POLITICAL ADVERTISING

What You Need to Know

The Texas Election Code requires certain disclosures and notices on political advertising. The law also prohibits certain types of misrepresentation in political advertising and campaign communications. This brochure explains what you need to know to insure that your political advertising and campaign communications comply with the law.

If you are not sure what the law requires, do the cautious thing. Use the political advertising disclosure statement whenever you think it might be necessary, and do not use any possibly misleading information in political advertising or a campaign communication. If you are using political advertising or campaign communications from a prior campaign, you should check to see if the law has changed since that campaign.

Candidates for federal office should check with the Federal Election Commission at (800) 424-9530 for information on federal political advertising laws.

NOTICE: This guide is intended only as a general overview of the disclosure statements that must appear on political advertising as required under Chapter 255 of the Election Code, which is distinct from political reporting requirements under Chapter 254 of the Election Code.

REQUIRED DISCLOSURE ON POLITICAL ADVERTISING

I. What Is Political Advertising?

The disclosure statement and notice requirements discussed in this section apply to “political advertising.” In the law, “political advertising” is a specifically defined term. Do not confuse this special term with your own common-sense understanding of advertising.

To figure out if a communication is political advertising, you must look at what it says and where it appears. If a communication fits in one of the categories listed in Part A (below) and if it fits in one of the categories listed in Part B (below), it is political advertising.

Part A. What Does It Say?

1. Political advertising includes communications supporting or opposing a candidate for nomination or election to either a public office or an office of a political party (including county and precinct chairs).
2. Political advertising includes communications supporting or opposing an officeholder, a political party, or a measure (a ballot proposition).

Part B. Where Does It Appear?

1. Political advertising includes communications that appear in pamphlets, circulars, fliers, billboards or other signs, bumper stickers, or similar forms of written communication.
2. Political advertising includes communications that are published in newspapers, magazines, or other periodicals in return for consideration.
3. Political advertising includes communications that are broadcast by radio or television in return for consideration.
4. Political advertising includes communications that appear on an Internet website.

II. When Is a Disclosure Statement Required?

The law provides that political advertising that contains express advocacy is required to include a disclosure statement. The person who causes the political advertising to be published, distributed, or broadcast is responsible for including the disclosure statement.

The law does not define the term “express advocacy.” However, the law does provide that political advertising is deemed to contain express advocacy if it is authorized by a candidate, an agent of a candidate, or a political committee filing campaign finance reports. Therefore, a disclosure statement is required any time a candidate, a candidate’s agent, or a political committee authorizes political advertising.

The precise language of political advertising authorized by someone other than a candidate, the candidate's agent, or a political committee will determine if the advertising contains express advocacy and is therefore required to include a disclosure statement. Generally, the question is whether the communication expressly advocates the election or defeat of an identified candidate, or expressly advocates the passage or defeat of a measure, such as a bond election. The inclusion of words such as "vote for," "elect," "support," "defeat," "reject," or "Smith for Senate" would clearly constitute express advocacy, but express advocacy is not limited to communications that use those words. Similar phrases, such as "Cast your ballot for X," would also constitute express advocacy. Additionally, in 2007, the United States Supreme Court held that an advertisement included express advocacy or its functional equivalent "if the ad is susceptible to no reasonable interpretation other than as an appeal to vote for or against a specific candidate." FEC v. Wis. Right to Life, Inc., 551 U.S. 449 (2007). It is a question of fact whether a particular communication constitutes express advocacy. If you are not sure whether political advertising contains express advocacy, do the cautious thing and include the disclosure statement. That way, there is no need to worry about whether you have violated the law.

Remember: The concept of "express advocacy" is relevant in determining whether political advertising is required to include a disclosure statement. However, the political advertising laws governing the right-of-way notice, misrepresentation, and use of public funds by political subdivisions will apply to political advertising regardless of whether the advertising contains express advocacy.

III. What Should the Disclosure Statement Say?

A disclosure statement must include the following:

1. the words "political advertising" or a recognizable abbreviation such as "pol. adv."; and
2. the full name of one of the following: (a) the person who paid for the political advertising; (b) the political committee authorizing the political advertising; or (c) the candidate or specific-purpose committee supporting the candidate, if the political advertising is authorized by the candidate.

The disclosure statement must appear on the face of the political advertising or be clearly spoken if the political advertising is audio only and does not include written text.

The advertising should not be attributed to entities such as "Committee to Elect John Doe" unless a specific-purpose committee named "Committee to Elect John Doe" has filed a campaign treasurer appointment with the Ethics Commission or a local filing authority.

IV. Are There Any Exceptions to the Disclosure Statement Requirement?

The following types of political advertising do not need the disclosure statement:

1. t-shirts, balloons, buttons, emery boards, hats, lapel stickers, small magnets, pencils, pens, pins, wooden nickels, candy wrappers, and similar materials;
2. invitations or tickets to political fundraising events or to events held to establish support for a candidate or officeholder;

3. an envelope that is used to transmit political advertising, provided that the political advertising in the envelope includes the disclosure statement;
4. circulars or fliers that cost in the aggregate less than $500 to publish and distribute;
5. political advertising printed on letterhead stationery, if the letterhead includes the name of one of the following: (a) the person who paid for the advertising, (b) the political committee authorizing the advertising, or, (c) the candidate or specific-purpose committee supporting the candidate, if the political advertising is authorized by the candidate. (Note: There is also an exception for holiday greeting cards sent by an officeholder, provided that the officeholder's name and address appear on the card or the envelope.)
6. postings or re-postings on an Internet website if the person posting or re-posting is not an officeholder, candidate, or political committee and did not make an expenditure exceeding $100 in a reporting period for political advertising beyond the basic cost of hardware messaging software and bandwidth;
7. an Internet social media profile webpage of a candidate or officeholder, if the webpage clearly and conspicuously displays the full name of the candidate or officeholder; and
8. postings or re-postings on an Internet website if the advertising is posted with a link to a publicly viewable Internet webpage that either contains the disclosure statement or is an Internet social media profile webpage of a candidate or officeholder that clearly and conspicuously displays the candidate's or officeholder's full name.

V. What Should I Do If I Discover That My Political Advertising Does Not Contain a Disclosure Statement?

The law prohibits a person from using, causing or permitting to be used, or continuing to use political advertising containing express advocacy if the person knows it does not include the disclosure statement. A person is presumed to know that the use is prohibited if the Texas Ethics Commission notifies the person in writing that the use is prohibited. If you receive notice from the Texas Ethics Commission that your political advertising does not comply with the law, you should stop using it immediately.

If you learn that a political advertising sign designed to be seen from the road does not contain a disclosure statement or contains an inaccurate disclosure statement, you should make a good faith attempt to remove or correct those signs that have been distributed. You are not required to attempt to recover other types of political advertising that have been distributed with a missing or inaccurate disclosure statement.

VI. The Fair Campaign Practices Act.

The Fair Campaign Practices Act sets out basic rules of decency, honesty, and fair play to be followed by candidates and political committees during a campaign. A candidate or political committee may choose to subscribe to the voluntary code by signing a copy of the code and filing it with the authority with whom the candidate or committee is required to file its campaign treasurer appointment. A person subscribing to the code may indicate that fact on political advertising by including the following or a substantially similar statement:

(Name of the candidate or political committee, as appropriate) subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

VII. Special Notice to Political Subdivisions and School Districts.

You may not use public funds or resources for political advertising. Please see our “Publications and Guides” section of our website for more information.

ROAD SIGNS

I. When Is the “Right-Of-Way” Notice Required?

All written political advertising that is meant to be seen from a road must carry a “right-of-way” notice. It is a criminal offense to omit the “right-of-way” notice in the following circumstances:

1. if you enter into a contract or agreement to print or make written political advertising meant to be seen from a road; or
2. if you instruct another person to place the written political advertising meant to be seen from a road.

II. What Should the “Right-Of-Way” Notice Say?

Section 259.001 of the Texas Election Code prescribes the exact language of the notice:

NOTICE: IT IS A VIOLATION OF STATE LAW (CHAPTERS 392 AND 393, TRANSPORTATION CODE) TO PLACE THIS SIGN IN THE RIGHT-OF-WAY OF A HIGHWAY.

III. Do Yard Signs Have to Have the “Right-Of-Way” Notice?

Yes. The “right-of-way” notice requirement applies to signs meant to be seen from any road. The notice requirement assures that a person responsible for placing signs is aware of the restriction on placing the sign in the right-of-way of a highway.

IV. What About Bumper Stickers?

Bumper stickers do not need the “right-of-way” notice. They do, however, need a political advertising disclosure statement.

V. Where May I Place My Signs and How Long May Signs Be Posted?

For information about exactly where you may or may not place signs, or for information regarding the length of time your signs may be posted, check with your city or county government or your homeowner’s association. The Texas Ethics Commission does not have jurisdiction over matters involving the location of signs, and the length of time that they may be posted.

MISREPRESENTATION

I. Are There Restrictions on the Contents of Political Advertising?

Political advertising and campaign communications may not misrepresent a person's identity or official title, nor may they misrepresent the true source of the advertising or communication. The election law does not address other types of misrepresentation in political advertising or campaign communications.

Note that the misrepresentation rules apply to both political advertising and campaign communications. "Campaign communication" is a broader term than "political advertising."

A "campaign communication" means "a written or oral communication relating to a campaign for nomination or election to public office or office of a political party or to a campaign on a measure."

II. Misrepresentation of Office Title.

A candidate may not represent that he or she holds an office that he or she does not hold at the time of the representation. If you are not the incumbent in the office you are seeking, you must make it clear that you are seeking election rather than reelection by using the word "for" to clarify that you don't hold that office. The word "for" must be at least one-half the type size as the name of the office and should appear immediately before the name of the office. For example, a non-incumbent may use the following formats:

Vote John Doe for Attorney General

John Doe
For Attorney General

A non-incumbent may not be allowed to use the following verbiage:

Elect John Doe
Attorney General

John Doe
Attorney General

III. Misrepresentation of Identity or Source.

A person violates the law if, with intent to injure a candidate or influence the result of an election, the person misrepresents the source of political advertising or a campaign communication or if the person misrepresents his or her own identity or the identity of his or her agent in political advertising or in a campaign communication. (If someone else is doing something for you, that person is your agent.) For example, you may not take out an ad in favor of your opponent that purports to be sponsored by a notoriously unpopular group.

IV. Use of State Seal.

Only current officeholders may use the state seal in political advertising.

V. Criminal Offenses.

Be aware that many violations of the Election Code are criminal offenses. For example, unlawfully using public funds for political advertising can be a Class A misdemeanor. So can misrepresenting one's identity or office title in political advertising. For more details on these offenses and political advertising in general, see Chapter 255 of the Election Code.

SWORN COMPLAINTS

An individual may file a sworn complaint with the Ethics Commission alleging a violation of any of the laws it administers, and Sections 334.025 and 335.055, Local Government Code, concerning false and misleading campaign material supporting or opposing the authorization of a sports or community venue project. The Commission does not have the authority to enforce the Penal Code.

A sworn complaint sets in motion a process that may include a preliminary review hearing and a formal hearing, and which permits resolution of the matter at several points in the process. The Commission may ultimately resolve a sworn complaint by dismissal, referral for criminal prosecution, or imposition of a civil penalty. A final decision of the Commission in a sworn complaint process may be appealed to a district court for a trial de novo. During most stages of the process, the Commissioners and Commission staff members are required to keep the complaint confidential.

ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATIVE POWERS

The Ethics Commission is authorized to undertake civil enforcement actions on its own motion or in response to a sworn complaint, hold enforcement hearings, issue orders, and impose civil penalties.

Revised January 10, 2017

THE TEXAS ETHICS COMMISSION

On November 5, 1991, Texas voters approved an amendment that added Article III, Section 24a, to the Texas Constitution. The constitutional amendment created the Texas Ethics Commission. The amendment set out the method by which the eight members of the Commission are to be appointed, with four of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor, two appointed by the Lieutenant Governor, and two appointed by the Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives. No more than four members may be from the same political party.

CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES

The Texas Constitution provides that the Ethics Commission may recommend the salary of members of the Legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, subject to approval by the voters at the subsequent general election for state and county officers. Also, the Commission must set the per diem of members of the Legislature and of the Lieutenant Governor. The Legislature is to determine the other powers and duties of the Commission.

RULEMAKING

The Ethics Commission has rulemaking authority with respect to the laws it administers. Adoption of a rule requires an affirmative vote by six Commissioners.

LAWS ADMINISTERED BY THE TEXAS ETHICS COMMISSION

Statutory duties of the Ethics Commission are in Chapter 571 of the Government Code. The agency is responsible for administering these laws: (1) Title 15, Election Code, concerning political contributions and expenditures, and political advertising; (2) Chapter 302, Government Code, concerning the election of the Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives; (3) Chapter 303, Government Code, concerning the governor for a day and speaker's reunion day ceremonies; (4) Chapter 305, Government Code, concerning lobbyist registration, reports, and activities; (5) Chapter 572, Government Code, concerning personal financial disclosure of state officers and conduct of state officers and employees; (6) Chapter 2004, Government Code, concerning representation before state agencies; (7) Chapter 159, Local Government Code, concerning judges of statutory county courts or statutory probate courts who elect to file a financial statement with the Commission; (8) Government Code, Section 2152.064 (concerning Conflict of Interest in Certain Transactions involving the Texas Facilities Commission); and (9) Government Code, Section 2155.003 (concerning Conflict of Interest involving the Office of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts).

ADVISORY OPINIONS

The Commission has the authority to issue an advisory opinion in response to a request from a person subject to any of the laws it administers, as well as Chapter 36, Penal Code, concerning bribery and corrupt influence, and Chapter 39, Penal Code, concerning abuse of office. It is a defense to prosecution or the imposition of a civil penalty under any of these laws that a person reasonably relied on an advisory opinion of the Commission. The name of a person requesting an advisory opinion must be kept confidential by the Commission.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The Ethics Commission serves as a repository of required disclosure statements for state officials, candidates, political committees, lobbyists, and certain district and county judicial officers.

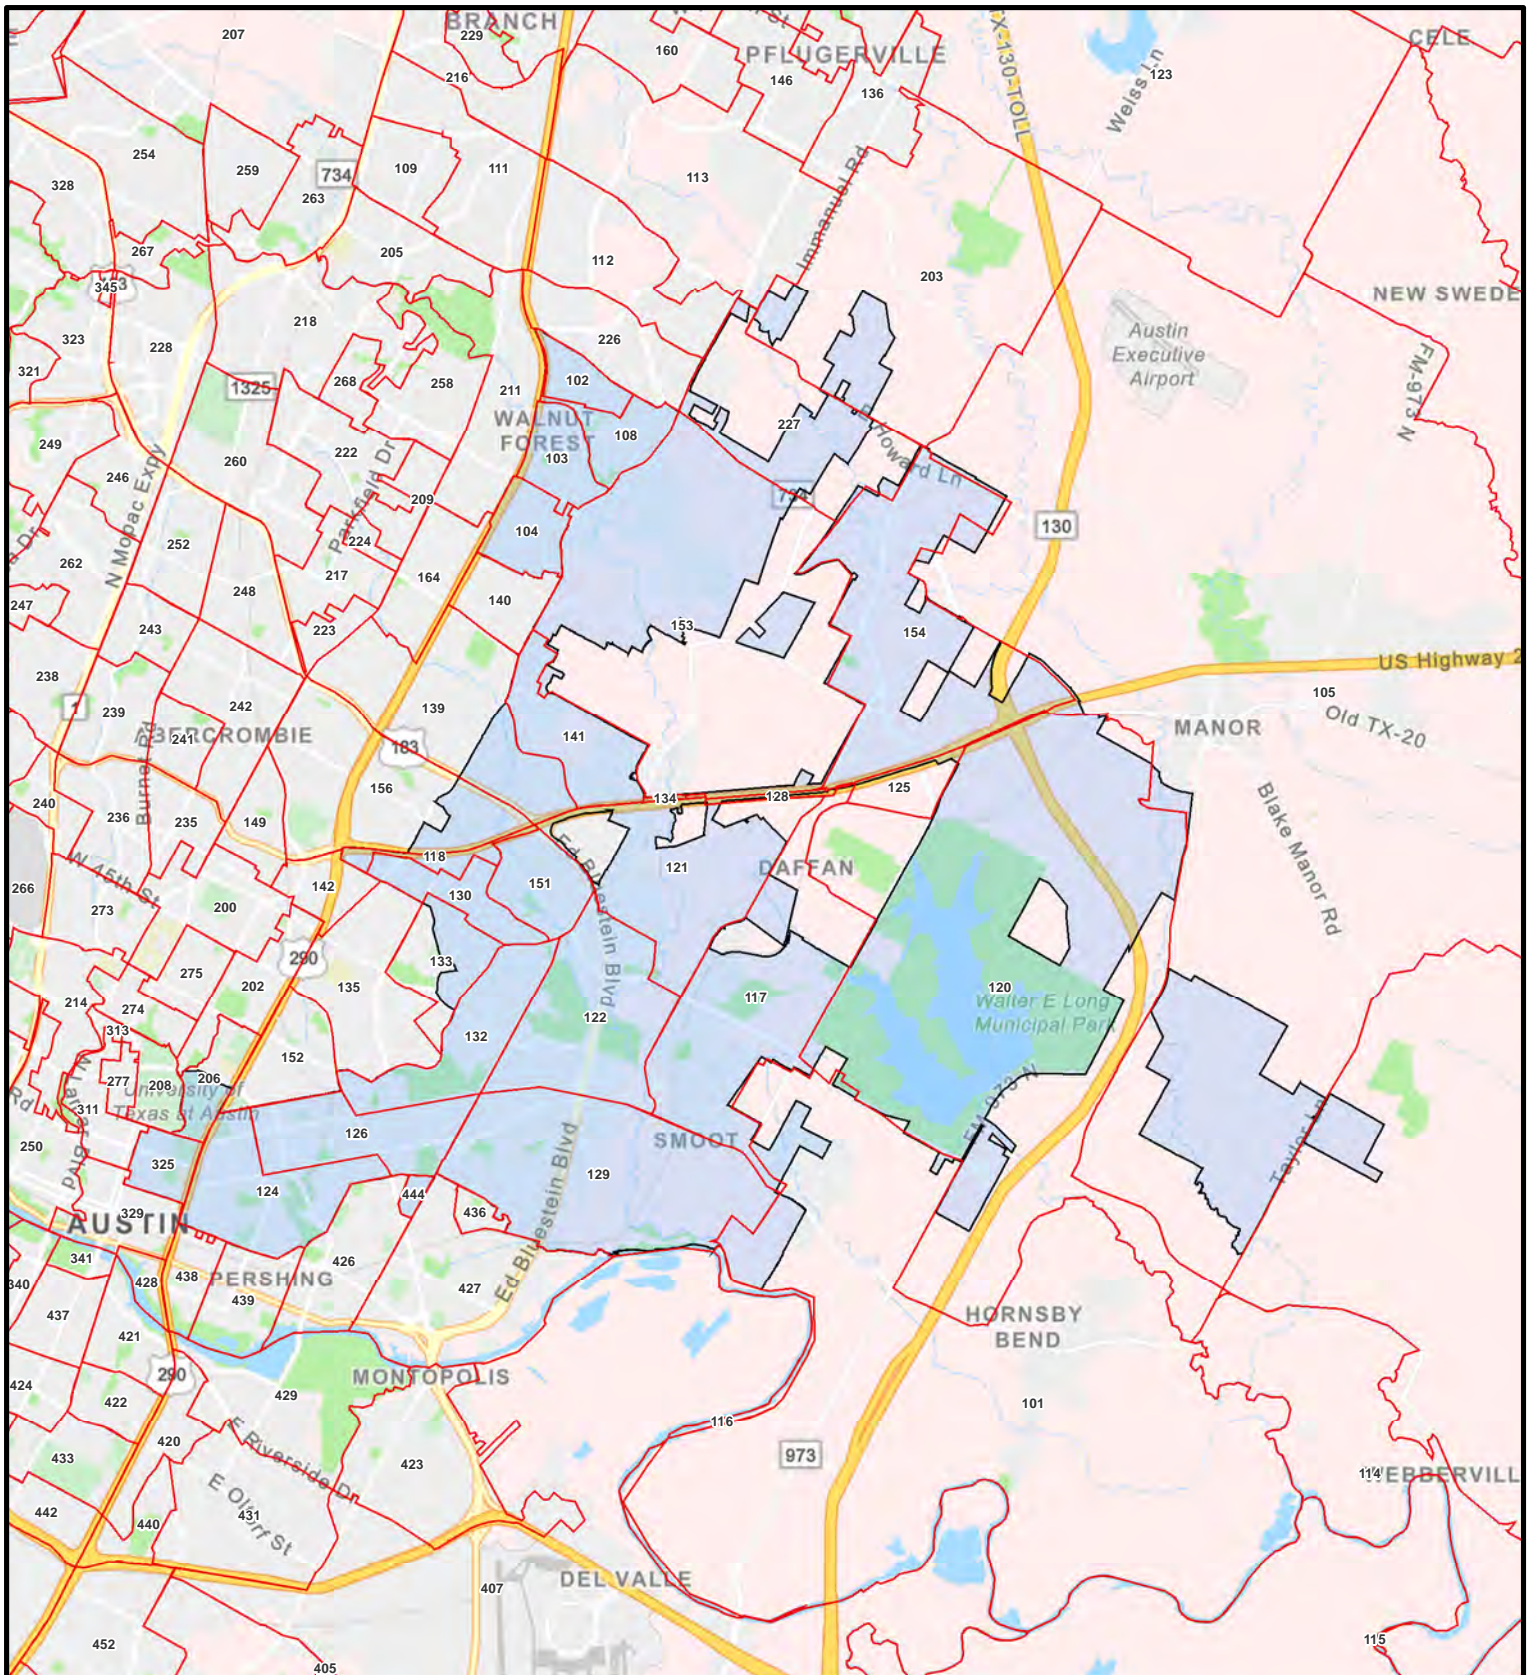

TRAINING

The Ethics Commission provides, in cooperation with state agencies, a program of ethics training for state employees, and also provides training for members and members-elect of the Texas Legislature concerning compliance with laws administered by the Commission. The Commission also produces educational materials and provides training programs for other groups affected by laws administered by the Commission.

El Artículo III, Sección 8 dice lo siguiente:

§ 8. LÍMITES DE CONTRIBUCIONES Y GASTOS DE CAMPAÑA. (A) Límites de Contribuciones a Candidatos.

(1) Ningún candidato para Alcalde o Concejal de la Ciudad ni su comité de campaña aceptará contribuciones de campaña de ninguna persona, que sean más de $300 [vea abajo la cantidad de acuerdo con el índice actual], de cada contribuyente en cada elección de cualquier persona, excepto contribuciones por el candidato mismo y por comités políticos de contribuyentes de cantidades pequeñas (small-donor political comités). La cantidad del límite de contribución será modificada cada año cuando se apruebe el presupuesto para ser aumentada o reducida de acuerdo con la más reciente publicación del gobierno federal del Indicador del Buró de Estadística Laboral, titulado Índice de Precios al Consumidor, CPI-W U.S. promedios de ciudades, indicador de promedios de las ciudades Estadounidenses (Bureau of Labor Statistics Indicator, Consumer Price Index, CPI-W U.S. City Average). El más reciente Índice de Precios al Consumidor del 13 de mayo, 2006 se usará como base de 100 y el ajuste después será a los más próximos $50.00.

o reducirlo de acuerdo con la más reciente publicación del gobierno federal del Indicador del Buró de Estadística Laboral, titulado Índice de Precios al Consumidor (CPI-W U.S. promedios de las ciudades), indicador de los promedios de las ciudades estadounidenses (Bureau of Labor Statistics Indicator, Consumer Price Index, CPI-W U.S. City Average). El más reciente Índice de Precios al Consumidor del 13 de mayo, 2006 se usará como la base de 100 y el ajuste después será a los más próximos $1,000.00.

[Basado en el CPI actual, el límite de la contribución agregada se modifica a $38,000 en cada elección, y a $25,000 en cada elección secundaria].

