restrictive covenant and the approval of the site development permit.

City staff determined that all appeal issues had been decided in a December 23, 2008 private email from Greg Guernsey to Carl Conley. City staff "back dated" all administrative decisions contained in the restrictive covenant and the site development permit and claimed the appeal was not timely. The fact that the existence of this private email was kept from the appellants and their members for two and half years did not matter to staff. City staff decided that Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association did not have the right to appeal or even have its appeal forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. Likewise, City staff determined that the Board of Adjustment had no authority to review the decisions contained in the site development permit and the restrictive covenant. A copy of the 2011 Board of Adjustment appeal and cover letter are enclosed. The letter from City staff stating that no appeal rights existed is also enclosed.

Subsequently, Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association tendered an exhaustive analysis of how the restrictive covenant and the site development permit included new decisions and new interpretations. A copy of this letter is enclosed. Again, City staff refused to forward the appeal to this Board. A copy of the second denial letter is enclosed.

Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code ("TLGC") grants to an aggrieved person the right to appeal the decision of an administrative official to the Board of Adjustment. Section 211.010(b) TLGC mandates that "...the official from whom the appeal is taken shall immediately transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record of the action that is appealed." This is a non-discretionary obligation under state law. City staff cannot have the ability or authority to thwart appeal rights under Section 211.010(a)(1) TLGC by arbitrarily deciding which of its decisions can be appealed.

This state law provides the right to appeal a decision of an administrative official. The right of appeal also includes the right to have the appeal presented to the Board of Adjustment and to have the opportunity to be heard by the Board of Adjustment. Section 211.009(a) TLGC provides: "The board of adjustment may:(1) hear and decide an appeal that alleges error in an order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this subchapter or an ordinance adopted under this subchapter;" (emphasis added)

The word "may" means the Board of Adjustment decides whether it will hear an appeal and the Board of Adjustment will decide whether the appealing party has standing. These powers of the Board of Adjustment are also reflected in Chapter 25-2, LDC. The Board of Adjustment should have had the opportunity to decide whether it wanted to hear the appeal. As a policy matter, the Board of Adjustment should never be precluded from reviewing any administrative decision that an aggrieved party seeks to present to this Board.

The clear purpose of Section 211.009(a)(1) TLGC is to provide the public an avenue of appeal to administrative actions that an aggrieved person feels is wrong. Each property and each permit application is different. Community values and standards change over time. Every administrative decision should be subject to appeal, and if deemed appropriate by the Board of Adjustment, reviewed by the Board of Adjustment.

If the Director of PDRD is allowed to decide which of his or his staff's decisions are even forwarded to the Board of Adjustment, then the right of appeal granted by Section 211.009(a)(1) TLGC is completely nullified. The details of the illegal interference with the prior appeal are more thoroughly discussed in the enclosed standing letter.

There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to the specific intent of the regulations that allow the Director of PDRD to contractually grant vested rights to specific uses on a piece of property. Land use determinations and the decision to issue any permit are and should be regulatory in nature. The Land Development Code includes specific provisions that authorize the suspension and the revocation of a permit if it is determined that the permit has been issued in error. By approving the restrictive covenant, the Director of PDRD may have contractually granted the owner of the property in question an exemption from the City's permit revocation powers. Contract zoning is illegal. The Board of Adjustment should determine whether the Director of PDRD has the authority to waive the City's regulatory authority to review prior decisions.

2. An appeal of use provisions could clearly permit a use which is in character with the uses enumerated for the various zones and with the objectives of the zone in question because:

The character of the uses allowed in RR zoning is largely encompassed in two sections. Section 25-2-54, LDC describes the RR zoning district as follows: The Rural Residence (RR) district is the designation for a low density residential use on a lot that is a minimum of one acre. An RR district designation may be applied to a use in an area for which rural characteristics are desired or an area whose terrain or public service capacity require low density. (emphasis added)

Section 25-2-921(C), LDC prohibits outdoor religious assembly, public assembly or an outdoor exhibit, including a festival, benefit, fund raising event, or similar use that typically attracts a mass audience. The Building Official has no authority to even issue a temporary use permit for these types of outdoor activities in the RR, SF-1, SF-2 and SF-3 zoning districts.

Religious Assembly activities are strictly limited to organized religious worship and religious education because Religious Assembly is allowed in every residential zoning district. Requiring Religious Assembly to occur only inside enclosed buildings is an appropriate policy. Large outdoor gatherings of people on any residential lot owned by a religious organization could create significant traffic and noise impacts on the surrounding neighborhood. By requiring the gathering of large numbers of people to be indoors, the noise impacts of such gatherings are minimized. For the same reasons, community recreation and club/lodge are conditional uses in the low density residential zoning districts.

The building permit issued for the 1,000 seat outdoor amphitheater defines the uses of the outdoor amphitheater as Religious Assembly, amusement, social and recreation. The gathering of mass audiences to an outdoor entertainment venue violates the characteristics that the RR zoning district is supposed to protect. For this reason, community recreation is a conditional use in the RR zoning district.

3. The interpretation will not grant a special privilege to one property inconsistent with other properties or uses similarly situated in that:

The building permit issued for the outdoor amphitheater grants the applicant unprecedented special privileges. These special privileges are both procedural and substantive in nature.

First, the building permit authorizes the construction of a permanent outdoor structure to serve as the venue for outdoor activities that are prohibited in the RR zoning district by Section 25-2-921(C).

Second, the building permit grants the special privilege of authorizing additional principal uses under Religious Assembly. These new principal uses include community recreation, social activities, amusement, musical and theatrical performances, non-religious civic activities and exhibits, including festivals, benefits, fund raising events and similar uses that attract a mass audience so long as the non-profit owner of the property financially benefits from holding the non-religious event.

Third, the building permit grants the special privilege of authorizing outdoor Religious Assembly and the other previously described outdoor activities that Section 25-2-921(C) prohibits in the RR zoning district.

Fourth, the building permit authorizes community recreation and club/lodge uses without the requirement of a conditional use permit. According to the land use chart found in Section 25-2-491(C), community recreation and club/lodge uses are conditional uses in RR zoning. As a result, the building permit grants rights that are supposed to be granted only through the conditional use permit process.

Fifth, the building permit grants the special privilege of avoiding all public hearings on the proposed land uses. Other large religious assembly campuses were required to re-zone property to achieve approval of the uses granted administratively here.

For example, the ordinance adopting a Planned Unit Development zoning for the Riverbend Church authorizes many uses, including, commercial uses outdoor entertainment, indoor entertainment, theater, outdoor sports and recreation and civic uses Religious Assembly, public and private community recreation, club or lodge and camp.<sup>2</sup>

Similarly, the ordinance adopting the PUD for the Dell Jewish Center included civic uses club or lodge, outdoor sports and recreation, private and public community recreation, religious assembly and theater.<sup>3</sup>

Subject: PromiseLand West Church - SP-2011-0006C

Dear Mr. Hanrahan,

The applicant has represented to City staff that the proposed use of the site for PromiseLand West Church – SP-2011-0006C will be Religious Assembly, as defined by the Land Development Code 25-2-6 (B) (41). Greg Guernsey, Director of the Planning and Development Review Department (PDRD), determined in December 2008 that the proposed development met the requirements for a Religious Assembly use.

However, the 2008 use determination was made in response to a written request by Carl Conley of Conley Engineering, Inc. dated December 18, 2008, a copy of which is attached for your reference. As you can see, the request on which PDRD based its use determination included significant limitations on the nature and extent of the proposed amphitheater which ensure its consistency with a Religious Assembly land use.

Accordingly, any site plan approval for the project would be conditioned on the execution and recording of a public restrictive covenant that sets forth these specific limitations outlined in the 2008 request, as well as additional restrictions that “help to identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use.”

In particular, the 2008 request provided that the amphitheater would be used for the same type of religious activities as the 3500-seat indoor auditorium, including:

- “worship services, weddings, funerals, and educational and musical presentations”
- “non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc.”

The request also provided that any fees charged for an event would be “nominal” and used to “cover setup, clean up, utilities, and administrative and other operational expenses” or, in limited cases, contributions to benefit “an individual or group that has a special emergency need (i.e. a family whose house burned down) or for some charitable organizations." Compliance with "all of the City's ordinances, including sound levels at the boundary properties[.]" would also be required.

Since PDRD issued its 2008 determination, representations have been made regarding site uses that may go beyond the scope of a Religious Assembly use. The conditions outlined above, as set forth in the 2008 Conley letter, would effectively prohibit any such non-Religious Assembly uses at the site.

Hello Carl:

I have reviewed your letter and attachment. Since the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater are both being primarily used for religious assembly uses, I don't see a problem with these two facilities co-locating on the property. I understand that the educational and musical presentations will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use. I also understand the church will be compliant with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including the noise ordinance.

If the primary use of one or both of the facilities does change from a religious assembly use to an outdoor entertainment or an indoor entertainment use, a zoning change may be required.

Happy Holidays to you!

Greg

Morning Greg—

I was just checking to see if you received this e-mail last week and if you had a chance to look at it. The church is meeting this morning, and this is a very key issue for them.

Re: PromiseLand West Church
Amphitheater as an Accessory use

Dear Greg,

Thank you for meeting with me today to discuss whether an outdoor amphitheater is considered an accessory use to an overall religious assembly use under RR or SF-1 zoning.

The attached Conceptual Site Plan shows the overall project, including the primary church buildings and the outdoor Amphitheater. The church buildings include a typical indoor auditorium for 3500 seats. This indoor facility will be used for various religious assembly activities including worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations. This facility would also be available for non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc.. Again, these uses would be for non-profit activities. Like most churches, they may charge a nominal fee to the users to cover setup, clean up, utilities, and administrative and other operational expenses. There may be some activities that would include a fee that would be used to provide benefit to an individual or group that had a special emergency need (i.e. a family whose house burned down) or for some charitable organizations. All of these are typical of the use of a church facility. The church would not typically provide a venue for commercial "for profit" organizations.

The amphitheater would be used for the exact same type activities as the indoor auditorium but in an outdoor setting. This would be on a "weather permitting" basis while taking advantage of the natural environmental surroundings. As we discussed, the use of the amphitheater (along with any other use on the property) would be subject to all of the City's ordinances, including sound levels at the property boundaries. The church

28

Mr. Greg Guernsey

would also entertain the concept of a voluntary restrictive covenant that would help identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use.

The church has met with the adjoining neighborhood representatives and have offered to restrict uses of the amphitheater, including dates, times and incorporate sound attenuation design techniques, in order to assure the compatibility with the adjoining residential uses. PromiseLand Church will continue to work with the neighbors even after any permits are issued to work toward being a good neighbor in the surrounding community.

Please let me know if you need anything else to help you in your determination as to whether the amphitheater is an accessory use to the primary use of religious assembly.

Thanks for your consideration on this very important issue for this church.

Sincerely,

Conley Engineering Inc.

Re: Appeal of Land Use Determination Interpretation; Dream City Development; SP-2011-0186C ("Permit"); 53.113 Acres Located at 8901 W. Hwy 71 ("Property")

Dear Mr. Lloyd:

On October 21, 2011 the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association ("HCE") filed an appeal of certain land use determinations embedded in the approval of the Permit, including, the October 2, 2011 public restrictive covenant recorded in Document No. 2011146026 Official Public Records of Travis County, Texas ("Restrictive Covenant"). On behalf of HCE, this letter responds to your October 27, 2011 letter which provides the reasons for the City of Austin's denial of the HCE appeal. Attached to your letter were copies of a December 17, 2008 letter from Carl Conley to Greg Guernsey, a December 23, 2008 email from Greg Guernsey to Carl Conley and a July 13, 2011 letter from George Zapalac to Larry Hanrahan.

In your letter you write that the City denied HCE's appeal because City Code Section 25-1-182 requires that an administrative appeal be submitted no later than 20-days after the decision was made. You note that the "decision" to allow the construction of the outdoor amphitheater as part of religious assembly use was made by Director Guernsey on December 23, 2008. Your letter neither describes any other "decisions" regarding uses allowed on the Property nor identifies any other basis for rejecting the HCE Appeal.

HCE disputes the City's conclusion that all of the HCE appeal issues are encompassed within the December 23, 2008 email. HCE contends that the issues raised in the HCE appeal pertain to interpretations and determinations that appear for the first time in the Restrictive Covenant.

Director Guernsey executed the Restrictive Covenant in the same capacity that he issued the December 23, 2008 email. As you state in your letter, a land use determination can be informal but will typically have the same date of that the site plan or permit is approved. In light of the City's claim that the December 23, 2008 email constitutes a formal land use determination under Section 25-2-2 (even though the email does not reference such a legal status), HCE contends that the Restrictive Covenant must be accorded the same legal status to the extent that the Restrictive Covenant exceeds or differs from the terms of the December 23, 2008 email. HCE filed its appeal on October 21, 2011 within 20 days of the execution of the Restrictive Covenant by Greg Guernsey. Without waiving its assertion that the December 23, 2011 email is a legally invalid determination under Section 25-2-2, HCE maintains that its appeal was timely filed regarding the expansion of the definition of "religious assembly" and other provisions in the Restrictive Covenant that are beyond the terms and conditions of the December 23, 2008 email. The HCE appeal should be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment for consideration of the appeal issues described below.

FACTS RELATING TO HCE APPEAL

CARL CONLEY LETTER

In his December 17, 2008 letter to Greg Guernsey Carl Conley wrote: "The church building includes a typical indoor auditorium for 3500 seats. This indoor facility will be used for various religious assembly activities including worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations."

Mr. Conley goes on to write that the church building will be used for "non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scouts/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc. Again, these uses would be for non-profit activities...There may be some activities that would include a fee that would be used to provide benefit to an individual or group that had a special emergency need...or for some charitable organizations. All of these are typical of the use of a church facility." (emphasis added)

Mr. Conley clearly distinguishes "religious assembly" uses (worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations) from "civic" uses (neighborhood meetings, boy scouts/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings and charity events). Mr. Conley also states that the civic uses he described are typical uses of a church facility. He does not contend that these civic uses constitute "religious assembly."

GREG GUERNSEY DECEMBER 23, 2008 EMAIL

In response to Mr. Conley's letter, Director Guernsey sent the December 23, 2008 email:

"I have reviewed your letter and attachment. Since the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater are both being primarily used for religious assembly uses, I don't see a problem with these two facilities co-locating on the property. I understand that the educational and musical presentations will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use. I also understand the church will be complaint [sic] with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including the noise ordinance." (emphasis added)"

If the primary use of one or both of the facility does change from a religious assembly use to an outdoor entertainment or an indoor entertainment use, a zoning change may be required."

In the emphasized sentence, Director Guernsey states that the "religious assembly" use (regularly scheduled religious worship or religious education) must be the predominate use of the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater. Mr. Guernsey places two limitations on "educational and musical presentations." One, they must be "limited in scope," meaning, in part, of short duration. Two, they are subordinate to the primary use of religious assembly, meaning the frequency of "educational and musical presentations" must be much less than "religious assembly" activities.

Director Guernsey does not mention any of the civic uses described by Mr. Conley in his December 17, 2008 letter. Mr. Guernsey's email does not incorporate or adopt the Carl Conley letter. There is no basis to interpret Mr. Guernsey's email as interpreting a "religious assembly" use to include the "civic" uses described in Conley's letter. Instead, Mr. Guernsey states that the church must comply with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including, presumably, Chapter 25-2 which establishes allowable uses in RR zoning districts.

JULY 13, 2011 GEORGE ZAPALAC LETTER

The July 13, 2011 George Zapalac letter to Larry Hanrahan includes the following:

"The applicant has represented to City staff that the proposed use of the site for Promiseland West Church – SP-2011-0006C will be Religious Assembly, as defined by the Land Development Code 25-2-6(B)(41)...As you can see, the request on which PDRD based its use determination included significant limitations on the nature and extent of the proposed amphitheater which ensure its consistency with a Religious Assembly use. (emphasis added)

Accordingly, any site plan approval for the project would be conditioned on the execution and recording of a public restrictive covenant that sets forth these specific limitations outlined in the 2008 request, as well as additional restrictions that "help to identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use."

Since PDRD issued its 2008 determination, representations have been made regarding site uses that may go beyond the scope of a Religious Assembly use. The conditions outlined above, as set forth in the 2008 Conley letter, would effectively prohibit any such non-Religious Assembly uses at the site." (emphasis added)

Mr. Zapalac's letter is quoted here to establish that Mr. Guernsey's December 23, 2008 "determination" had not be superseded by any subsequent land use determination. In his letter, Mr. Zapalac incorrectly describes the "non-religious non profit civic uses" outlined in Mr. Conley's letter as "religious activities." Mr. Zapalac's error is of no import because he does not have the authority to make or issue a land use determination under Section 25-2-2 of the Land Development Code.

Mr. Zapalac does acknowledge that public statements made by the applicant regarding its intended use of the outdoor amphitheater for various activities that could fall outside of the scope of a religious assembly use, as defined in the Land Development Code. Mr. Zapalac's comment comports with City staff site plan review comment SP-15, update 1 for SP-2011-0006C<sup>1</sup>. As you know, HCE and other nearby neighborhoods have provided the City examples of repeated statements by the applicant that the applicant intended to use the outdoor amphitheater for non-religious assembly uses. Mr. Zapalac's letter and Staff comments strongly support the conclusion that the one or more of the applicant's intended uses of the outdoor amphitheater, as reported in the media and on the applicant's blog, were not authorized by the December 23, 2008 email.

Notwithstanding the Staff's recognition that the applicant's intended uses of the amphitheater exceeded the limitations of the December 23, 2008 email, the City executed the Restrictive Covenant.

NEW INTERPRETATIONS IN THE RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

HCE appealed four interpretations embedded in the approval of the Permit and the Restrictive Covenant.<sup>2</sup> HCE appeal issues 2 and 3 address the Planning and Development Review Department interpretation: [2] "that expands the definition of Religious Assembly (25-2-6(41)) to include "musical and theatrical performances" and concerts, if the concert is held for a charitable purpose;" and [3] "that an outdoor amphitheater that seats 1,000 people is a principal use of the property if the applicant claims a Religious Assembly use." (emphasis added). Appeal point 3 means that City staff accept a use as allowed under "religious assembly" merely on the basis of the applicant claim the use was a religious assembly use.

Below is a list of the new interpretations and determinations that are materially different than the interpretation of December 23, 2008. To the extent that these interpretations are different from the terms of the December 23, 2008 email, they constitute new interpretation under Section 25-2-2 that HCE timely appealed.

1. The Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "religious assembly" use to include "theatrical performances." If the Restrictive Covenant complied with the interpretation found in the December 23, 2008 email, the term "theatrical performances" would not have been included at all.
2. Section I.C of the Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "religious assembly" use to include "charitable events." The Carl Conley letter describes charitable events as "non-religious non-profit civic uses." The December 23, 2008 email does not mention any of the civic uses described by Mr. Conley and certainly does not categorizes "non-religious non-profit civic uses" as within the category of "religious assembly" use.
3. The Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "musical or theatrical performances" (Section I.A.2) as principal or primary uses under "religious assembly." In the December 23, 2008 email, "musical presentations" were required to be subordinate to the primary use of religious assembly and to be of limited scope. The uses described in Restrictive Covenant Section I.C, regarding "occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances," can only be interpreted as placing "concerts and performances" within the category of "musical or theatrical performances" found in Restrictive Covenant Section I.A.

In contrast to Sections I.A and I. C, Section I.B lists "customary and incidental accessory uses" associated with "religious assembly" use. If the Restrictive Covenant complied with the interpretations in the December 23, 2008 email, then Section I.B would have included "musical presentations" and Section I.C would not have been included at all.

4. The Restrictive Covenant provision that a benefit concert or performance is a principal use without any objective limitation on the frequency of such events is materially different than the December 23, 2008 email interpretation of "musical presentation" as a secondary or subordinate use. The only apparent attempt in the Restrictive Covenant to limit the number of concerts and "performances" is the word "occasional." The Restrictive Covenant, however, does not define the term "occasional." As a result, the Restrictive Covenant does not place any objective limit on the frequency of benefit concerts or charitable events as required by the December 23, 2008 email.

5. Unlike the text of the December 23, 2008 email, the Restrictive Covenant does not require "regularly scheduled worship or religious education" to be the predominate use of either building.

6. The Restrictive Covenant does not contain the "limited in scope" constraint on "educational and musical presentations" found in the December 23, 2008 email. The Restrictive Covenant can be interpreted to authorize concerts, which by definition and experience, are not limited in scope or duration.

7. In the December 23, 2008 email Mr. Guernsey wrote that he had "no problem" with the worship building and outdoor amphitheater co-locating on property if both are being used primarily for religious assembly uses. Section 25-2-6(41) defines Religious Assembly use as:

"regular organized religious worship or religious education in a permanent or temporary building. The use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities." (emphasis added)

Under this Land Development Code definition, "religious assembly" has a narrow definition that excludes many other uses which are commonly associated with a church or a "religious assembly" use structure. Mr. Conley is correct when he wrote: "All of these [non-religious non-profit civic uses] are typical of the use of a church facility." Under the Land Development Code, the use of a church facility for "civic uses" does not, however, result in a code amendment that adds "non-religious non-profit civic uses" to the allowed activities under "religious assembly" use. As you know, the Land Development Code includes other defined land use categories, such as, "club or lodge" and "community recreation-private," that encompass the "non-religious non-profit civic uses mentioned by Mr. Conley.

Under Section 25-2-491, "club or lodge" and "community recreation" (private and public) are conditional uses in the RR zoning district. Mr. Guernsey does not have the authority to convert a conditional use into an allowed use much less to authorize a conditional use as a primary allowed use. The December 23, 2008 email did not articulate such an authorization; but the Restrictive Covenant does.

Riverbend Baptist Church ("Riverbend") and the Dell Jewish Center ("DJC") are examples of large campuses providing a variety of community services that are operated by a religious group. The respective PUD ordinance for each facility includes an extensive list of permitted and prohibited community and civic oriented uses, including, "club or lodge," "community recreation" (private and public) and "religious assembly."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Ord. No. 20080925-135, Part 5, PUD Zoning for Dell Jewish Center and Ord. No. 20001214-97, Part 4, PUD zoning for Riverbend Church.

The Riverbend PUD and the DJC PUD ordinances are consistent with the interpretation of the Land Development Code that "religious assembly" is a distinct and separate regulated use from other activities that are typically found at a church facility. Neither the December 23, 2008 email nor prior zoning ordinances for multi-function religious assembly facilities support the new and expansive interpretation of the new primary or principal uses allowed under "religious assembly" found in the Restrictive Covenant.

In that the Restrictive Covenant authorizes "non-religious non-profit civic uses" as primary uses of both buildings, the Restrictive Covenant abandons the limitation set forth in the December 23, 2008 email that allows the co-location of the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater if both buildings are used primarily for "religious assembly." Instead of enforcing the terms of the December 23, 2008 email, the Restrictive Covenant fundamentally changes the nature and scope of the activities allowed under "religious assembly" use in a RR zoning district.

If it remains the City's position that the only land use determination made under Section 25-2-2 that is applicable to the Permit is the December 23, 2008 email, then the Restrictive Covenant must be modified to strictly conform with the terms of the December 23, 2008 email. If it is the City's position that the Restrictive Covenant (and not the December 23, 2008 email) is the document that regulates the use of the Property, then the Restrictive Covenant must constitute a new land use determination under Section 25-2-2. In the latter case, the HCE appeal was timely filed under Section 25-1-182 of the Land Development Code and the appeal must be forwarded immediately to the Board of Adjustment for a public hearing.

