Re: 3303 Southill Circle, Austin, Texas

To Whom It May Concern:

My parents, Jack and Sophia Balagia, bought the house at 3303 Southill Circle in 1969 from Mary Jean White in 1970. The roman columns currently in front of the house were not there when my parents bought the house but were added much later. I do not remember when they were added, but my best memory is that they were added when the back porch and sunroom and hot tub were added to the house in the 1980's.

Sincerely,

Jack Balagia, Jr.
