SEPTEMBER 26, 2016
DEMOLITION AND RELOCATION PERMITS
HDP-2016-0637
1142 GUNTER STREET

PROPOSAL

Demolish a ca. 1940 house.

ARCHITECTURE

One-story, rectangular-plan, side-gabled frame house with a central, partial-width, front-gabled independent porch on plain, square wood posts; single and paired 6:6 modern replacement windows; Craftsman-style front door.

RESEARCH

The house appears to have been built in 1940 by W. Howard and Ruth Kitchens, who lived here for the rest of their lives. W. Howard Kitchens was a native of Mississippi; Ruth Kitchens was a member of the pioneer Robertson family of eastern Travis County. W. Howard Kitchens worked as a carpenter when he and Ruth built this house; he then went to work as a watchman for E.M. Scarbrough & Sons, a department store at 6th Street and Congress Avenue. After W. Howard Kitchens' death in 1955, Ruth Kitchens continued to live in this house until her death in 1963.

Ruth Kitchens' sister and brother, Ernest and Irma Robertson, both unmarried, lived here after Ruth Kitchens passed away. Ernest Robertson is listed as a farmer. After he passed away in 1966, Irma Robertson continued to live here until her death in 1976. The Robertson siblings were the children of Walter and Margaret Hornsby Robertson; Margaret Hornsby Robertson was a descendant of the founders of Hornsby's Bend, one of the earliest settlements in Travis County.

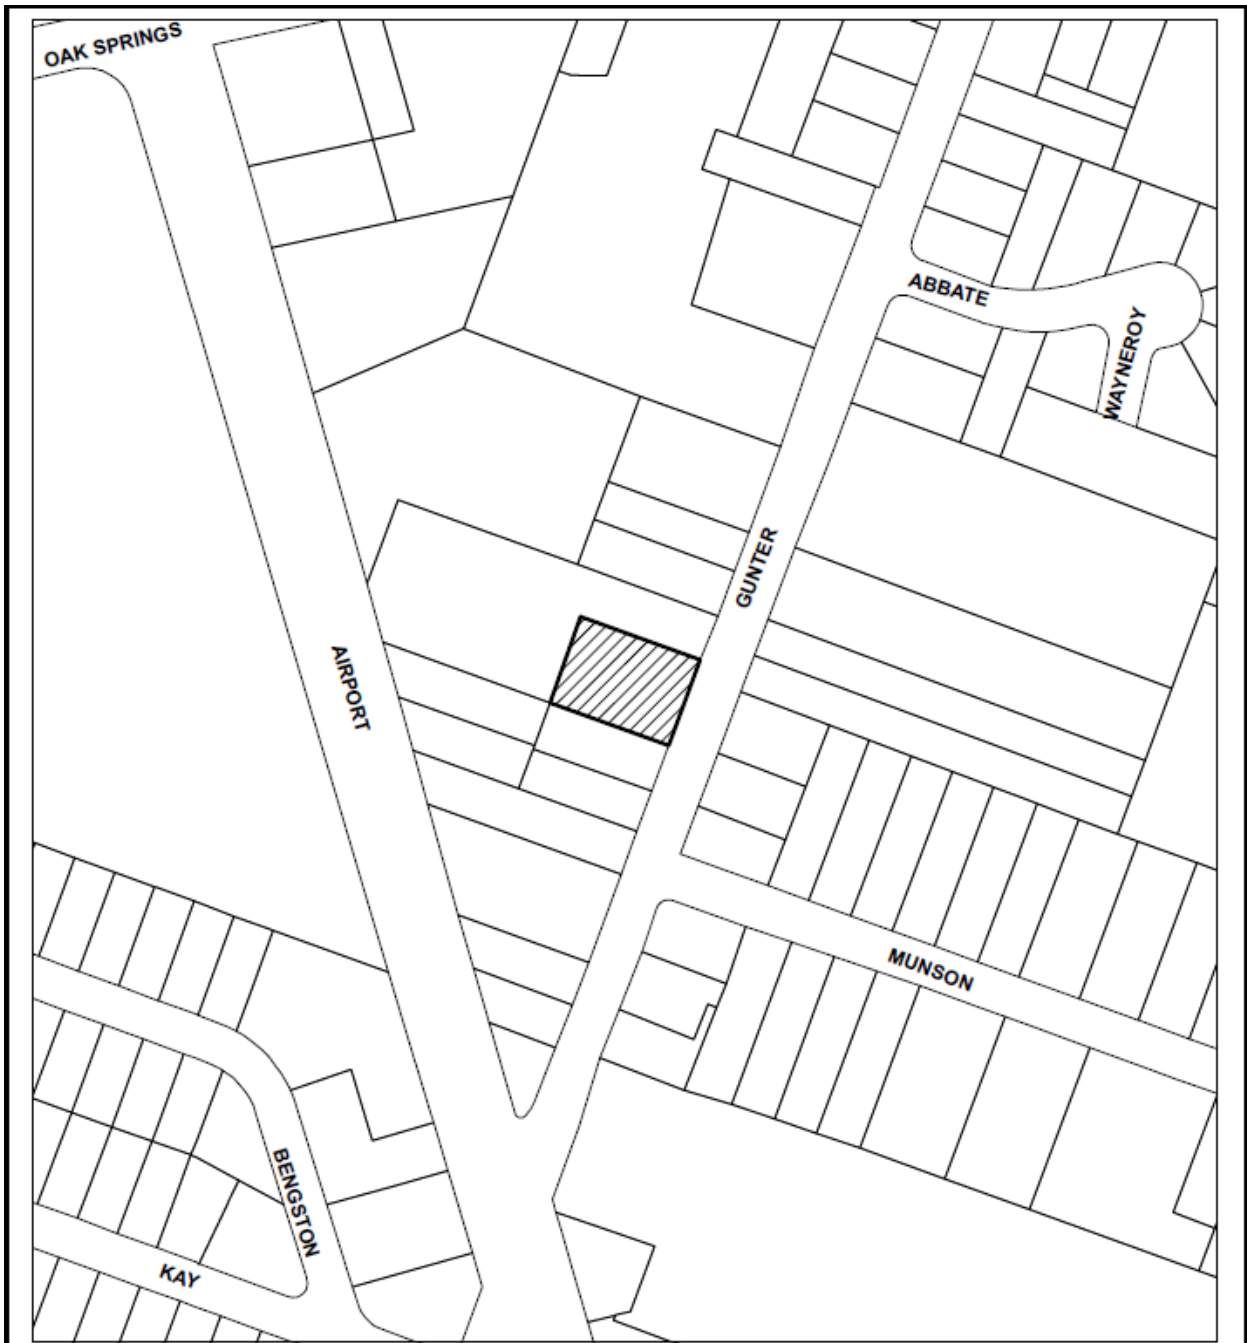

STAFF COMMENTS

The house is not listed in any City survey to date.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Encourage adaptive re-use, then relocation over demolition, but release the permit upon completion of a City of Austin Documentation Package, consisting of photographs of all elevations, a dimensioned sketch plan, and a narrative history, for archiving at the Austin History Center. The house appears to have been recently rehabbed and should make an excellent candidate for relocation if adaptive-reuse is not feasible on this site.