Since construction has started on the Property, it is of great urgency that the City respond to this letter as quickly as possible. Please let me know if the City will forward the HCE appeal to the Board of Adjustment or revise the Restrictive Covenant to strictly comply with the terms and conditions of the December 23, 2008 email. I would appreciate a written response by December 22, 2011.

Very truly yours,

Robert J. Kleeman

Re: Dream City Site Plan [SP-2011-0186C]—Zoning & Administrative Issues

Dear Mr. Kleeman:

After reviewing your letter of December 12, 2011, we have advised the Planning & Development Review Department ("PDRD") that your appeal is barred on timeliness grounds for the reasons set forth in our previous letter of October 27, 2011.

The zoning issues related to this development were resolved in December 2008 by Director Greg Guernsey's determination that construction of the proposed outdoor amphitheater is allowed as part of a religious assembly use. That determination was made in direct response to the applicant's submittal, which included conceptual plans as well as a list of specific uses and associated conditions to be imposed via a restrictive covenant. The 2008 determination must be presumed to incorporate the uses and conditions detailed by the applicant's submittal.

The restrictions in the covenant do clarify particular requirements in order to assist with enforcement and administration, but they do not constitute a new use determination under Section 25-2-2 (Determination of Use Classification) or contradict Director Guernsey's prior 2008 determination. In particular, there is no indication that non-religious assembly uses will be permitted unless they are accessory to the principal use of religious assembly. As stated in Mr. Guernsey's 2008 determination, such uses "will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use."

It should be emphasized that the terms of the covenant are not an exhaustive list of limitations applicable to use of the amphitheater, but merely those included as part of the applicant's 2008 submittal. City Code imposes numerous other restrictions, including the requirement that any accessory use be "incidental to" the principal use of religious assembly. To the extent an accessory use of the amphitheater exceeded that scope, enforcement would be appropriate regardless of whether the applicant had violated a term of the covenant.

Robert Kleeman

The line between accessory and principal use can be difficult to define, but the Director will carefully consider any alleged violations related to the frequency or intensity of activity at the amphitheater. Additionally, as outlined in my email to you on December 7, 2011, any use of sound equipment on the property will require a sound amplification permit under City Code Chapter 9-2 (Noise and Amplified Sound) as well as compliance with other restrictions under the City's noise regulations. Where a permit is sought for outdoor music, the City has authority under the ordinance to impose conditions to mitigate the impacts of events on adjoining properties, including limitations on the size, scale, and duration of the event. If such permits are requested, Hill Country Estates would have the opportunity to raise any concerns you may have regarding potential impacts.

Finally, as you may be aware, earlier this month the City Council initiated code amendments that would establish clearer requirements for appealing use determinations. Consistent with existing practices, however, an informal use determination of the sort at issue in this case is treated as an appealable decision subject to the 20-day limitations period under City Code Section 25-1-182 (Initiating an Appeal).

Please feel free to contact me if you have further questions or concerns regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Brent D. Lloyd

Re: Appeal of Decision to Issue a Building Permit for an Outdoor Amphitheater, 8901 West State Highway 71, Case Number 2013- 002081PR ("Building Permit")

Dear Chairman Jack and Members of the Austin Board of Adjustment:

This firm represents the Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association ("HCE") and the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc. ("CB") with respect to their appeal of the issuance of the Building Permit. HCE and CB have filed their appeal with Leon Barba pursuant to Section 211.009(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code and Section 25-1-18 et seq., Land Development Code ("LDC").

HCE and BP meet the requirements of Section 25-1-131(A) & (C) LDC to be Interested Parties by communicating their respective concerns regarding the proposed development described in the Building Permit. Enclosed are copies of email correspondences to City staff requesting recognition of Interested Party status with respect to the Building Permit application and the refusal of City Staff to do so. Mr. Frank Goodloe is treasurer of CB and Kim Butler is the Secretary of the HCE. Both HCE and CB are registered neighborhood associations with the City of Austin. See enclosed print from the City of Austin website on registered neighborhood associations.

Additionally, HCE and CB have "aggrieved party" status under Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code ("TLGC"). On May 8, 2013, the Austin Building Official issued a building permit for an amphitheater to be constructed on 53 acres located at 8901 West State Highway 71, Austin, Texas 78736 (the "Property"). The building permit has City case number 2013-002081 PR ("Building Permit"). The Property is located between the Covered Bridge and Hill Country Estates neighborhoods. Covered Bridge and the Property are within the corporate limits of the City of Austin. Hill Country Estates is predominately if not entirely within the extra-territorial jurisdiction of the City. Hill Country Estates contains one acre or larger residential lots and would be zoned Rural Residential ("RR") if it were annexed.

The Property already has a multi-purpose building that contains an indoor auditorium used for religious services. Many residents of Covered Bridge and Hill Country Estates already hear, inside their homes, the very loud music played inside the existing indoor auditorium on the Property. CB, HCE, and their members fear that the very loud worship services taking place inside the existing building will take place in the outdoor amphitheater. They fear the impacts on their quality of life and property values if the outdoor amphitheater is used in the manner promoted by the Promiseland West Church which has now rebranded itself as Life Austin ("Owner"). In addition to religious worship, the Owner has promoted the outdoor amphitheater as a community resource to be used for community recreation and theater purposes such as ballet, jazz concerts, and family movie nights.<sup>1</sup>

Both neighborhoods and the Property are included in the West Oak Hill Neighborhood Plan adopted in December 2008. During the consideration of the West Oak Hill Neighborhood Plan, the Property and the land between the Property and Hill Country Estates was zoned Rural Residential ("RR"). The Future Land Use Map shows the Property as low density residential and the Property retains its RR zoning today. Notably, the Owner did not participate in the Oak Hill Neighborhood Plan process. More importantly, the Owner has never filed a zoning application to even attempt to rezone the Property to a zoning classification that would allow the outdoor amphitheater at issue in this appeal.

Rather than follow the normal and appropriate course of seeking a re-zoning of the Property or seeking a conditional use permit, the Owner found a pliant City staff willing to redefine the uses and activities allowed under Religious Assembly to meet the desires of the Owner. For years, the Owner of the Property have openly discussed and advertised their plans to operate the amphitheater as a community center and venue for a variety of non-religious activities.<sup>2</sup> Representatives of the Owner attended a meeting with Oak Hill Association of Neighborhoods in January 2012. At this meeting the representatives stated that the purpose of the "outdoor" amphitheater was to attract that 1 or 2 percent of the population that prefers outdoor music to indoor music.

Over the years, CB, HCE and its members have provided City staff copies of newspaper article, church blogs, and the church's website to document the open and clearly stated intent of the Owner to use the outdoor amphitheater for non-religious purposes. Copies of the materials provided to staff are enclosed. When some City staff questioned the Owner's intended use of the outdoor amphitheater for non-religious purposes, the uses allowed under Religious Assembly were re-interpreted to encompass the very activities that had raised the concerns.

As the record will show, City staff have provided the Owner of the Property singular special privileges enjoyed by no other property owner in the City of Austin. These special privileges include avoidance of all public hearing and Land Commission approval processes that other religious assembly campus projects have had to participate in to obtain entitlements comparable to what the Owner has been granted through administrative processes. For example, Riverbend Church and the Dell Jewish Center applied for and obtained PUD zoning to have authorized uses such as public and private community recreation, outdoor sports and recreation, club or lodge and religious assembly.<sup>3</sup>

City staff have repeatedly re-interpreted the activities allowed under Religious Assembly to grant to the Owner of the Property the right to conduct Religious Assembly activities outdoors even though the Property is zoned RR. In October 2011, City staff expanded the number of principal uses allowed under Religious Assembly by making weddings, funerals and musical and theatrical performances principal uses under Religious Assembly. Unlike the typical land use determination or interpretation made by staff a thousand times a year, this particular re-interpretation (land use determination?) came in the form of a restrictive covenant drafted by the Owner's attorney and then approved by City staff. Rather than use a regulatory process, a contract was used.

As the evidences show, the principal uses of musical and theatrical performances have been reinterpreted again to allow virtually any type of secular music, theater and entertainment content so long as the Owner is a non-profit entity and the Owner receives financial benefit from the performance.<sup>4</sup>

CB, HCE, and their members are aggrieved parties because the substantive and procedural protections of Chapter 25-2 have been denied them again with the issuance of the Building Permit. The Building Permit is the latest example of City staff granting new and additional special privileges to the Owner. The Building Permit grants the right to conduct amusement, community recreation and club or lodge activities in the Amphitheater. These are new uses not addressed in previous interpretations of Religious Assembly. None of these uses or activities falls within the LDC description of Religious Assembly (organized religious worship or religious education). None of these activities is an accessory use to Religious Assembly. None of these activities and uses are allowed in RR zoning except with a conditional use permit. None of these activities are allowed outdoors in the RR zoning district.

Pursuant to Section 25-1-183(6) and the instructions provided with the appeal application form, CB and HCE allege that one or more errors were made in the decision to issue the Building Permit on May 8, 2013. The activities described in the Building Permit application, including the uses of "amusement, social and recreational buildings" do not comply with applicable law.

Since 2007, City staff has repeatedly changed its position regarding 1) the legality of an administrative approval of a 1,000 seat outdoor amphitheater on property zoned Rural Residential; 2) whether an outdoor amphitheater would be considered an accessory use or a principal use of Religious Assembly, 3) whether Religious Assembly can even be conducted outdoors in an RR zoning district; 4) what activities are allowed under Religious Assembly; and 5) which of the new allowed Religious Assembly activities are principal use under Religious Assembly and which are an accessory use.

BACKGROUND

First Interpretation

G/40

In 2007 and 2008 members of HCE and CB asked City Staff in writing whether an outdoor amphitheater could be administratively approved on the Property with RR zoning.

In 2007, a City staff person, after repeated questioning from an HCE member, wrote:

"I did look on the [Promiseland West] website and saw the future plans. From what I saw they will definitely need a zoning change and a fully engineered site plan. The scope of what they are doing looks like it goes beyond what the City would classify as Accessory Uses."<sup>5</sup>

In mid-2008, a different City staff person responded to questions from a different member of HCE regarding whether an outdoor amphitheater was an accessory use to Religious Assembly. The City staff person wrote:

"I can tell you definitively that there has never been an outdoor amphitheater administratively approved as an accessory use for a Religious Assembly facility. If one were to be shown on a site plan submitted for a proposed church, Land Use Review staff would identify it and require the developer to obtain a Conditional Use Permit for the proposed Community Recreation or Outdoor Entertainment."<sup>6</sup>

From 2007 until February 2011, members of HCE and CB relied on City staff assurances that an outdoor amphitheater on the Property would require at least a conditional use permit and perhaps a zoning change. CB and HCE believe that the initial interpretation is the correct interpretation that an outdoor amphitheater is not an accessory use and that a zoning change and possibly a conditional use permit would be required before an outdoor amphitheater could be constructed on the Property.

Second Interpretation

Carl Conley, engineer for the Owner in 2008, sent Greg Guernsey a December 17, 2008 letter asking whether an outdoor amphitheater could co-locate on the Property and whether all of the indoor activities could also take place outdoors in the amphitheater. The Conley letter asked "whether an outdoor amphitheater is considered an accessory use to an overall religious assembly use under RR or SF-1." (emphasis added)

In his letter, Mr. Conley described three categories of uses that would occur in the church buildings and outdoor amphitheater. He described the first category as "various religious assembly activities, including worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations." Mr. Conley's interpretation of the description of Religious Assembly is generally consistent with the narrow description found in Section 25-2 6(41), LDC.

Mr. Conley's second category of uses included non-religious non-profit civic activities that would also take place in the "church buildings and the outdoor amphitheater:" "...nonreligious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc.."

Mr. Conley's letter then described the third category of uses as "benefit events": "There may be some activities that would include a fee that would be used to provide benefit to an individual or group that had a special emergency need (i.e. a family whose house burned down) or for some charitable organizations." (emphasis added)

In response to Mr. Conley's December 17, 2008 letter, Greg Guernsey transmitted a private email to Carl Conley on December 23, 2008. Regarding Mr. Conley's question as to whether an outdoor amphitheater could be an accessory use to Religious Assembly, Mr. Guernsey wrote in the December 23, 2008 email:

"I have reviewed your letter and attachment. Since the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater are both being primarily used for religious assembly uses, I don't see a problem with these two facilities co-locating on the property."

Taken at face value, all Mr. Guernsey has stated is that the outdoor amphitheater can be built on the property if the "church building" and the outdoor amphitheater are both used primarily for religious assembly uses. In other words, Mr. Guernsey states that Religious Assembly uses can take place outdoors.

As to uses that would be allowed in the outdoor amphitheater, Mr. Guernsey wrote:

"I understand that the educational and musical presentations will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use. I also understand the church will be complaint [sic] with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including the noise ordinance."<sup>7</sup>

Taken at face value, Mr. Guernsey's email statements clearly distinguish educational and musical presentations from the "primary religious assembly use." Also important to this appeal are the limiting conditions he placed on educational and musical presentations: "limited in scope" and "subordinate" to the "primary religious assembly use." Since Mr. Guernsey distinguished educational and musical presentation from religious assembly use, Mr. Guernsey took a limited, strict constructionist view of the description of Religious Assembly: "regular organized religious worship or religious education." The second sentence in the previous quote created an inherent conflict-- the church had to comply with all applicable City Codes and ordinances. Clearly, the condition that the Church must always comply with applicable City Codes and ordinances brings every permit and every appeal of a permit within the purview of the Board of Adjustment to determine the applicable City Codes and ordinances.

The December 23, 2008 Guernsey email ends with the following:

"If the primary use of one or both of the facilities does change from a religious assembly use to an outdoor entertainment or an indoor entertainment use, a zoning change may be required."

---

This last sentence appears to set some sort of boundary as to what constitutes an allowed use under Religious Assembly. This boundary proves to be an illusion. Mr. Guernsey's email does not address Mr. Conley's second and third categories of non-religious activities and benefit events. Mr. Guernsey does answer the initial question of whether the outdoor amphitheater is an accessory use to Religious Assembly. Notably, neither Mr. Conley nor Mr. Guernsey refer to the outdoor amphitheater as a "building."

Since the summer of 2011, Mr. Guernsey and City Staff have re-interpreted Mr. Guernsey's December 23, 2008 email as adopting and accepting all of Mr. Conley's letter even though no such language appears in the email. As discussed below, Mr. Guernsey and City Staff have continued to expand and stretch the scope of the December 23, 2008 email interpretation to cover and justify several modifications to the definition of Religious Assembly.

For example, Mr. Guernsey will re-interpret his December 23, 2008 email to mean: 1) all non-religious activities described in the Conley are allowed with a Religious Assembly use; 2) all of the non-religious assembly uses described in the Conley letter can be held in the outdoor amphitheater; 3) musical and theatrical performances are principal uses under Religious Assembly use; 4) benefit events can be of virtually any nature so long as the church financially benefits from the event; and 5) the limiting conditions of "limited in scope and subordinate to the primary religious assembly use" are replaced by the word "occasional."

As discussed below, CB and HCE did not learn of the December 23, 2008 "interpretation" email until July 21, 2011. Copies of the December 17, 2008 Conley letter and December 23, 2008 Guernsey email are enclosed.

Third Interpretation

The first indication that the City staff position regarding uses allowed under Religious Assembly had changed from the 2007 and mid-2008 emails appeared in the first staff comments to the first site development permit application for the Property (SP-2011-0006C). The case manager wrote in the first set of staff comments dated February 9, 2011:

"SP 15...Clarify if the amphitheater is intended for Religious Assembly Use only, or if the applicant intends to use the structure in any other commercial way. Or is it an accessory use of Outdoor Entertainment (not allowed in RR zoning) or Community Recreation (commission-approved required)? Please be aware that this site plan application may be a conditional use permit site plan, which would require re-notification and additional fees."

Staff comment SP 15 to the first update submittal to the site development permit application reads as follows:

"U1. Please clarify. The engineer's response letter states that the amphitheater is intended for religious assembly use only, however, the owner was quoted saying many non-religious events will take place in the amphitheater, including 'graduation ceremonies, recitals, ballets, family movies nights, jazz concerts, and other events' (Austin Chronicle article, March 24, 2011)." (emphasis added)

These Staff comments indicate an interpretation that an outdoor amphitheater is allowed in RR zoning if the amphitheater is limited to Religious Assembly uses only; however, non-religious activities, such as those reported in the Austin Chronicle, would not be allowed in the outdoor amphitheater. The staff comments suggest a conditional use permit may not be required for Religious Assembly activities in the outdoor amphitheater. It is not certain whether staff had seen the December 23, 2008 Greg Guernsey email when the first set of staff comments issued on February 9, 2011.

The case manager had received a copy of the December 23, 2008 Greg Guernsey email on February 28, 2011.<sup>8</sup> Presumably, the case manager had seen the December 23, 2008 email and December 17, 2008 Conley letter by the time the staff comments to the first update issued on March 25, 2011. The Staff comments to the first update suggest a narrow interpretation of what activities are allowed under Religious Assembly.

At the time of the issuance the above Staff comments to the first site development permit application, neither the case manager nor the members of HCE and CB knew that Director of PDRD had laid the groundwork for an even broader re-interpretation of the zoning regulations applicable a Religious Assembly use on the Property. Mr. Guernsey has conceded that the above quoted comments under SP 15 indicate that the drafting staff member was not aware of his first re-interpretation of his December 23, 2008 email to add non-religious activities and benefit events as allowable uses in the outdoor amphitheater.<sup>9</sup>

Fourth Interpretation

In June 2011, the first site development permit application was withdrawn with two outstanding comments regarding the septic system and the land use issue under SP 15. The site development permit application was resubmitted in July 2011 and assigned case number SP-2011-0185C. This is the site development permit application that was ultimately approved. On July 21, 2011, George Adams sent an email to the HCE officers to notify them that a land use determination regarding the outdoor amphitheater had been made by Greg Guernsey in December 2008 and that the 20 days allowed for appealing that determination had long passed. The Adams email responded to repeated inquiries from HCE members about when the City would make a decision about whether the outdoor amphitheater could be constructed on the Property. The Adams email transmitted a copy of a July 13, 2011 letter from George Zapalac to Lawrence Hanrahan, P.E., the new engineer for the church ("Zapalac Letter").

Although the December 23, 2008 email did not address the second and third categories of uses described by Mr. Conley, the Zapalac Letter changes religious activities to include "non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc." In effect, the Zapalac Letter makes the above described "non-religious activities" principal uses under Religious Assembly.

The Zapalac Letter mentions "benefit events" but it is not clear whether Mr. Zapalac intended to classify "benefit events" as a principal use under Religious Assembly. Nevertheless, the Zapalac Letter expresses a concern that "[S]ince PRDR issued its 2008 determination,

representations have been made regarding site uses that may go beyond the scope of a Religious Assembly use. The conditions outlined above, as set forth in the 2008 Conley letter, would effectively prohibit any such non-Religious Assembly uses at the site."

Unlike staff comment SP 15 to the first update, the Zapalac Letter provides no example of what the represented "non-religious assembly" activities are, but they must be different than the list of non-religious activities appearing on the first page of the letter that were made principal uses under Religious Assembly.

The Zapalac Letter does not resolve the question of whether the outdoor amphitheater is an accessory use to Religious Assembly.

Finally, Zapalac Letter restates the requirement for compliance with "all of the City's ordinances, including sound levels at the boundary properties[.]"

A copy of the July 21, 2011 George Adams email and the George Zapalac Letter are enclosed.

Fifth Interpretation

After City staff informed members of HCE that a restrictive covenant would be required that would protect the adjoining neighborhoods an HCE officer made repeated requests to see a draft of the proposed restrictive covenant. City staff refused to provide any drafts or outlines of the proposed restrictive covenants. Copies of the emails requesting the opportunity to review the restrictive covenant are enclosed.

Also enclosed is a copy of a September 13, 2011 email from Brent Lloyd to George Zapalac, George Adams and Sarah Graham. Attached to the email is an "outline for the restrictive covenant" prepared by counsel for the Owner. Note in the first sentence of the draft, the Owner's counsel believe that the outdoor amphitheater is an accessory use. A copy of the email and draft outline are enclosed.

The first version of the restrictive covenant seen by CB, HCE and their members was the version recorded in Document No. 2011146026, Official Public Records of Travis County, Texas on October 5, 2011 ("Restrictive Covenant").

Once again, the activities allowed under Religious Assembly changed. First, the "musical presentations" that were originally required to be of short duration and subordinate to the primary Religious Assembly are no longer so limited.

Second, regular organized religious worship or religious education were no longer required to be the predominate use of the outdoor amphitheater.

Third, musical and theatrical presentations were renamed "musical and theatrical performances" and changed to a principal use under Religious Assembly. This change allows concerts and theatrical performances to constitute a Religious Assembly use.

Fourth, the outdoor amphitheater is a principal and not an accessory use under Religious Assembly.

Other changes are described in a December 12, 2011 letter to Brent Lloyd detailed below. A copy of the recorded Restrictive Covenant is enclosed.

On October 15, 2011, the City approved site development permit SP-2011-0185C. A copy of the cover sheet and sheet 11 of the approved site development permit are enclosed.

HCE filed an appeal to the Board of Adjustment on October 21, 2011 within 20 days of the issuance of the site development permit for the Property. The HCE appeal challenged the Chapter 25-2 administrative decisions involved with approval of the site development permit and the Restrictive Covenant. Despite the clear and unambiguous mandate of Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code, City staff refused to forward the HCE appeal to this Board. Such action by City Staff also violated Section 25-1-181(B), LDC: "A body holding a public hearing on an appeal shall determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision." (emphasis added)

On October 27, 2011 Brent Lloyd sent a letter to Robert Kleeman that explained how every appeal issue raised in the HCE Appeal was encompassed in the December 23, 2008 Greg Guernsey and that HCE had missed the 20 day filing deadline: "Per your request, I am writing to explain why the Planning & Development Review Department ("PDRD") has rejected your administrative appeal of October 21, 2011 as untimely." A copy of the October 27, 2011 Brent Lloyd letter is enclosed.

After hearing from City management in November 2011 that City staff had approved the outdoor amphitheater as an accessory use, I compared the terms of the Restrictive Covenant to the December 23, 2008 email and the December 17, 2008 Conley letter. In a December 12, 2011 letter to Brent Lloyd, I outlined how the Restrictive Covenant and the approved site development permit exceeded the terms of the December 23, 2008 Greg Guernsey email. The arguments set forth in the December 12, 2011 letter are incorporated here and are made a part of this appeal for all purposes. A copy of the December 12, 2011 letter is enclosed.

On December 30, 2011 Brent Lloyd responded, in part, with the following sentence:

"The zoning issues related to this development were resolved in December 2008 by Director Greg Guernsey's determination that construction of the proposed outdoor amphitheater is allowed as part of a religious assembly use."

A copy of the December 30, 2011 Brent Lloyd letter is enclosed.

Sixth Interpretation

As of May 10, 2013, the description on the City's Website of the structure authorized by the Building Permit read as follows: "New Amphitheater for Religious Assembly w/tiered seating, stagehouse, office, support areas and restrooms."

The sub type description for the Building Permit found on the City's Website describes the outdoor amphitheater in question as "Amusement, Social & Rec. Bldgs." A May 10, 2013 print out of the City's Website Folder Detail for the Building Permit is enclosed ("May 10th Folder Detail").

According to the sworn testimony of Greg Guernsey the principal use of the outdoor amphitheater in question is Religious Assembly.<sup>10</sup> Sheet 11 of the Site Plan for the Property does not show any use for the amphitheater except Religious Assembly. Therefore, the sub type description shown on the May 10th Folder Detail (Amusement, Social & Rec. Bldgs.) is a land use determination of the principal use for the Building Permit.