Adjunto está una lista de códigos postales y un mapa indicando los códigos postales que quedan completamente/o parcialmente dentro de los límites de la ciudad de Austin. Los límites de contribuciones serán calculados nuevamente como parte de la aprobación del Presupuesto del 2020 en septiembre 2019. APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

These instructions are for the APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (Form CTA). Use Form CTA only for appointing your campaign treasurer. Use the AMENDMENT (Form ACTA) for changing information previously reported on Form CTA and for renewing your choice to report under the modified schedule. Note: Candidates for most judicial offices use Form JCTA to file a campaign treasurer appointment.

DUTIES OF A CANDIDATE OR OFFICEHOLDER. As a candidate or officeholder, you alone, not the campaign treasurer, are responsible for filing this form and all candidate/officeholder reports of contributions, expenditures, and loans. Failing to file a report on time or filing an incomplete report may subject you to criminal or civil penalties.

QUALIFICATIONS OF CAMPAIGN TREASURER. A person is ineligible for appointment as a campaign treasurer if the person is the campaign treasurer of a political committee that has outstanding filing obligations (including outstanding penalties). This prohibition does not apply if the committee in connection with which the ineligibility arose has not accepted more than $5,000 in political contributions or made more than $5,000 in political expenditures in any semiannual reporting period. A person who violates this prohibition is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed three times the amount of political contributions accepted or political expenditures made in violation of this provision. Note: A candidate may appoint himself or herself as his or her own campaign treasurer.

DUTIES OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER. State law does not impose any obligations on a candidate's campaign treasurer.

REQUIREMENT TO FILE BEFORE BEGINNING A CAMPAIGN. If you plan to run for a public office in Texas (except for a federal office), you must file this form when you become a candidate even if you do not intend to accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures. A "candidate" is a person who knowingly and willingly takes affirmative action for the purpose of gaining nomination or election to public office or for the purpose of satisfying financial obligations incurred by the person in connection with the campaign for nomination or election. Examples of affirmative action include:

- (A) the filing of a campaign treasurer appointment, except that the filing does not constitute candidacy or an announcement of candidacy for purposes of the automatic resignation provisions of Article XVI, Section 65, or Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution;
- (B) the filing of an application for a place on the ballot;
- (C) the filing of an application for nomination by convention;

- (D) the filing of a declaration of intent to become an independent candidate or a declaration of write-in candidacy;
- (E) the making of a public announcement of a definite intent to run for public office in a particular election, regardless of whether the specific office is mentioned in the announcement;
- (F) before a public announcement of intent, the making of a statement of definite intent to run for public office and the soliciting of support by letter or other mode of communication;
- (G) the soliciting or accepting of a campaign contribution or the making of a campaign expenditure; and
- (H) the seeking of the nomination of an executive committee of a political party to fill a vacancy.

Additionally, the law provides that you must file this form before you may accept a campaign contribution or make or authorize a campaign expenditure, including an expenditure from your personal funds. A filing fee paid to a filing authority to qualify for a place on a ballot is a campaign expenditure that may not be made before filing a campaign treasurer appointment form with the proper filing authority.

If you are an officeholder, you may make officeholder expenditures and accept officeholder contributions without having a campaign treasurer appointment on file. If you do not have a campaign treasurer appointment on file and you wish to accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures in connection with your office or for a different office, you must file this form before doing so. In such a case, a sworn report of contributions, expenditures, and loans will be due no later than the 15th day after filing this form.

WHERE TO FILE A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT. The appropriate filing authority depends on the office sought or held.

a. Texas Ethics Commission. The Texas Ethics Commission is the appropriate filing authority for the Secretary of State and for candidates for or holders of the following offices:

- Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller, Treasurer, Land Commissioner, Agriculture Commissioner, Railroad Commissioner.
- State Senator or State Representative.
- Supreme Court Justice, Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, and Court of Appeals Judge.*
- State Board of Education.
- A multi-county district judge* or multi-county district attorney.
- A single-county district judge.*

- An office of a political subdivision other than a county if the political subdivision includes areas in more than one county and if the governing body of the political subdivision has not been formed.
 - A chair of the state executive committee of a political party with a nominee on the ballot in the most recent gubernatorial election.
 - A county chair of a political party with a nominee on the ballot in the most recent gubernatorial election if the county has a population of 350,000 or more.
- * Judicial candidates use FORM JCTA to appoint a campaign treasurer.

b. County Clerk. The county clerk (or the county elections administrator or tax assessor, as applicable) is the appropriate local filing authority for a candidate for:

- A county office.
- A precinct office.
- A district office (except for multi-county district offices).
- An office of a political subdivision other than a county if the political subdivision is within the boundaries of a single county and if the governing body of the political subdivision has not been formed.

c. Local Filing Authority. If a candidate is seeking an office of a political subdivision other than a county, the appropriate filing authority is the clerk or secretary of the governing body of the political subdivision. If the political subdivision has no clerk or secretary, the appropriate filing authority is the governing body's presiding officer. Basically, any political subdivision that is authorized by the laws of this state to hold an election is considered a local filing authority. Examples are cities, school districts, and municipal utility districts.

FILING WITH A DIFFERENT AUTHORITY. If you have a campaign treasurer appointment on file with one authority, and you wish to accept campaign contributions or make or authorize campaign expenditures in connection with another office that would require filing with a different authority, you must file a new campaign treasurer appointment and a copy of your old campaign treasurer appointment (certified by the old authority) with the new filing authority before beginning your campaign. You should also provide written notice to the original filing authority that your future reports will be filed with another authority.

FORMING A POLITICAL COMMITTEE. As a candidate, you must file an APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (FORM CTA). You may also form a specific-purpose committee to support your candidacy. Remember that filing a campaign treasurer appointment for a political committee does not eliminate the requirement that a candidate file his or her own campaign treasurer appointment (FORM CTA) and the related reports.

NOTE: See the Campaign Finance Guide for Political Committees for further information about specific-purpose committees.

CHANGING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER. If you wish to change your campaign treasurer, simply file an amended campaign treasurer appointment (FORM ACTA). This will automatically terminate the outgoing campaign treasurer appointment.

AMENDING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT. If any of the information reported on the campaign treasurer appointment (FORM CTA) changes, file an AMENDMENT: APPOINTMENT OF A CAMPAIGN TREASURER BY A CANDIDATE (FORM ACTA) to report the change.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT FOR CERTAIN OFFICEHOLDERS. If you are an officeholder who appoints a campaign treasurer after a period of not having one, you must file a report of contributions, expenditures, and loans no later than the 15th day after your appointment is effective. This requirement is not applicable if you are a candidate or an officeholder who is merely changing campaign treasurers.

TERMINATING A CAMPAIGN TREASURER APPOINTMENT. You may terminate your campaign treasurer appointment at any time by:

- 1) filing a campaign treasurer appointment for a successor campaign treasurer, or
- 2) filing a final report.

Remember that you may not accept any campaign contributions or make or authorize any campaign expenditures without a campaign treasurer appointment on file. You may, however, accept officeholder contributions and make or authorize officeholder expenditures.

If your campaign treasurer quits, he or she must give written notice to both you and your filing authority. The termination will be effective on the date you receive the notice or on the date your filing authority receives the notice, whichever is later.

FILING A FINAL REPORT. For filing purposes, you are a “candidate” as long as you have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file. If you do not expect to accept any further campaign contributions or to make any further campaign expenditures, you may file a final report of contributions and expenditures. A final report terminates your appointment of campaign treasurer and relieves you of the obligation of filing further reports as a candidate. If you have surplus funds, or if you retain assets purchased with political funds, you will be required to file annual reports. (See instructions for FORM C/OH - UC.) If you are an officeholder at the time of filing a final report, you may be required to file semiannual reports of contributions, expenditures, and loans as an officeholder.

If you do not have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file, you may not accept campaign contributions or make campaign expenditures. A payment on a campaign debt is a campaign expenditure. An officeholder who does not have an appointment of campaign treasurer on file may accept officeholder contributions and make officeholder expenditures.

To file a final report, you must complete the CANDIDATE/OFFICEHOLDER CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORT (FORM C/OH), check the “final” box on Page 1, Section 9, and complete and attach the DESIGNATION OF FINAL REPORT (FORM C/OH-FR).

ELECTRONIC FILING. All persons filing campaign finance reports with the Texas Ethics Commission are required to file those reports electronically unless the person is entitled to claim an exemption. Please check the Ethics Commission’s website at <http://www.ethics.state.tx.us> for information about exemptions from the electronic filing requirements.

GUIDES. All candidates should review the applicable Ethics Commission’s campaign finance guide. Guides are available on the Ethics Commission’s website at <http://www.ethics.state.tx.us>.

10. CANDIDATE SIGNATURE: Enter your signature after reading the summary. Your signature here indicates that you have read the following summary of the nepotism law; that you are aware of your responsibility to file timely reports; and that you are aware of the restrictions on contributions from corporations and labor organizations.

- The Texas nepotism law (Government Code, chapter 573) imposes certain restrictions on both officeholders and candidates. You should consult the statute in regard to the restrictions applicable to officeholders.
- A candidate may not take an affirmative action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, employment or employment conditions of an individual who is related to the candidate within a prohibited degree.
- A candidate for a multi-member governmental body may not take an affirmative action to influence an officer or employee of the governmental body to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, or employment of an individual related to the candidate in a prohibited degree.
- Two people are related within a prohibited degree if they are related within the third degree by consanguinity (blood) or the second degree by affinity (marriage). The degree of consanguinity is determined by the number of generations that separate them. If neither is descended from the other, the degree of consanguinity is determined by adding the number of generations that each is separated from a common ancestor. Examples: (1) first degree - parent to child; (2) second degree - grandparent to grandchild; or brother to sister; (3) third degree - great-grandparent to great-grandchild; or aunt to niece who is child of individual's brother or sister. A husband and wife are related in the first degree by affinity. A wife has the same degree of relationship by affinity to her husband's relatives as her husband has by consanguinity. For example, a wife is related to her husband's grandmother in the second degree by affinity.

11. CANDIDATE NAME: Enter your name as you did on Page 1.

12. MODIFIED REPORTING DECLARATION: Sign this option if you wish to report under the modified reporting schedule.

The modified reporting option is not available for candidates for the office of state chair of a political party.

To the left of your signature, enter the year of the election or election cycle to which your selection of modified reporting applies.

Your selection of modified reporting is valid for an entire election cycle. For example, if you choose modified reporting before a primary election, your selection remains in effect for any runoff and for the general election and any related runoff. You must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which your selection applies.

An opposed candidate in an election is eligible to report under the modified reporting schedule if he or she does not intend to accept more than $500 in political contributions or make more than $500 in political expenditures in connection with an election. The amount of a filing fee paid to qualify for a place on the ballot does not count against the $500 expenditure limit. An opposed candidate who reports under the modified schedule is not required to file pre-election reports (due 30 days and 8 days before an election) or runoff reports (due 8 days before a runoff). (Note: An unopposed candidate is not required to file pre-election reports in the first place.) The obligations to file semiannual reports, special pre-election reports (formerly known as telegram reports), or special session reports, if applicable, are not affected by selecting the modified schedule.

The $500 maximums apply to each election within the cycle. In other words, you are limited to $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the primary, an additional $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the general election, and an additional $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with a runoff.

EXCEEDING $500 IN CONTRIBUTIONS OR EXPENDITURES. If you exceed $500 in contributions or expenditures in connection with an election, you must file according to the regular filing schedule. In other words, you must file pre-election reports and a runoff report, if you are in a runoff.

If you exceed either of the $500 limits after the 30th day before the election, you must file a sworn report of contributions and expenditures within 48 hours after exceeding the limit. After that, you must file any pre-election reports or runoff reports that are due under the regular filing schedule.

Your selection is not valid for other elections or election cycles. Use the amendment form (ACTA) to renew your option to file under the modified schedule for a different election year or election cycle.

For more information, see the Ethics Commission's campaign finance guide that applies to you.

This prohibition does not apply if the committee in connection with which the ineligibility arose has not accepted more than $5,000 in political contributions or made more than $5,000 in political expenditures in any semiannual reporting period. A person who violates this prohibition is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed three times the amount of political contributions accepted or political expenditures made in violation of this provision.

10. CAMPAIGN TREASURER STREET ADDRESS: Complete this section only if your campaign treasurer's street address has changed. If your campaign treasurer's street address has changed, enter the complete new address of your campaign treasurer, including the zip code. 12. CANDIDATE SIGNATURE: Enter your signature after reading the summary. Your signature here indicates that you have read the following summary of the nepotism law; that you are aware of your responsibility to file timely reports; and that you are aware of the restrictions on contributions from corporations and labor organizations.

- The Texas nepotism law (Government Code, chapter 573) imposes certain restrictions on both officeholders and candidates. You should consult the statute in regard to the restrictions applicable to officeholders.
- A candidate may not take an affirmative action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, employment or employment conditions of an individual who is related to the candidate within a prohibited degree.
- A candidate for a multi-member governmental body may not take an affirmative action to influence an officer or employee of the governmental body to which the candidate seeks election in regard to the appointment, confirmation, or employment of an individual related to the candidate in a prohibited degree.
- Two people are related within a prohibited degree if they are related within the third degree by consanguinity (blood) or the second degree by affinity (marriage). The degree of consanguinity is determined by the number of generations that separate them. If neither is descended from the other, the degree of consanguinity is determined by adding the number of generations that each is separated from a common ancestor. Examples: (1) first degree - parent to child; (2) second degree - grandparent to grandchild; or brother to sister; (3) third degree - great-grandparent to great-grandchild; or aunt to niece who is child of individual’s brother or sister. A husband and wife are related in the first degree by affinity. A wife has the same degree of relationship by affinity to her husband’s relatives as her husband has by consanguinity. For example, a wife is related to her husband’s grandmother in the second degree by affinity.

Note: The changes you have made on this form will replace the information on your previous APPOINTMENT form (Form CTA).

13. CANDIDATE NAME: Enter your name as you did on Page 1, Section 1.

14. MODIFIED REPORTING DECLARATION: Sign this option if you wish to report under the modified reporting schedule.

The modified reporting option is not available for candidates for the office of state chair of a political party.

To the left of your signature, enter the year of the election or election cycle to which your selection of modified reporting applies.

Your selection of modified reporting is valid for an entire election cycle. For example, if you choose modified reporting before a primary election, your selection remains in effect for any runoff and for the general election and any related runoff. You must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which your selection applies.

An opposed candidate in an election is eligible to report under the modified reporting schedule if he or she does not intend to accept more than $500 in political contributions or make more than $500 in political expenditures in connection with an election. The amount of a filing fee paid to qualify for a place on the ballot does not count against the $500 expenditure limit. An opposed candidate who reports under the modified schedule is not required to file pre-election reports (due 30 days and 8 days before an election) or runoff reports (due 8 days before a runoff). (Note: An unopposed candidate is not required to file pre-election reports in the first place.) The obligations to file semi-annual reports, special pre-election reports (formerly known as telegram reports), or special session reports, if applicable, are not affected by selecting the modified schedule.

The $500 maximums apply to each election within the cycle. In other words, you are limited to $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the primary, an additional $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with the general election, and an additional $500 in contributions and expenditures in connection with a runoff.

Exceeding $500 in contributions or expenditures. If you exceed $500 in contributions or expenditures in connection with an election, you must file according to the regular schedule. In other words, you must file pre-election reports and a runoff report, if you are in a runoff.

If you exceed either of the $500 limits after the 30th day before the election, you must file a sworn report of contributions and expenditures within 48 hours after exceeding the limit. After that, you must file any pre-election reports or runoff reports that are due under the regular filing schedule.

Your selection is not valid for other elections or election cycles. Use another amendment form (ACTA) to renew your option to file under the modified schedule.

For more information, see the Ethics Commission's campaign finance guide that applies to you.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play that every candidate and political committee in this state has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional rights to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I will conduct the campaign openly and publicly and limit attacks on my opponent to legitimate challenges to my opponent's record and stated positions on issues.
- (2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate's personal or family life.
- (3) I will not use or permit any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, or national origin.
- (4) I will not use campaign material of any sort that misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations that aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to the personal integrity or patriotism of my opponent.
- (5) I will not undertake or condone any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our system of free elections or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (6) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process, and will not engage in any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (7) I will immediately and publicly repudiate methods and tactics that may come from others that I have pledged not to use or condone. I shall take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Texas or campaign treasurer of a political committee, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct the campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.

La responsabilidad del Candidato/a bajo este contrato se extiende a cualquier persona que actué con el consentimiento previo de o con la cooperación de o por comunicación estratégica entre la persona y el Candidato/a o el comité del Candidato/a. El Candidato/a acuerda que cada uno de los Candidato/as de oposición que haya firmado el contrato de campaña es beneficiario del cumplimiento de Candidato/a con las condiciones de este Contrato, y acuerda que cada Candidato/a de oposición que haya firmado el contrato de campaña podrá ejecutar las condiciones de este Contrato como parte de este Contrato.

SECCIÓN III.

Interpretación del Acuerdo

Este acuerdo se ha de interpretar de manera consistente con el propósito y espíritu de la Carta y de la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas. La Carta y la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas se incorporan a este Contrato por referencia. El Candidato/a deberá cumplir con los requisitos de la Carta y de la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas.

SECCIÓN IV.

Consideración

Candidato/a: El Candidato/a acuerda cumplir con las condiciones de este Contrato a cambio de promesas mutuas y obligaciones estipuladas en el presente, incluyendo sin límites, lo siguiente:

- (1) La oportunidad de calificar para recibir fondos disponibles del Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund), de acuerdo a disposiciones de la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas.
- (2) Usar la declaración de cumplimiento con la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas, proporcionada en la sección 2-2-14 del Código de la Ciudad.
- (3) El derecho de participar en foros de Candidato/as; y
- (4) Cumplir con las condiciones del contrato de campaña por un Candidato/a de oposición que posiblemente firme dicho contrato.

El Candidato/a acepta lo antedicho como contraprestación plena por las responsabilidades del Candidato/a bajo este contrato con pleno entendimiento que los fondos podrían ser limitados, y que Candidato/as en oposición podrían no aceptar tramitar contratos de campaña.

Ciudad de Austin: La Ciudad de Austin acuerda cumplir con las condiciones de este Contrato en cambio de las promesas mutuas y obligaciones estipuladas en el presente, incluyendo lo siguiente sin límites:

- (1) El cumplimiento pleno por el Candidato/a, excepto de las disposiciones de la sección 2-2-17 del Código de la Ciudad, con los límites en contribuciones y gastos que se estipulan en las secciones 2-2-12 y 2-2-13 del Código de la Ciudad de Austin, con modificaciones del Artículo III, sección 8 de la Carta, y
- (2) Participación del Candidato/a en la serie de foros dispuestos en la sección 2-2-65 del Código de la Ciudad de Austin, con sus enmiendas.

SECCIÓN V.

Las Obligaciones

A cambio por la consideración indicada en lo antedicho, la Ciudad de Austin proporcionará los fondos disponibles al Candidato/a de acuerdo con la sección 2-2-64 del Código de la Ciudad. La Ciudad se empeñará en manera razonable para mantener financiación del Fondo Para Financiar Campañas. Mientras haya fondos disponibles del Fondo de

Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund), el

Candidato/a recibirá distribución de los fondos disponibles en cantidades iguales a las que reciban otros Candidato/as que califiquen.

A cambio por la consideración indicada en lo antedicho, el Candidato/a cumplirá, con la excepción de las disposiciones de la sección 2-2-17 de Código de la Ciudad, con los límites en contribuciones y gastos estipulados en las secciones 2-2-12 y 2-2-13 del Código de la Ciudad, con las modificaciones del Artículo III, sección 8 de la Carta, participará en la series de foros de Candidato/as dispuestos en la sección 2-2-65 del Código de la Ciudad, y será responsable de daños liquidados, y sanciones de ejecución que se disponen abajo.

Los tres foros de candidatos en cuales deberá participar el candidato que firme el contrato serán patrocinados por la Comisión de Repaso Ético de la Ciudad e incluirán lo siguiente:

- (1) Una presentación grabada de cinco minutos;
- (2) Un cuestionario escrito por el candidato; y
- (3) El foro en vivo dirigido por la liga de mujeres votantes, LWVAA, para candidatos que aspiran ser electos al mismo puesto.

Si el candidato tramita el contrato de campaña con la Ciudad, y luego no participa en ninguno de los tres foros de candidatos indicados arriba, esto sería violación de la Sección 2-2-65(A) del Código de la Ciudad y entonces el candidato sería inelegible para recibir los fondos.

El Candidato/a no debe anticipar ni en manera implícita ni explícita, la cantidad en particular de fondos públicos pareados que pudiera recibir si califica bajo este contrato. Y, además, en caso de que el Consejo de la Ciudad no designe fondos suficientes en los años fiscales sucesivos, o en caso de no haber dinero disponible para los fondos, o en caso de que el Candidato/a no esté satisfecho con la cantidad de dinero que esté disponible para los fondos, el Candidato/a acuerda que no existe causa o derecho de acción bajo este Contrato contra la Ciudad por la falta de satisfacción del Candidato/a.

El Candidato/a comprende que hay otras causas de acción que se pudieran entablar contra el Candidato/a relacionadas con la campaña del Candidato/a, y el Candidato/a acuerda que no es la intención de este Contrato abreviar o en alguna otra manera limitar los derechos de otros contra el Candidato/a en asuntos que se presenten o que se relacionen a la campaña del Candidato/a.

Este Contrato impone al Candidato/a y a la Ciudad de Austin, la responsabilidad de cumplimiento de buena fe. El Candidato/a y la Ciudad de Austin están obligados a actuar de acuerdo con todos los requisitos sustantivos y procesales de la Carta y de la Ordenanza de Austin Para Campañas Justas.

SECCIÓN VI.

Plazo

El plazo de este Contrato principia en la fecha en que el Candidato/a lo firma y se extiende hasta la fecha de la elección del puesto al cual el Candidato/a se ha postulado, excepto en caso de que el Candidato/a participe en alguna elección secundaria, ya que, en ese caso, el plazo de este Contrato se extenderá y hasta la fecha de la elección secundaria.

Terminación

Este Contrato no puede terminarse por ningún parte excepto bajo las disposiciones de la sección 2-2-17(B) del Código de la Ciudad.

SECCIÓN VII.

Daños y perjuicios fijados

El Candidato/a comprende y acuerda que daños concretos que pudieran suceder a la Ciudad y por los Candidato/as en oposición quienes hayan firmado contratos de campaña por cualquier incumplimiento del Contrato por el Candidato/a son inciertos y difíciles de determinar. Por lo tanto, el Candidato/a acepta responsabilidad por daños convencionales en caso de que el Candidato/a o la persona a cuál la responsabilidad contractual del Candidato/a se extiende bajo la Sección II de este Contrato actué de cierta manera o deje de actuar en cierta manera que sea incumplimiento de las obligaciones del Candidato/a bajo el Contrato.

Se estipula que compensación razonable y justa a cada una de las partes dañadas, incluyendo la Ciudad y cada Candidato/a de oposición que haya firmado el contrato de campaña, por el incumplimiento del Candidato/a en límites de contribuciones o gastos estipulados en las secciones 2-2-12 y 2-2-13 del Código de la Ciudad, con las modificaciones del Artículo III, sección 8 de la Carta, serían tres veces más de la cantidad de gastos excesivos, o tres veces más de la cantidad de contribución excesiva aceptada. Además, si el Candidato/a no cumple con este Contrato, la Ciudad podrá recobrar en daños, del Candidato/a cualquier cantidad que se le haya pagado al Candidato/a del Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund).

El Candidato/a promete pagar, y la Ciudad de Austin y cada Candidato/a en oposición que firma el contrato de campaña acuerda en aceptar, en vez de otros daños, las cantidades estipuladas en esta Sección VII de daños liquidados, y no como penalidad, en caso de incumplimiento de este Contrato. El Candidato/a además acuerda que la Ciudad de Austin y cada Candidato/a en oposición que haya firmado el contrato de campaña recobrarán del Candidato/a honorarios razonables de abogado relacionados al juicio por daños liquidados, en caso de que un tribunal de jurisdicción competente determina que el Candidato/a no ha cumplido con este Contrato.

SECCIÓN VIII.

