Additional Backup Information:

APD is requesting that City Council extend APD Officer Ryan Hancock's leave of absence for up to one year, at full pay, for an illness or injury related to his line of duty. Texas Local Government Code section 143.073 provides that a municipality shall provide to a fire fighter or police officer a leave of absence for an illness or injury related to the person's line of duty. The leave must be at full pay for a period commensurate with the nature of the line of duty illness or injury. If necessitated by the illness or injury, the leave must continue for at least one year.

At the end of the year, the municipality's governing body may extend the line of duty illness or injury leave at full or reduced pay. If the governing body chooses not to extend the leave, or if the person's salary is reduced below 60 percent of the regular monthly salary, the person may be entitled to retire on pension until able to return to duty.

On July 21, 2017, Officer Ryan Hancock was injured by carbon monoxide exposure while performing the duties of a uniformed Austin Police Officer. His current leave of absence expires on July 21, 2018. At the time he suffered his injury, Officer Hancock was operating a City of Austin Ford Police Interceptor. Officer Hancock has been on a leave of absence, at full pay, since July 21, 2017. Officer Hancock is currently in a rehabilitation program to restore his health and mental abilities, and to return to work. He intends to return to work when he receives medical clearance. Council approval of this item would extend Officer Hancock's leave of absence until July 21, 2019, if necessitated by his injuries.