HCE and CB contend that the Building Official erred when he issued the Building Permit for "Amusement, Social & Rec. Bldgs." uses of the outdoor amphitheater. First, the "recreational building" component falls under the definition of Community Recreation.<sup>11</sup> The Building Permit is the first time that a Community Recreation facility has been explicitly mentioned by City staff. Section 25-2-6(B)(41), LDC explicitly excludes Community Recreation as an allowed use under Religious Assembly. Further, Section 25-2-897, LDC does not include Community Recreation type uses as an accessory use to any Civic Uses.

Second, according to the land use chart found in Section 25-2-491(C), LDC, Community Recreation is a conditional use in RR zoning. No conditional use permit of any type has been issued for the Property. The Building Permit has approved a conditional use without following the conditional use permit procedures and, therefore, was issued in error.

Third, the term "social" appears only in the descriptions of "Camp" and "Club or Lodging" found in chapter 25-2, LDC. According to the land use chart found in Section 25-2-491(C), the use "Club or Lodge" is a conditional use in RR zoning and "Camp" is not allowed in RR zoning under any circumstances. Again, no conditional use permit has been issued for the Property.

Fourth, the term "Amusement" does not appear in Chapter 25-2 as a defined use but does appear in the Airport Overlay Land Use Table found in Section 25-13-44. In this section, "Amusement" is classified under "Recreational Uses." Therefore, a principal "Amusement" use should fall under Community Recreation which cannot be an authorized principal use under Religious Assembly without a conditional use permit.

HCE and CB agree that "Amusement, Social & Rec. Bldgs." is a correct determination of the principal use of the outdoor amphitheater. The Building Official erred when he ignored all of the applicable City codes and ordinances and issued the Building Permit anyway. Upon determining that the outdoor amphitheater is a Community Recreation and Club or Lodge facility, the Building Official should have denied the Building Permit application.

<sup>10</sup> Page 99, Deposition of Greg Guernsey, February 20, 2013. Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association and Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc. v. Greg Guernsey and the City of Austin, Cause No. D-1-GN-12-000878 in the 250th District Court, Travis County, Texas. ("Guernsey Depo.")

<sup>11</sup> 25-2-6(B)(9) COMMUNITY RECREATION (PRIVATE) use is the use of a site for the provision of an indoor or outdoor recreational facility for use by residents or guests of a residential development, planned unit development, church, private primary or secondary educational facility, club or lodge, or non-profit organization.

Outdoor Amphitheater Violates Explicit Zoning Code Provisions.

Notwithstanding the five previously discussed interpretations of Religious Assembly, the outdoor nature of the amphitheater does not comply with applicable law. First, Section 25-2-921(C), LDC prohibits "an outdoor public, religious, patriotic, or historic assembly or exhibit, including a festival, benefit, fund raising event, or similar use that typically attracts a mass audience..." for property zoned RR. Further, Section 25-2-921(C) prohibits the Building Official from issuing even a temporary use permit for the above described outdoor activities on RR zoned property. If the Building Official has no authority to issue a Temporary Use Permit for Outdoor Religious Assembly on RR zoned property, then the Building Official has no authority to issue a building permit to authorize such outdoor activities on a permanent basis.

Second, the definition of Religious Assembly found in Section 25-2-6(B)(41), LDC states that a Religious Assembly use must occur in a permanent or temporary building. The phrase "in a permanent or temporary building" means indoors or a fully enclosed building. Even if a contorted interpretation could be made that the phrase "in a building" could include "outdoor" buildings in some zoning districts, such an interpretation cannot be made for property zoned RR through SF-3 because of Section 25-2-921(C), LDC.

Third, Section 25-2-491(B) states: "The requirements of other provisions of this subchapter modify and supersede the requirements of this section, to the extent of conflict." The Land Use Chart (Section 25-2-491(C) and Section 25-2-921(C) are both found in subchapter C of Title 25. The Land Use Chart allows Religious Assembly in RR zoned districts subject to any other requirements in Subchapter C. One of the modifying requirements found in Subchapter C is the prohibition in RR zoned districts of outdoor religious assembly and other outdoor activities described in Section 25-2-921(C). The Building Official cannot issue a building permit for an "outdoor amphitheater" and simultaneously say it is not outdoors.

In conclusion, several aspects of the first five previously discussed interpretations of Religious Assembly exceed the authority of the director of PDRD to interpret use categories pursuant to Section 25-2-2, LDC. The Director's authority under Section 25-2-2 arises only when a particular use has not been classified within a zoning category or land use. Under the previous version of Section 25-2-2(E), the Director was required to maintain a list of determinations made under Section 25-2-2. The so called land determination made by the December 23, 2008 email was never added to the list of use determinations and was kept from the site development permit case manager until February 28, 2011.

The original interpretations of the LDC regarding outdoor amphitheaters made by City staff in 2007 and mid-2008 were correct. The original interpretation request made by Mr. Conley was whether an outdoor amphitheater was an accessory use to Religious Assembly. Since Section 25-2-897, LDC provided a clear answer to Mr. Conely question, the authority of the Director to issue a land use determination under Section 25-2-2 never arose. Further, the staff interpretation that made the outdoor amphitheater a principal use did not occur until the Restrictive Covenant recorded in October 2011. HCE timely filed its appeal to the Restrictive Covenant and to the approved Site Development Permit.

The Board of Adjustment should find that the Director of PDRD has never had the authority under Section 25-2-2 to make a prohibited outdoor activity an allowed use. That is, by interpretation the Director cannot convert the outdoor activities prohibited by Section 25-2-921(C) into allowed uses. Further, the Director does not have the authority to amend the Land Use Chart by converting a conditional use (Community Recreation and Club or Lodge) into a permitted use.

The Board of Adjustment should use its authority to find that all prior Interpretations, including the Building Permit, that authorize any outdoor activities on the Property are rescinded because they were issued in contravention of the explicit provisions of Chapter 25-2. The Board of Adjustment should use its authority to find that all prior Interpretations, including the Building Permit, that authorize a conditional use on the Property are rescinded because they were issued in contravention of the explicit provisions of Chapter 25-2. The Board of Adjustment should use its authority to suspend all permits for the Property, including the Building Permit that were issued in reliance on any rescinded interpretation. The Board of Adjustment should also find that the interpretation of Chapter 25-2 used by City staff to reject HCE's October 2011 appeal to this Board was wrong, are rescinded and the City staff should be instructed to forward to the Board of Adjustment the October 2011 HCE appeal of the Restrictive Covenant and the approved site development permit in accordance with Section 211.010, TLGC.

Hey All,

I'm out in CA, but took a call between meetings from someone at the city who called in response to today's e-mails from

Frank and myself.

He indicated there is no such thing as an "interested party" status for the commercial building plan review process, as the issues requiring/enabling public input, traffic/safety/sanitation/parking, have already been addressed in the city's review of the Site Plan for the development.

He also told me that if we wish to appeal the approval of a commercial building plan, that it does not require interested party status to do so, that we can take an appeal directly to the Board of Adjustment. He got mixed up a couple of times, so I asked him to send me what he had told me on the phone, in writing, via e-mail. He refused, saying we already had the information in writing. I told him I wanted his description of our appeal rights in writing, and asked that he copy Frank on the message, as well. He hesitantly agreed to do so, but I don't know if I believe him..

I didn't get his name down, though. His number, 512-974-2355, may be trackable to an individual person. I'll see this evening.

The valuable piece of information he gave, IMO, was that the commercial review team ASSUMES the city has already done a thorough evaluation of the traffic/parking/safety/sanitation impact associated with the approved components of the original Site Plan.

If everyone recalls, PLW never added the impact of even a single event at the amphitheater to their Site Plan. THAT was the issue I kept pounding on, and the bone of contention Sarah Graham was working on when Greg Guernsey called a halt to the Site Plan review process...that the church hadn't ever specified any use, or frequency of use, for the amphitheater, so there was no consideration given for traffic/parking/safety/sanitation issues associated with the actual USE of the amphitheater.

Therefore, the assumption the commercial review team is working off is inherently false. The site, INCLUDING the amphitheater's uses, has never been approved...only the site plan with the amphitheater's use being defined as an alternative site where the congregation will do what they normally do in the primary church facility.

There has NEVER been any consideration given to the traffic/parking/ safety/sanitation impact of an event with as many as 3,000 participants involved at one time. Neither has consideration been given to the impact of amphitheater uses beyond the activities that regularly occur in the church.

This, I believe should give us the opportunity to appeal the approval of the building plan due to the failure of the city to incorporate full use and frequency of use data into the original Site Plan.

Just my 2¢.

Kim

That makes a case for a legal letter to the right people citing the continuing lawsuit related to the inappropriate administrative approval of the site plan, denial of our rights to be heard and demanding/requesting that any final approval of the building plans until that issue is resolved.

May not stop them, but puts our objections on record.

FYI when I spoke with Carol Raney @ COA she said they did not 'do' interested party status on commercial plans & 'that was part of the site plan review, not the building plans'.

Therefore, I don't think we can request such if it doesn't exist, but it would be nice for the COA to respond and state such in writing.

Messrs. Meier, Haught, Raney,

I have not received confirmation from you or anyone else with responsibility for this case acknowledging the request of the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association to be recognized as an "interested party". We are just one of several Oak Hill neighborhoods which would be negatively affected by this proposed commercial development in RR zoning.

I ask again for your written/e-mail confirmation that you have received and acknowledge our request.

There's a tie under part A back to the 19 religious assembly use. If it had no affiliation with a 20 religious assembly use and it was just simply bands 21 every weekend charging a cover charge to get in, similar 22 to The Backyard, then it probably would not be a 23 religious assembly use any longer. 24 Q. RE: Case #SP-2011-0185C, COA DevReview emails.pdf

Dear Sarah & Michelle,

In addition to the email communications I sent on CD (mailed 8/24/11), I would like the attached communication thread regarding administrative approval of an amphitheatre, added to the new case file. This information previously was submitted with the prior case for Promisel and West, DreamCity project (SP-2011-0006C).

I know you understand that it would set a precedent for the City, should an outdoor amphitheatre be approved administratively as an accessory use, without public hearing and rezoning. Our community is understandably concerned.

Also, we still do not see any type of sanitary facilities (public restrooms) for the 2,500 seating capacity amphitheater site; nor do we find any connection to a future septic field on the site footprint. What is the plan for parking and bathrooms for crowds of this size, every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday (PI.W statements of intended use)?

We also have not seen any type of restrictive covenant for specific amphitheatre uses (if any), or restrictions reflecting the site plan note that the plan "phases" (multiple facilities) will not be used at the same time. Simultaneous use of these multiple performance facilities would significantly affect traffic, parking and sanitation. Can you advise as to when we can expect to find drafts for those covenants as part of the public record?

Thank you.

Dear Mr. Johnson,

Thank you for the information; it has been most helpful. Our citizen group would like a further clarification, and hope you can help or can direct us to the party that can.

You mention that no outdoor amphitheater has been administratively approved. After reading the Development Code (Title 25, Austin City Code), I find there are at least two paths to site plan approval. One, the administrative approval, seems to be via Development Review department (and the many departments consulted in that process, eg, Watershed, Neighborhood, etc). Is that an adequate description of the administrative approval process?

An alternate route to site plan approval seems to be via the Land Use Commission, which is charged (in the Code) with appeals and with approval of Conditional Use plans. I can not find any Land Use Commission by searching the City website. It does not seem to be listed on the Boards and Commissions page. Multiple references are made in the Code, but I am unclear whether another department is filling the role of the Land Use Commission (eg, the Zoning & Platting Commission), or if it is not actually a City entity.

Can you help us find the Land Use Commission, so that I may inquire about their responsibilities and process? If it is a possible venue for review and approval of the amphitheater in our neighborhoods, we wish to have a chance of being heard on the issue. If there is yet another possible path to site plan approval, we would of course need to learn of it as well.

Thank you for all your time in providing information to our multi-neighborhood work group.

The purpose of the City's Law Department is to provide legal council and representation for City staff. The City's attorneys do not provide legal council to the general public.

I can tell you definitively that there has never been an outdoor amphitheater administratively approved as an accessory use for a Religious Assembly facility. If one were to be shown on a site plan submittal for a propose church, Land Use Review staff would identify it and require the developer to obtain a Conditional Use Permit for the proposed Community Recreation or Outdoor Entertainment use. Even if the developer did not specifically show the amphitheater on the plans, and just provided an open space—a Sound Permit would be required for any type of event with amplified sound equipment. Section 9-2-14 of the City Code prohibits the issuance of an Amplified Sound permit for any property within 100-ft of property with residential zoning. If the church property itself is zoned RR – Rural Residential, it would not be able to obtain a Sound Permit.

When a development application is filed, the City will send notice by mail to all property owners and residents within 500-ft of the subject tract, as well as any neighborhood associations that are registered in the Community Registry with the Public Information Office. The notice will identify the proposed project and provide the name and contact information of both the applicant, and the City Staff case manager. Once an application is filed, the case file is public information and you may contact the staff case manager to make arrangements to view the plans and case file and any questions about the project can be directed to the case

Thank you, Christopher, for your prompt reply.

Can the City Attorney tell us exactly what will be required? Are we certain that the Land Use Commission is the place to go for answers and applications and hearings?

The developers are representing that they have the right to so develop (as a religious assembly), and the community needs assistance in determining the proper venue and procedure to oppose this outdoor events amphitheatre. They are professionals in development, and we are just citizens requesting public information and clarification, so that we may be heard.

Please advise.

Although Religious Assembly is a permitted use in almost any zoning district, the site is still subject to the site development regulations of that district with regard to impervious cover, setbacks, height, etc. Accessory uses are also permitted in addition to the Religious Assembly use for such things as a dwelling unit, a gift shop, a meeting hall, or a columbarium.

An amphitheater or sports facilities would not be considered customary accessory uses for a Religious Assembly use. I believe those uses would be considered Community Recreation (Private) which would require approval of a Conditional Use site plan by the Land Use Commission.

person. Religious Assembly is planning construction in RR. Site plans include accessory uses (outdoor events amphitheatre for rock concerts; active sports fields) that we think require conditional use permits & Zoning review. Developers contend otherwise. Community is highly opposed. Height Variance request (BoAdjusmt) is being heard now, for entire site plan. WHO can help us get a legal opinion about what the developers must achieve through regulations? Do we need to steer this case to Zoning Review? What is proper forum for outdoor events center approval? Thank you for guidance.

Glenn, The Oak Hill Association of Neighborhoods recently received a call from a representative of PromiseLand West Church. The church is looking at asking the City Council for a curb cut on Hwy 71 and they are asking for OHAN's support. Our neighborhood, of course, is interested in this and is working with OHAN. We would also like to cooperate with the Church but have not been permitted to visit with them in quite some time.
Have there been any applications filed recently? If not, is it appropriate for the Church to go to the City Council before going to the planning commission and before filing a site plan? I would appreciate any assistance you can offer.
Sincerely, Paula Jones

Ms. Jones, I did another search for permits pulled at 8901 SH 71 W. and only found one application. In October they submitted a site plan exemption application. A site plan exemption basically exempts an applicant from doing a site plan for small projects. The request was for clearing of a 15 foot wide pathway in order to facilitate a topographic survey. That is all that I have found. I did look on the website and saw the future plans. From what I saw they will definitely need a zoning change and a fully engineered site plan. The scope of what they are doing looks like it goes beyond what the City would classify as Accessory Uses. However, like I said nothing other than the application for the 15 foot pathway has been submitted. I would suggest contacting me periodically to see if other applications are submitted. If you have questions let me know.

Mrs. Jones,

Answers to you questions:

Q1. If a zoning change is needed, will the neighborhoods in the vicinity be given notice of the Planning Commission and later the City Council hearings on the issue?

A. Notice goes out to all those within 300 feet and to all registered neighborhood associations.

Q2. Who approves the site plan?

A. The site plan is approved by the Watershed Protection and Development Review Department. If No variances are being requested, it is an administrative process without a public hearing.

Q3. If the property owner submits a site plan similar to what is on the church's Web site (i.e., it has items that clearly aren't permitted like the amphitheater and ball fields), does the site plan get rejected?

A. If the site plan does not meet the zoning requirements then yes, it would be rejected.

Q4. Is there a case number for this project?

A. There is not a case number for the project because it has not been filed yet.

If you have further questions let me know. Below I have attached the accessory use section of the Code

Thanks,

§ 25-2-897 ACCESSORY USES FOR A PRINCIPAL CIVIC USE.

For a principal civic use, the following are accessory uses:

- (1) a dwelling unit that is occupied only by a family that has at least one member employed on-site for security, maintenance, management, supervision, or personal service;
- (2) refreshment stands and convenience food or beverage sales that serve a public assembly use;
- (3) cafeterias, dining halls, and similar food services that are primarily for the convenience of employees, residents, clients, patients, or visitors;
- (4) gift shops, news stands, and similar commercial activities primarily for the convenience of employees, residents, clients, patients, or visitors;
- (5) parking facilities, except a facility located in an SF-6 or more restrictive zoning district may not exceed the minimum parking requirements; and
- (6) a columbarium that:
  - (a) is affiliated with a religious assembly use;
  - (b) occupies not more than 10 percent of the site area or 10,000 square feet, whichever is less;
  - (c) is oriented to the interior to the site; and
  - (d) is not visible from public rights-of-way.

Hello Carl:

I have reviewed your letter and attachment. Since the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater are both being primarily used for religious assembly uses, I don't see a problem with these two facilities co-locating on the property. I understand that the educational and musical presentations will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use. I also understand the church will be complaint with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including the noise ordinance.

If the primary use of one or both of the facilities does change from a religious assembly use to an outdoor entertainment or an indoor entertainment use, a zoning change may be required.

Happy Holidays to you!

Re: PromiseLand West Church
Amphitheater as an Accessory use

Dear Greg,

Thank you for meeting with me today to discuss whether an outdoor amphitheater is considered an accessory use to an overall religious assembly use under RR or SF-1 zoning.

The attached Conceptual Site Plan shows the overall project, including the primary church buildings and the outdoor Amphitheater. The church buildings include a typical indoor auditorium for 3500 seats. This indoor facility will be used for various religious assembly activities including worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations. This facility would also be available for non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc.. Again, these uses would be for non-profit activities. Like most churches, they may charge a nominal fee to the users to cover setup, clean up, utilities, and administrative and other operational expenses. There may be some activities that would include a fee that would be used to provide benefit to an individual or group that had a special emergency need (i.e. a family whose house burned down) or for some charitable organizations. All of these are typical of the use of a church facility. The church would not typically provide a venue for commercial "for profit" organizations.

The amphitheater would be used for the exact same type activities as the indoor auditorium but in an outdoor setting. This would be on a "weather permitting" basis while taking advantage of the natural environmental surroundings. As we discussed, the use of the amphitheater (along with any other use on the property) would be subject to all of the City's ordinances, including sound levels at the property boundaries. The church would also entertain the concept of a voluntary restrictive covenant that would help identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use.

The church has met with the adjoining neighborhood representatives and have offered to restrict uses of the amphitheater, including dates, times and incorporate sound attenuation design techniques, in order to assure the compatibility with the adjoining residential uses. PromiseLand Church will continue to work with the neighbors even after any permits are issued to work toward being a good neighbor in the surrounding community.

Please let me know if you need anything else to help you in your determination as to whether the amphitheater is an accessory use to the primary use of religious assembly.

Thanks for your consideration on this very important issue for this church.

Sincerely,

Conley Engineering Inc.

Morning Greg—

I was just checking to see if you received this e-mail last week and if you had a chance to look at it. The church is meeting this morning, and this is a very key issue for them.

Now, this is a site plan that was 14 originally submitted by the Promiseland West Church on 15 January 12, 2011. Is that right? 16 A. January 12th? 17 Q. That's what it says up on the top, "Submittal 18 date." 19 A. Oh, okay, very good. Yes. 20 Q. Now, as I recall, there was a site plan 21 submitted by the Promiseland West Church that was 22 withdrawn, correct? Or do you know? 23 A. I believe there was an initial site plan 24 application and then I think it expired. I don't know 25 if it was withdrawn or expired.	179 1 A. If you would, take a look at Exhibit No. 15, 18 the page marked 3087. 19 A. (Witness complies.) Okay, I'm looking at 20 3087. 21 Q. And particularly SP 8. And it says in the 22 middle, "Please be aware that this reviewer has been 23 contacted by many affected neighbors who have concerns 24 about the proposed amphitheater." 25 Do you see that?	180 1 intended for Religious Assembly use only, or if the 2 applicant intends to use the structure in any other 3 commercial way. Or is it an accessory use of Outdoor 4 Entertainment (not allowed in RR zoning) or Community 5 Recreation (commission-approval required)? Please be 6 aware that this site plan application may be a 7 conditional use permit site plan, which could require 8 re-notification and additional fees." 9 Have I read all that correctly? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Okay. To the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association officers:

Thank you for your inquiry concerning the PromiseLand West Church site plan – SP-2011-0006C. The proposed amphitheater, built for the benefit of the congregation, was previously determined in 2008 to qualify as a Religious Assembly use as long as it is used for this purpose. The applicant has submitted the plan as a Religious Assembly use, and it is being reviewed accordingly. If the plan meets all established requirements for a Religious Assembly use, the City is required to permit the site plan application. In the event that the use changes in the future, the applicant will be required to obtain additional approvals and could be subject to enforcement action if these approvals are not granted. In addition to the site plan permit, the applicant will be required to obtain a separate permit for any proposed use of sound equipment outdoors.

Greg Guemsey, Director of the Planning and Development Review Department (PDRD), determined that the amphitheater was a Religious Assembly use in the attached email from December 2008. This determination is now outside the 20-day appeal period. PDRD based its 2008 use determination on a written request by Carl Conley of Conley Engineering, Inc, which included significant limitations on the nature and extent of the proposed amphitheater ensuring its consistency with a Religious Assembly land use. On June 13, 2011 PDRD requested a public restrictive covenant that sets forth these specific limitations outlined in the 2008 request. Please see the attached June 2011 request for a public restrictive covenant and original 2008 Conley letter for further information.

Should you have additional questions, please contact Sarah Graham, the case manager, at 974-2826.

Sincerely,

George Adams

Subject: PromiseLand West Church - SP-2011-0006C

Dear Mr. Hanrahan,

The applicant has represented to City staff that the proposed use of the site for PromiseLand West Church – SP-2011-0006C will be Religious Assembly, as defined by the Land Development Code 25-2-6 (B) (41). Greg Guernsey, Director of the Planning and Development Review Department (PDRD), determined in December 2008 that the proposed development met the requirements for a Religious Assembly use.

However, the 2008 use determination was made in response to a written request by Carl Conley of Conley Engineering, Inc. dated December 18, 2008, a copy of which is attached for your reference. As you can see, the request on which PDRD based its use determination included significant limitations on the nature and extent of the proposed amphitheater which ensure its consistency with a Religious Assembly land use.

Accordingly, any site plan approval for the project would be conditioned on the execution and recording of a public restrictive covenant that sets forth these specific limitations outlined in the 2008 request, as well as additional restrictions that “help to identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use.”

In particular, the 2008 request provided that the amphitheater would be used for the same type of religious activities as the 3500-seat indoor auditorium, including:

- “worship services, weddings, funerals, and educational and musical presentations”
- “non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scout/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc.”

The request also provided that any fees charged for an event would be “nominal” and used to “cover setup, clean up, utilities, and administrative and other operational expenses” or, in limited cases, contributions to benefit “an individual or group that has a special emergency need (i.e. a family whose house burned down) or for some charitable organizations." Compliance with "all of the City's ordinances, including sound levels at the boundary properties[.]" would also be required.

