Additional Backup Information

The Joint Resolution communicates shared positions approved by a coalition of representatives for many of the major governmental entities in Travis County, including Travis County, City of Austin, Central Health, ACC, and AISD. It is used to communicate the shared common legislative priorities of Travis County civic and governmental organizations to the general public, City staff, members of the Texas Legislature, and Austin's state contract consultants. The Joint Resolution provides direction to the City's Governmental Relations staff and state contract consultants regarding pending or contemplated legislation.
