

PUBLIC HEARING INFORMATION

Although applicants and/or their agent(s) are expected to attend a public hearing, you are not required to attend. However, if you do attend, you have the opportunity to speak FOR or AGAINST the proposed development or change. You may also contact a neighborhood or environmental organization that has expressed an interest in an application affecting your neighborhood.

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing; and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, please visit our website: www.austintexas.gov/abc.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Re: Historic Case Number C14H-2018-0014
Review Case Number ZC-2018-012782

Hello,

I live at Austin City Lofts, a condominium tower just south of the W 6th Street bridge.

As president of the board of directors of the Austin City Lofts Owners Association, I believe I speak for all the building owners and residents when I wholeheartedly welcome and applaud this project. It will be a great improvement for Austin and our neighborhood.

Sincerely,

Ian Inglis

To the Historic Landmark Commission,

I am a longtime Austin resident and recently learned of some proposed demolition along 49th street. This is in reference to case numbers HDP-2018-0295 and HDP-2018-0294. I am opposed to these proposals because I believe that historic properties should be preserved as much as is possible as a reminder of what Austin is and has been for future generations to see. All too often, our history here is bulldozed (quite literally) and forgotten. Homes like these, small as they may be, serve to pepper our city with a flavor that becomes lost when replaced with steel and glass. We replace our soul with cold modern facades.

Money has moved in and taken over this hippy town of ours, but hopefully there is still a space for our voices to be heard. It would be nice to maintain the character of this neighborhood and what makes it desirable to begin with. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
A concerned citizen

During a public hearing, the board or commission may postpone or continue an application's hearing to a later date, or recommend approval or denial of the application. If the board or commission announces a specific date and time for a postponement or continuation that is not later than 60 days from the announcement, no further notice is required.

A board or commission's decision may be appealed by a person with standing to appeal, or an interested party that is identified as a person who can appeal the decision. The body holding a public hearing on an appeal will determine whether a person has standing to appeal the decision.

An interested party is defined as a person who is the applicant or record owner of the subject property, or who communicates an interest to a board or commission by:

- delivering a written statement to the board or commission before or during the public hearing that generally identifies the issues of concern (it may be delivered to the contact person listed on a notice); or
- appearing and speaking for the record at the public hearing; and:
- occupies a primary residence that is within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development;
- is the record owner of property within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development; or
- is an officer of an environmental or neighborhood organization that has an interest in or whose declared boundaries are within 500 feet of the subject property or proposed development.

A notice of appeal must be filed with the director of the responsible department no later than 14 days after the decision. An appeal form may be available from the responsible department.

For additional information on the City of Austin's land development process, please visit our website: www.austintexas.gov/abc.

Written comments must be submitted to the board or commission (or the contact person listed on the notice) before or at a public hearing. Your comments should include the board or commission's name, the scheduled date of the public hearing, the Case Number and the contact person listed on the notice.

Comments: These kind of demolitions & new condo constructions have wrecked a once historic neighborhood. Dvr street is lined with poorly constructed generic homes. Thanks for pretending you actually care about east Austin, As long as the city gets more building permits & higher taxes you'll be happy.