Since PDRD issued its 2008 determination, representations have been made regarding site uses that may go beyond the scope of a Religious Assembly use. The conditions outlined above, as set forth in the 2008 Conley letter, would effectively prohibit any such non-Religious Assembly uses at the site.

If you have any questions, please call Sarah Graham, Case Manager, at 974-2826.

Promiseland Site Plan Conditions & Restrictive Covenant

The following conditions reflect the specific limitations included in the original 2008 request for a determination that the amphitheater is "an accessory use to an overall religious assembly use" under the applicable zoning for this property. Failure to follow these conditions may result in the amphitheater becoming an outdoor recreational use, which is not allowed under the applicable zoning. In the event of a violation of these restrictions by property owner, the City of Austin will first give property owner written notice of such violation and property owner will have ten (10) days after notice is given in which to cure such violation.

The conditions set forth herein may only be enforced by the City of Austin. Furthermore, in no event will the conditions set forth be interpreted in a manner which is contrary to the United States Constitution or other applicable local, state or federal laws.

- I. The buildings and outdoor amphitheater will be limited to the following functions and activities, which must be conducted on a Non-profit basis:
  - A. Religious assembly uses that are part of the principal use, such as:
    1. Worship services;
    2. Musical or theatrical performances;
    3. Weddings; and
    4. Funerals;
  - B. Customary and incidental accessory uses, such as:
    1. Educational presentations;
    2. Neighborhood meetings;
    3. School graduations;
    4. Public meetings; and
    5. Other civic or non-profit group meetings.
  - C. Occasional charitable events (including concerts and other similar performances) for the benefit of an individual or family in need or for a charitable organization or charitable cause.
  - D. Except for occasional charitable events under Subsection (C), above, ticketed events may charge only nominal fees to cover church operating expenses, including, utilities, maintenance, marketing and costs for promotion and other administrative and operational expenses.
- II. The buildings and outdoor amphitheater will not be used for commercial, for profit events.

Austin, Texas 78746

CONSIDERATION: Ten and No/100 Dollars ($10.00) and other good and valuable consideration paid by the City of Austin to the Owner, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged.

PROPERTY: A 53.113 acre tract of land, more or less, described by metes and bounds in Exhibit "A" incorporated into this covenant.

WHEREAS, the Owner of the Property and the City of Austin (the "City") have agreed that the Property should be impressed with certain covenants and restrictions;

WHEREAS, on December 17, 2008, a proposal was submitted to the Director of the City's Neighborhood Planning & Zoning Department ("Director") to allow an approximately 3,500-seat outdoor amphitheater to be included as part of a proposed religious assembly use on the Property under applicable zoning regulations codified in the City's Land Development Code;

WHEREAS, due to the size of the outdoor amphitheater and the potential for large-scale music events, the proposal included several conditions intended to ensure that use of the amphitheater remains consistent with a principal use of religious assembly and does not become an outdoor entertainment use as defined under the Land Development Code;

WHEREAS, on December 23, 2008, the Director determined that the applicable zoning classifications established by the Land Developed Code allowed an outdoor amphitheater as part of the proposed religious assembly use, subject to conditions included in the proposal;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is declared that the Owner of the Property, for the consideration, shall hold, sell and convey the Property, subject to the following covenants and restrictions impressed upon the Property by this Restrictive Covenant ("Agreement"). These covenants and restrictions shall run with the land, and shall be binding on the Owner of the Property, its heirs, successors, and assigns.

I. LAND USE & ZONING RESTRICTIONS

The buildings and outdoor amphitheater located or to be located on the Property will be subject to the following limitations:

61/82

- A. Religious Assembly Use will be permitted (as defined in the Austin Land Development Code), including such uses as:
  - 1. Worship services;
  - 2. Musical or theatrical performances;
  - 3. Weddings; and
  - 4. Funerals.
- B. Customary and incidental accessory uses will be permitted, including such uses as:
  - 1. Educational presentations;
  - 2. Neighborhood meetings;
  - 3. School graduations;
  - 4. Public meetings; and
  - 5. Other civic or non-profit group meetings.
- C. Religious Assembly Use may include occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances) for the benefit of an individual or family in need or for a charitable organization or charitable cause.
- D. Except for occasional charitable events under Paragraph C, above, ticketed events may charge only nominal fees to cover utilities, maintenance, and other administrative and operational expenses.
- E. The buildings and outdoor amphitheater will not be used for commercial, for-profit events.
- F. The outdoor amphitheater is subject to all applicable City ordinances.
- G. The restrictions in this Article I are imposed as conditions to Site Plan No. 2011-0185C and apply to the extent that an outdoor amphitheater remains part of the principal religious assembly use.
- H. The restrictions in this Article I shall be interpreted consistent with all applicable local, state, and federal laws, including but not limited constitutional requirements.

II. SHARED PARKING

- A. The site has been granted a parking reduction under section 9.6. of the Transportation Criteria Manual and shall maintain the minimum number of parking spaces as approved with site plan SP-2011-0185C, as amended from time to time with approval from the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department. Concurrent use of the sanctuary located within the multipurpose building, the chapel, or the amphitheater is prohibited.

- B. The owner will provide a study based on Section 9.6.7 of the Transportation Criteria Manual within 12 months following the issuance of the certificate of occupancy for the multipurpose building to the Planning and Development Review Department; however the scope and content of the study will be adjusted to contain the level of analysis reasonably determined to be necessary by the parties, which may not include all technical requirements of Section 9.6.7.
- C. If additional parking is added to the site that addresses the parking deficiency, then consideration shall be given for allowing a function area or activity to operate as a "separate use" (i.e., can be used contemporaneously with another one of the other uses restricted pursuant to subparagraph A. above). This would include any change of occupancy or manner of operation that currently is approved as shared parking with site plan SP-2011-0185C, as amended from time to time with approval from the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department.

III. TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

- A. To improve safety and reduce delays for entering and exiting vehicles at the driveway to SH 71, the owner will be responsible for providing law enforcement officials to direct traffic for all events.
- B. A site plan or building permit for the property may not be approved, released, or issued, if the completed development or uses of the Property, considered cumulatively with all existing or previously authorized development and uses, generates traffic that exceeds the total traffic generation for the Property as specified in that certain Traffic Impact Analysis ("TIA") prepared by HDR, Inc., dated December 23, 2010, or as amended and approved by the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department. All development on the property is subject to the recommendations contained in the TIA and memorandum from the Transportation Review Section of the Planning and Development Review Department dated August 19, 2011. The TIA shall be kept on file at the Planning and Development Review Department.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. If Owner shall violate this Agreement, it shall be lawful for the City of Austin, its successor and assigns, to prosecute proceedings at law or in equity against the person or entity violating or attempting to violate this Agreement, and to prevent said person or entity from violating or attempting to violate such covenant. The restrictions set forth herein may only be enforced by the City of Austin and there are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement.
- B. If any part of this Agreement is declared invalid, by judgment or court order, the same shall in no way affect any of the other provisions of this Agreement, and such remaining portion of this Agreement shall remain in full effect.

- C. If at any time the City of Austin fails to enforce this Agreement, whether or not any violations of it are known, such failure shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel of the right to enforce it.
- D. This Agreement may be modified, amended, or terminated only by joint action of both (a) the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department of the City of Austin, and (b) all of the Owners of the Property at the time of the modification, amendment or termination.

Re: Promiseland Zoning Appeal (SP-2011-0185C)

Dear Robert:

Per your request, I am writing to explain why the Planning & Development Review Department ("PDRD") has rejected your administrative appeal of October 21, 2011 as untimely.

City Code Section 25-1-182 (Initiating an Appeal) requires that an administrative appeal be submitted no later than 20-days after the decision was made. In this case, while Title 25 does provide a right of appeal for zoning determinations, the decision to allow construction of the outdoor amphitheater as part of a religious assembly use was made by Director Guernsey on December 23, 2008, which is well beyond the 20-day limitations period. I have attached a copy of the use determination, which was made by email, along with the applicant's initial request and more recent correspondence from staff outlining conditions on the project.

As we discussed, in most cases the date of a zoning use determination will be the date of the site plan or permit approval for the project. However, in some cases use determinations are made by the Director well before a development application is submitted, and that is what occurred in this case.

We recognize that this process is more informal than what is required for a development approval. As I mentioned, some cities require a separate application if a developer wants to obtain (and later rely on) a use determination before applying for permits. However, the City's Land Development Code does not require a formal application for a use determination, and there is no legal requirement against making such determinations by correspondence. The Board of Adjustment has considered timely appeals of such determinations in the past.

Sincerely,

Re: Appeal of Land Use Determination Interpretation; Dream City Development; SP-2011-0186C ("Permit"); 53.113 Acres Located at 8901 W. Hwy 71 ("Property")

Dear Mr. Lloyd:

On October 21, 2011 the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association ("HCE") filed an appeal of certain land use determinations embedded in the approval of the Permit, including, the October 2, 2011 public restrictive covenant recorded in Document No. 2011146026 Official Public Records of Travis County, Texas ("Restrictive Covenant"). On behalf of HCE, this letter responds to your October 27, 2011 letter which provides the reasons for the City of Austin's denial of the HCE appeal. Attached to your letter were copies of a December 17, 2008 letter from Carl Conley to Greg Guernsey, a December 23, 2008 email from Greg Guernsey to Carl Conley and a July 13, 2011 letter from George Zapalac to Larry Hanrahan.

In your letter you write that the City denied HCE's appeal because City Code Section 25-1-182 requires that an administrative appeal be submitted no later than 20-days after the decision was made. You note that the "decision" to allow the construction of the outdoor amphitheater as part of religious assembly use was made by Director Guernsey on December 23, 2008. Your letter neither describes any other "decisions" regarding uses allowed on the Property nor identifies any other basis for rejecting the HCE Appeal.

HCE disputes the City's conclusion that all of the HCE appeal issues are encompassed within the December 23, 2008 email. HCE contends that the issues raised in the HCE appeal pertain to interpretations and determinations that appear for the first time in the Restrictive Covenant.

Director Guernsey executed the Restrictive Covenant in the same capacity that he issued the December 23, 2008 email. As you state in your letter, a land use determination can be informal but will typically have the same date of that the site plan or permit is approved. In light of the City's claim that the December 23, 2008 email constitutes a formal land use determination under Section 25-2-2 (even though the email does not reference such a legal status), HCE contends that the Restrictive Covenant must be accorded the same legal status to the extent that the Restrictive Covenant exceeds or differs from the terms of the December 23, 2008 email. HCE filed its appeal on October 21, 2011 within 20 days of the execution of the Restrictive Covenant by Greg Guernsey. Without waiving its assertion that the December 23, 2011 email is a legally invalid determination under Section 25-2-2, HCE maintains that its appeal was timely filed regarding the expansion of the definition of "religious assembly" and other provisions in the Restrictive Covenant that are beyond the terms and conditions of the December 23, 2008 email. The HCE appeal should be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment for consideration of the appeal issues described below.

FACTS RELATING TO HCE APPEAL

CARL CONLEY LETTER

In his December 17, 2008 letter to Greg Guernsey Carl Conley wrote: "The church building includes a typical indoor auditorium for 3500 seats. This indoor facility will be used for various religious assembly activities including worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations."

Mr. Conley goes on to write that the church building will be used for "non-religious non-profit civic uses such as neighborhood meetings, boy scouts/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings, etc. Again, these uses would be for non-profit activities...There may be some activities that would include a fee that would be used to provide benefit to an individual or group that had a special emergency need...or for some charitable organizations. All of these are typical of the use of a church facility." (emphasis added)

Mr. Conley clearly distinguishes "religious assembly" uses (worship services, weddings, funerals and educational and musical presentations) from "civic" uses (neighborhood meetings, boy scouts/girl scout meetings, school graduations, public meetings and charity events). Mr. Conley also states that the civic uses he described are typical uses of a church facility. He does not contend that these civic uses constitute "religious assembly."

GREG GUERNSEY DECEMBER 23, 2008 EMAIL

In response to Mr. Conley's letter, Director Guernsey sent the December 23, 2008 email:

"I have reviewed your letter and attachment. Since the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater are both being primarily used for religious assembly uses, I don't see a problem with these two facilities co-locating on the property. I understand that the educational and musical presentations will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use. I also understand the church will be compliant [sic] with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including the noise ordinance." (emphasis added)"

If the primary use of one or both of the facility does change from a religious assembly use to an outdoor entertainment or an indoor entertainment use, a zoning change may be required."

In the emphasized sentence, Director Guernsey states that the "religious assembly" use (regularly scheduled religious worship or religious education) must be the predominate use of the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater. Mr. Guernsey places two limitations on "educational and musical presentations." One, they must be "limited in scope," meaning, in part, of short duration. Two, they are subordinate to the primary use of religious assembly, meaning the frequency of "educational and musical presentations" must be much less than "religious assembly" activities.

Director Guernsey does not mention any of the civic uses described by Mr. Conley in his December 17, 2008 letter. Mr. Guernsey's email does not incorporate or adopt the Carl Conley letter. There is no basis to interpret Mr. Guernsey's email as interpreting a "religious assembly" use to include the "civic" uses described in Conley's letter. Instead, Mr. Guernsey states that the church must comply with all applicable City Codes and ordinances, including, presumably, Chapter 25-2 which establishes allowable uses in RR zoning districts.

JULY 13, 2011 GEORGE ZAPALAC LETTER

The July 13, 2011 George Zapalac letter to Larry Hanrahan includes the following:

"The applicant has represented to City staff that the proposed use of the site for Promiseland West Church – SP-2011-0006C will be Religious Assembly, as defined by the Land Development Code 25-2-6(B)(41)...As you can see, the request on which PDRD based its use determination included significant limitations on the nature and extent of the proposed amphitheater which ensure its consistency with a Religious Assembly use. (emphasis added)

Accordingly, any site plan approval for the project would be conditioned on the execution and recording of a public restrictive covenant that sets forth these specific limitations outlined in the 2008 request, as well as additional restrictions that "help to identify/clarify specific uses that are not permitted under the proposed religious assembly use."

Since PDRD issued its 2008 determination, representations have been made regarding site uses that may go beyond the scope of a Religious Assembly use. The conditions outlined above, as set forth in the 2008 Conley letter, would effectively prohibit any such non-Religious Assembly uses at the site. (emphasis added)

Mr. Zapalac's letter is quoted here to establish that Mr. Guernsey's December 23, 2008 "determination" had not be superseded by any subsequent land use determination. In his letter, Mr. Zapalac incorrectly describes the "non-religious non profit civic uses" outlined in Mr. Conley's letter as "religious activities." Mr. Zapalac's error is of no import because he does not have the authority to make or issue a land use determination under Section 25-2-2 of the Land Development Code.

Mr. Zapalac does acknowledge that public statements made by the applicant regarding its intended use of the outdoor amphitheater for various activities that could fall outside of the scope of a religious assembly use, as defined in the Land Development Code. Mr. Zapalac's comment comports with City staff site plan review comment SP-15, update 1 for SP-2011-0006C<sup>1</sup>. As you know, HCE and other nearby neighborhoods have provided the City examples of repeated statements by the applicant that the applicant intended to use the outdoor amphitheater for non-religious assembly uses. Mr. Zapalac's letter and Staff comments strongly support the conclusion that the one or more of the applicant's intended uses of the outdoor amphitheater, as reported in the media and on the applicant's blog, were not authorized by the December 23, 2008 email.

Notwithstanding the Staff's recognition that the applicant's intended uses of the amphitheater exceeded the limitations of the December 23, 2008 email, the City executed the Restrictive Covenant.

NEW INTERPRETATIONS IN THE RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

HCE appealed four interpretations embedded in the approval of the Permit and the Restrictive Covenant.<sup>2</sup> HCE appeal issues 2 and 3 address the Planning and Development Review Department interpretation: [2] "that expands the definition of Religious Assembly (25-2-6(41)) to include "musical and theatrical performances" and concerts, if the concert is held for a charitable purpose;" and [3] "that an outdoor amphitheater that seats 1,000 people is a principal use of the property if the applicant claims a Religious Assembly use." (emphasis added). Appeal point 3 means that City staff accept a use as allowed under "religious assembly" merely on the basis of the applicant claim the use was a religious assembly use.

Below is a list of the new interpretations and determinations that are materially different than the interpretation of December 23, 2008. To the extent that these interpretations are different from the terms of the December 23, 2008 email, they constitute new interpretation under Section 25-2-2 that HCE timely appealed.

1. The Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "religious assembly" use to include "theatrical performances." If the Restrictive Covenant complied with the interpretation found in the December 23, 2008 email, the term "theatrical performances" would not have been included at all.
2. Section 1.C of the Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "religious assembly" use to include "charitable events." The Carl Conley letter describes charitable events as "non-religious non-profit civic uses." The December 23, 2008 email does not mention any of the civic uses described by Mr. Conley and certainly does not categorizes "non-religious non-profit civic uses" as within the category of "religious assembly" use.
3. The Restrictive Covenant is the first time that Director Guernsey interpreted "musical or theatrical performances" (Section I.A.2) as principal or primary uses under "religious assembly." In the December 23, 2008 email, "musical presentations" were required to be subordinate to the primary use of religious assembly and to be of limited scope. The uses described in Restrictive Covenant Section 1.C, regarding "occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances," can only be interpreted as placing "concerts and performances" within the category of "musical or theatrical performances" found in Restrictive Covenant Section I.A.

In contrast to Sections I.A and I.C, Section I.B lists "customary and incidental accessory uses" associated with "religious assembly" use. If the Restrictive Covenant complied with the interpretations in the December 23, 2008 email, then Section I.B would have included "musical presentations" and Section I.C would not have been included at all.

4. The Restrictive Covenant provision that a benefit concert or performance is a principal use without any objective limitation on the frequency of such events is materially different than the December 23, 2008 email interpretation of "musical presentation" as a secondary or subordinate use. The only apparent attempt in the Restrictive Covenant to limit the number of concerts and "performances" is the word "occasional." The Restrictive Covenant, however, does not define the term "occasional." As a result, the Restrictive Covenant does not place any objective limit on the frequency of benefit concerts or charitable events as required by the December 23, 2008 email.

5. Unlike the text of the December 23, 2008 email, the Restrictive Covenant does not require "regularly scheduled worship or religious education" to be the predominate use of either building.

6. The Restrictive Covenant does not contain the "limited in scope" constraint on "educational and musical presentations" found in the December 23, 2008 email. The Restrictive Covenant can be interpreted to authorize concerts, which by definition and experience, are not limited in scope or duration.

7. In the December 23, 2008 email Mr. Guernsey wrote that he had "no problem" with the worship building and outdoor amphitheater co-locating on property if both are being used primarily for religious assembly uses. Section 25-2-6(41) defines Religious Assembly use as:

"regular organized religious worship or religious education in a permanent or temporary building. The use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities." (emphasis added)

Under this Land Development Code definition, "religious assembly" has a narrow definition that excludes many other uses which are commonly associated with a church or a "religious assembly" use structure. Mr. Conley is correct when he wrote: "All of these [non-religious non-profit civic uses] are typical of the use of a church facility." Under the Land Development Code, the use of a church facility for "civic uses" does not, however, result in a code amendment that adds "non-religious non-profit civic uses" to the allowed activities under "religious assembly" use. As you know, the Land Development Code includes other defined land use categories, such as, "club or lodge" and "community recreation-private," that encompass the "non-religious non-profit civic uses mentioned by Mr. Conley.

Under Section 25-2-491, "club or lodge" and "community recreation" (private and public) are conditional uses in the RR zoning district. Mr. Guernsey does not have the authority to convert a conditional use into an allowed use much less to authorize a conditional use as a primary allowed use. The December 23, 2008 email did not articulate such an authorization; but the Restrictive Covenant does.

Riverbend Baptist Church ("Riverbend") and the Dell Jewish Center ("DJC") are examples of large campuses providing a variety of community services that are operated by a religious group. The respective PUD ordinance for each facility includes an extensive list of permitted and prohibited community and civic oriented uses, including, "club or lodge," "community recreation" (private and public) and "religious assembly."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Ord. No. 20080925-135, Part 5, PUD Zoning for Dell Jewish Center and Ord. No. 20001214-97, Part 4, PUD zoning for Riverbend Church.

December 12, 2011
Page 6

The Riverbend PUD and the DJC PUD ordinances are consistent with the interpretation of the Land Development Code that "religious assembly" is a distinct and separate regulated use from other activities that are typically found at a church facility. Neither the December 23, 2008 email nor prior zoning ordinances for multi-function religious assembly facilities support the new and expansive interpretation of the new primary or principal uses allowed under "religious assembly" found in the Restrictive Covenant.

In that the Restrictive Covenant authorizes "non-religious non-profit civic uses" as primary uses of both buildings, the Restrictive Covenant abandons the limitation set forth in the December 23, 2008 email that allows the co-location of the worship building and the outdoor amphitheater if both buildings are used primarily for "religious assembly." Instead of enforcing the terms of the December 23, 2008 email, the Restrictive Covenant fundamentally changes the nature and scope of the activities allowed under "religious assembly" use in a RR zoning district.

If it remains the City's position that the only land use determination made under Section 25-2-2 that is applicable to the Permit is the December 23, 2008 email, then the Restrictive Covenant must be modified to strictly conform with the terms of the December 23, 2008 email. If it is the City's position that the Restrictive Covenant (and not the December 23, 2008 email) is the document that regulates the use of the Property, then the Restrictive Covenant must constitute a new land use determination under Section 25-2-2. In the latter case, the HCE appeal was timely filed under Section 25-1-182 of the Land Development Code and the appeal must be forwarded immediately to the Board of Adjustment for a public hearing.

Since construction has started on the Property, it is of great urgency that the City respond to this letter as quickly as possible. Please let me know if the City will forward the HCE appeal to the Board of Adjustment or revise the Restrictive Covenant to strictly comply with the terms and conditions of the December 23, 2008 email. I would appreciate a written response by December 22, 2011.

Very truly yours,

Robert J. Klecman

Re: Dream City Site Plan [SP-2011-0186C]—Zoning & Administrative Issues

Dear Mr. Kleeman:

After reviewing your letter of December 12, 2011, we have advised the Planning & Development Review Department ("PDRD") that your appeal is barred on timeliness grounds for the reasons set forth in our previous letter of October 27, 2011.

The zoning issues related to this development were resolved in December 2008 by Director Greg Guernsey's determination that construction of the proposed outdoor amphitheater is allowed as part of a religious assembly use. That determination was made in direct response to the applicant's submittal, which included conceptual plans as well as a list of specific uses and associated conditions to be imposed via a restrictive covenant. The 2008 determination must be presumed to incorporate the uses and conditions detailed by the applicant's submittal.

The restrictions in the covenant do clarify particular requirements in order to assist with enforcement and administration, but they do not constitute a new use determination under Section 25-2-2 (Determination of Use Classification) or contradict Director Guernsey's prior 2008 determination. In particular, there is no indication that non-religious assembly uses will be permitted unless they are accessory to the principal use of religious assembly. As stated in Mr. Guernsey's 2008 determination, such uses "will be limited in scope and will be subordinate to the primary religious assembly use."

It should be emphasized that the terms of the covenant are not an exhaustive list of limitations applicable to use of the amphitheater, but merely those included as part of the applicant's 2008 submittal. City Code imposes numerous other restrictions, including the requirement that any accessory use be "incidental to" the principal use of religious assembly. To the extent an accessory use of the amphitheater exceeded that scope, enforcement would be appropriate regardless of whether the applicant had violated a term of the covenant.

