

Any application for development on the Site will be subject to regulations in effect on the date the application is submitted to the City. StadiumCo shall not take advantage of any grandfathering opportunities with respect to rules in place or rights available to StadiumCo prior to a development application.