

Community Services Block Grant
Programmatic/Financial Report
December 12, 2017

The Community Services Block Grant funds the delivery of services to low income Texas residents in all 254 counties. These funds support a variety of direct services in addition to helping maintain the core administrative elements of community action agencies.

For the City of Austin, the grant provides funding for the delivery of basic needs, case management, preventive health and employment support services through the City's six (6) Neighborhood Centers and the three (3) Outreach Sites.

- Basic Needs (food, clothing, information and referral, notary services, transportation, school supplies, car safety education and car seats, tax preparation, Blue Santa applications, fans, Thanksgiving food baskets and other seasonal activities);
- Preventive Health (screenings for blood pressure, blood sugar, and cholesterol; pregnancy testing; health promotion presentations, coordination and participation in health fairs, immunizations, coordination of wellness activities, linkages to medical home providers);
- Case Management (individual/family support counseling, advocacy, self-sufficiency case management, crisis intervention, linkages with employers, educational opportunities and training, and working with individuals on quality of life issues);
- Employment Support (intake, assessment and goal setting, job readiness training, job placement assistance, and job retention services)

Programmatic/Administrative Updates

1. 2018 CSBG Budget - The President's initial 2018 budget eliminates funding for the Community Services Block Grant. Congress recently passed a Continuing Resolution that keeps funding levels the same until December 8 at this time it looks as if another Continuing Resolution may be passed before Congress takes final action on the 2018 budget. Meanwhile, the House Appropriations Committee approved their version of the FY2018 Labor-HHS bill which cut CSBG from $715 million to $607.5 million. The Senate Appropriations Labor-HHS bill cut CSBG by $15 million to $700 billion. CSBG has supported 16 of the 35 staff positions at the Neighborhood Centers, along with rent and utility assistance and other direct assistance such as bus passes.
2. CDC By-laws – The Audit and Finance Committee reviewed the changes recommended by the CDC. Additional information regarding proposed bylaw changes will be provided during the meeting.
3. Neighborhood Centers Audit- The City auditor has completed their audit of the Neighborhood Centers and will present their findings to the Audit and Finance Committee of City Council on December 11, 2017. Additional information on the audit and its recommendations will be provided to the Commission at the meeting.
4. New National Performance Indicators – Starting January 1, 2018, we will begin implementing the new National Performance Indicators. Additional information on these changes will be shared as part of the February CDC meeting.
5. Food Recovery Project - Angel Zambrano, APH Program Manager at the Rosewood-Zaragoza Center will provide information on a new program that has been implemented with the Central Texas Food Bank.