Robert Kleeman
December 29, 2011

The line between accessory and principal use can be difficult to define, but the Director will carefully consider any alleged violations related to the frequency or intensity of activity at the amphitheater. Additionally, as outlined in my email to you on December 7, 2011, any use of sound equipment on the property will require a sound amplification permit under City Code Chapter 9-2 (Noise and Amplified Sound) as well as compliance with other restrictions under the City's noise regulations. Where a permit is sought for outdoor music, the City has authority under the ordinance to impose conditions to mitigate the impacts of events on adjoining properties, including limitations on the size, scale, and duration of the event. If such permits are requested, Hill Country Estates would have the opportunity to raise any concerns you may have regarding potential impacts.

Finally, as you may be aware, earlier this month the City Council initiated code amendments that would establish clearer requirements for appealing use determinations. Consistent with existing practices, however, an informal use determination of the sort at issue in this case is treated as an appealable decision subject to the 20-day limitations period under City Code Section 25-1-182 (Initiating an Appeal).

Please feel free to contact me if you have further questions or concerns regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Brent D. Lloyd

I'm just reading the statute, Mr. Guernsey, 6 and I'm just asking you if there's something else, some 7 other interpretive provision of the statute that I need 8 to look at that I'm not reading. Because what it says 9 is -- 10 A. I guess to the extent that we're talking about 11 accessory use, that may be correct. 12 Q. And if you look at 25-2-897, which is 13 "Accessory Uses for a Principal Civic Use." Right? 14 A. Okay. 15 Q. And is a religious assembly a civic use? 16 A. A religious assembly is a civic use. 17 Q. Okay. So "For a principal civic use, the 18 following are accessory uses: A dwelling unit ... 19 occupied by a family." Okay. That's not an 20 amphitheater, is it? 21 A. No, sir. 22 Q. "Refreshment stands and convenience food or 23 beverage sales that serve a public ... use." That might 24 be in an amphitheater, but that's not an amphitheater 25 itself, is it? I mean, you're not using a 1,000-seat	99 1 Q. And I'm not sure what a columbarium is. Are 2 you? I think I know, but -- 3 A. I think I know, too. I'd have to go back and 4 actually look up the definition. I think the state 5 definition has actually changed. But no, I would agree 6 that it's not an amphitheater. 7 Q. Okay. So none of the accessory uses for 8 principal civic use would be applicable to the 9 amphitheater, would it? 10 A. As an accessory, no. As a principal, yes, in 11 this case. 12 Q. An amphitheater, are you aware of a bunch of 13 churches, synagogues, mosques or places of worship that 14 are outdoor amphitheatres in the city of Austin? 15 A. The particular case that was presented to me, 16 and I would have to go back to look through some of the 17 documents which may be in here or that you have -- 18 Q. Yeah, we will. 19 A. -- I think it was described that the 20 activities that would take place in one building, the 21 main building, would also be the same that would take 22 place in this particular building, the amphitheater 23 building. 24 Q. So disc golf? 25 A. I'm not sure what you mean.
98 1 amphitheater to sell refreshments. I mean, that's 2 incidental to it, isn't it? 3 A. I would agree, yes. 4 Q. An amphitheater isn't a cafeteria, a dining 5 hall or similar food services that are primarily for the 6 convenience of the employees, residents, clients, 7 patients, or visitors, is it? 8 A. That one may actually be a little different 9 with respect to religious assembly uses. We've had, I 10 believe, instances in the past in the city of Austin 11 where we've had soup kitchens come up, and we've said 12 that that is integral to the principal use and not 13 necessarily accessory in all cases. 14 Q. Okay. But that's not an amphitheater, is it? 15 A. No, sir. 16 Q. A gift shop, news stand or similar commercial 17 activities primarily for the convenience of employees, 18 residents, clients, patients, or visitors, that's not an 19 amphitheater either, is it? 20 A. No, sir. 21 Q. And it's not a -- an amphitheater isn't a 22 parking facility, is it? Although it may have one next 23 to it, itself it isn't a -- you don't park in an 24 amphitheater. 25 A. Correct.	100 1 Q. Is disc golf going to take place in the main 2 building? 3 A. The religious worship is the principal use on 4 this property. I'm not sure if they play disc golf in 5 the sanctuary of most churches -- 6 Q. How about -- 7 A. -- synagogues or other places of worship. 8 Q. How about dance lessons? 9 A. The Zumba thing you were talking about? 10 Q. Zumba, piliates, exercise instruction? 11 A. I think -- I think there are many religious 12 assembly uses in the city of Austin that provide 13 services that may account for various activities which 14 may or may not include those as being really, I guess 15 you could say incidental and customary that you might 16 find in the city. 17 Q. Isn't that more in the nature of community 18 recreation than it is in the nature of religious worship 19 or religious assembly? 20 A. Community recreation is probably something 21 more specific. I mean, and there's a definition of that 22 in here, too. 23 Q. Yeah, I'm aware of that. 24 A. Okay. I look at that as being different. 25 Q. Mr. Guernsey, can you have an illegal activity

APPLICATION TO BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT
INTERPRETATIONS
PART I: APPLICANT'S STATEMENT
(Please type)

STREET ADDRESS: 8901 West State Highway 71

LEGAL DESCRIPTION: Subdivision –

53.11 acres as described in the attached restrictive covenant

Lot (s) _____ Block _____ Outlot _____ Division _____

ZONING DISTRICT: RR

I/WE KIM BUTLER, SECRETARY on behalf of myself/ourselves as authorized

Agent for HILL COUNTRY ESTATES HOMEOWNERS ASSN affirm that on THE 18TH

Day of October, 2011, hereby apply for an interpretation hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

Planning and Development Review Department interpretation is:

- 1) An outdoor amphitheater that seats 1,000 people is a Religious Assembly use when the applicant's site development permit application asserts that it is for Religious Assembly;
- 2) one that expands the definition of Religious Assembly (25-2-6(41)) to include "musical and theatrical performances" and concerts if the concert is held for a charitable purposes;
- 3) one that an outdoor amphitheater that seats 1,000 people is a principal use of the property if the applicant claims a Religious Assembly use; and
- 4) that once a Religious Assembly use is applied to a structure, then the approval procedures mandated by Chapter 25-2 for an outdoor amphitheater (conditional use permit) no longer apply.

I feel the correct interpretation is:

- 1) By definition, Religious Assembly use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities. A 1,000 outdoor amphitheater is not a customary structure anywhere in the City and is certainly not a customary structure for religious assembly. If a new structure (outdoor amphitheater) is proposed to fall under Religious Assembly, then the City Council should make that determination after a public hearing.

2) Since the Land Development Code ("LDC") excludes Community Recreational Facilities, where one would expect to see musical and theatrical performances, outdoor amphitheaters are also excluded from Religious Assembly. If concerts and musical and theatrical performances are to be added, then the City Council should make that determination after a public hearing.

3) The LDC defines "Principal Use" as the "primary function of a site, building, or facility." As a Principal Use, the applicant can just build the amphitheater and no other buildings on the property. A 1,000 seat outdoor amphitheater, regardless of who owns or operates the facility, constitutes "Outdoor Entertainment," as defined in 25-2-4(45) and must be regulated and approved as an outdoor entertainment use.

4) This type of structure used for outdoor concerts, musical and theatrical performances is not a permitted use in any zoning classification; it is always a conditional use that the Land Use Commission must approve. The applicant must file for a zoning change and then a conditional use permit to operate an outdoor amphitheater.

NOTE: The board must determine the existence of, sufficiency of and weight of evidence supporting the findings described below. Therefore, you must complete each of the applicable findings statements as part of your application. Failure to do so may result in your application being rejected as incomplete. Please attach any additional support documents.

1. There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to the specific intent of the regulations or map in that:

The four interpretations ("Interpretation") are based on the applicant's statement that the outdoor amphitheater will be used for "Religious Assembly." "25-2-6(41) Religious Assembly use is regular organized religious or religious education in a permanent or temporary building. The use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities." (emphasis added)

The Interpretation approved the outdoor amphitheater as a principal use of the property. This means, the applicant could just build the outdoor amphitheater and parking on the property. Given the large size of the outdoor amphitheater, it is beyond question or any reasonable doubt that the Interpretation far exceeds the authority of the Director to approve a use that is strictly prohibited in RR zoning or to administratively approve a use that can only be approved as a conditional use.

According to the Texas Supreme Court, the Texas Religious Freedom Act ("TFRA") provides that "a government agency may not substantially burden a person's free exercise of religion [unless it] demonstrates that the application of the burden to the person...is in furtherance of a compelling government interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that interest." There can be no question that the City has a compelling interest in regulating the location and community impacts of outdoor amphitheaters. It is also beyond question that TFRA does not authorize an administrative approval process when Chapter 25-2 requires a conditional use permit approval process for outdoor amphitheater..

2. An appeal of use provisions could clearly permit a use which is in character with the uses enumerated for the various zones and with the objectives of the zone in question because:

The Interpretation authorizes a principal use (outdoor amphitheater) that is not in character with a RR zoning district or any residential district. The Interpretation authorizes a principal use that is not in character with any zoning district in the City. An outdoor amphitheater, particularly one that is for 3,500 people is a commercial type use that requires a conditional use permit. See 25-2-491 Use Chart.

3. The interpretation will not grant a special privilege to one property inconsistent with other properties or uses similarly situated in that:

The Interpretation being appealed grants an unprecedented special privileges to the applicant by allowing the applicant to avoid 1) filing a re-zoning application to obtain a base commercial zoning district in which outdoor entertainment is a conditional use; and 2) requirement of obtaining a conditional use permit. The interpretation grants the applicant a substantive right or privileges not allowed under Chapter 25-2 by 1) authorizing a principal use (outdoor amphitheater) prohibited in a RR zoning district; and 2) authorizing a conditional use without obtaining a conditional use permit. The Interpretation denies due process to the adjoining landowners and usurps the authority of the Planning Commission to approve a conditional use permit.

The reason such venues require conditional use permit is due to the significant, adverse impacts on adjoining land. Therefore, an outdoor amphitheater use can not be approved administratively.

Pursuant to interpretation being appealed, so long as a religious assembly use exists on the land, an outdoor amphitheater can be built and operated . Further, the interpretation authorizes uses that are otherwise prohibited in the RR district so long as the use is for charitable purposes or any activity that constitutes "Religious Assembly, such as "Musical or theatrical performances." Please note the bolded language. The interpretation gives any owner of the property that has a tax exemption to hold as many "Musical and theatrical performances" that it wants.

Re: Interpretation Appeal by Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association
("HCEHA"); SP-2011-0185C ("Permit")

Dear Mr:

I am a resident of Hill Country Estates and a member of the HCEHA. I am writing this letter on behalf of Kim Butler who is the Secretary of the HCEHA. I am tendering this Interpretation Appeal within 20 days of the HCEHA receiving written confirmation that the City has administratively approved the Permit that allows the construction and operation of a conditional use.

As described in Section 25-1-131(A)(1)(c), the HCEHA is a neighborhood organization that has an interest in the development of the 53.113 acres located at 8901 W. SH 71, Austin, Texas. The 53 acres is the property described in SP-2011-0185C and is described in the restrictive covenant recorded in Document No. 2011146026, Official Public Records of Travis County, Texas ("Property"). The HCEHA has met the requirements of Section 25-1-131(C) by communicating its concerns regarding the proposed development described in the permit. Enclosed is a copy of correspondence to City staff regarding site development permit application case SP-2011-0185C ("Case"). Also, please see the enclosed print of the screen from the City's web site regarding the Case to verify HCEHA's interested party status.

As stated in the previous correspondence to City staff and the Interpretation Appeal application form, HCEHA appeals the administrative decision to approve an outdoor entertainment venue with 1,000 fixed seats and a hill side seating area that the applicant has represented can hold an additional 2,500 people. The Permit authorizes the use of the Venue for concerts and musical and theatrical performances. Under Chapter 25-2-4(45), such a structure and use are classified as Outdoor Entertainment. Under Section 25-2-491(A), this type of structure is not a permitted use in any zoning district and is a conditional use in a limited number of commercial zoning districts. The Property is zoned RR and is surrounded by residentially zoned property.

Outdoor Entertainment is a strictly prohibited use in all residential zoning districts. Even where an Outdoor Entertainment venue is conditionally allowed, it requires a conditional use permit. By classifying Outdoor Entertainment as a conditionally use, Chapter 25-2 provides adjacent property owners procedural rights and protections by requiring a Land Use Commission to hold a public hearing before approving a conditional use permit. Further, Chapter 25-5 specifies that conditional use permits are purely discretionary in nature, just like zoning. In other words, approval of a conditional use permit is a legislative function.

By interpretation, City staff has usurped the legislative authority of the Planning Commission by administratively approving the Permit which includes the Venue. The administrative approval of the Permit has denied the adjoining property owners their due process rights granted by Chapter 25-2. That is, Outdoor Entertainment is strictly prohibited in RR zoning. Under Chapter 25-2, the applicant should have requested a zoning change to a zoning district in which Outdoor Entertainment is allowed as a conditional use. If the Permit applicant obtained the requisite re-zoning, then the Permit applicant would be required to file a conditional use permit application. The HCEHA and its members have been denied their rights under Chapter 25-2. As a result of the interpretations being appealed, the Permit applicant has received several special benefits and privileges- the administrative approval of a use and structure without appropriate zoning or a conditional use permit.

Finally, one of the interpretations being appealed has the effect of substantively amending the definition of "Religious Assembly" in Chapter 25-2 by adding an outdoor entertainment venue as an included use even though Section 25-2-(41) clearly excludes "community recreational facilities" as religious assembly. Again, amending the definition of Religious Assembly in Chapter 25-2 is a legislative function of the City Council. In effect, approval of the Permit constitutes an amendment of 25-2-491 to show Outdoor Entertainment as a permitted use in all zoning districts if the applicant claims the use is a religious assembly.

The HCEHA requests the Board of Adjustment to grant its appeal and instruct City staff to take immediate action to cancel the approval of the Permit so that the Permit applicant is required to following the requirements of Chapter 25-2, including the necessity of obtaining a conditional use permit for an appropriately zoned tract of land.

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Robert Kleeman

Re: Promiseland Zoning Appeal (SP-2011-0185C)

Dear Robert:

Per your request, I am writing to explain why the Planning & Development Review Department ("PDRD") has rejected your administrative appeal of October 21, 2011 as untimely.

City Code Section 25-1-182 (Initiating an Appeal) requires that an administrative appeal be submitted no later than 20-days after the decision was made. In this case, while Title 25 does provide a right of appeal for zoning determinations, the decision to allow construction of the outdoor amphitheater as part of a religious assembly use was made by Director Guemsey on December 23, 2008, which is well beyond the 20-day limitations period. I have attached a copy of the use determination, which was made by email, along with the applicant's initial request and more recent correspondence from staff outlining conditions on the project.

As we discussed, in most cases the date of a zoning use determination will be the date of the site plan or permit approval for the project. However, in some cases use determinations are made by the Director well before a development application is submitted, and that is what occurred in this case.

We recognize that this process is more informal than what is required for a development approval. As I mentioned, some cities require a separate application if a developer wants to obtain (and later rely on) a use determination before applying for permits. However, the City's Land Development Code does not require a formal application for a use determination, and there is no legal requirement against making such determinations by correspondence. The Board of Adjustment has considered timely appeals of such determinations in the past.

Re: Promiseland West—Appeals of Building Permit for Amphitheater

Dear Mr. Kleeman:

In support of the Director of Planning & Development Review ("PDRD") and the Building Official, I am writing in response to the two appeals you filed to the above-referenced building permit issued for an amphitheater previously approved in connection with the Promiseland West site plan.

After reviewing your submittals and the prior record in this case, the Director has determined that the appeals are untimely and do not fall within the subject matter jurisdiction of either the Board of Adjustment ("BOA") or the Building & Fire Code Board of Appeals ("BFCBA"). Following is a summary of the reasons for the Director's decision.

I. BOA Appeal

A. *Prior Zoning Determinations

Though styled as an appeal of the May 2013 building permit,<sup>1</sup> the bulk of your BOA appeal challenges prior administrative determinations and staff-level communications made in connection with the amphitheater between 2007 and 2011. The allegations at pages 1-9 focus on the Director's 2008 zoning use determination and the 2011 site plan approval and related restrictive covenant, along with various staff emails from 2007-2008.

<sup>1</sup> Since your appeals allege error in issuance of the building permit, it is assumed for purposes of this letter that you are challenging BP No. 2013-047496-BP, which is attached hereto for reference. The document included and cited in both appeals, however, is the separately issued plan review.

61

Appeal of these prior determinations is untimely under City Code § 25-1-182 (Initiating an Appeal) for reasons explained in my letters to you on October 27 and December 30, 2011, both of which are attached to your appeal. Additionally, on March 21, 2013, the Travis County District Court (Livingston, J.) granted a plea to the jurisdiction filed by the City in response to litigation brought by your client challenging these same determinations. As you are aware, that case remains pending on your client's appeal to the Third Court.

B. *Building Permit

A copy of the building permit, issued on May 10, 2013, is attached hereto for reference, but was not included with your appeal as required under City Code § 25-1-183(3) (Information Required in Notice of Appeal). The only error alleged in connection with the permit is a notation on the City's website listing the structural "Sub Type" as: "Amusement, Soc. & Rec. Bldgs."

That notation does not appear on the actual building permit, nor does it constitute a "use determination" under Section 25-1-197 (Use Determination) or in any way authorize new uses not allowed under the City's zoning regulations, as previously construed by the Director. Rather, the sub-type notation references occupancy categories for which the structure is approved under the 2009 International Building Code, as adopted in City Code § 25-12-1 (Building Code). From a construction standpoint, structures are frequently rated for occupancy types under the Building Code that may not be allowed under applicable zoning regulations.

Your appeal does not challenge the Building Official's designation of the appropriate occupancy rating under the Building Code. Moreover, since the Building Code is not a zoning ordinance, issues related to structural requirements are not within the BOA's subject matter jurisdiction. See Texas Local Gov't Code § 211.009(1) (authorizing BOA appeals for determinations made under zoning enabling statute or local zoning ordinances); City Code Section § 2-1-111 (F) (authorizing BOA appeals for determinations made under Chapter 25-2 (Zoning)).

II. BFCBA Appeal

Your appeal to the BFCBA focuses on the same zoning determinations covered in your BOA appeal. In addition to being time-barred, zoning determinations are beyond the jurisdiction of the BFCBA, which is limited to "appeals of orders, decisions, or determinations made by the building official relating to the application and interpretations of

June 13, 2013

the Building Code and Fire Code.” See City Code Section §2-1-121(C) (Building and Fire Code Board of Appeals) (emphasis added).

The appeal does not allege that the building permit violates the Building Code or the Fire Code, neither of which is mentioned. Like the BOA appeal, it also fails to include a copy of the actual building permit and instead focuses on notations appearing on the city website in connection with the separately issued plan review (No. 2013-002081PR), which is not an appealable decision. See City Code § 25-11-93 (Appeal) (granting a right of appeal for a decision by the building official to “grant or deny a permit to the [BFCBA]”) (emphasis added).

Based on the reasons explained above, the Director has determined that your appeals are untimely and beyond the jurisdiction of either the BOA or the BFCBA. As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions or concerns regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Brent D. Lloyd

Re: Appeal of Decision by Greg Guernsey to Not forward May 28, 2013 Appeal to the Board of Adjustment For the Issuance of a Building Permit for an Outdoor Amphitheater, 8901 West State Highway 71, Case Number 2013-002081PR ("Permit")

Dear Chairman Jack and Members of the Austin Board of Adjustment:

This firm represents the Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association ("HCE") and the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc. ("CB") with respect to their appeal of the issuance of the Building Permit. CB and HCE meet the requirements of an interested party, as defined by the City Code.

On May 10, 2013, the City of Austin issued a building permit for an amphitheater to be constructed on 53 acres located at 8901 West State Highway 71, Austin, Texas 78736 (the "Property"). The Permit was issued in conjunction with City case number 2013-002081 PR.

On May 28, 2013 a representative of CB and HCE delivered to City staff an appeal to the Board of Adjustment and an appeal to the Building & Fire Code Board of Appeals regarding the May 8, 2013 approval of a permit and the issuance of the May 10, 2013 building permit for the outdoor amphitheater which is the first building permit issued for the amphitheater.<sup>1</sup> In addition to the appeal, the CB/HCE representative also delivered a standing letter and the appropriate filing fee for an appeal to the Board of Adjustment. A copy of a confirming email sent to Leon Barba on May 28, 2013, who took delivery of the appeal related documents, is enclosed. Also enclosed are copies of the May 28, 2013 appeal, the standing letter, and the filing fee check. The May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal is incorporated into this letter and into this appeal for all purposes.

<sup>1</sup> This letter and the accompanying appeal application do not pertain to the CB/HCE appeal to the Building & Fire Code Board of Appeals.

113

On June 14, 2013, Assistant City Attorney Brent Lloyd sent a letter dated June 13, 2013 to me regarding the May 28, 2013 appeal to the Board of Adjustment. In his June 13, 2013 letter, Mr. Lloyd wrote:

"After reviewing your submittals and the prior record in this case, the Director of Planning and Development Review has determined that the appeals are untimely and do not fall within the subject matter jurisdiction of either the Board of Adjustment or the Building & Fire Code Board of Appeals."

The balance of Mr. Lloyd's letter summarizes "the reasons for the Director's decision." According to Mr. Lloyd's June 13, 2013 letter, these are all decisions that Mr. Guernsey made after Mr. Guernsey received and reviewed the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal.

CB and HCE are appealing the decisions described in the June 13, 2013 Brent Lloyd letter. The decisions being appealed are described in the Appeal Application. A copy of the June 13, 2013 Brent Lloyd letter is enclosed with the Appeal Application.

Pursuant to Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code ("TLGC"), HCE and CB file this appeal of Director Guernsey's decision to not forward the CB/HCE May 28, 2013 appeal to the Austin Board of Adjustment. Pursuant to Section 211.009(a)(1), the Board of Adjustment has the authority to "hear and decide an appeal that alleges error in an order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of [Subchapter A of Chapter 211 of TLGC] or an ordinance adopted under [Subchapter A of Chapter 211 of TLGC]."

The present CB/HCE appeal to the Board of Adjustment alleges that Director Guernsey made one or more errors in his decision to not forward the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal to the Board of Adjustment. The present CB/HCE appeal alleges that Director Guernsey's decision is erroneous under Subchapter A, Chapter 211, TLGC and under Chapter 25-2 of the Austin Land Development Code.

CB, HCE, and their members are aggrieved parties because their substantive and procedural rights under Section 211.010(a)(1) TLGC and under the City Code have been denied them by Mr. Guernsey's decision to pass judgment on the May 28, 2013 appeal and his decision to not forward the May 28, 2013 appeal to the Board of Adjustment. In other words, Mr. Guernsey has made a determination in the enforcement of Subchapter A, Chapter 211, TLGC and under Chapter 25-2 of the Austin Land Development Code. Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC establishes the Board of Adjustment's authority to hear and decide an appeal alleging an error by an administrative official in the enforcement of Subchapter A of Chapter 211, TLGC and Chapter 25-2 of the Austin Land Development Code, which was adopted pursuant to Subchapter A of Chapter 211, TLGC.

HCE and CB are registered neighborhood associations and meet the requirements of Section 25-1-131(A) & (C) LDC to be Interested Parties by communicating their respective concerns regarding the proposed development described in the Building Permit. The enclosed May 28, 2013 appeal materials includes copies of email correspondences to City staff requesting recognition of Interested Party status with respect to the Building Permit application and the refusal of City Staff to do so. Mr. Frank Goodloe is treasurer of CB and Margaret Butler is the President of the HCE. Both HCE and CB are registered neighborhood associations with the City of Austin. All materials establishing the standing of CB and HCE in the May 28, 2013 appeal are incorporated into this letter for all purposes.