Otra Ejecución y Sanciones

Si el Candidato/a no cumple con este Contrato, al Candidato/a no será considerado como proveedor de productos y servicios a la Ciudad de Austin bajo ningún contrato por un periodo de cuatro años desde la fecha de la elección en la cual ocurrió el incumplimiento, a no ser que la ley estatal que controló dichos tramites requiera que su propuesta sea aceptada por la Ciudad. El Consejo de la Ciudad puede liberar esta descalificación por voto unánime.

Ejecución

Este contrato será ejecutable en ley contractual en las cortes del estado de Texas.

SECCIÓN IX.

Disposición de Divisibilidad

Si cualquier disposición de este Contrato se determina ser inválida, ilegal, inejecutable por alguna corte de jurisdicción competente, esa determinación (1) no hará inválido el resto de este Contrato, (2) se limitará a las partes específicas de este Contrato descritas en la determinación, y (3) no afectará la validez de este Acuerdo en ninguna otra manera.

SECCIÓN X.

Se Prohíbe Traspasar

En ningún caso podrá traspasar o transferir ningún derecho ni obligaciones el Candidato/a bajo este Contrato.

SECCIÓN XI.

Acuerdo Completo

Este Contrato suplanta todo trámite, acuerdo, y discusión, que hubiera, entre la Ciudad de Austin y el Candidato/a pertinente a todo o a cualquier parte del asunto de este Contrato de Campañas Justas.

Requisitos adicionales que la Ciudad impone. Las leyes de finanzas de campaña de la Ciudad ordenan requisitos de reportar e imponen restricciones en recibir fondos, periodos definidos para recibirlos, y uso de fondos políticos, estos son requisitos adicionales a los que impone la ley estatal. Lo más significativo es que la Carta de la Ciudad impone límites en contribuciones y gastos [Artículo III, Sección 8, Límites en Contribuciones de Campañas y Gastos de Campaña] y ha instituido un requisito de archivar informes de datos estructurados que serán parte del informe de finanzas de campañas. Código de la Ciudad. §2-2-26.

Candidatos pueden voluntariamente tramitar un convenio con la Ciudad para cumplir con los límites de gastos y así poder calificar para posiblemente recibir beneficios/fondos bajo las reglas de Campañas Justas en Austin estatuido en el Código de la Ciudad, Capítulo 2-2, §2-2-I et seq.

El capítulo sobre Campañas Justas en Austin se detalla más adelante bajo su propio subtítulo.

- Personas Sujetas a las Leyes de Financiamiento de Campañas de la Ciudad de Austin. El alcalde, los concejales, y candidatos para estos puestos, y en algunos casos funcionarios en ciertos puestos son sujetos a las leyes de financiamiento de campañas, de sus requisitos, y reglamentos. Además, algunas leyes de finanzas de campañas afectan a los comités de acción política, a contribuyentes, y a otros que participan en elecciones de la Ciudad.
- En qué Momento es un Individuo Sujeto a las Leyes de Financiamiento de Campañas de la Ciudad de Austin. De acuerdo con ambas leyes, las de Financiamiento de Campañas de la Ciudad de Austin y los estatutos estatales de financiamiento de campañas, la persona se convierte en candidato-y por lo tanto es sujeta a las leyes de financiamiento de campañas-cuando la persona actúa en alguna manera con el propósito de ser electo a un puesto público. Ejemplos incluyen, pero sin limitarse a, acciones como registrar el formulario para Nombramiento de Tesorero de Campaña, circular petición para poner su nombre en la boleta, solicitar promesas de contribuciones, o solicitar contribuciones, o efectuar una conferencia de prensa, en cual se anuncia su candidatura.
- Formulario para Nombramiento de Tesorero de Campaña
 - La primera acción de la candidatura de un individuo debe ser archivar el formulario de Nombramiento del Tesorero de Campaña.
 - Este formulario se obtiene y se registra con la Secretaria de la Ciudad. El candidata/a debería asegurar de obtener el folleto informativo que acompaña al formulario.
 - El candidato no puede empezar a aceptar contribuciones, ni hacer gastos políticos hasta que no complete y registre este formulario debidamente.
 - El candidato no deberá gastar fondos personales para fines de la campaña sin antes designar el tesorero debidamente completando el formulario de nombramiento y archivándolo.

- El hecho de registrar el formulario no significa que el nombre del candidato se apuntará en la boleta. Para información sobre asegurarse que su nombre ese apunte en la boleta, candidatos deberían contactar a la Oficina de la Secretaria de la Ciudad.
- En cuanto archiva el formulario, el candidato es responsable de archivar con la Secretaria de la Ciudad sus informes periódicos de contribuciones y gastos. Hay penalidades criminales y civiles por faltas de registrar los informes requeridos puntualmente. Archivar los informes requeridos es responsabilidad del candidato, no del tesorero de la campaña.

CONTRIBUCIONES DE CAMPAÑA

- Definición. El código de la Ciudad define la “contribución” en la Sección 2-2-2(7) como sigue: “CONTRIBUCIÓN es transferencia directa o indirecta de dinero, bienes, servicios, o cualquier otra cosa de valor e incluye un acuerdo hecho u otra obligación incurrida, ya sea ejecutable legalmente o no, para hacer alguna transferencia. El término sí incluye contribución en especie (in kind), excepto cuando la contribución en especie es trabajo como se define en la Sección del Código 2-2-2(11). El término incluye la garantía de un préstamo o extensión de crédito, y también un préstamo o extensión de crédito mientras no sea de los que explícitamente se excluyen por ley estatal. Código Electoral de Texas §251.001(2). El termino no incluye un “un préstamo hecho normalmente por una corporación involucrada legalmente en el negocio de tramitar préstamos y que ha administrado dicho negocio continuamente por más de un año antes de haber hecho el préstamo” o un gasto que por ley debería reportarse bajo el Código Gubernamental de Texas, en la Sección 305.006(b). “Código Electoral de Texas §251.001(2).
- Límites en Contribuciones de Campaña en la Carta de la Ciudad. La ley estatal no impone límites en las cantidades de contribuciones de campaña. Sin embargo, la Sección 8, Artículo III de la Carta impone los siguientes límites en contribuciones en todas las elecciones de la Ciudad:
 - El candidato puede autorizar, establecer, administrar, o controlar solo un comité de campaña a la vez.
 - Ni el candidato ni su comité de campaña deberán aceptar contribuciones de más de $400 (el límite actual ajustado por la inflación) de cada contribuyente en cada elección de alguna persona, con excepción de contribuciones del candidato mismo y de comités políticos de contribuyentes de cantidades pequeñas. La cantidad del límite de contribución será modificada cada año cuando se apruebe el presupuesto para ser aumentada o reducida de acuerdo con la más reciente publicación del gobierno federal del Indicador del Buró de Estadísticas de Labor, titulado Índice de Precios al Consumidor, CPI-W U.S. promedios de ciudades, indicador de promedios de las ciudades estadounidenses (Bureau of Labor Statistics Indicator, Consumer Price Index, CPI-W U.S. City Average). El más reciente Índice de Precios al Consumidor del 13 de mayo, 2006 se usará como base de 100 y el ajuste después será a los más próximos $50.00.

- Ni el candidato ni su comité político deberán aceptar un agregado de contribuciones que exceda $38,000 (el límite actual ajustado por la inflación) en cada elección y $25,000 (el límite actual ajustado por la inflación) en caso de una elección secundaria, de otras fuentes que no sean personas naturales elegibles para votar en alguno de los códigos postales que estén completamente o en parte dentro de los límites de la ciudad. La cantidad del límite de contribución se modificará anualmente cuando el presupuesto se apruebe para aumentarlo o reducirlo de acuerdo con la más reciente publicación del gobierno federal del Indicador del Buró de Estadísticas de Labor, titulado Índice de Precios al Consumidor, CPI-W U.S. promedios de las ciudades, que indica los promedios de las ciudades en los Estados Unidos (Bureau of Labor Statistics Indicator, Consumer Price Index, CPI-W U.S. City Average). El más reciente Índice de Precios al Consumidor del 13 de mayo, 2006 se usará como la base de 100 y el ajuste después, será a los más próximos $1,000.00.
- Comités Políticos de Contribuyentes de Cantidades Pequeñas, como se definen en el Artículo III, Sección 8(B)(2) de la Carta, no deberán contribuir más de $1,000 a cada candidato en cada elección para los puestos de alcalde y concejales de la Ciudad. Cada donación no deberá exceder $25. Ver Carta de la Ciudad, Artículo III, Sección 8(B)(1).
- El candidato es responsable de prevenir violaciones. El candidato o su comité de campañas determinará en cada contribución si acaso aceptar dicha contribución sería infracción del Artículo III, Sección 8 antes de aceptar la contribución.
- Restricciones Adicionales para Aceptar Contribuciones.
 - Edificios que son propiedad de la Ciudad. Ninguna persona hará contribuciones a un candidato o a un funcionario/oficial electo, y ningún candidato o funcionario/oficial electo solicitará, ni aceptará contribuciones en edificios que son propiedad de la Ciudad, excepto en algún edificio que es propiedad de la Ciudad pero que esta disponible para rentarse al público en general y que se rentar para algún evento relacionado con la campaña cuando se hace la contribución. Esta prohibición no aplica en casos cuando se aceptan contribuciones enviadas por correo al funcionario/oficial electo a su dirección municipal. Vea la Sección 2-2-52 del Código de la Ciudad.
 - Contribuciones en Efectivo. Las leyes de Texas prohíben que un candidato o funcionario/oficial electo o un comité de propósito especial acepten de un contribuyente en un periodo de informes, contribuciones políticas en efectivo de más de $100. Código Electoral de Texas §253.033. Cheques no se consideran ser dinero en efectivo.

Todo candidato funcionario/oficial electo que acepta contribuciones efectivas en alguna elección de la Ciudad debe conservar un libro de recibos de contribuciones en efectivo. El libro de recibo debe contener la fecha de cualquier contribución en efectivo y el nombre y dirección del contribuyente. Sin embargo, este no es el caso si la contribución en efectivo fue recibida por el candidato o funcionario/oficial electo en uno o más eventos para recaudar fondos con un precio específico por boleto, de $25 por persona o menos. Estas contribuciones se pueden juntar en un conjunto si el tesorero archiva una declaración en el siguiente informe de contribuciones y gastos declarando la cantidad en efectivo recibida en el evento, y verifica que ningún individuo hizo contribución en efectivo de más de $50 relacionada con el evento. Vea la Sección 2-2-51 del Código de la Ciudad.

- Contribuciones de Cabilderos. Ninguna persona que reciba compensación para cabildar al Consejo de la Ciudad, a quien se le requiere registrarse de cabildero con la Ciudad, ni ningún conyugue de tal persona podrá contribuir más de $25 en un periodo de campaña de un oficial electo o a algún candidato para alcalde o para el Consejo de la Ciudad, o para algún comité político de propósito específico involucrado en la elección para Alcalde o para Concejil de la Ciudad. Vea la Sección 2-2-53 del Código de la Ciudad. Cabilderos pueden ser individuos, corporaciones, asociaciones, firmas, socios, comités, clubs, organizaciones, o un grupo de personas actuando voluntariamente en común acuerdo. Para información tocante requisitos para registrarse como cabildero, vea el capítulo 4-8 del Código de la Ciudad, y más en particular, la sección 4-8-3. Las leyes de Texas generalmente prohíben aceptar contribuciones políticas de corporaciones. Código Electoral de Texas § 253.094; King Street Patriots v. Texas Democratic Party, 521 S.W.3d 729, 741-43 (Tex. 2017). Para más información tocante la prohibición de contribuciones políticas de corporaciones, contacte a la Comisión de Ética en Texas (Texas Ethics Commission).

CAPÍTULO DE “CAMPAÑAS JUSTAS EN AUSTIN”

- Contrato Voluntario. Como previamente se ha indicado en este documento, candidatos pueden voluntariamente firmar un contrato con la Ciudad que cumplirán con los límites de gastos, y así son elegibles para posiblemente recibir beneficios/fondos bajo el capítulo del Código que gobiernan Las Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign). Código de la Ciudad, Sección 2-2-11 et seq.
- Plazo para Firmar el Contrato. Candidatos que desean firmar el Contrato de Campaña deberán personalmente firmar el contrato en un plazo que sea el más temprano de (1) 30 días después de convertirse en candidato bajo el Código Electoral de Texas; o (2) la fecha en que el candidato archiva su solicitud para ser apuntado en la boleta.

- Disponibilidad del Contrato de Campaña. La Sección 2-2-11(A) del Código de la Ciudad dispone lo siguiente: Un candidato para alcalde o concejo de la Ciudad puede firmar un contrato con la Ciudad para acordar que cumplirá con los límites en contribuciones y gastos de la campaña del candidato especificado en este artículo y en cambio recibirá beneficios provistos bajo este capítulo. Dicho contrato se titula “Contrato de Campaña” y se puede obtener con la Secretaria de la Ciudad.
- Fondos Disponibles. La Sección 2-2-11(C) del código dispone lo siguiente: “Solo el candidato que firme un contrato de campaña con la Ciudad calificará para fondos públicos del Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund).” Además, el candidato que firme deberá aceptar participar en una serie de foros de candidatos patrocinados por la Comisión de Repaso de Ética de la Ciudad.

Información tocante el Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund) se encuentra en el Código, en la Sección 2-2-61 et seq.

El Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund) proporciona apoyo público parcialmente para apoyar a candidatos calificados en elecciones secundarias. Financiamiento es sujeto a disponibilidad y no se proporcionan en elecciones sin oposición, ni en elecciones de revocar, ni en elecciones para llenar un vacante creado por alguna elección de revocar. Estos fondos provienen de las cuotas de registro de cabilderos (lobbyists) y de donaciones, y de indemnización por daños, y de multas por violaciones de leyes de campaña, y de los honorarios de archivar/registrar candidaturas colectados de candidatos.

- Límites en Contribuciones. La Sección 2-2-13 del Código impone los siguientes límites en contribuciones para los que firman el Contrato de Campaña:
 - Candidatos para alcalde: Candidatos no deberían aceptar contribuciones de ningún individuo ni de comités políticos que excedan la cantidad agregada de contribuciones estatuida por el Artículo III, Sección 8(A)(1) de la Carta de la Ciudad en ambos el periodo de campaña de la elección y el periodo de campaña de la elección secundaria; ni más de $24,000 de comités políticos en una elección regular o la cantidad adicional de $16,000 para la elección secundaria.
 - Candidatos para Concejal: Candidatos no deberían aceptar contribuciones de ningún individuo ni de comités políticos que excedan la cantidad agregada de contribuciones estatuida por el Artículo III, Sección 8(A)(3) de la Carta de la Ciudad en ambos el periodo de campaña de la elección y el periodo de campaña de la elección secundaria; ni más de $15,000 de comités políticos en una elección regular o la cantidad adicional de $10,000 para la elección secundaria.
- Límites en Gastos. La Sección 2-2-12 del Código de la Ciudad impone los siguientes límites en gastos para los que firman el Contrato de Campaña:

- Candidatos para Alcalde: Un candidato para alcalde no hará gastos que excedan $120,000 durante el periodo de campaña para la elección, y solo hará gastos adicionales de $80,000 durante la elección secundaria.
- Candidatos para Concejal de la Ciudad. Un candidato para concejal de la Ciudad no hará gastos que excedan $75,000 durante el periodo de la elección, y solo hará gastos adicionales de $50,000 durante la elección secundaria.
- Candidatos/as para Alcalde o Concejal de la Ciudad no podrán gastar de sus propios fondos más de la cantidad que exceda el cinco por ciento de los límites voluntarios aplicables detallados arriba para una elección o elección secundaria.
- Se Requiere Declaración de Divulgación
 - La Sección 2-2-14 del Código de la Ciudad ordena que un candidato que haya firmado el Contrato de Campaña incluirá el siguiente aviso en todo anuncio político, palabra por palabra (verbatim) y en manera clara y conspicua. “Esta campaña ha acordado cumplir con los límites en contribuciones y gastos del Capítulo de Campañas Justas de Austin.”
 - La misma sección del Código de la Ciudad además ordena que si el candidato no ha firmado el Contrato de Campaña deberá incluir el siguiente aviso en todo anuncio político, palabra por palabra (verbatim) y en manera clara y conspicua. “Esta campaña no ha acordado cumplir con los límites en contribuciones y gastos del Capítulo de Campañas Justas de Austin.”
- Consecuencias de Violación del Contrato de Campaña
 - Incumplimiento con el Contrato de Campaña pudiera ser por violar los límites de contribuciones o gastos, o por autorizar la publicación de anuncios políticos sin el aviso requerido, o algo similar.
 - El Contrato de Campaña cuenta con provisiones para daños liquidados que se pagarán a la Ciudad y a otros candidatos para el mismo puesto que hayan firmado el Contrato de Campaña, y la cantidad de daños liquidados sería tres veces de la cantidad de gastos excesivos hechos o de contribuciones aceptadas. Código de la Ciudad §2-2-15. Además, la Ciudad y cada candidato/a en oposición que haya firmado el Contrato de Campaña recobrarán de la parte que genere el incumplimiento los honorarios razonables de abogado relacionados al juicio por daños liquidados. §2-2-15. La Ciudad también podrá recobrar de la parte que genere el incumplimiento, cualquier cantidad que se le haya pagado al candidato/a del Fondo de Austin para Financiar Campañas Justas (Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund). La parte que genere el incumplimiento además podría ser excluida por cuatro años y no ser considerada como proveedor de productos o servicios a la Ciudad.

- El Contrato de Campaña es ejecutable en ley contractual en las cortes del estado de Texas. No intenta crear responsabilidad criminal.

RESTRICCIONES DE TIEMPO PARA EL CANDIDATO SOBRE RECAUDACIÓN DE FONDOS

El candidato solo podrá recaudar fondos para la elección durante el periodo de campaña autorizado. Código de la Ciudad §2-2-7(G). El periodo de campaña para la elección general inicia 365 ¹ días anteriores a la fecha de la elección general. Código de la Ciudad §2-2-7(B). El periodo de campaña para la elección secundaria principia el día después de la fecha de una elección. Código de la Ciudad §2-2-7(C).

RESTRICCIONES EN EL USO DE CONTRIBUCIONES

- La ley estatal prohíbe que contribuciones se conviertan para uso personal.
- No es requerido que el candidato se deshaga (o que distribuya la cantidad restante) de fondos recibidos de contribuciones cuando se haya concluido la elección. ²
- El Artículo III, Sección 8(F)(6-8) de la Carta de la Ciudad permite que oficiales electos retengan hasta $20,000 de las contribuciones políticas recibidas para usarlos en gastos de su puesto, con la disposición de que dichos fondos estén en una cuenta separada, y que se usen solo para gastos de su puesto y no para gastos de campaña, y cuando el oficial electo se retire del puesto de concejal, que dichos fondos se paguen al Fondo de Campañas Justas.

² Ver Zimmerman v. City of Austin. ---F.3d---, 2018 WL 652854 * 9-11 (Feb.1, 2018) (En cual la corte determinó que el Artículo III, Sección 8(F) (6-8) de la Carta de la Ciudad que requería la distribución de fondos de campaña no era de acuerdo con la constitución.

- El Artículo III, Sección 8(F)(4) permite que un candidato que no haya sido electo y que tenga gastos sin pagar después de la elección o que tenga gastos hechos de fondos personales para la campaña y que no se hayan reembolsado, y que dichos gastos de fondos personales fueron hechos con el intento de ser reembolsados de contribuciones políticas, que en ese caso puede solicitar y aceptar contribuciones políticas después de la elección hasta que dichos gastos sin pagar sean pagados y que los gastos no reembolsados sean reembolsados.

Un oficial electo también puede pagar gastos sin pagar y reembolsar gastos sin reembolsar de contribuciones políticas recibidas durante alguna campaña subsiguiente.

Reports filed with Texas Ethics Commission: A corrected report (other than a report due 8 days before an election or a special report near election) filed with the Ethics Commission after its due date is not considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties if: (1) any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith, and (2) the person filing the report files a corrected report and a good-faith affidavit not later than the 14th business day after the date the person learns that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete.

A semiannual report that is amended/corrected on or after the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed if: (1) the amendment/correction is made before any complaint is filed with regard to the subject of the amendment/correction; and (2) the original report was made in good faith and without intent to mislead or misrepresent the information contained in the report.

Attach additional pages as necessary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

The following numbers correspond to the numbered boxes on the other side.

1. Filer ID. If you file with the Ethics Commission, you should have received a letter acknowledging receipt of your campaign treasurer appointment and assigning you a Filer ID. Put that number in this box. If you do not file with the Ethics Commission, skip this box.

2. Total Pages Filed. After completing this form and any attachments, count the number of pages. Enter that number in this box. Each side of a two-sided form counts as a page. In other words, this form is two pages.

3. Candidate/Officeholder Name. Put your full name here. Enter your name in the same way as on the report you are correcting.

4. Original Report Type. Mark the type of report you are correcting.

5. Original Period Covered. Enter the period covered by the report you are correcting. The year is important because filers sometimes correct reports years after filing the original.

6. Explanation of Correction. Attach any part of the campaign finance report form needed to report and explain corrections. Explain why there was an error on the original report. Also explain what information is being corrected and how the new information is different from the information on the original report. (Use additional pages if you need more space.) You may also use this area to request a waiver or reduction of a late-filing penalty and state the basis of your request.

7. Affidavit. Read the affidavit before signing. You must sign the affidavit in the presence of an individual authorized to take oaths. If signed before a notary public, the affidavit must include the notary's signature and seal.

C/OH: Manage My Profile – Maintain Addresses

This screen displays a table with the address information currently on file with the City of Austin Electronic Filing System (COA-EFS) for your filer account. If you have filed a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) with the Austin City Clerk's Office, the treasurer's address information currently on file is also displayed. The COA-EFS will use this address information to send you correspondence that cannot be sent by email. Please note: It is important for you to keep this information up to date so that you do not miss any notices regarding your filing requirements.

Any changes you make to your filer or treasurer address(es) in the filing application will also update your information on file with the COA-EFS. You may provide up to three addresses (Mailing, Street and Other) for both the filer and the treasurer. To add a new address, click the Add button located below the list.

Addresses on C/OH Reports: The addresses marked with an asterisk (*) in the address table on this screen will be entered on the reports you file using this filing application. The address you enter as the Filer Mailing Address will be used for the "Candidate/Officeholder Mailing Address" on the Cover Sheet of your reports. C/OH: Cover Sheet – Report Type & Period Covered

What kind of report do you want to file? (Report Type): You can only select one of these report types for this report. If you need to file more than one of these report types, you must file each as a separate report. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with the "Final" or "15 Day After Treasurer Appointment" reports below, if applicable. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for the report type that applies to the event for which you are filing.

January 15th Semiannual Report: All candidates and officeholders who file with the COA-EFS must file a semiannual report by midnight Central Time on the January 15 report due date. Note: Anyone who has a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file must file semiannual reports, even after an election has ended and even if the filer lost the election. To end this semiannual filing requirement, the filer must cease campaign activity and file a Final report. (See "Final Report" below for more information.)

July 15th Semiannual Report: All candidates and officeholders who file with the COA-EFS must file a semiannual report by midnight Central Time on the July 15 report due date. Note: Anyone who has a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file must file semiannual reports, even after an election has ended and even if the filer lost the election. To end this semiannual filing requirement, the filer must cease campaign activity and file a Final report. (See "Final Report" below for more information.)

30th Day Before Election Report: Opposed candidates in an election who did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this pre-election report. If an opposed candidate chose modified reporting, but then exceeded a threshold before the 30th day before the election, the candidate must file this report. (Note: Candidates who are unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) The report is due no later than 30 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

8th Day Before Election Report: Opposed candidates in an election who did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this pre-election report. If an opposed candidate chose modified reporting but then exceeded a threshold before the 8th day before the election, the candidate must file this report. (Note: Candidates who are unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) The report is due no later than 8 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Exceeded $500 Limit Report: Candidates who chose to file under the modified reporting schedule but then, after the 30th day before the election, exceeded $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with the election must file this Exceeded $500 Limit report within 48 hours after exceeding the $500 limit.

