

Barton Springs Tree Planting Process

Joint Committee Ask

PARD Staff and Forestry Staff will devise a written agreement with stakeholders, partner groups and nonprofits that request tree plantings within the Barton Springs Pool area. The written planting agreement will be presented or communicated to the Joint Committee as a notification process.

Planting Guiding Principles

- Masterplan
 - “new trees should be planted to preemptively replenish the canopy and to densify the shade”
 - “selected from the native Texas tree palette and should be chosen for their beauty, their durability and their appropriateness to their waterside location”
- Age Diversity
- Species Diversity

Planting Notification

- Planting will be shared via a memo by July 1st each year
- Presentation when the Joint Committee meets between July 1st and the start of the tree planting season

Steps After Notification

- PARD makes tree purchases. Possible donation support
- Planting dates established
- Maintenance details coordinated
- Work with volunteers and support groups