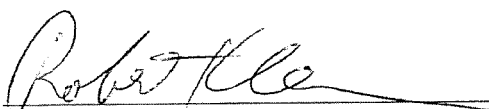

Importantly, the reasons given in the June 13, 2013 Brent Lloyd letter for Mr. Guernsey not forwarding the May 28, 2013 appeal to the Board of Adjustment do not include any assertion that CB or HCE are not interested parties, as defined by Section 25-1-131. Mr. Guernsey's reasons do not include his finding that the May 28, 2013 appeal was filed more than 20 days after the issuance of the May 10, 2013 building permit.

The contact information for Margaret Butler is (512) 699-6692 and her mailing address is 7100 Bright Star Lane, Austin, Texas 78736. The contact information for Frank Goodloe is (512) 906-1931 and his mailing address is 6705 Covered Bridge, Unit 10, Austin, Texas 78736.

Please let me know if there are any questions.

Sincerely,

SNEED, VINE & PERRY, P.C.

Leon:

Thanks for receiving the appeal to the Board of Adjustment and the appeal to the Building and Fire Code Commission today. For your convenience, I have attached PDFs of the two appeals, the standing letter for the Board of Adjustment appeal and the filing fee check that I left you.

Please let me know if there is any additional information required to complete the appeal application.

Subject: FW: Appeals Regarding Building Permit for Outdoor Amphitheater 8901 West SH 71 [MH-MHDocs.FID894290]

Dear Mr. Barba:

I represent the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association and the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association regarding their appeals of the issuance of a building permit for an outdoor amphitheater on RR zoned property located at the above referenced address. I am following up with you regarding the appeals to the Board of Adjustment and the Building and Fire Code Commission that I delivered to you on May 28, 2013. Copies of those appeals and the check for the payment of filing fee for the Board of Adjustment appeal are attached.

Has my clients' Board of Adjustment appeal been forwarded to the Board of Adjustment as required by Section 211.010(b) of the Texas Local Government Code? If not, please let me know when you anticipate that my clients' appeal and "all papers constituting the record" of the of the building permit being appealed will be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. If you do not intend to forward my clients' appeal and the record of the building permit to the Board of Adjustment, please notify as soon as such a decision is made.

Likewise, I have the same questions regarding my clients' appeal to the Building and Fire Code Commission.

Since our meeting on May 28, 2013, I have changed law firms. I sent you my new contact information by email on June 8, 2013. I resent my V-Card yesterday morning. Out of an abundance of caution, I have also attached my V-Card to this email

Please confirm your receipt of this email.

ZONING DISTRICT: RR

We, Margaret Butler, on behalf of myself and as Authorized Agent for Kim Butler and as Authorized Agent for Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association and Frank Goodloe, on behalf of myself and as Authorized Agent for Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc., affirm that on July 2, 2013, we hereby apply for an interpretation hearing before the Board of Adjustment.

The Director of Planning and Development Review Department interpretations regarding his decision to not forward to the Board of Adjustment the appeal submitted by Hill Country Estates Home Owners Association ("HCE") and the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association ("CB") regarding the issuance of a building permit in connection with City Case No. 2013-002081-PR for the Property ("Permit")<sup>1</sup>:

1. The Director of Planning and Development Review ("Director") has determined that the Board of Adjustment has no subject matter jurisdiction under either Section 211.009(a) (1), Texas Local Government Code or Section 2-1-111, City Code to hear an appeal that alleges that a building permit was issued in error.
2. The Director has the authority under Subchapter A, Chapter 211, Texas Local Government Code and the City Code to determine the subject matter jurisdiction of Board of Adjustment.

---

<sup>1</sup> City staff describes the Permit has building permit having City case No. 2013-047496-BP. CB and HCE are appealing the issuance of the permit in connection with City Case No. 2013-002081-PR. Even if the City has assigned a new case number to the issued permit, it is the same permit that is appealed.

61

3. The Director has determined that the Board of Adjustment has no subject matter jurisdiction under Section 211.009(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code or Section 2-111(F), City Code to hear the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal filed pursuant to Section 211.010(a)(1) that alleges the Permit was issued in error.
4. The Director has the discretionary authority under Section 211.010(b), Texas Local Government Code to not forward to the Board of Adjustment the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal filed pursuant to Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code.
5. The Director has determined that the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal is untimely with respect to the Permit issued on May 8, 2013.
6. The Director has determined that "under the prior record in this case," CB and HCE had the right to file only one appeal to the Board of Adjustment regarding the proposed outdoor amphitheater project on the Property. In other words, since late January 2009, CB and HCE have had no right under Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code to appeal any decision relating to the outdoor amphitheater, including the May 8, 2013 issuance of the Permit.
7. The Director has determined that CB and HCE may not file any appeal to the Board of Adjustment regarding the issuance of the Permit.

We feel the correct interpretations are:

1. The Board of Adjustment has subject matter jurisdiction under Section 211.009(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code and Section 2-111(F), City Code to hear and decide an appeal that alleges an error in the decision to issue a building permit if the alleged error relates to zoning regulations applicable to the subject property and the permit.
2. The Board of Adjustment has subject matter jurisdiction under Section 211.009(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code to hear and decide an appeal that alleges an error in the decision to issue any permit if the alleged error relates to the zoning regulations applicable to the subject property.
3. The Director does not have the authority to refuse the filing of an appeal made by an aggrieved person under Section 211.010(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code if the aggrieved person has substantially completed the applicable application form and submitted same within 20 days of the administrative decision being appealed.
4. An aggrieved person, who is not the permit applicant, may appeal a permit approval, including a permit that incorporates an earlier interpretation by City staff, if the error alleged relates to zoning regulations applicable to the permit and the subject property.
5. All appeals that are timely and complete pursuant to the City Code and are filed by an aggrieved person pursuant to Section 211.010(a) (1), Texas Local Government Code, must be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment.

6. The Director does not have the authority under Subchapter A of Chapter 211, Texas Local Government Code or the City Code to determine the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment over an appeal.

NOTE: The board must determine the existence of, sufficiency of and weight of evidence supporting the findings described below. Therefore, you must complete each of the applicable findings statements as part of your application. Failure to do so may result in your application being rejected as incomplete. Please attach any additional support documents.

1. There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to the specific intent of the regulations or map in that:

This is an appeal of decisions made by the Director of PDRD on June 14, 2013 regarding an appeal to the Board of Adjustment filed on May 28, 2013 by CB and HCE. Specifically, this is an appeal of the Director of PDRD's determinations of his authority to enforce Subchapter A, Chapter 211, Texas Local Government Code and Chapter 25-2, City Code.

A. Background Facts. On May 28, 2013, CB and HCE filed an appeal with Leon Barba appealing the issuance of the Permit on May 8, 2013. The appeal alleged an error in the issuance of the Permit because the activities described in the permit application are not authorized under the present zoning applicable to the Property. A copy of the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE Appeal is attached and made a part of this appeal for all purposes.

On June 14, 2013, Assistant City Attorney Brent Lloyd transmitted a letter to legal counsel for CB and HCE in support of the decision of the Director of PDRD to deny the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment. In the letter dated June 13, 2013, Mr. Lloyd wrote:

"After reviewing your submittals and the prior record in this case, the Director has determined that the appeals are untimely and do not fall within the subject matter jurisdiction of either the Board of Adjustment ("BOA") or the Building & Fire Code Board of Appeals ("BFCBA")."

CB and HCE understand one of the purposes of Mr. Lloyd's June 13, 2013 letter is to inform CB and HCE that the Director of PDRD will not forward the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal of the issuance of the Permit to the Board of Adjustment. The determinations described in Brent Lloyd's June 13, 2013 letter are referred to as the "Determinations" or "Mr. Guernsey's Determinations." A copy of the June 13, 2013 Brent Lloyd letter is enclosed and is made a part of this appeal for all purposes.

B. Differences in Interpretations of Applicable Law

1. Subject Matter Jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment. There is a reasonable doubt of difference of interpretation as to whether the subject matter jurisdiction granted to the Board of Adjustment under Section 211.009(a)(1), Texas Local Government Code ("TLGC") includes appeals regarding the issuance of a building permit.

The first determination being appealed is Mr. Guernsey's Determination that the Board of Adjustment does not have subject matter jurisdiction to consider an appeal of the issuance of a building permit.

121

Section 2-1-111(F)(5), Austin City Code states that the Board of Adjustment shall "perform other duties prescribed by ordinance or state law." Pursuant to Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC, the Board of Adjustment has the authority to:

"hear and decide an appeal that alleges error in an order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of [Subchapter A of Chapter 211 of TLGC] or an ordinance adopted under [Subchapter A of Chapter 211 of TLGC]."

Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC is a statutorily mandated subject matter jurisdiction for boards of adjustments in the state of Texas. The City Council has not limited the scope of the authority of the Board of Adjustment because Section 2-1-111(F)(5), Austin City Code conforms the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment to Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC. Therefore, Mr. Guernsey does not have the authority to limit the Board of Adjustment's subject matter jurisdiction under Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC. As to the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment to hear and consider an appeal of a building permit, the Texas Supreme Court has ruled that building permits are within the subject matter jurisdiction of a board of adjustment under Section 211.009(a)(1) TLGC. Ballantyne v. Champion Builders, Inc., 144 S.W. 3d 417, 425 (Tex. 2004).

Mr. Guernsey's determination that appeals of the approval of a building permit are outside the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment conflict with the plain language of Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC and the ruling of the Texas Supreme Court in Ballantyne.

2. The May 28, 2013 Appeal is Untimely. In the June 13, 2013 Lloyd letter focuses on the portions of the May 28, 2013 appeal that describe the errors in previous decisions to approve permits with respect to the Property. The June 13, 2013 letter states that "appeal of these prior determinations is untimely under City Code Section 25-1-182 for reasons explained in my letters to you on specifically refers to letters from Mr. Lloyd dated October 27 and December 30, 2011, both of which are attached to your appeal."

Mr. Lloyd's letter does not challenge the fact that the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal was filed within 20 days of the issuance of the Permit. Mr. Lloyd's letter also ignores the plain fact that the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal alleges an error in the decision to issue the Permit in May 2013. The Director of PDRD and Mr. Lloyd maintain that an administrative decision in 2008 can control and preclude an appeal under Section 211.010(a)(1), TLGC more than four years later. While the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal includes some facts that overlap the facts relating to the October 2011 appeal, the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE alleges errors in the issuance of new and totally different permit and alleges new facts.

Further, it does not matter whether the Director of PDRD believes he has permanently determined all issues relating to the permitting of the outdoor amphitheater on the Property. Section 211.010(a)(1), TLGC grants an aggrieved person, including

61

CB and HCE, the right to appeal a decision or determination of an administrative official to the Board of Adjustment. Each and every decision may be appealed. Section 211.009(a)(1), TLGC authorizes the Board of Adjustment (not the director of PDRD) to decide whether it will hear the appeal.

The clear purpose of Sections 211.009 and 211.010, TLGC is to provide the public an avenue to appeal administrative actions that an aggrieved person feels is wrong. Each property and each permit application is different. Community values and standards change over time. Every administrative decision should be subject to appeal, and if deemed appropriate by the Board of Adjustment, reviewed by the Board of Adjustment.

3. The Director of PDRD Has No Authority to Decide Which Appeals are forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. Mr. Guernsey's Determinations necessarily include his interpretation that the Director of PDRD has the discretionary authority to ignore the mandate of the third sentence of Section 211.010(b), TLGC. This sentence mandates that "...the official from whom the appeal is taken shall immediately transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record of the action that is appealed."

The right of appeal under Section 211.010, TLGC also includes the right to have the appeal presented to the Board of Adjustment and to have the opportunity to be heard by the Board of Adjustment.

CB and HCE contend that this is a non-discretionary obligation under state law. The Director of PDRD does not have the ability or authority to thwart appeal rights of CB and HCE under Section 211.010(a)(1) TLGC by arbitrarily deciding which of his decisions can be appealed.

4. The Director of PDRD Has No Authority Under State Law or the Chapter 25-2 to Determine the Subject Matter Jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment. There is no mention in Chapter 211, TLGC or in the City Code that the Director of PDRD or the administrative official whose decision is being appealed has the authority to decide the subject matter jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment. The Director of PDRD has granted himself a power that neither state law nor the City Code provides to him.

Subject matter jurisdiction is determined by state law and may be expanded by the City Council. Section 211.009(a), TLGC provides: "The board of adjustment may: (1) hear and decide an appeal that alleges error in an order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this subchapter or an ordinance adopted under this subchapter" (emphasis added).

The word "may" means the Board of Adjustment decides whether it will hear an appeal and the Board of Adjustment will decide whether the appealing party has standing. These powers of the Board of Adjustment are also reflected in Section 2-1-111(F), City Code. The Board of Adjustment should have had the opportunity to decide whether it wanted to hear the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal. As a policy matter, the Board of Adjustment should never be precluded from reviewing an appeal filed by an aggrieved party pursuant to Section 211.009(a)(1) seeks to present to this Board.

Under Sections 211.009 and 2.11.010, TLGC, the May 28, 2013 CB/HCE appeal should be forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. The director of PDRD can raise his subject matter jurisdiction objections at the hearing when the Board of Adjustment decides whether it will hear and consider the appeal. If the Director of PDRD is allowed to decide which of his or his staff's decisions are even forwarded to the Board of Adjustment, then the right of appeal granted by Section 211.009(a) (1) TLGC is completely nullified.

5. An appeal of use provisions could clearly permit a use which is in character with the uses enumerated for the various zones and with the objectives of the zone in question because:

This appeal does not pertain to use provisions under Chapter 25-2 of the Land Development Code. This is an appeal of certain determinations and decisions made by the Director of PDRD regarding his enforcement of Subchapter A, Chapter 211, TLGC. Therefore, this question is not applicable to the present appeal.

6. The interpretation will not grant a special privilege to one property inconsistent with other properties or uses similarly situated in that:

This appeal does not pertain to the granting of special privileges to one property. Therefore, this question is not applicable to the present appeal.

THE COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS
FOR THE THIRTEENTH SUPREME JUDICIAL DISTRICT
CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS

HILL COUNTRY ESTATES HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, and COVERED BRIDGE PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.,
Appellants

v.

GREG GUERNSEY and THE CITY OF AUSTIN,
Appellees

APPELLEES' RESPONSE TO APPELLANTS'
MOTION TO EXPEDITE THE MANDATE

Appellees, Greg Guernsey and the City of Austin (collectively, the "City"), file their Response to Appellant's Motion to Expedite the Mandate pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 18.1(c).

I.
Introduction

Appellants, Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association and Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc.,<sup>1</sup> ask this Court to depart from normal appellate procedures and issue the mandate early based on the erroneous assumption that the City will use the time to avoid Appellants' interpretation of this Court's ruling. This fear is unfounded for two reasons. First, nothing in this

<sup>1</sup> Although Covered Bridge Property Owners Association, Inc. joins in Appellants' Motion to Expedite, a ruling on the motion would have no effect on Covered Bridge. Hill Country, at *6 ("we hold that the trial court did not err in granting the plea to the jurisdiction solely as it relates to Covered Bridge on the issue of Guernsey's ultra vires actions of not forwarding Hill Country's appeal.")

Court's ruling requires the City to take any action regarding the site plan permit, or any other permit. Second, no action taken by the City between the present and issuance of the mandate will prejudice Appellees or deprive them of any rights or remedies afforded under Austin's Land Development Code, or state law.

II. Argument and Authorities

A. No Action by the City Would Circumvent This Court's Ruling.

Appellants broadly claim that by issuing a sound permit and certificate of occupancy, the City would avoid this Court's ruling. Motion to Expedite, at p.2. However, this Court expressly rejected Appellants' request for a writ of mandamus ordering the City to send the appeal to the Board of Adjustment, which would have stayed all development on the site. Hill Country Estates Homeowner's Ass'n v. Guernsey, No. 13-1300395-CV (Tex. App.—Corpus Christi, May 7, 2014). Because Appellants did not follow the proper procedure to petition for mandamus, this Court rejected mandamus, and did not issue a writ. Id., at *7 n.6. Appellants had an opportunity to obtain a form of expedited relief, this Court rejected it, and Appellants seek to circumvent that ruling by asking this Court to help them mitigate the consequences of their failure to properly seek mandamus relief.

This Court affirmed all issues in favor of the City, remanding only the narrow issue of "whether the trial court possessed subject-matter jurisdiction to hear Hill Country's ultra vires claim that Guernsey failed to forward its administrative appeal.” Id., at *4. Answering that issue, this Court simply held that “Hill Country sufficiently pleaded jurisdictional facts to invoke the trial court’s subject matter jurisdiction.” Id. The effect of this Court’s ruling is to remand to the trial court for a trial on the merits, not an order that the City take any specific action. This Court’s opinion does not indicate that “this court found Hill Country’s appeal to the Board of Adjustment filed on October 21, 2011, was still pending,” requiring compliance with the stay provisions of the Local Government Code, as Appellants assert. Motion to Expedite, at p.6. Rather, the opinion simply held that “the trial court had jurisdiction to hear Hill Country’s ultra vires claims related to Guernsey’s failure to forward the administrative appeal.” Hill Country, at *7.

To expedite the mandate, Appellants submit a self-serving, overly broad interpretation of the opinion arguing that the City is now required to forward the appeal to the Board of Adjustment. However, consistent with this Court’s ruling, the City may now seek review on the merits, including Appellants’ standing, and “this argument may ultimately prove to be true.” Id., at *7. The action that Appellants hypothesize the City will take will not allow the City to escape this Court’s ruling that the single remaining ultra vires claim go forward in the trial court, including by summary judgment.

GJ

B. Failure to Issue Mandate Early Will Not Prejudice Appellants.

Appellants have adequate administrative avenues to challenge any action taken by the City before the trial court takes up the issue of Appellants' first administrative appeal on the merits. For example, Appellants express concern in their motion that the City will issue a sound permit before this Court issues its mandate. Motion to Expedite, at p.6. If and when the City issues a sound permit, Appellants may appeal issuance of the permit to the City Council, as per § 9-2-56 of the Austin City Code. Appellants also express concern that the City will issue a certificate of occupancy before Appellants get a hearing before the Board of Adjustment. Motion to Expedite, at p.7. Yet, no authority has stated that Appellants are entitled to a hearing before the Board of Adjustment. Furthermore, even if the City issues a sound permit and/or certificate of occupancy before Appellants get a hearing, all activities may be stayed if Appellants get that hearing, regardless of whether or not already issued. Land Development Code, § 25-1-187; Tex.Loc.Gov'tCode, §211.010(c) ("appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action that is appealed"). Finally, if the City eventually agrees with Appellants, the sound permit and/or certificate of occupancy can be revoked even if already issued. Id., at §§ 25-1-413 and 416.

C. Conclusion

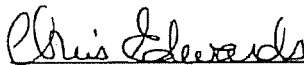

Appellants presume that the trial court will reinstate their administrative appeal, guaranteeing an automatic stay. Motion to Expedite, at p.7. Since this Court did not render judgement, nor grant the mandamus relief sought by Appellants, issues in the action remain for the trial court to resolve, and such a resolution may not be as Appellants presume. Appellants have failed to show good cause to expedite the mandate, as this Court's decision does not order the City to take any action and as expressed above, no action by the City would undermine the holding.

III.
Prayer

For the above reasons, Appellees respectfully request that the Court deny Appellants' motion to expedite the mandate.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

KAREN M. KENNARD, CITY ATTORNEY

Re: Appeal of Approval of the Construction of an Outdoor Amphitheater;
8901 S.H.71 W; SP-2011-185C ("Site Plan") and associated Restrictive
Covenant; and 2013-002081 PR ("Building Permit")

Dear Chairman Burkhardt and Members of the Board of Adjustment:

This firm represents the Hill Country Estates Homeowners Association ("HCEHOA"), who appealed the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant in October 2011 ("Site Plan Appeal") and the Building Permit in May 2013 ("Building Permit Appeal"), and the Covered Bridge Property Owners Association ("CBPOA") who also appealed the approval of the Building Permit in May 2013 (collectively, "Appellants"). This letter and the attached exhibits supplement and are incorporated into the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeal (collectively, the "Appeals").

The Board of Adjustment ("BOA") hearings on the Appeals have been delayed years because staff acted as if it had the authority to decide whether the Site Plan Appeal had been timely filed. According to staff, the Appellants had only one opportunity to appeal the land use determinations subject to the Appeals. That is, Appellants should have filed their appeals within 20 days of Director Guernsey sending a December 23, 2008 email to Carl Connelly. Staff denied Appellants' right to appeal in October 2011 even though staff had not notified the Appellants of the existence of this private email until July 2011. In 2012, the Appellants sued the City and Director Guernsey over the denial of appeal rights and the legality of the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant. Staff then challenged Appellants right to bring the lawsuit. The trial court granted the staff's motion to end the lawsuit in May 2013. Appellants appealed the trial court ruling.

In a May 2015 ruling, the Court of Appeals reversed the trial court decision as to HCEHOA stating that the trial court could not determine whether HCEHOA had standing to bring the lawsuit until the BOA had decided whether HCEHOA had standing to appeal the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant. In effect, the Court of Appeals ruling overturned the staff's authority to withhold the Site Plan Appeal from the BOA. A copy of the Court of Appeals ruling is attached as Exhibit 6. In August 2015, the City Legal Department notified counsel for Appellants that staff would forward the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeal to the BOA.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Interpretations Being Appealed

When the Planning and Development Review Department ("PDRD") approved the Site Plan and the Restrictive Covenant in October 2011 and the Building Permit in May 2013, it made the following land use determinations:

1. outdoor religious assembly is a principal and permitted use in the Rural Residential zoning district;
2. an outdoor amphitheater is a principal use under the "religious assembly" use;
3. musical and theatrical performances (concerts, plays, ballet, movies, etc.) not part of a religious worship service are principal uses under the religious assembly use; and
4. benefits, festivals, community events and charitable events, including ticketed events, are principal uses under the religious assembly use.

The articulations of these land use determinations (collectively "Land Use Determinations") are found in the Restrictive Covenant. Exhibit 1.

Summary of Appellants' Positions

Section 25-2-921(C) of the Land Development Code ("LDC") absolutely prohibits all types of outdoor assembly of people, including public assembly, religious assembly, festivals, and benefits in the RR to SF-3 zoning districts. Therefore, in the RR to SF-3 zoning districts, religious assembly, festivals and benefits must be conducted inside an enclosed building. The definition of religious assembly in § 25-2-6(B)(41) of the LDC narrowly defines religious assembly use as "regular organized religious worship or religious education in a permanent or temporary building." While music and presentations are clearly part of religious worship and religious education, stand alone plays, ballets, movies and concerts advertised to attract the general public is simply entertainment.

Appellants contend that City staff exceeded their authority under the LDC and Chapter 211 of the Texas Local Government Code by authorizing outdoor activities that are explicitly prohibited by the Zoning Code and an expansion of the principal uses allowed under the religious assembly use. For years, City staff has approved public restrictive covenants to impose restrictions that are outside the scope of the Zoning Code. The modification of the uses allowed under religious assembly is clearly within the scope of the Zoning Code. State law requires public notice and public hearings to amend zoning regulations and zoning district boundaries.