Runoff Report: Candidates who are participating in a runoff election and did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this runoff report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the runoff election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Less Commonly Filed Reports: These reports are only required if you meet certain criteria. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with one of the reports listed above, if applicable. Select the radio button for one of these less commonly filed reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Final Report: You may file a Final report if you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file with the COA-EFS and meet all of the following: 1) do not expect to accept any more campaign contributions or make or authorize any more campaign expenditures, 2) expect to take no further action to get elected to a public office, and 3) do not intend to continue accepting contributions to pay campaign debts. There is not a fixed deadline for this report.

Important Things to Know Before Filing a Final Report:

- You must have a CTA on file to accept contributions to offset campaign debts or to pay campaign debts. If you intend to continue this campaign activity, do not file a final report at this time.
- A final report will terminate your CTA and relieve you from any additional filing obligations as a candidate. If you are an officeholder, you will still be subject to the filing requirements applicable to officeholders. If you are not an officeholder but have surplus political funds or assets, you will be required to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports. (See Unexpended Contributions under "Other Reports" for more information.)
- Terminating a CTA does not relieve you of your responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties.
- A candidate who does not have a CTA on file is still required to file a personal financial statement (PFS) in accordance with chapter 572 of the Government

Code. You can set up a PFS filer type with COA-EFS to file PFS using this filing application, if applicable.

15 Day After Treasurer Appointment Report (For Officeholders Only): An officeholder must file this report if he or she appoints a campaign treasurer after a period of not having a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file. This report is due no later than midnight Central Time on the 15th day after an officeholder files Form CTA with the COA-EFS. It is not required of officeholders who are merely changing their campaign treasurers. Candidates who are not officeholders do not file this report.

Other Reports: These other reports are only required in certain circumstances and cannot be combined with other report types. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for one of these other reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Daily Pre-election Report of Contributions: Daily Pre-election reports are time-sensitive reports due during the period beginning the 9th day before an election and ending at 12 noon on the day before the election. If you are an opposed candidate in an election for statewide office; district office filled by voters of more than one county; judicial district office filled by voters of only one county; State Board of Education; state senator; or state representative, you must file a Daily report each time you accept contribution(s) from a single source that in the aggregate total more than $1,000 during the Daily report period. You may be required to file more than one Daily report during the Daily report period. A Daily report must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time the first business day after the date you accepted the contribution that triggered the reporting requirement. Note: Contributions disclosed on a Daily report must be disclosed again on the next required report. Don't worry; the filing application will automatically copy contributions from any Daily report you file into your next required report.

Legislative Special Session Report: This report is filed after a special legislative session called by the governor. You must file this report ONLY IF you are a statewide or legislative candidate or officeholder who accepted contributions during the period covered by the Special Session report. (Statewide officeholders and members of the legislature may not accept political contributions during a regular legislative session. This restriction does not apply during a special session.) The Special Session report must be filed no later than 30 days after the date of final adjournment and must cover the period beginning on the date the governor signs the proclamation calling the special session and ending on the date of final adjournment of the special session. You are not required to file a separate Special Session report if another report is due no later than the 10th day after the date on which the Special Session report would be due.

If you do not accept any contributions during the period covered by the Special Session report, you are not required to file the report. (This is an exception from the usual requirement that you must file a report even if you have no activity to report.)

A Special Session report is a report of contributions only, not expenditures. Contributions reported on a Special Session report must be reported again on your next regular report. (Don't worry; the filing application will automatically copy contributions from any Special Session report you file into your next required report.) In addition, you must include on your next regular report any expenditures that occurred during the period covered by the Special Session report.

Unexpended Contributions Report-Annual (For Former Candidates and Former Officeholders without a Campaign Treasurer Appointment on File): You must file this report if one of the following descriptions applies to you:

- (1) You filed a final report as a candidate at a time when you were not an officeholder, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you filed the final report; or
- (2) You ceased to be an officeholder at a time when you did not have a campaign treasurer on file, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you ceased to be an officeholder.

If you are a former candidate or officeholder with unexpended funds or assets, you must file an annual Unexpended Contributions report by midnight Central Time on January 15 following each year in which you maintained unexpended contributions or assets. You must continue to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports until you have disposed of all your unexpended contributions or assets. (See "Unexpended Contributions Report-Final" below for more information about the report of final disposition.) Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Unexpended Contributions Report-Final (For Former Candidates and Former Officeholders without a Campaign Treasurer Appointment on File): You must file Unexpended Contribution reports if one of the following descriptions applies to you:

- (1) You filed a final report as a candidate at a time when you were not an officeholder, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you filed the final report; or
- (2) You ceased to be an officeholder at a time when you did not have a campaign treasurer on file, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you ceased to be an officeholder.

(See "Unexpended Contributions Report-Annual" above for more information about the annual reports.) Once you have disposed of all your political contributions or assets, you will file an "Unexpended Contributions-Final" report. You may not retain unexpended contributions or assets longer than 6 years after the date you filed your final report or ceased being an officeholder, as applicable. The latest possible date for filing a "final disposition" report of unexpended contributions is 30 days after the end of that six-year period. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Period Covered: The filing application will calculate the period covered for your report based on the report type you select. You can modify the start and end dates as long as your modified start date does not precede the filing application calculated start date and your modified end date does not extend past the filing application calculated end date. If you need to report activity outside of the filing application calculated date range for this report, you will need to file multiple reports.

A reporting period includes the Start date and the End date. The report due date will be after the end of the period. Generally, a report picks up where the last report left off and there should be no gaps or overlapping periods. The exceptions are Daily Pre-election reports and Special Session reports, which do create overlaps because you are required to report the activity twice.

First Reports. If this is the first campaign finance report that you have filed, the start date will depend on the date your campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) was filed or the date you took office.

- If you are a candidate (an individual who has filed a Form CTA) and you are filing your first report, the start date will be the date your Form CTA was filed.
- If you are an officeholder who was appointed to an elective office and who did not have a Form CTA on file at the time of the appointment, the beginning date for your first report will be the date you took office.

January 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is July 1 of the previous year or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is December 31 of the previous year.

July 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is January 1 or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The ending date is June 30.

30th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 40th day before the election. (This report is not required for unopposed candidates or candidates who are filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

8th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the 39th day before the election if you were required to file a 30th Day Before Election Report. If you were not required to file the 30th Day Before Election Report, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 10th day before the election. (This report is not required for unopposed candidates or candidates who are filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

Exceeded $500 Limit Report Period: (This report is only required for candidates who selected the modified reporting schedule but exceeded the $500 limit after the 30th day before the election.) The start date for the report is either the day you appointed your campaign treasurer or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. The end date is the day you exceeded the $500 limit for contributions or expenditures. (See "Exceeded $500 Limit Report" in the "Report Type" section above for more information.)

Runoff Report Period: The start date is the 9th day before the main election if you filed an 8th Day Before Election report in connection with the main election. Otherwise, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report or the day you appointed a campaign treasurer, whichever is later. The end date is the 10th day before the runoff election. (This report is not required for candidates who are filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

Final Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report. The end date is the day you file the final report.

15 Day After Treasurer Appointment Report Period (Officeholders Only): The start date is either the day after the last day covered by your last required report or the day you began serving an appointment to elective office. The end date is the day before the campaign treasurer appointment was filed. This report is due no later than 15 days after the campaign treasurer appointment was filed.

Daily Pre-election Report Period: The start date is the day you accepted the contribution(s) that triggered the reporting requirement. The end date is the day you file the report. A Daily report must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time the first business day after the date you accepted the contribution that triggered the reporting requirement. (See Daily Pre-election Report of Contributions in the "Report Type" section for more information.)

Legislative Special Session Report Period: (This report is only required if you are a statewide or legislative candidate or officeholder who accepted contributions during the period covered by the Special Session report.) The start date is the day the governor signs the proclamation calling the special legislative session. The end date is the day of final adjournment of the special legislative session. (See Legislative Special Session Report in the "Report Type" section for more information.)

Unexpended Contributions Report-Annual Period: If this is the first Unexpended Contributions-Annual report you have filed, the start date is the day after the day you filed your Final Report. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

The end date is the date you file the Unexpended Contributions-Final report. (See Unexpended Contributions Report-Final in the "Report Type" section for more information.) This option takes you through ALL the schedules in the report from beginning to end. C/OH: Schedule A1

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming monetary contributions on Schedule A1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are now entered on Schedule A2.)

Schedule A1 is used to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If you accepted other types of incoming funds (such as loans or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

Date	Contributor	Amount	Action
01/01/2015	Contributor, Connie	$1,000.00	Edit Delete

(1 of 1) Add Memo Done with Contributions

The contribution list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

Browse to Upload PDF. Attach a copy of one of the following required documents in PDF format to be included with your report:

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date you accepted the contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution.

Contribution Amount: Enter the amount of the contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this contribution will be itemized on Schedule A1. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more contributions from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A1 monetary contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize monetary contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A1, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A1.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Employer and Occupation Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation or Job Title: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

C/OH: Schedule E

Schedule E is used to itemize loans made for campaign or officeholder purposes by financial institutions or individuals, and loans to your campaign from personal funds. You must itemize all loans that you accepted during the reporting period from financial institutions regardless of the amount. Additionally, you must itemize loans exceeding $50 from one person that you accepted during the reporting period.

Loans to Your Campaign from Your Personal Funds: If you make a political expenditure from personal funds and intend to seek reimbursement of any amount, the simplest way to disclose the expenditure is to use Schedule G (see the Schedule G Page Help for more information). Another way is to disclose political expenditures from personal funds as a loan to your campaign on Schedule E. Outgoing political expenditures made from that loan must then be disclosed on Schedule F1. Remember: The amount you disclose as a loan from yourself in a reporting period may NOT exceed the amount you actually spent from personal funds in that reporting period. In other words, do not report a $100,000 loan to your campaign if the amount actually spent from your personal funds in the reporting period was $5,000. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, disclose the reimbursement as another outgoing political expenditure on Schedule F1. (Note: The reimbursement may not exceed the amount disclosed as a loan.)

Personal Funds Deposited into a Political Account: If you choose to deposit personal funds in an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code, disclose the deposited amount as a loan on Schedule E and check the box indicating "Personal Funds Deposited into Political Account." (Note: Personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restriction.) Disclose the outgoing political expenditures made from that loan on Schedule F1. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, disclose the reimbursement as another outgoing political expenditure on Schedule F1. (Note: The reimbursement may not exceed the amount disclosed as a loan.)

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the political payment is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the political payment. If your payment was a contribution to another candidate or officeholder, or to a committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure for Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the payment was an expenditure for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political payment for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Direct Expenditure to Benefit C/OH? Check this box if the payment was a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another candidate or officeholder (C/OH). The description of a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another C/OH must include additional information about the C/OH. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Candidate Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule F1. Do not complete this section if the expenditure was not a direct campaign expenditure.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Reimbursement from Political Funds. If you intend to seek reimbursement in any amount from political contributions for a political expenditure made from personal funds, you must either itemize the expenditure here (Schedule G) and check the box to indicate that you intend to seek reimbursement or itemize the expenditure as a loan to yourself on Schedule E. The political expenditure from personal funds must be properly disclosed in the report covering the period in which the expenditure is made. You may not correct a report to allow reimbursement. If you deposit personal funds in an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code, you must report the deposited amount as a loan on Schedule E. See the Schedule E Page Help for additional information.

Officeholder Expenditures: An officeholder is not required to disclose officeholder expenditures from personal funds, if the officeholder does not intend to seek reimbursement of those expenditures from political funds.

Schedule H is used to itemize outgoing campaign or officeholder payments to a business in which you have one or more of the following interests or positions:

- 1) a participating interest of more than 10%;
- 2) a position on the governing body of the business;
- 3) a position as an officer of the business.

When you use political contributions to pay the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Itemize such payments on this Schedule H and not on Schedule F1 (used for monetary political expenditures). If you had other types of outgoing funds (such as investment purchases, other political expenditures, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

C/OH: Schedule I

Schedule I is used to itemize non-political expenditure payments made from political funds, regardless of the amount. If you had other types of outgoing funds (such as political expenditures from political or personal funds, investment purchase, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

A non-political expenditure is an expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures and should not be disclosed on Schedule I. Remember that you may not convert political contributions to personal use.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When you pay the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Payments to a Business of Candidate or Officeholder: Do not report on this schedule non-political expenditures from political contributions made to a business in which you have a participating interest of more than 10%, a position on the governing body, or a position as an officer. Report those types of expenditures on Schedule H. See the Schedule H Page Help for more information about these types of expenditures.

Non-Political Expenditures List: After you enter and save your first non-political expenditure, the filing application will begin a list of all non-political expenditures entered on Schedule I for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

Browse to Upload PDF. Attach a copy of one of the following required documents in PDF format to be included with your report:

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date you accepted the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the in-kind contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this in-kind contribution will be itemized on Schedule A2. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more contributions from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A2 in-kind contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize in-kind contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A2, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such in-kind contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A2.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Employer and Occupation Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation or Job Title: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the in-kind contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing your report to understand what goods or services were contributed.

In-kind Contribution for Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

C/OH: Schedule B

NEW! As always, you must disclose a pledge on Schedule B in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged contribution on Schedule A1 (used for monetary contributions) or A2 (used for non-monetary contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which you actually receive the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule B is used to itemize pledges (monetary or in-kind) that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If you accepted monetary incoming funds (such as contributions, loans, or interest) or received non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contribution of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule B for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Pledge Date: Enter the date you accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. (If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.)

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If you accept a pledge in one reporting period and then receive the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge accepted and received in the same reporting period: If you receive a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date you accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. If you never actually receive the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of the pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this pledge will be itemized on Schedule B. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize pledges that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more pledges from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each pledge separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Pledges of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule B pledges that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of Schedule F2 is used to itemize political expenditures you have incurred but not yet paid that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. Also use this schedule to itemize any non-political expenditures you have incurred but not yet paid during the reporting period, regardless of the amount. Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the incurred expenditure obligation.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this incurred expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F2. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize political expenditures that exceed $100 (in the aggregate) to a single payee. You are required to itemize any non-political expenditure, regardless of the amount. If you incurred two or more political expenditures to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each incurred expenditure obligation separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Expenditure Obligations of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F2 incurred political expenditures to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize incurred political expenditures of $100 and less on Schedule F2, you must total all such incurred political expenditures and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such incurred political expenditures here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F2.

Type of Expenditure: Select whether the incurred expenditure was political or non-political. NOTE: As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures. Remember that you may not convert political contributions to personal use.

Check if Austin, TX, officeholder living expense: For expenditures made on or after July 1, 2014, check this box only if the incurred expenditure is an officeholder expense for living in Austin, Texas.

Payee Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the payee of the expenditure obligation. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee of the expenditure obligation.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the incurred expenditure is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the incurred expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. If your incurred expenditure was a contribution to another candidate or officeholder, or to a committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the expenditure was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political expenditure for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Direct Expenditure to Benefit C/OH? Check this box if the expenditure was a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another candidate or officeholder (C/OH). The description of a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another C/OH must include additional information about the C/OH. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Candidate Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule F2. Do not complete this section if the expenditure was not a direct campaign expenditure.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

C/OH: Schedule F4

NEW! Schedule F4 is a new schedule used to disclose information about expenditures made by credit card. Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on this schedule and identify the individual, entity, or vendor who receives payment from the credit card company. (When you pay the credit card bill, you will enter the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule.)

Schedule F4 is used to itemize expenditures you made by credit card that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If you had outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political or personal funds), or obligations that you have incurred but not yet paid, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

To Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the payee is an individual or an entity.

Note: Disclose the name of the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee, NOT the credit card company. You do not report the name of the credit card company on this schedule.

Expense Date: Enter the date you made the expenditure by credit card.

Note: There is a special reporting rule for expenditures made by credit card. For reports due 30 days and 8 days before an election (pre-election reports) and for runoff reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is the date the credit card is used. For other reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is either the date of the charge or the date the credit card statement is received. A filer can never go wrong by disclosing the date of the expenditure as the date of the charge. See Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures for more information.

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the credit card expenditure.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this credit card expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F4. The automatic default is to itemize. same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each expenditure made by credit card separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Credit Card Expenditures of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F4 political expenditures made by credit card to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize political expenditures made by credit card of $100 and less on Schedule F4, you must total all such credit card expenditures and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. company. Instead, select the category that corresponds to the goods, services, or other thing of value purchased from the individual, entity, or vendor.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the credit card expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. C/OH: Schedule Subtotals

Schedule Subtotals is a new page of the reporting form intended to supplement the report totals (cover sheet, page 2). This page displays the calculated Subtotal for each report schedule, based on the amounts you entered on the schedule entry screen (reported itemized and reported unitemized) and any other unitemized total you enter as a lump sum amount here (user entered lump sum unitemized).

You are always required to itemize or report detailed information for contributions, expenditures, and loans over a certain monetary threshold. The thresholds vary depending on the type of activity (see "Itemization Thresholds" below). For smaller contributions, expenditures, and loans that do not exceed the threshold (in the aggregate from a single source), you may report them in one of two ways: 1) add them all together and enter the unitemized total as a lump sum; OR 2) enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen (and choose to itemize or not).

Itemized transactions: You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen AND the "itemize" box is checked. The filing application calculates the sum of the entries for each schedule and the amount is displayed in the Reported Itemized column for the applicable schedule.

Unitemized transactions: Depending on your choice of entry, your unitemized transactions are shown under one of the following columns:

Reported Unitemized – You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen and the "itemize" box is NOT checked. The transaction will remain unitemized, unless you manually check the "itemize" box or you enter additional transactions from/to the same source which cause the aggregate total to exceed the itemization threshold.

User Entered Lump Sum Unitemized – You chose not to enter the detailed information, but rather to enter the total of all your unitemized transactions as a lump sum for the applicable schedule. You must manually enter the lump sum total. DO NOT INCLUDE in a lump sum total any transactions for which you chose to enter detailed information.

Itemization Thresholds for Each Schedule: To return to the instructions for each schedule, click on the applicable link.

Monetary Political Contributions \(A1\) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Loans \(E\) – You are not required to itemize loans (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less from a person other than a financial institution. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You must itemize all loans from a financial institution regardless of the amount.

Interest, Credits, Gains, Refunds, and Contributions Returned to Filer \(K\) – You are not required to itemize such activity (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

Political Expenditures from Political Contributions \(F1\) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G) - You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. (Note: You are required to itemize political expenditures from personal funds in any amount, if you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions.)

Payment from Political Contributions to the Business of a C/OH (H) – There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all such payments.

Non-political Expenditures from Political Contributions (I) – There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all non-political expenditures from political contributions.

Purchase of Investments from Political Contributions (F3) – You are not required to itemize investments (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

In-kind Political Contributions (A2) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Pledged Contributions (B) – You are not required to itemize pledges (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2) – You are not required to itemize incurred but not yet paid political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all incurred but not yet paid non-political expenditures, regardless of the amount.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures made by credit card (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all non-political expenditures made by credit card, regardless of the amount.

You are required to include in your campaign finance report the following total amounts of contributions, expenditures, and loans:

1. Total Unitemized Political Contributions of $50 or less (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum-total of the unitemized contribution amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2) for:

Reported Unitemized (contributions of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (contributions of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

2. Total Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political contributions you accepted in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 1 (total unitemized contributions of $50 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (contributions which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2).

3. Total Unitemized Political Expenditures of $100 or less: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized political expenditure amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4), and Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G) for:

Reported Unitemized (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

4. Total Political Expenditures: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political expenditures you made in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 3 (total unitemized political expenditures of $100 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (expenditures which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4), Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G), and Payment from Political Contributions to a Business of C/OH (H).

5. Total Political Contributions Maintained as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the total amount of political contributions, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if you do not maintain political contributions, including interest or other income earned on those contributions, as of the last day of the reporting period. (This is different from the total contributions reported on Line 2. Only contributions accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Line 2.)

The law requires you to disclose the total amount of political contributions accepted, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained in one or more accounts in which political contributions are deposited as of the last day of the reporting period.

The "total amount of political contributions maintained" includes: the total amount of political contributions maintained in one or more accounts, including the balance on deposit in banks, savings and loan institutions and other depository institutions and the present value of any investments that can be readily converted to cash, such as certificates of deposit, money market accounts, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, etc.

Personal Funds: The "total amount of political contributions maintained" does NOT include personal funds that you intend to use for political expenditures, unless the personal funds have been disclosed as a loan to your campaign and deposited into an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code. Any unexpended funds from such a loan at the end of the reporting period are required to be included in the "total amount of political contributions maintained." Note: Personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restrictions.

6. Total Principal Amount of all Outstanding Loans as of the Last Day of the Reporting

Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all loans accepted for campaign or officeholder purposes as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if you did not accept any loans during the period covered and have no outstanding loans as of the last day of the reporting period. The "total outstanding loans" must include outstanding principal of loans made in this reporting period as well as outstanding principal of loans made previously. (This is different from the information reported on Loans (Schedule E). Only loans accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Schedule E.)

7. Total Unitemized Pledges: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: a printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule B and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized pledge amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Pledged Contributions (B) for:

Reported Unitemized (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

8. Total Unitemized Loans: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: a printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule E and not on Cover Sheet

Reported Unitemized (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

C/OH: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering the amount of total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the reporting period under Report Totals). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a contributor or payee). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE: If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (contribution, loan, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

C/OH: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides check boxes for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report.

Sworn Statement Check Boxes: Check the box next to any and all applicable statements.

For Any Corrected Report: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

A corrected report (other than an 8th Day Before Election Report or a Daily Pre-election Report) filed with the COA-EFS after its due date is not considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties if the report meets this "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision.

A correction to an 8th Day Before Election Report must also meet the "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision; however, the corrected report could be subject to a late-filing penalty unless the report as originally filed substantially complies with the applicable law as determined by the Ethics Commission.

For Corrections to Semiannual Reports: Effective September 1, 2011, a Semiannual Report (due January 15 or July 15) that is amended/corrected before the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed. A Semiannual Report that is amended/corrected on or after the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed if: (1) the amendment/correction is made before any complaint is filed with regard to the subject of the amendment/correction; and (2) the original report was made in good faith and without intent to mislead or misrepresent the information contained in the report.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction (contribution, loan, expenditure, etc.) that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted.

C/OH: Final Report Affidavit

You may file a Final report if you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file with the COA-EFS and meet all of the following: 1) do not expect to accept any more campaign contributions or make or authorize any more campaign expenditures, 2) expect to take no further action to get elected to a public office, and 3) do not intend to continue accepting contributions to pay campaign debts. There is not a fixed deadline for this report.

Important Things to Know Before Filing a Final Report:

- You must have a CTA on file to accept contributions to offset campaign debts or to pay campaign debts. If you intend to continue this campaign activity, do not file a Final report at this time.
- A Final report will terminate your CTA and relieve you from any additional filing obligations as a candidate. If you are an officeholder, you will still be subject to the filing requirements applicable to officeholders. If you are not an officeholder but have surplus political funds or assets, you will be required to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports. (See Final Disposition of Unexpended Contributions for more information.)
- Terminating a CTA does not relieve you of your responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties.
- A candidate who does not have a CTA on file is still required to file a personal financial statement (PFS) in accordance with chapter 572 of the Government Code. You can set up a PFS filer type with COA-EFS to file PFS using this filing application, if applicable.

Final Report Affidavit: This page includes the Final report affidavit language. You must agree to and acknowledge the affidavit to indicate that you understand the consequences of filing a Final report. To do so, select the radio button next to the statement, “I agree to and acknowledge the above affidavit.”

If you intend to have additional campaign activity and are not ready to file a Final report, select the radio button next to the statement, “I do not agree to the above affidavit.” You will have some options as to how you wish to continue:

Continue Working on a Different Report Type: (This option is only available if you started the Final report in combination with another report type.) Selecting this option will return you to the “Cover Sheet” screen. From here, you can select “Clear This Report?” if you do not wish to file a Final report at this time.

Go Back to My Reports Page: Selecting this option will return you to the “Manage My Reports” screen without creating the Final report. From here, you can continue working on an in-progress report or start a new report.

Return to Final Report Affidavit: Selecting this option will return you to the Final Report Affidavit screen. From here, you can choose to agree to the Final report affidavit in order to continue with the Final report.

C/OH: Final Report Officeholder Status

Are you currently an officeholder? If you are an officeholder at the time of filing your Final Report, select “Yes.” Otherwise, select “No.”

