

AUSTIN COMMUNITY CLIMATE PLAN UPDATE

January 22, 2020

Community Content Workshops

■ At these workshops, you will:

- Provide input and feedback to City staff about the challenges and barriers to reaching Austin's climate goals.
- Discuss the benefits and drawbacks of current sustainability trends and practices.
- Help identify priorities and strategies to improve lives, increase affordability, and craft equitable solutions that work for people.

Transportation Electrification Community Workshop Tuesday, February 4th from 5:30-8pm at Austin Energy Town Lake Center - Assembly Room 130

Sustainable Buildings Community Workshop Saturday, February 8th from 2-4:30pm at Huston-Tillotson University - Dickey-Lawless Science Building

Natural Systems Community Workshop Tuesday, February 11th from 5:30-8pm at the Carver Library Auditorium

Transportation and Land Use Community Workshop Thursday, February 13th from 5:30-8pm at the Carver Library Auditorium

Climate Change and Consumption Community Workshop Saturday, February 22nd from 10:30-1pm
Location TBD *check later for updates

Climate Ambassadors

- Kickoff Meetings are complete
- Ambassadors will start attending some Advisory Group / Steering Committee meetings
- They will all be attending / contributing to at least one Content Workshop
- Brainstorming on their engagement approach as well as questions to get feedback on are in process

Upcoming

- All groups are meeting for 2 hours every other week!
  - Calendar here: <http://austintexas.gov/climateplan>

- Community Content Workshops

- Communications
  - Speak up Austin page is in process
  - Blog postings are in process

- The Steering Committee is working on:
  - Analysis of new Long-Term Goals
  - Equity Framework and Tools for Advisory Group to use
  - Table of Contents Options for the Final Plan

THE INAUGURAL TEXAS RESILIENCE CONFERENCE

Conceived by the Office of Sustainability, Texas CROs and professors

2-day event with ~250 attendees

Event info:

- Palmer Events Center, Austin, TX
- May 20-21, 2020

Audience: government, non-profit organizations, community groups, private industry, and academia across the state

Organized by:

- Sierra C. Woodruff, Assistant Professor Texas A&M University
- Sascha Petersen (Adaptation International)
- Office of Sustainability + steering & program committee

Call for Proposals *OPEN NOW! www.txresilience.org/

2020 Generation & Resource Planning Timeline

Thank You!