Neither staff nor the BOA has the legislative authority to amend the Zoning Code. The adoption and modification of zoning regulations and zoning districts are legislative functions of the governing body of the municipality. Thompson v. Palestine, 510 S.W. 2d 579, 581 (Tex. 1974). "...the city council may not delegate legislative functions under Chapter 211 to any person or public board. Lacy v. Hoff, 633 S.W.2d 605, 607 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th] 1982, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Swain v. Board of Adjustment, 433 S.W. 2d 727 (Tex. Civ. App. - Dallas 1968, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

Appellants also contend that the limitation on the frequency of outdoor concerts and benefits stated in the Restrictive Covenant is legally void because of vagueness. The Restrictive Covenant states that "religious assembly use may include occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances)" that require tickets charging more than a nominal fee to cover utilities, maintenance, and other operational charges. (Emphasis added). Without a numeric limitation, the term "occasional" is so vague as to make the limitation on the frequency of such events completely non-enforceable by Code Compliance.

Appellants ask the BOA to reverse:

1. the Land Use Determination ("LUD") that outdoor religious assembly is a principal use under religious assembly;
2. the LUD that an outdoor amphitheater is a principal use under religious assembly;
3. the LUD that the religious assembly use includes musical and theatrical performances and benefit concerts as principal uses;
4. the approval of the Site Plan;
5. the approval of Article I of the Restrictive Covenant; and
6. the approval of the Building Permit.

Alternatively, the Appellants ask the BOA to reverse the approval of Article I of the Restrictive Covenant because the limitation on the frequency of events held at the outdoor amphitheater (Occasional) is so vague that it is unenforceable.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Supplemental Statement of Facts

The statement of facts in this letter describes additional events preceding the filing of the first site plan for the outdoor amphitheater in January 2011 and events occurring after the filing of the Building Permit Appeal in May 2013. A timeline of the events is attached as Exhibit 21.

Proposed Use of Outdoor Amphitheater

Randy Phillips, the lead pastor for Life Austin, has been a member of the recording group Phillips, Craig and Dean for 25 years. According to Mr. Phillips, he has dreamed for more than 20 years of having an outdoor amphitheater in Austin. Exhibit 2-1. In 2007, PromiseLand Church West, Inc.<sup>1</sup>, now doing business as Life Austin, acquired approximately 68 acres of undeveloped land located between and adjacent to the Hill Country Estates ("HCE"), Covered Bridge ("CB"), and West View Estates residential subdivisions. The 68 acres was zoned Rural Residential in 2007 and remains so today. Exhibit 3.

Later in 2007, Randy Phillips announced plans to use 53 acres of the land ("Property") for the "Dream City" development that he described as "a community resource, not just a church home." Exhibit 2-2. As proposed, the Dream City development included an outdoor amphitheater. According to the church, the amphitheater could be used for "graduations, theatrical plays/productions, seminars, 'family movie' night, weddings, educational productions, neighborhood meetings and occasional concerts."<sup>2</sup> (Emphasis added) In March 2011, Randy Phillips explained to the media that the Dream City amphitheater would serve as an integral part of the community, providing a place for graduation ceremonies, recitals, ballets, family movie nights, jazz concerts, and other events. Randy Phillips told the media that he wanted to build "an amphitheater befitting the Live Music Capital of the World."<sup>3</sup> Large outdoor amphitheaters are very rare in Austin because of the conditional use permit requirement. Between 2007 and the end of 2011, only two permanent outdoor amphitheaters existed in the City of Austin—Symphony Square and Stubb's.

Neighborhood Discussions 2007 to 2009

From April 2007 to early 2009, representatives of Life Austin met with representatives of the Appellants and the Oak Hill Association of Neighborhoods ("OHAN") regarding the Dream City development. At an August 4, 2008 meeting, neighborhood representatives conveyed general willingness to support the Dream City development except for the outdoor amphitheater. Representatives of Life Austin expressed disappointment with the widespread concerns regarding the outdoor amphitheater. Life Austin offered to limit the number of productions at the outdoor amphitheater to 8 per month (2 per week or 100 per year).<sup>4</sup>

A final meeting between representatives of Life Austin and representatives of Appellants took place on January 12, 2009. During this meeting, Life Austin representatives indicated that while they would like the neighborhoods' approval and acceptance of the Dream City project, it in fact wasn't needed because of the religious nature of the project. Thereafter, Life Austin ceased communicating with the Appellants.

Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant and Building Permit Approved; Litigation

Background facts and the facts relating to the review and approval of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and Building Permit are set out in the May 2013 Building Permit Appeal, including the May 28, 2013 standing letter to the BOA.

A statement of facts relating to the litigation filed by Appellants in March 2012 to obtain a BOA hearing on the Site Plan Appeal is set out in my September 25, 2015 letter to the BOA accompanying the resubmittal of the Appeals.

Post-Filing of the Building Permit Appeal

By a June 13, 2013 letter, City Legal informed the Appellants that the Building Permit appeals would not be forwarded to the reviewing bodies; "... the Director has determined that your appeals are untimely and beyond the jurisdiction of ... the BOA ... " Exhibit 4.

On July 2, 2013, Appellants filed an appeal of the decision not to forward the building permit appeal to the BOA.<sup>5</sup> Appellants never received a response from the City regarding the disposition of this appeal. The July 2, 2013 appeal is largely mooted as a result of the City agreeing to forward the Appeals of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and Building Permit after the decision issued by the 13th Court of Appeals on May 7, 2015. Exhibit 6. Nevertheless, the July 2, 2013 appeal raises serious issues about the authority and propriety of staff deciding which appeals are sent to the BOA when the City Code and State law mandate that appeals shall be forwarded to the BOA.

Subsequent Events

On March 20, 2014, the Appellants sent a letter to Life Austin stating the Appellants would not abandon their legal fight to have the BOA hold hearings on the Appellants' appeals and informing Life Austin that if it proceeded with the construction of the outdoor amphitheater, then it would do so at the risk of having the permits authorizing the outdoor amphitheater reversed by the BOA. Exhibit 7.

In April 2014, Life Austin responded to the March 20, 2014 letter. The Life Austin letter stated that they understood that the Appellants had sued the City and Director Guernsey over the land use determinations made regarding the amphitheater, but they were committed to proceeding with their development in a timely manner. Exhibit 8. Both communications occurred prior to the construction of the outdoor amphitheater which began during the summer of 2014.

Outdoor Amphitheater Begins Operations

Between July 19, 2015 and October 17, 2015, 12 concerts and one movie were held at the outdoor amphitheater. Residents of Hill Country Estates and Covered Bridge have made more than 110 complaints to 3-1-1 regarding the noise from the outdoor amphitheater. A representative sampling of the 3-1-1 complaints is attached as Exhibit 9. Residents of Hill Country Estates have complained to 3-1-1 that the concert music can be heard inside their homes. On at least two occasions, the 3-1-1 operator has commented on hearing the music over the telephone. Sound from the outdoor amphitheater can be clearly heard more than a half mile away.

APPLICABLE CITY CODE PROVISIONS

Rural Residential Zoning District

Section 25-2-54 of the LDC states: "An RR district designation may be applied to a use in an area for which rural characteristics are desired or an area whose terrain or public service capacity require low density." (Emphasis added).

Religious Assembly

As previously discussed, § 25-2-6(B)(41) of the LDC defines the religious assembly use as "regular organized religious worship or religious education in a permanent or temporary building. The use excludes private primary or secondary educational facilities, community recreational facilities, day care facilities, and parking facilities." (Emphasis added) According to § 25-2-491(A) of the LDC, the religious assembly use is allowed in all residential zoning districts and the vast majority of all other zoning districts. § 25-2-491(B) of the LDC states: "The requirements of the other provisions of this subchapter [Subchapter C Use and Development Regulations] modify and supersede the requirements of this section."

140Prohibited Activities Allowed with a Temporary Use Permit

Section 25-2-921(C) of the LDC is a provision within subchapter C of Chapter 25-2. This §25-2-921(C) provides:

An outdoor public, religious, patriotic, or historic assembly or exhibit, including a festival, benefit, fund raising event, or similar use that typically attracts a mass audience may be permitted as a temporary use under this division if:

(1) for a gathering of not more than 50 persons, the use is located in an SF-4 or less restrictive zoning district;

(2) for a gathering of more than 50 persons, the use is located in an LO or less restrictive zoning district;" (Emphasis added)

Sub§ 25-2-921(C)(1) of the LDC clearly prohibits the issuance of a temporary use permit ("TUP") for any activity that attracts a mass audience in the RR to SF-3 zoning districts. § 25-2-921(C) further limits the size of a gathering to no more than 50 people unless the tract is zoned LO (Limited Office) or less restrictive.

Provisions regulating the issuance of temporary permits for uses otherwise prohibited first appeared in the Austin Zoning Code with the adoption of Chapter 13-2A that went into effect on January 1, 1985. § 13-2A-5200 provided:

"Sections 5200 through 5299 shall be known as the Temporary Use Regulations. Provisions authorizing temporary uses are intended to permit occasional, temporary uses and activities when consistent with the purposes of the Zoning Regulations and when compatible with other nearby uses." (Emphasis added) § 13-2A-5230(d) provided:

"The following types of temporary use may be authorized, subject to specific limitations herein and such additional conditions as may be established by the Building Official." (Emphasis added)

Code language regarding temporary use permits for outdoor assembly remains virtually unchanged since 1985.

Temporary Use Permit Defined

Eight months prior to the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 20110210-029 that added a definition of a "temporary Use Permit to the Sound Ordinance. Section 9-2-1(15) of the City Code defines a temporary use permit as "a permit issued by the Planning and Development Review Department under Chapter 25-2, Article 6 (Temporary Uses) [§ 25-2-921] to authorize a temporary activity not otherwise allowed as a principal or accessory use in a base zoning district." (Emphasis added). In other words, a TUP is not necessary if the activity is allowed as a principal or accessory use. The outdoor activities listed as requiring a TUP in § 25-2-921(C) definitively establish these as prohibited activities.

141Outdoor Entertainment

§ 25-2-4(B)(46) defines Outdoor Entertainment as a use that "is a predominantly spectator use conducted in open, partially enclosed, or screened facilities." This use includes sports arenas, racing facilities, amusement parks, venues for weddings, and other events. According to § 25-2-491 of the LDC, outdoor entertainment is not a permitted use in any zoning district and requires a conditional use permit in commercial and industrial zoning districts. Exhibit 10.

Determination of Use Classification

The authority for land use determinations is found in § 25-2-2 of the LDC. Following PDRD's refusal to forward Site Plan Appeal to the BOA, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 20120426-122 to reform the Land Use Determination process to require notification of potential interested parties to prevent non-public determinations being used to deny appeal rights.<sup>6</sup>

The version of § 25-2-2 in effect in October 2011 read as follows:

- (A) The director of the Neighborhood Planning and Zoning Department shall determine the appropriate use classification for an existing or proposed use or activity.
- (B) In making a determination under this §, the director of the Neighborhood Planning and Zoning Department shall consider the characteristics of the proposed use and the similarities, if any, of the use to other classified uses. (Emphasis added)
- (C) An interested party may appeal a determination of the director of the Neighborhood Planning and Zoning Department under this § to the Board of Adjustment.
- (D) The director of the Neighborhood Planning and Zoning Department shall notify the Planning Commission and the Zoning and Platting Commission of the filing of an appeal within 30 days of the filing, and of the disposition of the appeal within 30 days of disposition.
- (E) The director of the Neighborhood Planning and Zoning Department shall maintain a list of determinations made under this section. (Emphasis added).

Amphitheater Now Conditional Use

In response to PDRD's refusal to forward the Site Plan Appeal to the BOA, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 20130228-074 which added a definition of "amphitheater" to the LDC. Section 25-1-121(4) defines an "amphitheater" as "an outdoor or open-air structure or manmade area specifically designed and used for assembly of 50 or more people and the viewing of an area capable of being used for entertainment and performances."

This ordinance also added Section 25-2-517 that reads as follows:

<sup>6</sup> See Council discussion on item 59 of the December 15, 2011 Council agenda (Resolution directing City Manager to draft an ordinance).

G1
142

"(A) Construction of an amphitheater that is associated with a civic or residential use requires a site plan approved under Section 25-5, Article 3 (Land Use Commission Approved Site Plans), regardless of whether the amphitheater is part of a principal or accessory use. Review of the site plan is subject to the criteria in Section 25-5-145 (Evaluation Criteria) and the notice requirements of Section 25-5-144 (Public Hearing and Notice).

(B) A decision by the Land Use Commission on an application for an amphitheater is subject to appeal under Section 25-5-149 (Appeal to Council)."

Determination Of Standing To Appeal

- § 25-1-191(A) - CONDUCT OF PUBLIC HEARING.

"Before opening a hearing, a body hearing an appeal shall decide preliminary issues raised by the parties, including whether to postpone or continue the hearing and whether the appellant has standing to appeal."

APPELLANTS' POSITIONS

The Land Use Determinations made in conjunction with the approval of the Site Plan, the Restrictive Covenant, and the Building Permit constitute significant and improper deviations from unambiguous provisions in Chapter 25-2 of the LDC:

1. The Restrictive Covenant authorizes the religious assembly use to occur outdoors in a Rural Residential ("RR") zoning district even though § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC absolutely prohibits outdoor assembly of any type in the RR zoning district.

2. The Site Plan and the Restrictive Covenant classified a 3,500 seat outdoor amphitheater as a principal use under the "religious assembly" use. Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey Page 99, lines 9-10; page 154, lines 16-20).

3. If a use is prohibited, then a structure required for the prohibited use is also prohibited. For example, a building permit for an office building cannot be issued in a residential zoning district.

4. Even if § 25-2-921(C) is interpreted as allowing some outdoor events on the Property, the size of the completed outdoor amphitheater (1,500 seats) dwarfs the 50 person limit placed on outdoor assembly in all residentially zoned property.

5. The Restrictive Covenant broadens the type of activities that constitute principal uses by adding community and charitable events and musical and theatrical performances not part of a religious worship service (concerts, plays, ballet, movies, etc.).

6. The limitation of the frequency of ticketed events held at the amphitheater is so vague that it is unenforceable. The Land Use Determinations are so contrary to the provisions of Chapter 25-2 that they should require the formal code amendment process required under Chapter 211 of the Texas Local Government Code. The proposed code amendment to § 25-2-921(C) discussed below confirms the conclusion made in the preceding sentence.

The approval of the Building Permit required the same Land Use Determinations made in conjunction with the approval of the Site Plan and the Restrictive Covenant. Director Guernsey stated under oath that the review and approval of every site plan and building permit application requires a Land Use Determination. Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 22, line 11 to Page 23, line 23).

The Texas Supreme Court has ruled that "the BOA has the power to hear and decide appeals from any decision or determination by a city administrative official pertaining to the enforcement of the city's zoning ordinance." Ballantyne v. Champion Builders, Inc., 144 S.W.3d 417, 426 (Tex. 2004). (Emphasis added). In the Ballantyne case, the Texas Supreme Court ruled that Chapter 211 of the Texas Local Government Code authorizes boards of adjustment to hear and decide appeals of the issuance of building permits based on zoning. Id. 425.

"Outdoor" Religious Assembly

Director Guernsey has defended his approval of outdoor religious assembly as a principal use under religious assembly by stating the Austin Zoning Code "does not distinguish between indoor and outdoor religious assembly." Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 168, line 25- page 169, line 4).

According to Director Guernsey, all activities that may occur inside a building having a religious assembly principal use may also be conducted outdoors as a religious assembly use.

Director Guernsey's statement and determination that the Zoning Code "does not distinguish between indoor or outdoor religious assembly" is simply incorrect. § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC directly addresses the issue by absolutely prohibiting all types of outdoor assembly of people, including religious assembly, in the RR to SF-3 zoning districts. In all other zoning districts, all outdoor assembly activities require a Temporary Use Permit.

In February 2011, eight months before the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant, the City Council adopted the following definition of a temporary use permit: "a permit issued by the Planning and Development Review Department under Chapter 25-2, Article 6 (Temporary Uses) to authorize a temporary activity not otherwise allowed as a principal or accessory use in a base zoning district." (Emphasis added) When §§ 25-2-921(C) of the LDC and 9-2-1(15) of the City Code are read together, there can be no doubt that outdoor religious assembly is not a permitted principal or accessory use in the RR to SF-3 zoning districts.

In addition to the plain language in the Zoning Code, there are strong public policy reasons for keeping religious assembly activities inside buildings, particularly in residential areas. Religious beliefs are varied and very personal. Allowing outdoor religious worship on any residential lot is likely to lead to situations where people with differing religious beliefs would interact and potentially conflict. When the City chose to regulate outdoor assembly of people in 1985, it also recognized the great difficulty of distinguishing between an activity that is religious assembly and one that is not religious assembly. Section 25-2-921(C) of the LDC avoids this enforcement challenge by regulating all outdoor mass gatherings of people, religious assembly or not, in the same way.

Determination that "Outdoor Amphitheater" is Principal Use Under Religious Assembly

The version of § 25-2-2(B) of the LDC [Determination of Use Classification] in effect in 2011 mandated PDRD and Director Guernsey to consider the "characteristics of the proposed use and the similarities, if any, of the use to other classified uses." In other words, what classified use is the most similar to the proposed use.

Life Austin has been very open about how it intended to use the outdoor amphitheater—a community resource for events and entertainment. Since 2007, Randy Phillips and Life Austin have described and promoted the outdoor amphitheater as an events venue (concerts, plays, ballets, movies, weddings, etc.) befitting the "Live Music Capital of the World." Exhibit 2-2. In the context of a § 25-2-2 Land Use Determination, the type of events that Life Austin proposed and now holds at the outdoor amphitheater are most similar to the classified use of "outdoor entertainment" defined in § 25-2-4(B)(46) of the LDC.

When asked in February 2013 to identify an example of a church with an outdoor open structure resembling the Life Austin outdoor amphitheater, Director Guernsey responded:

"I believe there are structures probably in Austin somewhere that have either outdoor prayer gardens or - I know the church - my church actually has a couple of benches outside where people can sit and people can talk. There are other - probably other venues that are out there where there may be a place where people can congregate outside." Exhibit 11. (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, February 20, 2013; Page 37, lines 19-25).

Appellants contend that neither a prayer garden nor a park bench share any similarities or characteristics with an outdoor amphitheater that seats up to 1,500 people. The use of this outdoor amphitheater is more similar to an outdoor entertainment use than it is to a prayer garden. The potential impacts of the outdoor entertainment use are so significant that the outdoor entertainment use is possible in a limited number of commercial zoning districts and requires a Conditional Use Permit. There is no basis or legal authority for an administrative determination that the construction and use of a large outdoor structure with amplified sound could be classified as a permitted use in the RR zoning district. If outdoor assembly is prohibited in the RR zoning district then a structure for outdoor assembly is also prohibited.

Appellants' Position on § 25-2-921(C) Supported by Other Staff Actions

Below, Appellants cite several written City staff interpretations and an enforcement of § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC that are consistent with Appellants' position. These instances occurred before and after the approval of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and the Building Permit. Two staff statements made in 2008 and 2007 regarding the proposed outdoor amphitheater are discussed on page 4 of the Robert Kleeman May 28, 2013 letter to the BOA filed with the Building Permit Appeal.

Proposed Amendment to § 25-2-921(C)

At the September 18, 2012 meeting of the Planning Commission Codes and Ordinances Committee, PDRD staff presented a request to initiate a code amendment regarding "Public Assembly Permits." According to the minutes of this meeting:

"Greg Dutton explained that the city's current code does not allow institutions such as churches and schools, that have certain residential zoning, to apply for a temporary use permit that would be needed to conduct temporary outdoor events, such as fund raising events or festivals." Exhibit 12-1.

The Planning Commission formally initiated the requested code amendment on September 25, 2012 which was assigned City case # C20-2012-016 "Temporary Outdoor Public Assembly Code Amendment" ("Code Amendment"). Attached as Exhibits 12-2 through 12-6 are several versions of the Ordinance Amendment Review Sheets prepared by City staff between December 2012 and October 2013 for the Planning Commission and the City Council. The Background Sections in the attached Ordinance Review Sheets include the following statement:

"Under the current code, certain temporary outdoor events are only allowed in certain zoning districts, depending on the number of attendees at said events. These events can include public, religious, patriotic, or historic assembly or exhibit, including a festival, benefit, fund raising event, or similar use. Temporary outdoor public assembly events held by churches and schools, which often have residential zoning, are currently prohibited or restricted in conducting temporary outdoor events if their zoning is residential." (Emphasis added.)

The Code Amendment, as initially proposed, would have allowed properties whose principal use is religious assembly, educational, or community recreation apply for and obtain a temporary use permit to hold outdoor public assembly events. Exhibit 13-1. At public hearings on the Code Amendment, staff explained that the Code Amendment was needed to allow for traditional outdoor school and church festivals and fund raising events. Importantly, the Code Amendment, as initially drafted, did not propose to make any activity listed in § 25-2-921(C) a permitted principal or accessory use. Even if the Council had approved the Code Amendment, outdoor public assembly events would remain prohibited for outdoor public assembly events held by churches, schools and community recreation facilities.

Notably absent from the Ordinance Review Sheets is any mention of the approval of the Land Use Determinations made in the approval of the Site Plan, the Restrictive Covenant, or the Building Permit. The code interpretations stated in the Ordinance Review Sheets for the Code Amendment reflect the plain language of the LDC. Based on the Land Use Determinations granted to Life Austin, the Code Amendment should not have been needed if the City (as an institution) recognized the Life Austin Land Use Determinations as legal and consistent with the plain language of the LDC.

As of mid-October 2013, everyone in the City of Austin, except Life Austin, remained subject to the limitations and prohibitions of § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC. Outdoor public assembly, including, religious assembly, benefits, festivals, and any other mass gatherings of people were prohibited in all residential districts except for Life Austin. Simply put, the Land Use Determinations gave Life Austin special privileges not enjoyed by any other property in the City. This contrast (or double standard) is heightened by the City's legal actions against an east Austin Catholic church, as described below.

In late October 2013, PDRD staff released a new version of the Code Amendment that added a new subsection 25-2-921(D) that read:

"This provision does not apply to religious services held on property with a principal developed use of religious assembly. A permit is not required for religious services." (See Exhibit 13-2).

146

PDRD staff had not previously proposed or even mentioned making any of the outdoor public assembly activities described in § 25-2-921(C) an allowed principal or accessory use. The topic had not been discussed at any public hearing held on the Code Amendment. Again, based on the Land Use Determinations granted to Life Austin, the proposed subsection 25-2-921(D) should not have been needed if the City (as an institution) recognized the Life Austin Land Use Determinations as legal and consistent with the plain language of the LDC.

November 18, 2013 Memorandum

In response to the last minute insertion of the proposed § 25-2-921(D) language, the Executive Committee of the Austin Neighborhoods Council adopted a resolution requesting public hearings on the added language. Exhibit 14. Shortly thereafter, Director Guernsey sent the City Council a memorandum dated November 18, 2013 explaining that he had taken another look at § 25-2-921(C) and decided that outdoor festivals and benefits at schools and churches were part of the principal uses of education and religious assembly and that the Code Amendment was no longer necessary. Exhibit 15. Based on the November 18, 2013 Memorandum, the Council tabled action on the Code Amendment.

There are several aspects to the November 18, 2013 Memorandum that are relevant to the Appeals. First, the interpretation of § 25-2-921(C) in this memorandum is a complete reversal the position staff had taken for more than year. Exhibits 12-2 through 12-6.

Second, this memorandum does not mention the Land Use Determinations made in the approval of the Site Plan, the Restrictive Covenant, and the Building Permit for Life Austin. Instead, Director Guernsey bases his conclusion on the lack of complaints made about festivals, vents and benefits held at schools and religious assembly facilities:

"These types of events have long occurred in Austin and until now have not been a problem. To our knowledge, only a single individual has issued complaints against two Catholic churches regarding outdoor festivals. There does not, however, seem to be a community-wide concern with these types of events occurring as they always have in the past." Exhibit 15.