You Are an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report: You are still required to file semiannual reports for any period during which you are an officeholder, regardless of whether you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file.

You will not have to worry about surplus political funds and assets until you cease to be an officeholder. If you cease to be an officeholder at a time when you do not have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file, and you retain political contributions, interest or other income from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions after filing the last required report as an officeholder, you must file an Annual Report of Unexpended Contributions not earlier than January 1 and not later than January 15 of each year following the year in which you filed the last required report as an officeholder. You may not retain these unexpended funds longer than six years after the date you ceased to be an officeholder. Remember: You may not convert unexpended political contributions, unexpended interest or income earned on political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions to personal use. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

You Are Not an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report: You will no longer be required to file reports unless you retain political contributions, interest or other income from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions. If you retain any of those items, you must file an Annual Report of Unexpended Contributions not earlier than January 1 and not later than January 15 of each year after the year in which you filed your Final report. You may not retain these unexpended funds longer than six years after the date of filing a Final report. Remember: You may not convert unexpended political contributions, unexpended interest or income earned on political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions to personal use. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Unexpended Contributions & Retained Assets (These fields will be activated only if you indicated that you are not currently an officeholder.)

Select the applicable radio buttons to indicate that you either do or do not retain unexpended contributions, unexpended interest or income earned from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions. See You Are Not an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report for more information.

Officeholder Statement: Check the box next to this statement only if you are a current officeholder. Checking this box indicates that you understand your filing responsibilities as an officeholder. See You Are an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report for more information.

C/OH: Appendix

Final Disposition of Unexpended Contributions.

The obligation to file annual Unexpended Contributions reports ends when the former candidate or officeholder files a report of "final disposition" of unexpended contributions.

A former candidate or former officeholder has six years from the date of filing a Final report or leaving office (whichever is later) to dispose of surplus funds and assets. The latest possible date for filing a "final disposition" report of unexpended contributions is 30 days after the end of that six-year period. At the end of the six-year period, a former candidate or officeholder must dispose of surplus assets or funds in one of the following ways:

- (1) You may give them to the political party with which you were affiliated when your name was last on the ballot.
- (2) You may give them to a candidate or a political committee. If you do so, however, you must report the contribution twice as described below.

Extra Reporting of a Contribution To Candidate Or Committee. If you contribute unexpended contributions or assets to another candidate or committee, you must report the contribution twice. You must include the contribution on your annual Unexpended Contributions Report. You must also report the contribution on Form ASIFSPAC. You must file the ASIFSPAC report with the filing authority with whom the candidate or political committee files reports by the date by which the candidate or political committee receiving the contribution must report the receipt of the contribution.

NOTE: You will need a separate ASIFSPAC filer ID to file Form ASIFSPAC using the filing application. Contact COA-EFS for assistance in setting up an ASIFSPAC filer ID.

(3) You may give them to the comptroller for deposit in the state treasury to be used to finance primary elections.

(4) You may give them to one or more persons from whom you received political contributions, but the total returned to any person may not exceed the aggregate amount accepted from that person during the last two years during which you were accepting political contributions.

(5) You may give them to a recognized charitable organization formed for educational, religious, or scientific purposes that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and its subsequent amendments.

(6) You may give them to a public or private post-secondary educational institution or an institution of higher education as defined by Section 61.003(8), Education Code, for the purpose of assisting or creating a scholarship program.

A former candidate or former officeholder may dispose of unexpended contributions or assets in this manner at any time during the six-year period. A former candidate or former officeholder who has disposed of all surplus funds and assets must file an Unexpended Contributions "final disposition" report. This report may be filed as soon as the former candidate/officeholder has disposed of all funds.

Extra Reporting for Contribution to Candidate or Committee

If you contributed unexpended contributions or assets to another candidate or committee, you must report the contribution twice. You must include the contribution on your Annual Report. You must also report the contribution on form AS IF-Specific Purpose Committee Campaign Finance Report (AS IF-SPAC). You must file the AS IF-SPAC report with the filing authority with whom the candidate or political committee files reports by the date by which the candidate or political committee receiving the contribution must report the receipt of the contribution.

NOTE: You will need a separate ASIFSPAC filer ID to file the ASIFSPAC report using the filing application. Please contact the COA-EFS for help in establishing an ASIFSPAC filer ID.

Examples of Reporting Expenses from Personal Funds

Spending your own money on your campaign? Avoid common reporting errors! If you intend to seek reimbursement of any amount from political contributions for a political expenditure made from your personal funds, report the expenditure in one of three ways. Method 3 is a new method that will become available on September 28, 2011. We think that Method #1 is the simplest method. Keep in mind that this reporting system is not an accounting system and duplication of expenditures is not uncommon when reporting transactions related to expenditures made from personal funds.

Method #1: Itemize the expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Personal Funds” schedule (Schedule G) and check the box to indicate that you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions. (You may not correct a report to allow reimbursement without subjecting yourself to a possible penalty.) When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1).

Example: On December 1, 2007, Candidate A spends $500 of her own personal funds to purchase political advertising signs. She reports the expenditure to the vendor on Schedule G and checks the box to indicate that reimbursement is intended. One year later, Candidate A reimburses herself from political contributions. She reports the reimbursement on Schedule F1. Candidate A is the payee and the purpose of the expenditure is to reimburse herself for a political expenditure made from personal funds on December 1, 2007.

We stress that if you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions for a political expenditure of any amount made from personal funds, you must itemize the expenditure on Schedule G.

Method #2: Report the political expenditures made from your personal funds as a loan to your campaign on the “Loans” schedule (Schedule E). Next, report the political expenditures made from that loan on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1). Remember, the amount you report as a loan in a reporting period may NOT exceed the amount you actually spent from personal funds in that reporting period. In other words, do not report a $100,000 loan to your campaign if the amount actually spent from personal funds in the reporting period was $5,000. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on Schedule F1.

Example: In one reporting period, Candidate B spends $5,000 of his own personal funds to purchase political advertising materials. He spends $3,000 at Business One and $2,000 at Business Two. He reports the expenditures as a $5,000 loan on Schedule E and then itemizes each of the two expenditures as a political expenditure on Schedule F1. A year later, Candidate B reimburses himself from political contributions. He reports the reimbursement on Schedule F1. The payee in this instance is Candidate B, the category of the expenditure is “Loan Repayment/Reimbursement,” and “political expenditure made from personal funds reported as a loan” is an acceptable brief description.

Method #3: Deposit personal funds in an account in which your political contributions are maintained and report that amount as a loan on the “Loans” schedule (Schedule E). Next, report the political expenditures made from that loan on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1). When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on Schedule F1. (Note that the reimbursement may not exceed the amount reported as a loan. Also note that personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restriction.)

Example: In one reporting period, Candidate C opens a campaign bank account and deposits $5,000 of her own personal funds into the account. She makes one $3,000 expenditure for political advertising. Candidate C has no other activity in the reporting period. She reports the $5,000 as a loan on Schedule E, itemizes the $3,000 expenditure for the political advertising on Schedule F1, and includes the remaining $2,000 on her contributions maintained at the end of the reporting period total. A year later, Candidate C reimburses herself from political contributions by disclosing the reimbursement on Schedule F1. The payee in this instance is Candidate C, the category of expenditure is "Loan Repayment/Reimbursement," and "political expenditure made from personal funds reported as a loan" is an acceptable brief description.

Use of Political Funds to Rent or Purchase Real Property

A candidate or officeholder is prohibited from using political funds to purchase real property or to pay the interest on or principal of a note for the purchase of real property.

A candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code § 253.038(a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

You can never go wrong by disclosing the date the credit card was charged as the expenditure date. For 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports, the expenditure date is the date of the credit card charge, not the date of the credit card bill. For all other reports, the expenditure date may be either the date of the charge or the date of receipt of the credit card bill that includes the expenditure.

If you make an expenditure for goods or services to benefit another candidate, officeholder, or committee, disclose the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of the candidate, officeholder, or committee that benefitted from the expenditure. Include that person's name under the purpose description.

Did a staff worker make political payment(s) out of his or her personal funds? How you disclose the payment(s) depends on two things: 1) the aggregate total of those payments in the reporting period; and 2) whether or not you reimburse the staff worker in the same reporting period.

Staff Reimbursement Examples:

Case #1: The payment out of the staff worker's personal funds does not exceed $5,000 in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will simply itemize the payment (if over the $100 itemization threshold) on Schedule F1 as if you made the expenditure directly to the vendor out of your political funds, with the name of the vendor who sold the goods or services as the payee for the expenditure. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker.

Case #2: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds are over $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing everything on the same report: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) On Schedule F1, disclose the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Case #3: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds do not exceed $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period BUT you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in a different reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing steps 1 and 2 on the same report and step 3 later, when the reimbursement occurs: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) When you reimburse your staff worker, if ever, disclose on Schedule F1 of the report covering the period in which the reimbursement occurs the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.-----

Payments To A Business Of The Candidate Or Officeholder

A candidate or officeholder is required to report payments from political funds to a business in which the candidate or officeholder has a participating interest of more than 10 percent; a position on the governing body of the business; or a position as an officer of a business.

A candidate or officeholder may not make a payment to such a business if the payment is for personal services rendered by the candidate or officeholder or by the spouse or dependent child of the candidate or officeholder. (Nor may a candidate or officeholder use political contributions to pay directly for such personal services.) Other payments to such a business are permissible only if the payment does not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the business for actual expenditures made by the business. See generally Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 35 \(1992\).

A candidate or officeholder may not make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from such a business. A candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code § 253.038(a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Incurred Expenditure Obligations

The date of an expenditure is not necessarily the date that goods or services are received. It is the date on which you incur the obligation to make a payment, as long as the amount of the payment is "readily determinable." Generally, you know the amount of an expenditure (and therefore it is readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases you may not know the amount until the receipt of a periodic bill. An amount is readily determinable if the vendor can provide the amount at your request.

Example 1: On June 29th, a filer orders political signs. On July 16th, the filer receives the invoice for the signs. The date of the expenditure is June 29th, if on that date the vendor can provide the amount the filer will owe the vendor for the signs. Filers should request a vendor to provide the amount of an obligation at the time the obligation is incurred and disclose that unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report covering the period in which the unpaid obligation is incurred. (Note: When the filer makes the payment, he will disclose it as an outgoing payment on Schedule F1 in the report covering the period in which he pays the expenditure.)

Example 2: A filer maintains a campaign office. The filer does not know the cost of the office's June utilities until she receives the periodic monthly bill on July 16th. The filer will not disclose the expense as an unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report, since the amount was not readily determinable until after the end of the semiannual reporting period.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card

Beginning on September 1, 2015, all expenditures made by credit card must be reported on a new schedule: "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). This requirement applies to filers of electronic and paper campaign finance reports, including candidates, officeholders, political committees, political parties, and direct campaign expenditure filers.

When a credit card is used to make a reportable expenditure, the expenditure must be reported on the new schedule by identifying the name and address of the vendor who sold the goods or services, NOT the credit card company that issued the credit card. The date, amount, and purpose of the expenditure must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Once the credit card bill is paid, the payment must also be reported using the appropriate existing disbursement schedule (e.g., Schedule F1, Schedule G, Schedule H, or Schedule I) by identifying the credit card company that receives the payment. The date, amount, and purpose of the payment must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Please see the following examples of reporting expenditures made by credit card:

Example 1: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses her credit card to buy $1,000 in campaign office supplies from an office store. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from her political contributions account to pay the $1,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the office store as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Office Overhead/Rental Expense,” and a description as “Campaign Office Supplies.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for campaign office supplies.”
- Both $1,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 2: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Personal Funds to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses his credit card to purchase $3,000 in political advertising materials from a print shop. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from his personal funds account to pay the $3,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which he made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the print shop as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising Materials.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.

- For the payment to the credit card company: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures Made from Personal Funds” Schedule (G). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising materials.” If the candidate intends to seek reimbursement from political contributions, the candidate may also check the appropriate box in Section 6.
- Both $3,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 3: Political Committee Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A general-purpose committee uses its credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The committee receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the committee sends a payment to the credit card company, it makes a $500 payment from its political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the committee’s campaign treasurer would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the committee’s campaign treasurer would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the payment to the credit card company:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”
- The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 4: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A candidate for judicial office uses her credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The candidate receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the candidate sends a payment to the credit card company, she makes a $500 payment from her political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the candidate would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which the payment to the credit card company was made:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”

The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

C/OH: Glossary

A

Accepting a Contribution: A candidate or officeholder must report contributions that he or she has accepted. Receipt is different from acceptance. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received. (A decision to accept a contribution made during the period covered by a Legislative Special Session report must be made by the third day after the contribution is received.)

Failure to make a determination about acceptance or refusal: If you fail to make a determination to accept or refuse a contribution by the end of the reporting period, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

Returning refused contributions: If you receive a political contribution but do not accept it, you must return the contribution not later than the 30th day after the end of the reporting period in which the contribution was received. If you fail to do so, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

COA-EFS: City of Austin Electronic Filing System

Corporation: Includes any of the following business associations:

(1) corporations that are organized under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas For-Profit Corporation Law, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law, federal law, or law of another state or nation; or

(2) the following associations, whether incorporated or not: banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, government-regulated cooperatives, stock companies, and abstract and title insurance companies.

D

Direct Campaign Expenditure: A "direct campaign expenditure" to benefit a candidate is not a "political contribution" to that candidate. A direct campaign expenditure is a campaign expenditure made on someone else's behalf and without the prior consent or approval of that person. This is in contrast to a political contribution, which the person has the opportunity to accept or reject.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

E

Financial Institution: A corporation that has been legally engaged in the business of making loans for more than one year.

Full Name of the Contributor: Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Even if you do not itemize a contribution, you must maintain a record of all the information related to a contribution for two years after the deadline for filing the report. You must also identify the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.

M

Modified Reporting: On the campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA), there is an option to choose "modified reporting" for the next election cycle. A candidate must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which the selection applies. Modified reporting excuses an opposed candidate from filing 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports and a runoff report. An opposed candidate is eligible for modified reporting only if the candidate does not intend to exceed either $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with an election cycle.

A selection to file on the modified reporting schedule lasts for an entire election cycle. In other words, the selection is valid for a primary, a primary runoff, and a general election (as long as the candidate does not exceed one of the $500 thresholds).

If an opposed candidate chooses modified reporting on Form CTA, but then exceeds one of the thresholds before the 30th day before the election, the candidate is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file reports 30 days and 8 days before the election.

If an opposed candidate chooses modified reporting, but then exceeds one of the thresholds after the 30th day before the election, the candidate must file an "Exceeded $500" report within 48 hours of exceeding the threshold. At that point, the candidate is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file according to the regular filing schedule.

N

Non-Political Expenditure: An expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures.

Examples of Non-Political Expenditures: (1) a charitable donation, if you receive no benefit in return; (2) payments to a lobbyist to work on legislative matters.

O

Officeholder Expenditure: A payment or agreement to pay certain expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, if the expenses are not reimbursable with public money.

Austin, Texas Officeholder Living Expense: refers to payments made to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of duties or activities as a public officeholder, including payment of rent, utility, and other reasonable housing or household expenses incurred in maintaining a residence in Travis County by members of the legislature who do not ordinarily reside in Travis County. Examples include:

- Rent for Austin apartment
- Phone line and internet access for Austin apartment
- Installation expense of security system at officeholder apartment

Opposed Candidate: You are an "opposed" candidate if you have an opponent, including a minor party candidate, whose name is printed on the ballot. If your only opposition is a write-in candidate, you are not considered opposed for filing purposes. Note: If you are a write-in candidate, you are an "opposed" candidate for filing purposes.

P

Pledge: a promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other things of value. A pledge is not a reportable contribution, unless it is accepted.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Political Contribution: Any transfer of or promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other thing of value, including a loan, that is given to a candidate or officeholder with the intent that it be used either:

- (1) in connection with a campaign for elective office or on a measure to be submitted to the voters; or
- (2) to defray expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, provided that the expenditures are not reimbursable from public money.

A donation of money to a candidate/officeholder at a fundraiser is a monetary contribution.

A contribution of goods or services is a non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Examples of non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are:

- Donation of office space
- Donation of an item to be auctioned at a fundraiser
- Donation of a mailing list
- Donation of material and labor for printing campaign signs

A political contribution in the form of a pledge must be reported on the appropriate schedule. For example, a promise to give you money after the election to pay debts incurred in connection with the election is a pledge.

A loan from an incorporated financial institution that has been in business for more than a year is not considered to be a contribution, but you must report any such loans taken out for campaign or officeholder purposes on the appropriate schedule.

Unopposed Candidate: You are an "unopposed" candidate if your name is the only name printed on the ballot for the office you are seeking. You are also considered unopposed for filing purposes if your only opposition is a write-in candidate. Note: If you are a write-in candidate, you are an "opposed" candidate for filing purposes.

SPAC: Manage My Profile – Maintain Addresses

This screen displays a table with the address information currently on file with the City of Austin, Electronic Filing System (COA-EFS) for your filer account. (Note: Specific-purpose committees that support or oppose a candidate who is unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) The report is due no later than 30 days before the election and must be received by the appropriate filing authority no later than the report due date. A report filed with the COA-EFS is due by midnight Central Time on the due date.

8th Day Before Election Report: Specific-purpose committees that are supporting or opposing an opposed candidate or a measure in an election and did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this pre-election report. If your committee chose modified reporting, but then exceeded a threshold before the 8th day before the election, your committee must file this report. (Note: Specific-purpose committees that support or oppose a candidate who is unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) If your committee filed the “30th Day Before Election Report,” then your committee must file this report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the election and must be received by the appropriate filing authority no later than the report due date. A report filed with the COA-EFS is due by midnight Central Time on the due date.

Exceeded $500 Limit Report: Specific-purpose committees that chose to file under the modified reporting schedule but then, after the 30th day before the election, exceeded $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with the election must file this Exceeded $500 Limit report within 48 hours after exceeding the $500 limit.

Runoff Report: Specific-purpose committees that are supporting or opposing a candidate in a runoff election and did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this runoff report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the runoff election and must be received by the appropriate filing authority no later than the report due date. A report filed with the COA-EFS is due by midnight Central Time on the due date.

Less Commonly Filed Reports: These reports are only required if you meet certain criteria. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with one of the reports listed above, if applicable. Select the radio button for one of these less commonly filed reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Dissolution Report: You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.)

10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination Report: A specific-purpose committee's campaign treasurer must file this report if his or her campaign treasurer appointment is terminated. This report is due no later than the 10th day after the termination is filed. If the termination takes place on the last day of a reporting period and the proper report for that period is filed, no separate termination report is required.

Other Reports: These other reports are only required in certain circumstances and cannot be combined with other report types. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for one of these other reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

For the City of Austin reporting requirements go to

Period Covered: The filing application will calculate the period covered for your report based on the report type you select. You can modify the start and end dates as long as your modified start date does not precede the filing application calculated start date and your modified end date does not extend past the filing application calculated end date. If you need to report activity outside of the filing application calculated date range for this report, you will need to file multiple reports.

A reporting period includes the Start date and the End date. The report due date will be after the end of the period. Generally, a report picks up where the last report left off and there should be no gaps or overlapping periods.

First Reports. If this is the first campaign finance report that your committee has filed, the start date will be the date your committee's campaign treasurer appointment (Form STA) was filed.

January 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is July 1 of the previous year or the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is December 31 of the previous year.

July 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is January 1 or the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The ending date is June 30.

30th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 40th day before the election. (This report is not required if your committee is supporting or opposing an unopposed candidate in the election or filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

8th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the 39th day before the election if your committee was required to file a 30th Day Before Election Report. If your committee was not required to file the 30th Day Before Election Report, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 10th day before the election. (This report is not required if your committee is supporting or opposing an unopposed candidate in the election or is filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

Exceeded $500 Limit Report Period: (This report is only required for specific-purpose committees who selected the modified reporting schedule but exceeded the $500 limit after the 30th day before the election.) The start date for the report is either the day your committee appointed a campaign treasurer or the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report, whichever is later. The end date is the day your committee exceeded the $500 limit for contributions or expenditures. (See "Exceeded $500 Limit Report" in the "Report Type" section above for more information.)

Runoff Report Period: The start date is the 9th day before the main election if your committee filed an 8th Day Before Election report in connection with the main election. Otherwise, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report or the day your committee appointed a campaign treasurer, whichever is later. The end date is the 10th day before the runoff election. (This report is not required if your committee is eligible to file under the modified reporting schedule.)

Dissolution Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. The end date is the day you file the dissolution report.

The end date is the day the campaign treasurer's appointment was terminated. This report is due no later than 10 days after the campaign treasurer appointment was terminated.

SPAC: Worksheet Summary

Worksheet Summary is a new page in the filing application designed to help you keep track of the schedules required for this report and the activity you enter. If you indicated by answering "Yes" on the previous Reporting Period Activities screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Return to Cover Sheet button: Click on this button to go to the beginning of this report's Cover Sheet (report type and period covered). You may also go to the cover sheet by clicking on the link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Walk me through all schedules button: Click on this button to be guided through a series of questions to determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a report schedule. This option takes you through ALL the schedules in the report from beginning to end. During the walk-through, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column on the Worksheet Summary screen.

Report Totals button: Click on this button to go to this report's Subtotals and Totals pages, where you can view the calculated totals of activity entered in this report and enter lump sum totals for unitemized contributions, pledges, loans, and expenditures.

Upload File button: Click on this button to import your contribution and expenditure data into the filing application.

Worksheet Summary Grid: The reporting schedules/categories are organized into three main areas:

- Incoming Funds – any money coming into your committee's political account(s);
- Outgoing Funds – any payments going out of your committee's political account(s); and
- Additional Activity – other types of activity, such as non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, pledged contributions, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations.

Under each main area, the information is displayed in the following columns:

Category: This column displays the name and letter code of each schedule/category you may possibly need for this report. (For example, the name of the first schedule is Monetary Political Contributions and the letter code for that schedule is A1.) If you indicated on a previous screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Walk Thru: Click this link to be guided through a series of questions to help you determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a particular report schedule. This option allows you to walk-through a single schedule only. During the walk-through, if you choose to "work on this later" the schedule will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column.

Count: This column keeps a running tally and displays the number of transactions you have entered and saved for a particular schedule/category.

Sub-Total: This column displays the total amount of transactions you have entered and saved plus any lump sum total you entered on the Schedule Subtotals page for a particular schedule/category.

Action: To begin entering activity for a particular schedule/category, click on "Start" in this column. After you have saved your first transaction, the link that you click on changes to "Continue" in this column.

Work on Later: If you choose to do a "walk thru" of all schedules or one particular schedule, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in this column. Once you enter and save data on a checked schedule, the check mark will be removed; but remember, you can always enter information on any category/schedule, as needed, until you file the report.

SPAC: Schedule A1

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming monetary contributions on Schedule A1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are now entered on Schedule A2.)

Schedule A1 is used to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds (such as loans or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, your committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which your committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a specific-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. A specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1, C2, and D. If a committee supports or opposes a candidate or assists an officeholder, the committee may not accept corporate or labor organization contributions.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

Add Memo Done with Contributions

The contribution list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Contribution Amount: Enter the amount of the contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this contribution will be itemized on Schedule A1. The automatic default is to itemize. Your committee is required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 in the aggregate from a single contributor. If your committee accepted two or more monetary contributions from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A1 monetary contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize monetary contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A1, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A1.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Principal Occupation and Employer Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation/Job Title: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists a holder of a city office or legislative office must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists a holder of a city office or a legislative office must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

SPAC: Schedule C1

NEW! Enter only incoming monetary corporate or labor organization contributions on Schedule C1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) corporate or labor organization contributions are now entered on Schedule C2).

Schedules C1 and C2 are only for specific-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. Such committees also use Schedule D to disclose corporate or labor organization pledged contributions. If a committee supports or opposes a candidate or assists an officeholder, the committee may not accept corporate or labor organization contributions.

