Additional Backup Information
This is a judgment for payment of attorneys' fees and court costs plus interest in the lawsuit that challenged the City's methodology for calculating the drainage utility fee for multi-family properties. The Travis County Court ruled that the City's methodology for calculating certain fees was contrary to state law and awarded fees and costs. The City appealed the Judge's ruling but did not appeal the attorneys' fees award. The City changed its methodology in October of this year, which made the ongoing appeal unnecessary.