In legal terminology, Director Guernsey asserts that the restrictions of § 25-2-921(C) have been amended through non-enforcement. Under Texas law, a municipality cannot be prevented or estopped in its governmental functions. Trudy's Texas Star v. City of Austin, 307 S. W. 3d 894, 906 (Tex. Civ. Appeals—Austin 2010). The adoption and modification of zoning regulations and zoning districts are legislative functions of the governing body of the municipality. Lawton v. Austin, 404 S.W. 2d 648, 651 (Tex. Civ. App.—Austin 1966, writ ref'd n.r.e.). Zoning regulations can only be amended through the public notice and public hearing process required by Chapter 211 of the Texas Local Government Code.

Third, generally, the City enforces the City Code and the Zoning Code based on complaints made by citizens. Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, page 236). This enforcement approach allows community standards to decide what activities are intrusive and disruptive. Based on the frequency of complaints cited by Director Guernsey, the stereotypical outdoor events held at churches and schools do not bother nearby residents. What Director Guernsey failed to mention in this memorandum is that the complaints he referred to related to outdoor events with bands playing with amplified sound. The nature of the events being held is changing.

147

Fourth, the November 18, 2013 Memorandum does not state that outdoor religious assembly is a principal or accessory use. Instead, the discussion in the November 18, 2013 Memorandum is limited to outdoor benefits and festivals held on properties whose principal use is religious assembly, education, and community recreation. Again, if the City (as an institution) recognized the Life Austin Land Use Determinations as legal and consistent with the plain language of the LDC, the Code Amendment, the last minute insertion of the § 25-2-921(D) language and the November 18, 2013 Memorandum should not have been necessary.

The only conclusion is that the Life Austin Land Use Determinations violated the Zoning Code and exceeded staff authority.

Dolores Catholic Church

In May 2013, Code Compliance and the City Attorney's Office interpreted and enforced § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC consistent with Appellants' position in this appeal and consistent with the staff explanations made in conjunction with the Code Amendment. The City's actions against the Dolores Catholic church further demonstrate the special privileges granted to Life Austin. On May 18, 2013, Code Compliance issued a citation to the Dolores Catholic Church for holding an outdoor event without a TUP. Exhibit 16-1. In June 2013, the City filed suit against the Austin Diocese in Municipal Court (Cause No. 7923874).

According to the complaint filed by the City of Austin, the Dolores Catholic Church property, located at 1111 Montopolis Drive, was zoned SF-3 and did not have a TUP to hold its event. Exhibit 16-2. According to an October 23, 2013 Court Order, the City had agreed to drop the complaint against the Diocese once the City Council adopted the Temporary Outdoor Public Assembly Code Amendment then scheduled to be heard by the Council on October 25, 2013. Exhibit 16-3. In other words, once the Council amended § 25-2-921(C) to authorize the issuance of TUPs for future events at the church, the City would drop its prosecution of the church for violating § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC.

The Council tabled action on the Code Amendment at the November 21, 2013 Council meeting. On November 25, 2013, one week after the issuance of the November 18, 2013 Memorandum, the City dropped the municipal court action against the Austin Diocese. Exhibit 16-4.

Appeal of November 18, 2013 Memorandum

The November 18, 2013 Memorandum is the subject of a December 2013 appeal filed by the Appellants. Exhibit 17. PDRD, as communicated by the City Legal Department, refused to forward Appellants' December 2013 appeal to the BOA, claiming that the November 18, 2013 Memorandum did not contain any "appealable" decisions: "PDRD has determined that Director Guernsey's memo is not an "administrative decision" and is therefore not within the BOA's jurisdiction to review." Exhibit 18.

Since the settlement agreement between the City and Diocese was contingent upon Council adoption of the Code Amendment, the City Attorney's office must have recognized the November 18, 2013 Memorandum as having sufficient legal significance to drop the case against the Diocese. That is, the November 18, 2013 Memorandum was deemed a land use determination. In May 2014, a complaint was filed regarding an outdoor event held at the Dolores Catholic Church. Carl Smart, Director of Code Compliance, responded that based on a decision by Director Guernsey, a TUP was no longer required for such an event. Exhibit 19.

Because City staff has treated the November 18, 2013 Memorandum as an official land use determination, the Appellants ask the BOA to direct City staff to forward the December 2013 appeal to the BOA.

Expanded Activities Allowed Under Religious Assembly Use

As previously discussed, Life Austin announced their intent to use the outdoor amphitheater for "graduations, theatrical plays/productions, seminars, 'family movie' night, weddings, educational productions, neighborhood meetings and occasional concerts"<sup>7</sup> years before the approval of the Site Plan and Restrictive Covenant. Since outdoor entertainment is not a permitted use in the RR zoning district, Life Austin needed the religious assembly use broadened to authorize these activities and the outdoor amphitheater. The Restrictive Covenant accomplished this goal.

As Director Guernsey stated under oath, "a restrictive covenant of this type is not necessarily one that is required by the City. It can be certainly offered by an applicant." Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 211, lines 5-8). Counsel for Life Austin prepared the first draft of the Restrictive Covenant. See page 8, May 28, 2013 Robert Kleeman letter to BOA filed with the Building Permit Appeal.

The Preamble to the Restrictive Covenant references Life Austin's proposal "to allow an approximately 3,500 seat outdoor amphitheater to be included as part of a proposed religious assembly use." The fourth clause of the Preamble states the Director [Guernsey] determined that the applicable zoning classifications established by the Land Developed [sic] Code allowed an outdoor amphitheater as part of the proposed religious assembly use, subject to the conditions included in the proposal."

The Restrictive Covenant attempts to define, by extensive detail, new principal use activities (musical or theatrical performances, weddings, and funerals) as well as "customary and incidental accessory uses" (neighborhood meetings, school graduation, public meetings, and other civic or non-profit group meetings). The Restrictive Covenant appears to be contract zoning, which is illegal in Texas.

Paragraphs C and D of Article I of the Restrictive Covenant state that "religious assembly use may include occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances)" that require tickets charging more than a nominal fee to cover utilities, maintenance, and other operational charges. (Emphasis added.) The term occasional is so vague as to be completely non-enforceable. Appellants contend the term "occasional" was intended to mean "infrequent"; perhaps once or twice a year but certainly not on any regular basis. The terms "occasional" and "infrequent" lack the numerical specificity that land use regulations require. Even Director Guernsey has admitted that he is not sure how the term "occasional" would be enforced. Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 235, line 6 to Page 237, line 1). During the two months between July 24, 2015 and September 20, 2015, at least six "ticketed" concert events were held at the amphitheater. Exhibit 2-3. Based on this frequency of "ticketed" events, Life Austin defines the term "occasional" to mean "regular" or "weekly."

Finally, representatives of Life Austin have publicly stated that the Restrictive Covenant allows Life Austin, as a charitable organization, to hold benefits to raise funds to pay for the construction of the amphitheater itself. Director Guernsey has also testified that so long as Life

148

149

Austin maintains its tax-exempt status, virtually any type of event may be held at the outdoor amphitheater so long as it is a "fundraising event." Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 233, lines 18- 24). In effect, there is virtually no zoning limit on the type of outdoor "benefit" events that can be held on the Property.

Given the preferential treatment afforded Life Austin so far and Life Austin's penchant for disregarding the City Code<sup>8</sup>, and sound impacts on their neighbors, Appellants and their members fear that if unchecked, Life Austin will fully utilize the special privileges granted by the Restrictive Covenant. Appellants filed another appeal to the BOA in October 2015 after the Development Services Department approved Correction No. 12 to the Site Plan that authorized a dog park and disc golf course on the Property.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS REGARDING THE RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

Paragraph G of Article I of the Restrictive covenant provides:

"The restrictions in this Article I are imposed as conditions to Site Plan No. 2011-0185C and apply to the extent that an outdoor amphitheater remains part of the principal assembly use."

The meaning and effect of the clause "apply to the extent that an outdoor amphitheater remains part of the principal assembly use" clearly indicates that City Staff and Life Austin knew that a determination could be made at some point to reverse the approval of the Site Plan as it applies to the outdoor amphitheater. Reversal is the most appropriate decision under the circumstances. Appellants, however, are concerned that even if the BOA reverses only the approval of the Site Plan and the Building Permit and the previously described Land Use Determinations, Life Austin is likely to claim that those actions do not affect the right to continue the operation of the outdoor amphitheater pursuant to rights granted by the Restrictive Covenant.

Director Guernsey's answer to the following question is instructive:

Q. "So, in other words, unless the owners of the property agree that this restrictive covenant goes away, it doesn't, right?"

A. "Right. These conditions would remain on the property. And a restrictive covenant by its nature is generally being something more restrictive, not less restrictive." Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 238, lines 10-16).

Therefore, BOA must specifically reverse the approval of Article I of the Restrictive Covenant; otherwise, the Restrictive Covenant may be interpreted as creating a grandfathered right to construct and operate an outdoor amphitheater under § 245.002(d) of the Texas Local Government Code:

"Notwithstanding any provision of [Chapter 245] to the contrary, a permit holder may take advantage of ... recorded restrictive covenants required by a regulatory agency..."

<sup>8</sup> The City issued a citation to Life Austin in 2007 for cutting trees without a permit. The City issued a citation in 2015 for the construction of a dog park and Frisbee golf course without a permit.

150

Unless the BOA reverses the approval of the Site Plan and Article I of the Restrictive Covenant, the termination or amendment of the Restrictive Covenant will require the joint action of the Property owner and the Director of PDRD.

RELIEF REQUESTED

The insertion of the proposed § 25-2-921(D) language into the Code Amendment begs the question as to why this provision would have been needed if Director Guernsey had already made a Land Use Determination that the Zoning Code made no distinction between indoor and outdoor religious assembly. If the City recognized the legitimacy of the Land Use Determinations made with the approval of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and Building Permit for Life Austin, then the Code Amendment would have been unnecessary and the prosecution of the Austin Dioceses would not have been appropriate. The clear and unambiguous language in § 25-2-921(C) of the LDC, a year's worth of PDRD memoranda to the Planning Commission and City Council regarding the Code Amendment, and the 2013 prosecution of the Dolores Catholic Church conclusively prove that the Land Use Determinations made in the approval of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and Building Permit violated § 25-2-921(C). These approvals and the Land Use Determinations were wrong when made and remain wrong today. Moreover, the approval of the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant in 2011, and the Building Permit in 2013 granted Life Austin special privileges that are not shared by similarly situated properties. The BOA should now reverse those decisions.

Appellants ask the BOA to reverse:

1. the Land Use Determination ("LUD") that outdoor religious assembly is a principal use under religious assembly;
2. the LUD that an outdoor amphitheater is a principal use under religious assembly;
3. the LUD that the religious assembly use includes musical and theatrical performances and benefit concerts as principal uses;
4. the approval of the Site Plan;
5. the approval of Article I of the Restrictive Covenant; and
6. the approval of the Building Permit.

Alternatively, the Appellants ask the BOA to reverse Article I of the Restrictive Covenant because the limitation on the frequency of events held at the outdoor amphitheater (Occasional) is so vague that it is unenforceable.

EFFECT OF REQUESTED RELIEF

Potential Staff Interpretation of BOA Granting Appeals

Appellants are also concerned that even if the BOA reverses the approval of the Site Plan, the Restrictive Covenants, the Building Permit, and the Land Use Determinations, City staff will make new interpretations that will allow the outdoor amphitheater to continue to operate. On two occasions members of City staff have indicated that if the BOA grants all the relief requested by Appellants, City staff may determine that the outdoor amphitheater is a legal non-conforming use. Exhibit 11 (Deposition of Greg Guernsey, Page 79, lines 14-22). If the BOA grants Appellants' appeals, a determination of legal non-conforming use would be legally incorrect because the outdoor amphitheater would not have been legally constructed in the first place. Under Texas law, an improperly issued permit is void from the beginning and is deemed to never have existed. Swain v. Bd. of Adjustment of City of University Park, 433 S.W.2d 727, 733 (Tex.Civ.App.—Dallas 1968, writ ref'd n.r.e.). No rights can be derived from an improperly issued permit. City of Amarillo v. Stapf, 129 Tex. 81, 101 S.W.2d 229 (1937).

As the members of the BOA know, when an appeal of an administrative decision is filed, all proceedings relating to the appealed decision are automatically stayed until the appeal is resolved. § 211.010(c), Texas Local Government Code; § 25-1-187 of the LDC. City staff was legally obligated to enforce the automatic stay on the Site Plan, Restrictive Covenant, and Building Permit even if staff believed the appeals were not timely filed. In re Jared Woodfill, et al, 2015 WL 4498229 @ 5 (Tex. 2015). Staff was required by law to forward the Site Plan Appeal and the Building Permit Appeals to the BOA. § 211.010(b), Texas Local Government Code; § 25-1-185 of the LDC. Only the BOA has the authority to decide whether it will hold a hearing on a filed appeal. § 211.010(d), Texas Local Government Code § 25-1-191(A) of the LDC. Appellants should not be penalized because City staff failed to comply with state law and the City Code.

If City staff were to decide that outdoor religious assembly, the outdoor amphitheater, and the expanded list of activities allowed under religious assembly were legal non-conforming uses, then Appellants would have no alternative but to file yet another appeal to the BOA on a determination that the outdoor amphitheater was "legally" constructed even though the BOA had reversed the approval of the applicable permits. Appellants hope that such an appeal will not be necessary.

Options for Life Austin

Life Austin purchased the Property knowing the Property had RR zoning. Life Austin decided not to participate in the Oak Hill Neighborhood Plan approved in December 2008. Life Austin decided not to apply for a zoning change and conditional use permit to authorize the construction and operation of the outdoor amphitheater. Instead, they sought and obtained administrative approvals in contravention of the plain language of the LDC and the City Code.

Appellants' right to appeal those administrative decisions were denied and delayed long enough to allow Life Austin to construct and complete the outdoor amphitheater. Life Austin should not benefit and Appellants should not suffer from the delay. After all, Life Austin was fully aware of the risks if it built the outdoor amphitheater before the resolution of the appeals. Exhibit 7. Of course, Life Austin has known as a matter of law that the LDC authorizes the suspension and revocation of permits that are determined to have been issued in error. See § 25-1-411 et. seq.

If the BOA grants all of the relief requested by the Appellants, Life Austin will have the options of:

1. filing a zoning application or a conditional use permit for the amphitheater;
2. appealing the BOA's decision to district court; and
3. making the amphitheater an enclosed building.

Appellants have already spent three years in litigation to enforce their right to have their appeals heard by the BOA. Rather than leaving the door open for more litigation, the Appellants respectfully ask the BOA to take every action available to it to have the future of the outdoor amphitheater addressed in the open process of a zoning case.

Appellants respectfully ask the BOA to grant their appeals.

Sincerely,

RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

ORIGINAL
FILED FOR RECORD

OWNER: The Promiseland Church West, Inc., a Texas non-profit corporation

ADDRESS: c/o Michael Heflin
1301 Capital of Texas Hwy, Suite A-308
Austin, Texas 78746

CONSIDERATION: Ten and No/100 Dollars ($10.00) and other good and valuable consideration paid by the City of Austin to the Owner, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged.

PROPERTY: A 53.113 acre tract of land, more or less, described by metes and bounds in Exhibit "A" incorporated into this covenant.

WHEREAS, the Owner of the Property and the City of Austin (the "City") have agreed that the Property should be impressed with certain covenants and restrictions;

WHEREAS, on December 17, 2008, a proposal was submitted to the Director of the City's Neighborhood Planning & Zoning Department ("Director") to allow an approximately 3,500-seat outdoor amphitheater to be included as part of a proposed religious assembly use on the Property under applicable zoning regulations codified in the City's Land Development Code;

WHEREAS, due to the size of the outdoor amphitheater and the potential for large-scale music events, the proposal included several conditions intended to ensure that use of the amphitheater remains consistent with a principal use of religious assembly and does not become an outdoor entertainment use as defined under the Land Development Code;

WHEREAS, on December 23, 2008, the Director determined that the applicable zoning classifications established by the Land Developed Code allowed an outdoor amphitheater as part of the proposed religious assembly use, subject to conditions included in the proposal;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is declared that the Owner of the Property, for the consideration, shall hold, sell and convey the Property, subject to the following covenants and restrictions impressed upon the Property by this Restrictive Covenant ("Agreement"). These covenants and restrictions shall run with the land, and shall be binding on the Owner of the Property, its heirs, successors, and assigns.

I. LAND USE & ZONING RESTRICTIONS

The buildings and outdoor amphitheater located or to be located on the Property will be subject to the following limitations:

154

- A. Religious Assembly Use will be permitted (as defined in the Austin Land Development Code), including such uses as:
  - 1. Worship services;
  - 2. Musical or theatrical performances;
  - 3. Weddings; and
  - 4. Funerals.
- B. Customary and incidental accessory uses will be permitted, including such uses as:
  - 1. Educational presentations;
  - 2. Neighborhood meetings;
  - 3. School graduations;
  - 4. Public meetings; and
  - 5. Other civic or non-profit group meetings.
- C. Religious Assembly Use may include occasional charitable events (including concerts and performances) for the benefit of an individual or family in need or for a charitable organization or charitable cause.
- D. Except for occasional charitable events under Paragraph C, above, ticketed events may charge only nominal fees to cover utilities, maintenance, and other administrative and operational expenses.
- E. The buildings and outdoor amphitheater will not be used for commercial, for-profit events.
- F. The outdoor amphitheater is subject to all applicable City ordinances.
- G. The restrictions in this Article I are imposed as conditions to Site Plan No. 2011-0185C and apply to the extent that an outdoor amphitheater remains part of the principal religious assembly use.
- H. The restrictions in this Article I shall be interpreted consistent with all applicable local, state, and federal laws, including but not limited constitutional requirements.

II. SHARED PARKING

- A. The site has been granted a parking reduction under section 9.6. of the Transportation Criteria Manual and shall maintain the minimum number of parking spaces as approved with site plan SP-2011-0185C, as amended from time to time with approval from the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department. Concurrent use of the sanctuary located within the multipurpose building, the chapel, or the amphitheater is prohibited.

- B. The owner will provide a study based on Section 9.6.7 of the Transportation Criteria Manual within 12 months following the issuance of the certificate of occupancy for the multipurpose building to the Planning and Development Review Department; however the scope and content of the study will be adjusted to contain the level of analysis reasonably determined to be necessary by the parties, which may not include all technical requirements of Section 9.6.7.
- C. If additional parking is added to the site that addresses the parking deficiency, then consideration shall be given for allowing a function area or activity to operate as a "separate use" (i.e., can be used contemporaneously with another one of the other uses restricted pursuant to subparagraph A. above). This would include any change of occupancy or manner of operation that currently is approved as shared parking with site plan SP-2011-0185C, as amended from time to time with approval from the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department.

III. TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

- A. To improve safety and reduce delays for entering and exiting vehicles at the driveway to SH 71, the owner will be responsible for providing law enforcement officials to direct traffic for all events.
- B. A site plan or building permit for the property may not be approved, released, or issued, if the completed development or uses of the Property, considered cumulatively with all existing or previously authorized development and uses, generates traffic that exceeds the total traffic generation for the Property as specified in that certain Traffic Impact Analysis ("TIA") prepared by HDR, Inc., dated December 23, 2010, or as amended and approved by the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department. All development on the property is subject to the recommendations contained in the TIA and memorandum from the Transportation Review Section of the Planning and Development Review Department dated August 19, 2011. The TIA shall be kept on file at the Planning and Development Review Department.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. If Owner shall violate this Agreement, it shall be lawful for the City of Austin, its successor and assigns, to prosecute proceedings at law or in equity against the person or entity violating or attempting to violate this Agreement, and to prevent said person or entity from violating or attempting to violate such covenant. The restrictions set forth herein may only be enforced by the City of Austin and there are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement.
- B. If any part of this Agreement is declared invalid, by judgment or court order, the same shall in no way affect any of the other provisions of this Agreement, and such remaining portion of this Agreement shall remain in full effect.

G-1
156

- C. If at any time the City of Austin fails to enforce this Agreement, whether or not any violations of it are known, such failure shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel of the right to enforce it.
- D. This Agreement may be modified, amended, or terminated only by joint action of both (a) the Director of the Planning and Development Review Department of the City of Austin, and (b) all of the Owners of the Property at the time of the modification, amendment or termination.

A DREAM TO REACH OUT TO ALL

BYLINE: Eileen E. Flynn AMERICAN-STATESMAN STAFF DATE: February 25, 2007

PUBLICATION: Austin American-Statesman (TX) EDITION: Final SECTION: Metro & State

Pastor Randy Phillips' dream is to turn a piece of land near Oak Hill into a sprawling complex where the sacred and the secular come together, where a church for the faithful is surrounded by a live music venue, ball fields, a wedding chapel and a counseling center open to the public.

He already has a name for it: Dream City.

"What I want to build is a community resource," he said. "I didn't want to build a church."

The rest of the property will be geared toward secular diversions. ... Phillips is looking for private investors to support the counseling and recreation centers, ball fields, a skate park and a retirement center.

Phillips said the project is not about attracting new church members or even winning more souls for Christ. If people are drawn to the church, he'll welcome them. But he said the force that drives his vision is bettering the community with a place where people with problems such as eating disorders, addiction or marital strife and can receive inexpensive counseling.

'Dream City' or Neighborhood Threat?

A proposed church development has some residents losing sleep

By Amy Smith, Fri., March 25, 2011

Some Southwest Austin residents are raising questions about a proposed amphitheatre in their neighborhood. This rendering, from the church's website, is an early conceptual image.

From Promiseland Church Website

The Dream City amphitheatre, he explained, will serve as an integral part of the community, providing a place for graduation ceremonies, recitals, ballets, family movie nights, jazz concerts, and other events. ... Which leads back to the question of whether "religious assembly use" would accurately apply to the proposed amphitheatre, suggesting that Dream City has some miles left in its journey to becoming PromiseLand West.

Dream City project moving forward, says Promiseland West

The amphitheater is planned to hold more than 1,000 people with the capacity to host concerts, plays, ballets and other events.

Dream City would include a worship center, auditorium and amphitheater and is intended to serve nearby communities. Some neighbors have raised concerns about usage and noise. The project is the brainchild of Pastor Randy Phillips, an Austin minister and member of Christian band Phillips, Craig and Dean. Phillips' vision has been in the making since he first decided to open a church in Southwest Austin six years ago.

People are not going to church that frequently in this community, Phillips said. "To simply build an auditorium and say come join us for worship would not get many people on our property," he said. "So we want something more than a worship experience. Whether they come to church or not does not matter."

"We want to be a community resource for Austin, but we also want to be a place where the community can come seven days a week and do whatever they want," Phillips said, "whether that means using our hike and bike trails, counseling services, having weddings or funerals or attending concerts in the park."

Twenty years ago, God gave me a vision of an outdoor venue in Austin, TX. A place where children dance and sing, families enjoy movie nights with popcorn and ice cream, musicals dazzle the stage, worship bands inspire, relationships are healed, non-profits are resourced and lives are transformed.

I dreamed of a place where legacy is created.

As one of the fastest growing and most artistic cities in the nation, Austin presents a unique audience of creative souls in need of a divine touch. Knowing that many in our city are resistant to organized religion, we began to dream about opportunities that would draw our community to this 68 acre campus. Dog parks, disc golf, walking trails, concerts, and dance have been the colors that we've painted as invitations and they have visited by the thousands!

Today we dream big about a venue that will capture the imagination of a community; the LifeAustin Amphitheatre. A state-of-the-art facility that embraces our culture, celebrates the arts, and empowers souls with the presence of God.

You have a dreaming nature. You must dream. Dream big with me.
