

RESOLUTION NO. 20200224-6.C

WHEREAS, the Historic Landmark Commission ~~has bylaws established~~ the Certificate of Appropriateness Review Committee; and

WHEREAS, the committee's role is to provide advisory feedback on projects recommended by staff and the Historic Landmark Commission and meetings attended on a voluntary basis by property owners and designers; and

WHEREAS, the committee provides feedback on changes to locally designated historic landmarks and historic districts, which require a Certificate of Appropriateness; and

WHEREAS, National Register historic district projects and historic-age but non-designated buildings, which do not require a Certificate of Appropriateness, can benefit from the advice to encourage historic preservation; and

WHEREAS, the current committee name can be confusing for property owners whose projects are recommended for committee review but do not require a Certificate of Appropriateness; and

WHEREAS, the interests of historic preservation will be better served by changing the committee name to align with its role;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HISTORIC LANDMARK COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN:

The bylaws shall be amended to rename the Certificate of Appropriateness Review Committee ~~shall henceforth be named~~ as the Architectural Review Committee, to reflect the scope of projects reviewed, and to update the administrator of the Heritage Grant Program.
