Additional Backup Information

Council approval will provide continuation of existing child care services provided in the Teen Parent Child Care Program provided by Generations Child Development from October 1, 2016 - September 30, 2017.

The City's 2014-2019 Consolidated Plan notes the need for childcare assistance for low-income families. Parents participating in the Generations Child Development Centers Teen Parent Child Care program must be low-income teenagers who are attending middle school or high school and who are city residents. Emphasis of the program will be placed on providing high-quality infant and toddler child care, parent training and monitoring of teen parent attendance and performance in school.

Notification of issuance of a Request for Applications (RFA) for the subject services was sent to 176 firms on June 30, 2016. Generations Child Development was the sole respondent.