Schedule C1 is used by political committees that support or oppose measures exclusively to itemize all monetary political contributions accepted from corporations or labor organizations during this reporting period. You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization monetary contributions, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds (such as loans or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first corporate or labor organization contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule C1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

NEW! Political contributions that your committee previously made to a candidate, officeholder, or another political committee and were returned to your committee are now disclosed on Schedule K. (Returned contributions were previously disclosed on Schedule J, which is no longer available.)

Schedule K is used to itemize the following types of incoming funds that your committee received during the reporting period:

Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule K any credit, gain, refund, or interest that does not exceed $100. Contributions returned to your committee must be itemized regardless of the amount of the contribution. Unlike other schedules, you are NOT required to enter a lump sum total of unitemized Schedule K activity on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report.

Credits List: After you enter and save your first credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest, the filing application will begin a list of all credits/gains/refunds/returned contributions or interest entered on Schedule K

Schedule F1 is used to itemize outgoing political payments made from political contributions that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political expenditures, investment purchases, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

NOTE: As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures and should not be disclosed on Schedule I. Remember that you may not convert political contributions to personal use.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. Schedule F3 is used to itemize any investment your committee purchased with political funds during the reporting period, the amount of which exceeds $100. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political expenditures from political funds or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Schedule A2 is used to itemize incoming non-monetary (in-kind) political contributions of goods, services, or other thing of value that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as pledges, monetary contributions, corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If your committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, your committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from your committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which your committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person your committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a specific-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this in-kind contribution will be itemized on Schedule A2. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If your committee accepted two or more contributions from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A2 non-monetary (in-kind) contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize in-kind contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A2, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such in-kind contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A2.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Principal Occupation and Employer Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation / Job Title: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists an officeholder of a city office or legislative office must report the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists an officeholder of a city office or a legislative office must report the employer of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was contributed.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

SPAC: Schedule B

NEW! As always, you must disclose a pledge on Schedule B in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged contribution on Schedule A1 (used for monetary contributions) or A2 (used for non-monetary contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which it received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule B is used to itemize pledges (monetary or in-kind) that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted monetary incoming funds (such as contributions, loans, or interest) or received non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If your committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, your committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which your committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a specific-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Pledged Contributions: Do not enter on this schedule pledged contributions your committee accepted from corporations or labor organizations. Only a specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1, C2, and D. If a committee supports or opposes a candidate or assists an officeholder, the committee may not accept corporate or labor organization contributions.

Pledge of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule B for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

Date	Pledgor	Amount	Travel	Action

(1 of 1) Add Memo Done with Pledges

The pledged contributions list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered pledge. To enter new pledged contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding pledged contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor who made the pledge is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or

- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Pledge Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. Note that your committee must accept a pledge before you are required to report it. (If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.)

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If your committee accepts a pledge in one reporting period and then receives the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge accepted and received in the same reporting period: If your committee receives a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date your committee accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. If your committee never actually receives the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which it received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of any pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this pledge will be itemized on Schedule B. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize pledges that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If your committee accepted two or more pledges from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50, enter each pledge separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Pledges of $50 or less: Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule B pledges that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize pledges of $50 and less on Schedule B, you must total all such pledges and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such pledges here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule B.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the person who made the pledge. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the person who made the pledge.

Contributor Principal Occupation and Employer Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation / Job Title: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists an officeholder of a city office or legislative office must report the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: A committee that supports or opposes a candidate for or assists an officeholder of a city office or a legislative office must report the employer of an individual from whom the committee accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

In-Kind Description: If the pledge was for goods or services or any other thing of value, enter a description of the in-kind pledge of goods or services or other thing of value. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was pledged.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind pledge contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

SPAC: Schedule D

Schedule D is only for specific-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. Such committees also use Schedules C1 and C2 to disclose corporate or labor organization monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions. If a committee supports or opposes a candidate or assists an officeholder, the committee may not accept corporate or labor organization contributions.

NEW! As always, you must disclose a corporate or labor organization pledge on Schedule D in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged corporate or labor organization contribution on Schedule C1 (used for monetary corporate or labor organization contributions) or C2 (used for non-monetary corporate or labor organization contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

NEW! Schedule F is now split into two schedules: Schedule F1 and Schedule F2. Enter only expenditure obligations that your committee has incurred but not yet paid on Schedule F2. (Political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule F1. Non-political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule I.) Expenditures made by credit card are disclosed on schedule F4 (used for expenditures made by credit card).

Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose when your committee actually pays the incurred expenditure. You must disclose the outgoing payment on Schedule F1 or I, as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee pays the expenditure.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee pays the credit

Schedule F2 is used to itemize political expenditures your committee has incurred but not yet paid that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. Also use this schedule to itemize any non-political expenditures your committee has incurred but not yet paid during the reporting period, regardless of the amount. (When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule.)

Schedule F4 is used to itemize expenditures your committee made by credit card that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If your committee had outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political funds), or obligations that your committee has incurred but not yet paid, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page. Expenditures Made By Credit Card List: After you enter and save your first expenditure made by credit card, the filing application will begin a list of all credit card expenditures entered on Schedule F4 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

The screenshot shows a web-based interface for managing credit card expenditures. At the top, there are several column headers: 'Type', 'Schedule', 'Payee', 'Amount', 'Date', 'Travel', 'Direct Expenditure to benefit C/OH?', and 'Action'. Below these headers is a table with one row of data: 'Advertising Expense' under Type, 'F4' under Schedule, 'Big Box Store' under Payee, '$1,000.00' under Amount, '08/12/2015' under Date, and empty cells for Travel and Direct Expenditure. The Action column contains 'Edit' and 'Delete' buttons. Below the table is a pagination bar showing '(1 of 1)' and a dropdown menu set to '10'. At the bottom, there are three buttons: 'Add', 'Memo', and 'Done With Expenditures'.

The expenditures made by credit card list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. Expense Date: Enter the date your committee made the expenditure by credit card.

Note: There is a special reporting rule for expenditures made by credit card. For reports due 30 days and 8 days before an election (pre-election reports) and for runoff reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is the date the credit card is used. For other reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is either the date of the charge or the date the credit card statement is received. A filer can never go wrong by disclosing the date of the expenditure as the date of the charge. See Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures for more information.

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the credit card expenditure.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this credit card expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F4. The automatic default is to itemize. If your committee made two or more expenditures to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each expenditure made by credit card separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Credit Card Expenditures of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F4 political expenditures made by credit card to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize political expenditures made by credit card of $100 and less on Schedule F4, you must total all such credit card expenditures and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such credit card expenditures here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F4.

Instead, select the category that corresponds to the goods, services, or other thing of value purchased from the individual, entity, or vendor.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity that is conducted by making the credit card expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. SPAC: Schedule Subtotals

Schedule Subtotals is a new page of the reporting form intended to supplement the report totals (cover sheet, page 2). This page displays the calculated Subtotal for each report schedule, based on the amounts you entered on the schedule entry screen (reported itemized and reported unitemized) and any other unitemized total you enter as a lump sum amount here (user entered lump sum unitemized).

You are always required to itemize or report detailed information for contributions, expenditures, and loans over a certain monetary threshold. The thresholds vary depending on the type of activity (see "Itemization Thresholds" below). For smaller contributions, expenditures, and loans that do not exceed the threshold (in the aggregate from a single source), you may report them in one of two ways: 1) add them all together and enter the unitemized total as a lump sum; OR 2) enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen (and choose to itemize or not).

Itemized transactions: You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen AND the "itemize" box is checked. The filing application calculates the sum of the entries for each schedule and the amount is displayed in the Reported Itemized column for the applicable schedule.

Unitemized transactions: Depending on your choice of entry, your unitemized transactions are shown under one of the following columns:

Reported Unitemized – You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen and the "itemize" box is NOT checked. The transaction will remain unitemized, unless you manually check the "itemize" box or you enter additional transactions from/to the same source which cause the aggregate total to exceed the itemization threshold.

User Entered Lump Sum Unitemized – You chose not to enter the detailed information, but rather to enter the total of all your unitemized transactions as a lump sum for the applicable schedule. You must manually enter the lump sum total. DO NOT INCLUDE in a lump sum total any transactions for which you chose to enter detailed information.

Itemization Thresholds for Each Schedule: To return to the instructions for each schedule, click on the applicable link.

Monetary Political Contributions (A1) - You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

You must itemize all returned contributions, regardless of the amount. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

Political Expenditures from Political Contributions (F1) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate to a single payee) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Non-monetary (in-kind) Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C2) - This schedule is only for political committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all non-monetary contributions from a corporation or labor organization.

SPAC: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering the amount of total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the reporting period under Report Totals). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a contributor or payee). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE: If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (contribution, loan, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

SPAC: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides check boxes for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report. You may also use this area to request a waiver or reduction of a late-filing penalty for this correction, if any, and state the basis of your request.

Sworn Statement Check Boxes: Check the box next to any and all applicable statements.

For Any Corrected Report: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

A corrected report (other than an 8th Day Before Election Report) filed with the COA-EFS after its due date is not considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties if the report meets this "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision.

A correction to an 8th Day Before Election Report must also meet the "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision; however, the corrected report could be subject to a late-filing penalty unless the report as originally filed substantially complies with the applicable law as determined by the City of Austin. The person responsible for filing the report may request a waiver or reduction of any late-filing penalty assessed.

For Corrections to Semiannual Reports: Effective September 1, 2011, a Semiannual Report (due January 15 or July 15) that is amended/corrected before the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed. A Semiannual Report that is amended/corrected on or after the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed if: (1) the amendment/correction is made before any complaint is filed with regard to the subject of the amendment/correction; and (2) the original report was made in good faith and without intent to mislead or misrepresent the information contained in the report.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction (contribution, loan, expenditure, etc.) that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted to help you identify the transaction.

SPAC: Dissolution Report Affidavit

You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer (Form STA) and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.) A Dissolution report does not relieve the campaign treasurer of his or her responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties. Remember: A political committee may not make or authorize political expenditures or accept political contributions without having a campaign treasurer appointment (STA) on file.

Dissolution Report Affidavit: This page includes the Dissolution report affidavit language. You must agree to and acknowledge the affidavit to indicate that you understand the consequences of filing a Dissolution report. To do so, select the radio button next to the statement, "I agree to and acknowledge the above affidavit."

If your committee intends to have additional campaign activity and is not ready to file a Dissolution report, select the radio button next to the statement, "I do not agree to the above affidavit." You will have some options as to how you wish to continue:

Continue Working on a Different Report Type: (This option is only available if you started the Dissolution report in combination with another report type.) Selecting this option will return you to the “Cover Sheet” screen. From here, you can select “Clear This Report?” if you do not wish to file a Dissolution report at this time.

Go Back to My Reports Page: Selecting this option will return you to the “Manage My Reports” screen without creating the Dissolution report. From here, you can continue working on an in-progress report or start a new report.

Return to Dissolution Report Affidavit: Selecting this option will return you to the Dissolution Report Affidavit screen. From here, you can choose to agree to the Dissolution report affidavit in order to continue with the Dissolution report.

SPAC: Appendix

CHANGE OF STATUS

A change in political activity may mean that a political committee has changed from a specific-purpose political committee (SPAC) to a general-purpose political committee (GPAC/MPAC) or vice versa. If this happens, the committee is subject to new filing requirements.

SPAC becoming a GPAC/MPAC. If an SPAC engages in activities that make the committee a GPAC/MPAC, the committee must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form GTA) with the COA-EFS before it may accept more than $500 in total political contributions or make more than $500 in total political expenditures as a GPAC/MPAC. On Form GTA, the committee may choose whether to file according to the regular filing schedule (filer type GPAC) or monthly filing schedule (filer type MPAC).

In addition to filing Form GTA with the COA-EFS, the campaign treasurer of the new GPAC/MPAC must give notice of the change in status to the filing authority with whom the committee filed reports as an SPAC. This notice is due no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file as an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as a GPAC/MPAC and that those reports will be filed with the COA-EFS.

GPAC/MPAC becoming an SPAC. A GPAC or MPAC that chooses to limit its activities to the activities of an SPAC must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form STA) with the appropriate filing authority. See "Where to File an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer" in the PAC guide. Further, the new SPAC may not make expenditures in an election supporting or opposing a candidate for a statewide office, the State Legislature, the State Board of Education, a multi-county district office, or a judicial district office unless it has had its appointment of campaign treasurer as an SPAC on file for at least 30 days before the election.

In addition to filing a new Form STA with the appropriate filing authority, the campaign treasurer of the new SPAC must give notice to the COA-EFS of the change in status. This notice must be given to the COA-EFS no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file with the City of Austin if the committee had not become an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as an SPAC and must identify the filing authority with which those reports will be filed.

Use Of Political Funds To Rent Or Purchase Real Property

A candidate or officeholder or a specific-purpose committee for supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder is prohibited from using political funds to purchase real property or to pay the interest on or principal of a note for the purchase of real property.

A candidate or officeholder a specific-purpose committee for supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code § 253.038 (a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

You can never go wrong by disclosing the date the credit card was charged as the expenditure date. For 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports, the expenditure date is the date of the credit card charge, not the date of the credit card bill. For all other reports, the expenditure date may be either the date of the charge or the date of receipt of the credit card bill that includes the expenditure.

If you make an expenditure for goods or services to benefit another candidate, officeholder, or committee, disclose the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of the candidate, officeholder, or committee that benefitted from the expenditure. Include that person's name under the purpose description.

Did a staff worker make political payment(s) out of his or her personal funds? How you disclose the payment(s) depends on two things: 1) the aggregate total of those payments in the reporting period; and 2) whether or not you reimburse the staff worker in the same reporting period.

Staff Reimbursement Examples:

Case #1: The payment out of the staff worker's personal funds does not exceed $5,000 in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will simply itemize the payment (if over the $100 itemization threshold) on Schedule F1 as if you made the expenditure directly to the vendor out of your political funds, with the name of the vendor who sold the goods or services as the payee for the expenditure. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker.

Case #2: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds are over $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing everything on the same report: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) On Schedule F1, disclose the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Case #3: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds do not exceed $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period BUT you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in a different reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing steps 1 and 2 on the same report and step 3 later, when the reimbursement occurs: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) When you reimburse your staff worker, if ever, disclose on Schedule F1 of the report covering the period in which the reimbursement occurs the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Payments To A Business Of The Candidate Or Officeholder

A candidate or officeholder or a specific-purpose committee supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder is required to report payments from political funds to a business in which the candidate or officeholder has a participating interest of more than 10 percent; a position on the governing body of the business; or a position as an officer of a business.

A candidate or officeholder or a specific-purpose committee supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder may not make a payment to such a business if the payment is for personal services rendered by the candidate or officeholder or by the spouse or dependent child of the candidate or officeholder. (Nor may the specific-purpose committee make payments out of political contributions directly to the candidate or officeholder (or to the candidate's or officeholder's spouse or dependent children) for personal services rendered to the committee by the candidate or officeholder or by the candidate's or officeholder's spouse or dependent children.) Other payments to such a business are permissible only if the payment does not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the business for actual expenditures made by the business. See generally Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 35 \(1992\).

A candidate or officeholder or a specific-purpose committee for supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder may not make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from such a business. A candidate or officeholder or a specific-purpose committee for supporting, opposing, or assisting a candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code §253.038 (a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Incurred Expenditure Obligations

The date of an expenditure is not necessarily the date that goods or services are received. It is the date on which you incur the obligation to make a payment, as long as the amount of the payment is "readily determinable." Generally, you know the amount of an expenditure (and therefore it is readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases you may not know the amount until the receipt of a periodic bill. An amount is readily determinable if the vendor can provide the amount at your request.

Example 1: On June 29th, a filer orders political signs. On July 16th, the filer receives the invoice for the signs. The date of the expenditure is June 29th, if on that date the vendor can provide the amount the filer will owe the vendor for the signs. Filers should request a vendor to provide the amount of an obligation at the time the obligation is incurred and disclose that unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report covering the period in which the unpaid obligation is incurred. (Note: When the filer makes the payment, he will disclose it as an outgoing payment on Schedule F1 in the report covering the period in which he pays the expenditure.)

Example 2: A filer maintains a campaign office. The filer does not know the cost of the office's June utilities until she receives the periodic monthly bill on July 16th. The filer will not disclose the expense as an unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report, since the amount was not readily determinable until after the end of the semiannual reporting period.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card

Beginning on September 1, 2015, all expenditures made by credit card must be reported on a new schedule: "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). This requirement applies to filers of electronic and paper campaign finance reports, including candidates, officeholders, political committees, political parties, and direct campaign expenditure filers.

When a credit card is used to make a reportable expenditure, the expenditure must be reported on the new schedule by identifying the name and address of the vendor who sold the goods or services, NOT the credit card company that issued the credit card. The date, amount, and purpose of the expenditure must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Once the credit card bill is paid, the payment must also be reported using the appropriate existing disbursement schedule (e.g., Schedule F1, Schedule G, Schedule H, or Schedule I) by identifying the credit card company that receives the payment. The date, amount, and purpose of the payment must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Please see the following examples of reporting expenditures made by credit card:

Example 1: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses her credit card to buy $1,000 in campaign office supplies from an office store. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from her political contributions account to pay the $1,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the office store as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Office Overhead/Rental Expense,” and a description as “Campaign Office Supplies.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for campaign office supplies.”

- Both $1,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 2: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Personal Funds to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses his credit card to purchase $3,000 in political advertising materials from a print shop. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from his personal funds account to pay the $3,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which he made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the print shop as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising Materials.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures Made from Personal Funds” Schedule (G). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising materials.” If the candidate intends to seek reimbursement from political contributions, the candidate may also check the appropriate box in Section 6.
- Both $3,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 3: Political Committee Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A general-purpose committee uses its credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The committee receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the committee sends a payment to the credit card company, it makes a $500 payment from its political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the committee's campaign treasurer would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as "Advertising Expense," and a description as "Political Advertising." In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for "Political" is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the committee's campaign treasurer would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the payment to the credit card company:

- A $500 expenditure on the "Political Expenditures from Political Contributions" Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as "Credit Card Payment," and a description as "Payment of credit card bill for political advertising."
- The $500 amount reported on the "Political Expenditures from Political Contributions" Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 4: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A candidate for judicial office uses her credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The candidate receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the candidate sends a payment to the credit card company, she makes a $500 payment from her political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the candidate would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which the payment to the credit card company was made:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”

The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

SPAC: Glossary

Accepting a Contribution: A political committee must report contributions that the committee has accepted. Receipt is different from acceptance. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received. (A decision to accept a contribution made during the period covered by a Legislative Special Session report must be made by the third day after the contribution is received.)

Failure to make a determination about acceptance or refusal: If you fail to make a determination to accept or refuse a contribution by the end of the reporting period, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

Returning refused contributions: If you receive a political contribution but do not accept it, you must return the contribution not later than the 30th day after the end of the reporting period in which the contribution was received. If you fail to do so, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

B

(1) corporations that are organized under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas For-Profit Corporation Law, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law, federal law, or law of another state or nation; or

(2) the following associations, whether incorporated or not: banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, government-regulated cooperatives, stock companies, and abstract and title insurance companies.

D

Direct Campaign Expenditure: A "direct campaign expenditure" to benefit a candidate is not a "political contribution" to that candidate. A direct campaign expenditure is a campaign expenditure made on someone else's behalf and without the prior consent or approval of that person. This is in contrast to a political contribution, which the person has the opportunity to accept or reject.

Example: If your committee made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

Financial Institution: A corporation that has been legally engaged in the business of making loans for more than one year.

Full Name of the Contributor: Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Even if you do not itemize a contribution, you must maintain a record of all the information related to a contribution for two years after the deadline for filing the report. You must also identify the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.

Modified Reporting: On the campaign treasurer appointment (Form STA), there is an option to choose "modified reporting" for the next election cycle. A specific-purpose committee must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which the selection applies. Modified reporting excuses a specific-purpose committee from filing 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports and a runoff report. The committee campaign treasurer's obligation to file semi-annual reports, daily special pre-election reports (formerly known as telegram reports), or special session reports, if applicable, is not affected by selecting the modified reporting schedule. A specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes an opposed candidate or a measure in an election is eligible for modified reporting only if the committee does not intend to exceed either $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with an election cycle.

A selection to file on the modified reporting schedule lasts for an entire election cycle. In other words, the selection is valid for a primary, a primary runoff, and a general election (as long as the committee does not exceed one of the $500 thresholds).

If a specific-purpose committee chooses modified reporting on Form STA, but then exceeds one of the thresholds before the 30th day before the election, the committee is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file reports 30 days and 8 days before the election.

If a specific-purpose committee chooses modified reporting, but then exceeds one of the thresholds after the 30th day before the election, the committee must file an "Exceeded $500" report within 48 hours of exceeding the threshold. At that point, the committee is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file according to the regular filing schedule.

N

Non-Political Expenditure: An expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures. Examples of non-political expenditures:

- Charitable donation, if you receive no benefit in return
- A political committee uses political contributions to pay a lobbyist to work on legislative matters

O

Officeholder Expenditure: A payment or agreement to pay certain expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, if the expenses are not reimbursable with public money.

Austin, Texas Officeholder Living Expense: refers to payments made to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of duties or activities as a public officeholder, including payment of rent, utility, and other reasonable housing or household expenses incurred in maintaining a residence in Travis County by members of the legislature who do not ordinarily reside in Travis County. Examples include:

- Rent for Austin apartment
- Phone line and internet access for Austin apartment
- Installation expense of security system at officeholder apartment

Opposed Candidate: A candidate is an "opposed" candidate if the candidate has an opponent, including a minor party candidate, whose name is printed on the ballot. If the candidate's only opposition is a write-in candidate, the candidate is not considered opposed for filing purposes. Note: If the candidate is a write-in candidate, the candidate is an "opposed" candidate for filing application.

Pledge: a promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other things of value. A pledge is not a reportable contribution, unless it is accepted.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Political Contribution: Any transfer of or promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other thing of value, including a loan, that is given to a political committee with the intent that it be used either:

(1) in connection with a campaign for elective office or on a measure to be submitted to the voters; or

(2) to defray expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, provided that the expenditures are not reimbursable from public money.

A donation of money to a political committee at a fundraiser is a monetary contribution.

A contribution of goods or services is a non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Examples of non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are:

- Donation of office space
- Donation of an item to be auctioned at a fundraiser
- Donation of a mailing list
- Donation of material and labor for printing campaign signs

A political contribution in the form of a pledge must be reported on the appropriate schedule. For example, a promise to give you money after the election to pay debts incurred in connection with the election is a pledge.

A loan from an incorporated financial institution that has been in business for more than a year is not considered to be a contribution, but you must report any such loans taken out for political purposes on the appropriate schedule.

Unopposed Candidate: A candidate is an "unopposed" candidate if the candidate's name is the only name printed on the ballot for the office the candidate seeking. The candidate is also considered unopposed for filing purposes if the candidate's only opposition is a write-in candidate. Note: If the candidate is a write-in candidate, the candidate is an "opposed" candidate for filing purpose.

GPAC: Cover Sheet – Report Type & Period Covered

What kind of report do you want to file? (Report Type): You can only select one of these report types for this report. If you need to file more than one of these report types, you must file each as a separate report. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with the "Dissolution" or "10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination" reports below, if applicable. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for the report type that applies to the event for which you are filing.

January 15th Semiannual Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the regular filing schedule must file a semiannual report with COA-EFS by midnight Central Time on the January 15 report due date.

July 15th Semiannual Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the regular filing schedule must file a semiannual report with the COA-EFS by midnight Central Time on the July 15 report due date.

30th Day Before Election Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the regular filing schedule that accept political contributions or make political expenditures in connection with an election must file this pre-election report. The report is due no later than 30 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

8th Day Before Election Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the regular filing schedule that accept political contributions or make political expenditures in connection with an election must file this pre-election report. Additionally, if your committee filed a “30th Day Before Election” report, then your committee must file this report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Runoff Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the regular filing schedule that accept political contributions or make political expenditures in connection with a runoff election must file this report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the runoff election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Less Commonly Filed Reports: These reports are only required if you meet certain criteria. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with one of the reports listed above, if applicable. Select the radio button for one of these less commonly filed reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Dissolution Report: You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.)

10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination Report: A general-purpose committee's campaign treasurer must file this report if his or her campaign treasurer appointment is terminated. This report is due no later than the 10th day after the termination is filed. If the termination takes place on the last day of a reporting period and the proper report for that period is filed, no separate termination report is required.

Other Reports: These other reports are only required in certain circumstances and cannot be combined with other report types. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for one of these other reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

For the City of Austin reporting requirements go to <http://austintexas.gov/page/campaign-finance-forms>

Period Covered: The filing application will calculate the period covered for your report based on the report type you select. You can modify the start and end dates as long as your modified start date does not precede the filing application calculated start date and your modified end date does not extend past the filing application calculated end date. If you need to report activity outside of the filing application calculated date range for this report, you will need to file multiple reports.

A reporting period includes the Start date and the End date. The report due date will be after the end of the period. Generally, a report picks up where the last report left off and there should be no gaps or overlapping periods. First Reports. If this is the first campaign finance report that your committee has filed, the start date will be the date your campaign treasurer appointment (Form GTA) was filed.

January 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is July 1 of the previous year or the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is December 31 of the previous year.

July 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is January 1 or the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The ending date is June 30.

30th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 40th day before the election.

8th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the 39th day before the election if your committee was required to file a 30th Day Before Election Report. If your committee was not required to file the 30th Day Before Election Report, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 10th day before the election.

Runoff Report Period: The start date is the 9th day before the main election if your committee filed an 8th Day Before Election report in connection with the main election. Otherwise, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report or the day your committee appointed a campaign treasurer, whichever is later. The end date is the 10th day before the runoff election.

Dissolution Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. The end date is the day you file the dissolution report.

10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination Report Period: The start date is either the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report or the day your committee appointed a campaign treasurer, whichever is later. The end date is the day the campaign treasurer's appointment was terminated. This report is due no later than 10 days after the campaign treasurer appointment was terminated.

GPAC: Worksheet Summary

Worksheet Summary is a new page in the filing application designed to help you keep track of the schedules required for this report and the activity you enter. If you indicated by answering “Yes” on the previous Reporting Period Activities screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Return to Cover Sheet button: Click on this button to go to the beginning of this report's Cover Sheet (report type and period covered). You may also go to the cover sheet by clicking on the link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Walk me through all schedules button: Click on this button to be guided through a series of questions to determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a report schedule. This option takes you through ALL the schedules in the report from beginning to end. During the walk-through, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column on the Worksheet Summary screen.

Report Totals button: Click on this button to go to this report's Subtotals and Totals pages, where you can view the calculated totals of activity entered in this report and enter lump sum totals for unitemized contributions, pledges, loans, and expenditures.

Upload File button: Click on this button to import your contribution and expenditure data into the filing application.

Worksheet Summary Grid: The reporting schedules/categories are organized into three main areas:

- Incoming Funds – any money coming into your committee's political account(s);
- Outgoing Funds – any payments going out of your committee's political account(s); and
- Additional Activity – other types of activity, such as non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, pledged contributions, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations.

Under each main area, the information is displayed in the following columns:

Category: This column displays the name and letter code of each schedule/category you may possibly need for this report. (For example, the name of the first schedule is Monetary Political Contributions and the letter code for that schedule is A1.) If you indicated on a previous screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Walk-Thru: Click this link to be guided through a series of questions to help you determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a particular report schedule. This option allows you to walk-through a single schedule only. During the walk-through, if you choose to "work on this later" the schedule will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column.

Count: This column keeps a running tally and displays the number of transactions you have entered and saved for a particular schedule/category.

Sub-Total: This column displays the total amount of transactions you have entered and saved plus any lump sum total you entered on the Schedule Subtotals page for a particular schedule/category.

Action: To begin entering activity for a particular schedule/category, click on "Start" in this column. After you have saved your first transaction, the link that you click on changes to "Continue" in this column.

Work on Later: If you choose to do a "walk-thru" of all schedules or one particular schedule, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in this column. Once you enter and save data on a checked schedule, the check mark will be removed; but remember, you can always enter information on any category/schedule, as needed, until you file the report.

GPAC: Schedule A1

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming monetary contributions on Schedule A1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are now entered on Schedule A2).

Schedule A1 is used by a general-purpose committee to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $50 (or \$100 if committee qualifies) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds (such as corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee). NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1 and C2. A corporation or labor organization may provide monetary or non-monetary support to a general-purpose committee to: 1) finance the establishment or administration of a general-purpose committee, or 2) solicit contributions to a general-purpose committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. A general-purpose committee must report such support on Schedules C3 and C4.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

Date	Contributor	Amount	Action

(1 of 1)

Add Memo Done with Contributions

The contribution list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule K any credit, gain, refund, or interest that does not exceed $100. Contributions returned to your committee must be itemized regardless of the amount of the contribution. Unlike other schedules, you are NOT required to enter a lump sum total of unitemized Schedule K activity on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report.

Credits List: After you enter and save your first credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest, the filing application will begin a list of all credits/gains/refunds/returned contributions or interest entered on Schedule K for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest:

To enter a new credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding any credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest entered on this schedule.

Credit Date: Enter the date the credit/gain/refund/returned contribution was received or the interest was earned, as applicable.

Credit Amount: Enter the exact dollar amount of the credit/gain/refund/returned contribution or interest.

Itemize box: The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions returned to your committee, regardless of the amount of the contribution. If your committee received two or more credits, gains, refunds, or interest from the same person, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each credit, gain, refund, or interest separately.

Credit/Gain/Refund/Interest of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule K a credit, gain, refund, or interest that does not exceed $100 for the reporting period. All such credits entered here will be itemized and appear on Schedule K.

Purpose for which amount received: Enter a brief statement or description of the purpose for which the amount was received (for example, "phone service deposit return" "returned contribution" or "interest on savings account").

"Check if political contribution returned to filer" box: If this incoming credit/gain was originally made by your committee in the form of a political contribution to a candidate, officeholder, or another political committee and was returned to your committee in this reporting period, check this box. NOTE: Contributions returned to your committee must be itemized regardless of the amount of the contribution.

GPAC: Schedule F1

NEW! Schedule F is now split into two schedules: Schedule F1 and Schedule F2. Enter only outgoing political payments made from political contributions on Schedule F1. (Political expenditure obligations your committee incurred in this reporting period but have not yet paid are now entered on Schedule F2).

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee uses political contributions to pay the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Schedule F1 is used by a general-purpose committee to itemize outgoing political payments made from political contributions that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as investment purchases or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Political Expenditures List: After you enter and save your first political expenditure, the filing application will begin a list of all political expenditures entered on Schedule F1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

To Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the payee is an individual or an entity.

Expense Date: Enter the date your committee made the expenditure payment. (Remember: Political expenditure obligations your committee incurred in this reporting period but have not yet paid are now entered on Schedule F2 and expenditures made by credit card are now entered on Schedule F4.)

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the expenditure payment.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this payment will be itemized on Schedule F1. The automatic default is to itemize. Your committee is required to itemize payments that exceed $100 (in the aggregate) to a single payee. If your committee made two or more political payments to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each payment separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Payments of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F1 political payments to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize payments of $100 and less on Schedule F1, you must total all such political payments and enter the lump sum total on the Totals page of this report. If you enter information about such payments here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F1.

Check if Austin, TX officeholder living expense: For expenditures made on or after July 1, 2014, check this box only if the expenditure payment is an officeholder expense for living in Austin, Texas.

Expenditure from Corporate Funds box: Check this box to indicate an expenditure paid in full or in part from corporations or labor organizations.

Payee Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the payee. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the political payment is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity that is conducted by making the political payment. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. State whether the expenditure was to support or oppose a candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure, and identify the candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure. If the payment was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the payment was an expenditure for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political payment for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Example: If your committee made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and your committee did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, your committee made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if your committee asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, your committee made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

GPAC: Schedule I

Schedule I is used to itemize outgoing non-political expenditure payments made from political contributions, regardless of the amount. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political expenditures, investment purchases, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

A non-political expenditure is an expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. NOTE: As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures and should not be disclosed on Schedule I.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Non-Political Expenditures List: After you enter and save your first non-political expenditure, the filing application will begin a list of all non-political expenditures entered on Schedule I for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the payment is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category. Remember, as a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity conducted by making the payment. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear.

GPAC: Schedule F3

NEW! Schedule F3 is a new schedule used to disclose information about investments purchased by your committee with political contributions. Prior to January 1, 2015, this activity was disclosed on Schedule K (used for other incoming funds earned or returned to your committee's political account).

Schedule F3 is used to itemize any investment your committee purchased with political funds during the reporting period, the amount of which exceeds $100. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political payments or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Purchased Investments List: After you enter and save your first investment purchased with political contributions, the filing application will begin a list of all purchased investments entered on Schedule F3 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered investment purchased with political contributions. To enter a new purchased investment, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the person from whom your committee purchased the investment is an individual or an entity.

Expense Date: Enter the date your committee purchased the investment.

Expense Amount: Enter the amount paid for the investment.

Itemize box: The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize investments that exceed $100. If your committee made two or more payments to the same payee to purchase an investment, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each payment separately.

Payments of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F3 a political payment to purchase an investment that does not exceed $100 for the reporting period. All such payments entered here will be itemized and appear on Schedule F3.

Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the person or business from whom your committee purchased the investment. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the person or business from whom your committee purchased the investment.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the investment (for example, “ten shares of stock in ABC Company”).

GPAC: Schedule A2

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming non-monetary (in-kind) contributions on Schedule A2. (Monetary contributions are now entered on Schedule A1).

Schedule A2 is used by a general-purpose committee to itemize incoming non-monetary (in-kind) political contributions that exceed $50 (or \$100 if committee qualifies) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as pledges, monetary contributions, corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1 and, C2. A corporation or labor organization may provide monetary or non-monetary support to a general-purpose committee to: 1) finance the establishment or administration of a general-purpose committee, or 2) solicit contributions to a general-purpose committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. A general-purpose committee must report such support on Schedules C3 and C4.

Contribution of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include contributions of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Non-Monetary Contributions List: After you enter and save your first non-monetary (in-kind) contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A2 for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

The non-monetary contributions list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this in-kind contribution will be itemized on Schedule A2. The automatic default is to itemize. Your committee is required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 in the aggregate from a single contributor (or \$100 if committee qualifies). If your committee accepted two or more non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50 (or \$100 if committee qualifies), enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less (or \$100 if committee qualifies). Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A2 non-monetary (in-kind) contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize non-monetary (in-kind) contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A2 (or \$100 if committee qualifies), you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A2.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Principal Occupation and Employer Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation: You must enter the contributor's principal occupation in this field.

Employer (Optional): You may enter the employer of the contributor in this field.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was contributed.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

GPAC: Schedule B

NEW! As always, you must disclose a pledge on Schedule B in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged contribution on Schedule A1 (used for monetary contributions) or A2 (used for non-monetary contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which it received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule B is used by a general-purpose committee to itemize pledges (monetary or in-kind) that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Pledged Contributions: Do not enter on this schedule pledged contributions your committee accepted from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept pledged contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such pledged contributions on Schedule D.

Pledge of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule B for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding pledge(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor of the pledge is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Pledge Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. Note that your committee must accept a pledge before you are required to report it.

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If your committee accepts a pledge in one reporting period and then receives the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge received in same reporting period as accepted: If your committee receives a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date your committee accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. If your committee never actually receives the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of any pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this pledge will be itemized on Schedule B. The automatic default is to itemize. Your committee is required to itemize pledges that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If your committee accepted two or more pledges from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50, enter each pledge separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Pledges of $50 or less: Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule B pledges that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize pledges of $50 and less on Schedule B, you must total all such pledges and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such pledges here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule B.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the person who made the pledge. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). The non-monetary support list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete previously entered non-monetary support provided by a corporation or labor organization to your committee. Date: Enter the date the corporation or labor organization provided non-monetary support to your committee. The payment date is the date the corporation or labor organization incurs the obligation to make a payment. The payment date is not necessarily the date goods or services are received. It is the date on which the obligation to make a payment is incurred, as long as the amount of the payment is “readily determinable”. Generally, the amount of a payment is known (and therefore readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases the amount is not known until the receipt of a bill.

Amount: Enter the fair-market value of the non-monetary support provided to your committee by a corporation or labor organization.

Itemize box: This box is always checked on this schedule. Your committee is required to itemize all non-monetary support from corporations or labor organizations regardless of the amount. GPAC: Schedule D

This schedule is only for general-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. Such committees also use Schedules C1 and C2 to disclose corporate or labor organization monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions. Other general-purpose committees that receive support from corporations or labor organizations to establish or administer the committee or to solicit contributions to the committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families use Schedules C3 and C4 to disclose such support.

NEW! As always, you must disclose a corporate or labor organization pledge on Schedule D in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged corporate or labor organization contribution on Schedule C1 (used for monetary corporate or labor organization contributions) or C2 (used for non-monetary corporate or labor organization contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: In June a corporate supporter promises to give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts the corporation's promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which the committee accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary corporate contribution on Schedule C1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule D is used to itemize all pledges (monetary or in-kind) from corporations or labor organizations accepted by your committee during the reporting period. You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization pledges, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, corporate or labor organization support, loans, or interest), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Pledge of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the service.

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If your committee accepts a pledge in one reporting period and then receives the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge received in same reporting period as accepted: If your committee receives a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date your committee accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. If your committee never actually receives the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: In June a corporate supporter promises to give a committee $1,000 in the last week before the November election. The committee accepts the corporation's promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 15 report covering the period in which the committee accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary corporate contribution on Schedule C1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of any pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was pledged.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind pledged contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. GPAC: Schedule F2

NEW! Schedule F is now split into two schedules: Schedule F1 and Schedule F2. Enter only expenditure obligations that your committee has incurred but not yet paid on Schedule F2. (Political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule F1. Non-political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule I.) Expenditures made by credit card are disclosed on schedule F4 (used for expenditures made by credit card).

Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose when your committee actually pays the incurred expenditure. You must disclose the outgoing payment on Schedule F1 or I as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee pays the expenditure.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Schedule F2 is used by a general-purpose committee to itemize political expenditures the committee has incurred but not yet paid that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. Also use this schedule to itemize any non-political expenditures your committee has incurred but not yet paid during the reporting period, regardless of the amount. If your committee had other outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political funds), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee). NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Unpaid Incurred Obligations List: After you enter and save your first unpaid incurred obligation, the filing application will begin a list of all unpaid incurred obligations entered on Schedule F2 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Incurred Political Expenditure Obligations of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F2 incurred political expenditures to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If your incurred expenditure was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

GPAC: Schedule F4

NEW! Schedule F4 is a new schedule used to disclose information about expenditures made by credit card. Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the credit card expenditure is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Note: Do not select "Credit Card Payment" as the category for an expenditure made by credit card when an individual, entity, or vendor receives payment from the credit card company. Instead, select the category that corresponds to the goods, services, or other thing of value purchased from the individual, entity, or vendor.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity that is conducted by making the credit card expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. If your credit card expenditure was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the expenditure was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political expenditure for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Example: If your committee made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and your committee did not get the candidate's approval before it made the expenditure, your committee made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if your committee asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, your committee made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

GPAC: Schedule Subtotals

Schedule Subtotals is a new page of the reporting form intended to supplement the report totals (cover sheet, page 2). This page displays the calculated Subtotal for each report schedule, based on the amounts you entered on the schedule entry screen (reported itemized and reported unitemized) and any other unitemized total you enter as a lump sum amount here (user entered lump sum unitemized).

You are always required to itemize or report detailed information for contributions, expenditures, and loans over a certain monetary threshold. The thresholds vary depending on the type of activity (see "Itemization Thresholds" below). For smaller contributions, expenditures, and loans that do not exceed the threshold (in the aggregate from a single source), you may report them in one of two ways: 1) add them all together and enter the unitemized total as a lump sum; OR 2) enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen (and choose to itemize or not).

Note: If your committee qualifies and chooses to use the \$100 itemization threshold for contributions disclosed in this report, you must check the Higher Contribution Itemization Threshold box on the Cover Sheet page.

Itemized transactions: You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen AND the "itemize" box is checked. The filing application calculates the sum of the entries for each schedule and the amount is displayed in the Reported Itemized column for the applicable schedule.

Unitemized transactions: Depending on your choice of entry, your unitemized transactions are shown under one of the following columns:

Reported Unitemized – You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen and the "itemize" box is NOT checked. The transaction will remain unitemized, unless you manually check the "itemize" box or you enter additional transactions from/to the same source which cause the aggregate total to exceed the itemization threshold.

User Entered Lump Sum Unitemized – You chose not to enter the detailed information, but rather to enter the total of all your unitemized transactions as a lump sum for the applicable schedule. You must manually enter the lump sum total. DO NOT INCLUDE in a lump sum total any transactions for which you chose to enter detailed information.

Itemization Thresholds for Each Schedule: To return to the instructions for each schedule, click on the applicable link.

Monetary Political Contributions (A1) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less (or \$100 or less if committee qualifies). If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Interest, Credits, Gains, Refunds, and Contributions Returned to Filer (K) – You are not required to itemize any credit, gain, refund, or interest (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less, other than contributions returned to your committee. You must itemize all returned contributions, regardless of the amount. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

Political Expenditures from Political Contributions (F1) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate to a single payee) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Non-monetary (In-kind) Political Contributions (A2) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less (or $100 or less if committee qualifies). If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Pledged Contributions (B) - You are not required to itemize pledges (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Non-monetary (in-kind) Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C2) - This schedule is only for political committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2) – You are not required to itemize incurred but not yet paid political expenditures (in the aggregate to a single payee) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all incurred but not yet paid non-political expenditures, regardless of the amount.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures made by credit card (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all non-political expenditures made by credit card, regardless of the amount.

You are required to include in your committee's campaign finance report the following total amounts of contributions, expenditures, and loans:

1. Total Unitemized Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized contribution amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2) for:

Reported Unitemized (contributions of $50 or less (or \$100 or less if committee qualifies) in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (contributions of $50 or less (or \$100 or less if committee qualifies) in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

Note: If your committee qualifies and chooses to use the \$100 itemization threshold for contributions disclosed in this report, you must check the Higher Contribution Itemization Threshold box on the Cover Sheet page.

2. Total Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political contributions you accepted in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 1 (total unitemized contributions of $50 or less or \$100 or less if committee qualifies) plus the total Reported Itemized (contributions which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1), Monetary Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C1), Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2), Non-monetary (In-kind) Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C2), Monetary Support from Corporation or Labor Organization (C3), and Non-monetary Support from Corporation or Labor Organization (C4).

3. Total Unitemized Political Expenditures of $100 or less: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized political expenditure amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), and Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4) for:

Reported Unitemized (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

4. Total Political Expenditures: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political expenditures you made in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 3 (total unitemized political expenditures of $100 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (expenditures which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), and Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4).

5. Total Political Contributions Maintained as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the total amount of political contributions, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if your committee does not maintain political contributions, including interest or other income earned on those contributions, as of the last day of the reporting period. (This is different from the total contributions reported on Line 2. Only contributions accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Line 2.)

The law requires you to disclose the total amount of political contributions accepted, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained in one or more accounts in which political contributions are deposited as of the last day of the reporting period.

The "total amount of political contributions maintained" includes: the total amount of political contributions maintained in one or more accounts, including the balance on deposit in banks, savings and loan institutions and other depository institutions; the present value of any investments that can be readily converted to cash, such as certificates of deposit, money market accounts, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, etc.; and the balance of political contributions accepted and held in any online fundraising account over which the filer can exercise control by making a withdrawal, expenditure, or transfer.

6. Total Principal Amount of all Outstanding Loans as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all loans accepted for political purposes as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if your committee did not accept any loans during the period covered and has no outstanding loans as of the last day of the reporting period. The "total outstanding loans" must include outstanding principal of loans made in this reporting period as well as outstanding principal of loans made previously. (This is different from the information reported on Loans (Schedule E). Only loans accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Schedule E.)

7. Total Unitemized Pledges: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: A printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule B and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized pledge amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Pledged Contributions (B) for:

Reported Unitemized (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

8. Total Unitemized Loans: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: A printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule E and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized loan amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Loans (E) for:

Reported Unitemized (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

GPAC: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering the amount of total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the reporting period under Report Totals). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a contributor or payee). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE:

If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (contribution, loan, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

GPAC: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides check boxes for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report. You may also use this area to request a waiver or reduction of a late-filing penalty for this correction, if any, and state the basis of your request.

Sworn Statement Check Boxes: Check the box next to any and all applicable statements.

For Any Corrected Report: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

A correction to an 8th Day Before Election Report must also meet the "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision, however, the corrected report could be subject to a late-filing penalty unless the report as originally filed substantially complies with the applicable law as determined by the City of Austin. The person responsible for filing the report may request a waiver or reduction of any late-filing penalty assessed.

For Corrections to Semiannual Reports: Effective September 1, 2011, a Semiannual Report (due January 15 or July 15) that is amended/corrected before the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed. A Semiannual Report that is amended/corrected on or after the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed if: (1) the amendment/correction is made before any complaint is filed with regard to the subject of the amendment/correction; and (2) the original report was made in good faith and without intent to mislead or misrepresent the information contained in the report.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction (contribution, loan, expenditure, etc.) that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted to help you identify the transaction.

GPAC: Dissolution Report Affidavit

You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer (Form GTA) and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.) A Dissolution report does not relieve the campaign treasurer of his or her responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties. Remember: A political committee may not make or authorize political expenditures or accept political contributions without having a campaign treasurer appointment (GTA) on file.

Dissolution Report Affidavit: This page includes the Dissolution report affidavit language. You must agree to and acknowledge the affidavit to indicate that you understand the consequences of filing a Dissolution report. To do so, select the radio button next to the statement, "I agree to and acknowledge the above affidavit."

If your committee intends to have additional campaign activity and is not ready to file a Dissolution report, select the radio button next to the statement, "I do not agree to the above affidavit." You will have some options as to how you wish to continue:

Continue Working on a Different Report Type: (This option is only available if you started the Dissolution report in combination with another report type.) Selecting this option will return you to the "Cover Sheet" screen. From here, you can select "Clear This Report?" if you do not wish to file a Dissolution report at this time.

Go Back to My Reports Page: Selecting this option will return you to the "Manage My Reports" screen without creating the Dissolution report. From here, you can continue working on an in-progress report or start a new report.

Return to Dissolution Report Affidavit: Selecting this option will return you to the Dissolution Report Affidavit screen. From here, you can choose to agree to the Dissolution report affidavit in order to continue with the Dissolution report.

GPAC: Appendix

Change Of Status

A change in political activity may mean that a political committee has changed from a specific-purpose political committee (SPAC) to a general-purpose political committee (GPAC/MPAC) or vice versa. If this happens, the committee is subject to new filing requirements.

SPAC becoming a GPAC/MPAC. If an SPAC engages in activities that make the committee a GPAC/MPAC, the committee must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form GTA) with the City of Austin before it may accept more than $500 in total political contributions or make more than $500 in total political expenditures as a GPAC/MPAC. On Form GTA, the committee may choose whether to file according to the regular filing schedule (filer type GPAC) or monthly filing schedule (filer type MPAC).

In addition to filing Form GTA with the City of Austin, the campaign treasurer of the new GPAC/MPAC must give notice of the change in status to the filing authority with whom the committee filed reports as an SPAC. This notice is due no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file as an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as a GPAC/MPAC and that those reports will be filed with the City of Austin.

GPAC/MPAC becoming an SPAC. A GPAC or MPAC that chooses to limit its activities to the activities of an SPAC must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form STA) with the appropriate filing authority. See "Where to File an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer" in the PAC guide. Further, the new SPAC may not make expenditures in an election supporting or opposing a candidate for a statewide office, the State Legislature, the State Board of Education, a multi-county district office, or a judicial district office unless it has had its appointment of campaign treasurer as an SPAC on file for at least 30 days before the election.

In addition to filing a new Form STA with the appropriate filing authority, the campaign treasurer of the new SPAC must give notice to the City of Austin of the change in status. This notice must be given to the City of Austin no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file with the City of Austin if the committee had not become an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as an SPAC and must identify the filing authority with which those reports will be filed.

Alternative Reporting Requirement for Some Committees

For a report due on or after September 1, 2005, a general-purpose committee with less than $20,000 in total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the preceding reporting period may choose to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $100 (instead of $50) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee qualifies for the higher itemization threshold, you may select it by checking the box on the Cover Sheet page of the report.

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

You can never go wrong by disclosing the date the credit card was charged as the expenditure date. For 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports, the expenditure date is the date of the credit card charge, not the date of the credit card bill. For all other reports, the expenditure date may be either the date of the charge or the date of receipt of the credit card bill that includes the expenditure.

If you make an expenditure for goods or services to benefit another candidate, officeholder, or committee, disclose the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of the candidate, officeholder, or committee that benefitted from the expenditure. Include that person's name under the purpose description.

Did a staff worker make political payment(s) out of his or her personal funds? How you disclose the payment(s) depends on two things: 1) the aggregate total of those payments in the reporting period; and 2) whether or not you reimburse the staff worker in the same reporting period.

Staff Reimbursement Examples:

Case #1: The payment out of the staff worker's personal funds does not exceed $5,000 in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will simply itemize the payment (if over the $100 itemization threshold) on Schedule F1 as if you made the expenditure directly to the vendor out of your political funds, with the name of the vendor who sold the goods or services as the payee for the expenditure. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker.

Case #2: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds are over $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing everything on the same report: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) On Schedule F1, disclose the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Case #3: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds do not exceed $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period BUT you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in a different reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing steps 1 and 2 on the same report and step 3 later, when the reimbursement occurs: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) When you reimburse your staff worker, if ever, disclose on Schedule F1 of the report covering the period in which the reimbursement occurs the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Examples Of Expenditures

This list is for illustrative purposes only. It is intended to provide helpful information and to assist filers in reporting the purpose of an expenditure. However, it is not, and is not intended to be, an exhaustive or an exclusive list of how a filer may permissibly report the purpose of an expenditure.

(1) Example: Candidate X is seeking the office of State Representative, District 2000. She purchases an airline ticket from ABC Airlines to attend a campaign rally within District 2000. The acceptable category for this expenditure is “travel in district.” The candidate activity that is accomplished by making the expenditure is to attend a campaign rally. An acceptable brief statement is “airline ticket to attend campaign event.”

(2) Example: Candidate X purchases an airline ticket to attend a campaign event outside of District 2000 but within Texas, the acceptable category is

“travel out of district.” The candidate activity that is accomplished by making the expenditure is to attend a campaign event. An acceptable brief statement is “airline ticket to attend campaign or officeholder event.”

(3) Example: Candidate X purchases an airline ticket to attend an officeholder related seminar outside of Texas. The acceptable method for the purpose of this expenditure is by selecting the “travel out of district” category and completing the “Schedule T” (used to report travel outside of Texas).

(4) Example: Candidate X contracts with an individual to do various campaign related tasks such as work on a campaign phone bank, sign distribution, and staffing the office. The acceptable category is “salaries/wages/contract labor.” The candidate activity that is accomplished by making the expenditure is to compensate an individual working on the campaign. An acceptable brief statement is “contract labor for campaign services.”

(5) Example: Officeholder X is seeking re-election and makes an expenditure to purchase a vehicle to use for campaign purposes and permissible officeholder purposes. The acceptable category is “transportation equipment and related expenses” and an acceptable brief description is “purchase of campaign/officeholder vehicle.”

(6) Example: Candidate X makes an expenditure to repair a flat tire on a campaign vehicle purchased with political funds. The acceptable category is “transportation equipment and related expenses” and an acceptable brief description is “campaign vehicle repairs.”

(7) Example: Officeholder X purchases flowers for a constituent. The acceptable category is “gifts/awards/memorials expense” and an acceptable brief description is “flowers for constituent.”

Incurred Expenditure Obligations

The date of an expenditure is not necessarily the date that goods or services are received. It is the date on which you incur the obligation to make a payment, as long as the amount of the payment is "readily determinable." Generally, you know the amount of an expenditure (and therefore it is readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases you may not know the amount until the receipt of a periodic bill. An amount is readily determinable if the vendor can provide the amount at your request.

Example 1: On June 29th, a filer orders political signs. On July 16th, the filer receives the invoice for the signs. The date of the expenditure is June 29th, if on that date the vendor can provide the amount the filer will owe the vendor for the signs. Filers should request a vendor to provide the amount of an obligation at the time the obligation is incurred and disclose that unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report covering the period in which the unpaid obligation is incurred. (Note: When the filer makes the payment, he will disclose it as an outgoing payment on Schedule F1 in the report covering the period in which he pays the expenditure.)

Example 2: A filer maintains a campaign office. The filer does not know the cost of the office's June utilities until she receives the periodic monthly bill on July 16th. The filer will not disclose the expense as an unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report, since the amount was not readily determinable until after the end of the semiannual reporting period.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card

Beginning on September 1, 2015, all expenditures made by credit card must be reported on a new schedule: "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). This requirement applies to filers of electronic and paper campaign finance reports, including candidates, officeholders, political committees, political parties, and direct campaign expenditure filers.

When a credit card is used to make a reportable expenditure, the expenditure must be reported on the new schedule by identifying the name and address of the vendor who sold the goods or services, NOT the credit card company that issued the credit card. The date, amount, and purpose of the expenditure must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Once the credit card bill is paid, the payment must also be reported using the appropriate existing disbursement schedule (e.g., Schedule F1, Schedule G, Schedule H, or Schedule I) by identifying the credit card company that receives the payment. The date, amount, and purpose of the payment must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Please see the following examples of reporting expenditures made by credit card:

Example 1: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses her credit card to buy $1,000 in campaign office supplies from an office store. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from her political contributions account to pay the $1,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the office store as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Office Overhead/Rental Expense,” and a description as “Campaign Office Supplies.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for campaign office supplies.”
- Both $1,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 2: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Personal Funds to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses his credit card to purchase $3,000 in political advertising materials from a print shop. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from his personal funds account to pay the $3,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which he made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the print shop as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising Materials.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.

- For the payment to the credit card company: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures Made from Personal Funds” Schedule (G). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising materials.” If the candidate intends to seek reimbursement from political contributions, the candidate may also check the appropriate box in Section 6.
- Both $3,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 3: Political Committee Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A general-purpose committee uses its credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The committee receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the committee sends a payment to the credit card company, it makes a $500 payment from its political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the committee’s campaign treasurer would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the committee’s campaign treasurer would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report

(Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the payment to the credit card company:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”
- The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 4: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A candidate for judicial office uses her credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The candidate receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the candidate sends a payment to the credit card company, she makes a $500 payment from her political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the candidate would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which the payment to the credit card company was made:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”

The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

GPAC: Glossary

A

Accepting a Contribution: A committee must report contributions that the committee has accepted. Receipt is different from acceptance. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Failure to make a determination about acceptance or refusal: If you fail to make a determination to accept or refuse a contribution by the end of the reporting period, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

Returning refused contributions: If you receive a political contribution but do not accept it, you must return the contribution not later than the 30th day after the end of the reporting period in which the contribution was received. If you fail to do so, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

(1) corporations that are organized under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas For-Profit Corporation Law, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law, federal law, or law of another state or nation; or

(2) the following associations, whether incorporated or not: banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, government-regulated cooperatives, stock companies, and abstract and title insurance companies.

Direct Campaign Expenditure: A "direct campaign expenditure" to benefit a candidate or officeholder is not a "political contribution" to that candidate or officeholder. A direct campaign expenditure is a campaign expenditure made on someone else's behalf and without the prior consent or approval of that person. This is in contrast to a political contribution, which the person has the opportunity to accept or reject.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

E

Financial Institution: A corporation that has been legally engaged in the business of making loans for more than one year.

Full Name of the Contributor: Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Even if you do not itemize a contribution, you must maintain a record of all the information related to a contribution for two years after the deadline for filing the report. You must also identify the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.

Non-Monetary Support: Support provided by a corporation or labor organization through the use of goods or services to either establish or administer your committee, or solicit contributions to your committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. Examples of non-monetary support include:

- The use of corporate or labor organization office space
- The use of a corporate or labor organization mailing list
- The use of any other corporate or labor organization asset

Non-Political Expenditure: An expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures. Examples of non-political expenditure:

- Charitable donation, if you receive no benefit in return
- A political committee uses political contributions to pay a lobbyist to work on legislative matters

O

Officeholder Expenditure: A payment or agreement to pay certain expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, if the expenses are not reimbursable with public money.

Austin Texas Officeholder Living Expense: refers to payments made to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of duties or activities as a public officeholder, including payment of rent, utility, and other reasonable housing or household expenses incurred in maintaining a residence in Travis County by members of the legislature who do not ordinarily reside in Travis County. Examples include:

- Rent for Austin apartment
- Phone line and internet access for Austin apartment
- Installation expense of security system at officeholder apartment

Pledge: a promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other things of value. A pledge is not a reportable contribution, unless it is accepted.

Political Contribution: Any transfer of or promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other thing of value, including a loan, that is given to a committee with the intent that it be used either:

(1) in connection with a campaign for elective office or a measure to be submitted to the voters; or

(2) to defray expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, provided that the expenditures are not reimbursable from public money

A donation of money to a political committee at a fundraiser is a monetary contribution.

A contribution of goods or services is a non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Examples of non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are:

- Donation of office space
- Donation of an item to be auctioned at a fundraiser
- Donation of a mailing list
- Donation of material and labor for printing campaign signs

A political contribution in the form of a pledge must be reported on the appropriate schedule. For example, a promise to give you money after the election to pay debts incurred in connection with the election is a pledge.

A loan from an incorporated financial institution that has been in business for more than a year is not considered to be a contribution, but you must report any such loans taken out for campaign or officeholder purposes on the appropriate schedule.

MPAC: Cover Sheet – Report Type & Period Covered

What kind of report do you want to file? (Report Type): You can only select one monthly report type. If you need to file more than one monthly report, you must file each as a separate report. You can select one of the monthly reports as a stand-alone report or in combination with the "Dissolution" or "10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination" reports below, if applicable. Read the information concerning each of the report types.

Monthly Report: All general-purpose committees filing under the monthly filing schedule must file a report with COA-EFS by midnight Central Time on the 5th of each month to cover the previous month's activities. Select the month from the drop-down menu that corresponds to the applicable filing deadline. For example, if you are filing the monthly report due on July 5th, choose the July report, even though the report covers activity that occurred during May and June. (See “Period Covered” section below for more information.)

Less Commonly Filed Reports: These reports are only required if you meet certain criteria. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with one of the reports listed above, if applicable. Select the radio button for one of these less commonly filed reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Dissolution Report: You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.)

10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination Report: A general-purpose committee's campaign treasurer must file this report if his or her campaign treasurer appointment is terminated. This report is due no later than the 10th day after the termination is filed. If the termination takes place on the last day of a reporting period and the proper report for that period is filed, no separate termination report is required.

Other Reports: These other reports are only required in certain circumstances and cannot be combined with other report types. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for one of these other reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Period Covered: The filing application will calculate the period covered for your report based on the report type you select. You can modify the start and end dates as long as your modified start date does not precede the filing application calculated start date and your modified end date does not extend past the filing application calculated end date. If you need to report activity outside of the filing application calculated date range for this report, you will need to file multiple reports.

A reporting period includes the Start date and the End date. The report due date will be after the end of the period. Generally, a report picks up where the last report left off and there should be no gaps or overlapping periods. First Reports. If this is the first campaign finance report that your committee has filed, the start date depends on the date the committee filed its initial campaign treasurer appointment (Form GTA) and when it chose to file under the monthly filing schedule.

Before 25th of the Month: If your committee filed its initial campaign treasurer appointment (Form GTA) before the 25th of the month and chose to file monthly at that time, the beginning date is the date the initial campaign treasurer appointment was filed. The ending date is the 25th day of the same month.

Example: A general-purpose committee files its initial campaign treasurer appointment and chooses monthly filing on May 15. Its first monthly report is due June 5, covering the period beginning May 15 and ending May 25.

On or After 25th of the Month: If your committee filed its initial campaign treasurer appointment (Form GTA) on or after the 25th of the month, and chose to file monthly at that time, the beginning date is the date the initial campaign treasurer appointment was filed. The ending date is the 25th day of the next month.

Example: A general-purpose committee files its initial campaign treasurer appointment and chooses monthly filing on May 27. Its first monthly report is due July 5, covering the period beginning May 27 and ending June 25.

Committee Changes to Monthly Filing: If your committee has been filing under the regular filing schedule, and chooses monthly filing between January 1 and January 15 of a particular year, the beginning date for the first monthly report (due February 5) is January 1. The ending date is January 25. Note: To change to monthly filing a general-purpose committee must deliver written notice to the City of Austin between January 1 and January 15.

Monthly Reports: The start date is the 26th of one month or the day after the last day covered by the last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The ending date is the 25th of the next month.

Dissolution Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report. If this is the first report your committee has filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the day you file the dissolution report.

10th Day After Campaign Treasurer Termination Report Period: The start date is either the day after the last day covered by your committee's last required report or the day your committee appointed a campaign treasurer, whichever is later. The end date is the day the campaign treasurer's appointment was terminated. This report is due no later than 10 days after the campaign treasurer appointment was terminated.

Alternative Reporting Requirement for Some Committees:

MPAC: Worksheet Summary

Worksheet Summary is a new page in the filing application designed to help you keep track of the schedules required for this report and the activity you enter. If you indicated by answering "Yes" on the previous Reporting Period Activities screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Return to Cover Sheet button: Click on this button to go to the beginning of this report's Cover Sheet (report type and period covered). You may also go to the cover sheet by clicking on the link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Walk me through all schedules button: Click on this button to be guided through a series of questions to determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a report schedule. This option takes you through ALL the schedules in the report from beginning to end. During the walk-through, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column on the Worksheet Summary screen.

Report Totals button: Click on this button to go to this report's Subtotals and Totals pages, where you can view the calculated totals of activity entered in this report and enter lump sum totals for unitemized contributions, pledges, loans, and expenditures.

Upload File button: Click on this button to import your contribution and expenditure data into the filing application.

Worksheet Summary Grid: The reporting schedules/categories are organized into three main areas:

- Incoming Funds – any money coming into your committee's political account(s);
- Outgoing Funds – any payments going out of your committee's political account(s); and
- Additional Activity – other types of activity, such as non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, pledged contributions, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations.

Under each main area, the information is displayed in the following columns:

Category: This column displays the name and letter code of each schedule/category you may possibly need for this report. (For example, the name of the first schedule is Monetary Political Contributions and the letter code for that schedule is A1.) If you indicated on a previous screen that your committee has activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Walk-Thru: Click this link to be guided through a series of questions to help you determine whether or not your committee may have activity to disclose on a particular report schedule. This option allows you to walk-through a single schedule only. During the walk-through, if you choose to "work on this later" the schedule will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column.

Count: This column keeps a running tally and displays the number of transactions you have entered and saved for a particular schedule/category.

Sub-Total: This column displays the total amount of transactions you have entered and saved plus any lump sum total you entered on the Schedule Subtotals page for a particular schedule/category.

Action: To begin entering activity for a particular schedule/category, click on "Start" in this column. After you have saved your first transaction, the link that you click on changes to "Continue" in this column.

Work on Later: If you choose to do a "walk-thru" of all schedules or one particular schedule, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in this column. Once you enter and save data on a checked schedule, the check mark will be removed; but remember, you can always enter information on any category/schedule, as needed, until you file the report.

MPAC: Schedule A1

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming monetary contributions on Schedule A1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are now entered on Schedule A2).

Schedule A1 is used by a general-purpose committee filing monthly to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $10 (or \$20 if committee qualifies) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds (such as corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1 and C2. A corporation or labor organization may provide monetary or non-monetary support to a general-purpose committee to: 1) finance the establishment or administration of a general-purpose committee, or 2) solicit contributions to a general-purpose committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. A general-purpose committee must report such support on Schedules C3 and C4.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

Add Memo Done with Contributions

The contribution list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or

- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page, but the entry will not appear on Schedule A1.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

To Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the payee is an individual or an entity.

Expense Date: Enter the date your committee made the expenditure payment. (Remember: Political expenditure obligations your committee incurred in this reporting period but have not yet paid are now entered on Schedule F2 and expenditures made by credit card are now entered on Schedule F4.)

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the expenditure payment.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this payment will be itemized on Schedule F1. The automatic default is to itemize. As a general-purpose committee filing monthly, your committee is required to itemize payments that exceed $10 (in the aggregate) to a single payee. If your committee made two or more political payments to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $10, enter each payment separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Payments of $10 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F1 political payments to a single payee that do not exceed $10 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize payments of $10 and less on Schedule F1, you must total all such political payments and enter the lump sum total on the Totals page of this report. If you enter information about such payments here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F1.

Check if Austin, TX officeholder living expense: For expenditures made on or after July 1, 2014, check this box only if the expenditure payment is an officeholder expense for living in Austin, Texas.

Expenditure from Corporate Funds box: Check this box to indicate an expenditure paid in full or in part from corporations or labor organizations.

Payee Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the payee. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the political payment is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity conducted by making the political payment. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. State whether the expenditure was to support or oppose a candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure, and identify the candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure. If the payment was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the payment was an expenditure for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political payment for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

MPAC: Schedule F3

NEW! Schedule F3 is a new schedule used to disclose information about investments purchased by your committee with political contributions. Prior to January 1, 2015, this activity was disclosed on Schedule K (used for other incoming funds earned or returned to your committee's political account).

Schedule F3 is used to itemize any investment your committee purchased with political funds during the reporting period, the amount of which exceeds $100. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political payments or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Purchased Investments List: After you enter and save your first investment purchased with political contributions, the filing application will begin a list of all purchased investments entered on Schedule F3 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

The purchased investments list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered investment purchased with political contributions. To enter a new purchased investment, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. Payments of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F3 a political payment to purchase an investment that does not exceed $100 for the reporting period. All such payments entered here will be itemized and appear on Schedule F3.

Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the person or business from whom your committee purchased the investment. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the person or business from whom your committee purchased the investment.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the investment (for example, "ten shares of stock in ABC Company").

MPAC: Schedule I

Schedule I is used to itemize outgoing non-political expenditure payments made from political contributions, regardless of the amount. If your committee had other types of outgoing funds or activity (such as political expenditures, investment purchases, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

A non-political expenditure is an expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures and should not be disclosed on Schedule I.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Non-Political Expenditures List: After you enter and save your first non-political expenditure, the filing application will begin a list of all non-political expenditures entered on Schedule I for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Remember, as a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity conducted by making the payment. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear.

MPAC: Schedule A2

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming non-monetary (in-kind) contributions on Schedule A2. (Monetary contributions are now entered on Schedule A1).

Schedule A2 is used by a general-purpose committee filing monthly to itemize incoming non-monetary (in-kind) political contributions that exceed $10 (or \$20 if committee qualifies) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as pledges, monetary contributions, corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and it must include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee). NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Contributions or Support: Do not enter on this schedule contributions or support your committee received from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such contributions on Schedules C1 and C2. A corporation or labor organization may provide monetary or non-monetary support to a general-purpose committee to: 1) finance the establishment or administration of a general-purpose committee, or 2) solicit contributions to a general-purpose committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. A general-purpose committee must report such support on Schedules C3 and C4.

Contribution of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include contributions of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Non-Monetary Contributions List: After you enter and save your first non-monetary (in-kind) contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A2 for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or

- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the non-monetary(in-kind) contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this in-kind contribution will be itemized on Schedule A2. The automatic default is to itemize. As a general-purpose committee filing monthly, your committee is required to itemize contributions that exceed $10 in the aggregate from a single contributor (or \$20 if committee qualifies). If your committee accepted two or more non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from the same person, the total of which exceeds $10 (or \$20 if committee qualifies), enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $10 or less (or \$20 if committee qualifies). Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A2 non-monetary (in-kind) contributions that do not exceed $10 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize non-monetary (in-kind) contributions of $10 and less on Schedule A2 (or \$20 if committee qualifies), you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A2.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Principal Occupation and Employer Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation: You must enter the contributor's principal occupation in this field.

Employer (Optional): You may enter the employer of the contributor in this field.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was contributed.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

MPAC: Schedule B

NEW! As always, you must disclose a pledge on Schedule B in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged contribution on Schedule A1 (used for monetary contributions) or A2 (used for non-monetary contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: On June 20 a supporter promises that he will give a monthly committee $1,000 on October 20. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 5 monthly report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule B is used by a general-purpose committee filing monthly to itemize pledges (monetary or in-kind) that exceed $10 from one person during the reporting period. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, corporate or labor organization contributions or support, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Corporate or Labor Organization Pledged Contributions: Do not enter on this schedule pledged contributions your committee accepted from corporations or labor organizations. A political committee that supports or opposes measures exclusively may accept pledged contributions from corporations or labor organizations and must report such pledged contributions on Schedule D.

Pledge of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule B for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

Contributions from Out of State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out of state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If your committee accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and you do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Pledge Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. Note that your committee must accept a pledge before you are required to report it.

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If your committee accepts a pledge in one reporting period and then receives the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge received in same reporting period as accepted: If your committee receives a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date your committee accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. If your committee never actually receives the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: On June 20 a supporter promises that he will give a monthly committee $1,000 on October 20. The committee accepts his promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 5 monthly report covering the period in which it accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of any pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this pledge will be itemized on Schedule B. The automatic default is to itemize. As a general-purpose committee filing monthly, your committee is required to itemize pledges that exceed $10 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If your committee accepted two or more pledges from the same person, the total of which exceeds $10, enter each pledge separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Pledges of $10 or less: Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule B pledges that do not exceed $10 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize pledges of $10 and less on Schedule B, you must total all such pledges and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such pledges here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule B.

If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor of the pledge.

Employer (Optional): You may enter the employer of the contributor of the pledge in this field.

Principal Occupation: You must enter the pledge contributor's principal occupation in this field.

In-Kind Description: If the pledge was for goods or services or any other thing of value, enter a description of the in-kind pledge of goods or services or other thing of value. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was pledged.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind pledged contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

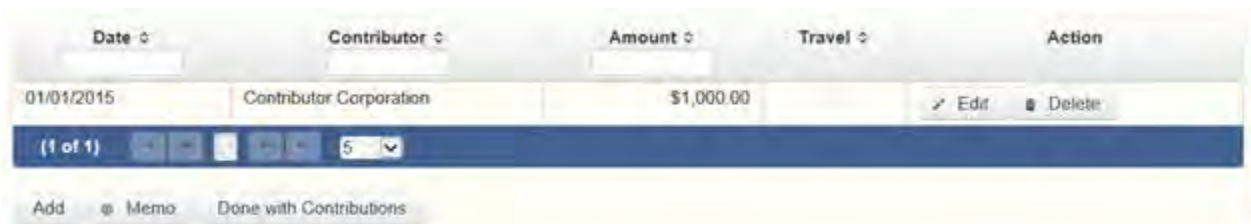

MPAC: Schedule C2

NEW! Enter only incoming non-monetary (in-kind) corporate or labor organization contributions on Schedule C2. (Monetary corporate or labor organization contributions are now entered on Schedule C1.)

Schedule C1 and C2 are only for general-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. Other general-purpose committees that receive support from corporations or labor organizations to establish or administer the committee or to solicit contributions to the committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families use Schedules C3 and C4 to disclose such support.

Schedule C2 is used to itemize all non-monetary (in-kind) political contributions accepted from corporations or labor organizations during this reporting period. You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, pledges, loans, or interest), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contribution Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. The committee accepts a contribution when the determination is made to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that the committee receives the contribution.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution.

Itemize box: This box is always checked on this schedule. Your committee is required to itemize all non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations regardless of the amount. If your committee accepted two or more in-kind contributions from the same corporation or labor organization, enter each in-kind contribution separately.

Contributor Name (Entity Name): Enter the full name of the corporation or labor organization that made the contribution.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the corporation or labor organization that made the contribution.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was contributed.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

MPAC: Schedule C3

NEW! Enter only incoming monetary corporate or labor organization support on Schedule C3. (Non-monetary corporate or labor organization support is now entered on Schedule C4.)

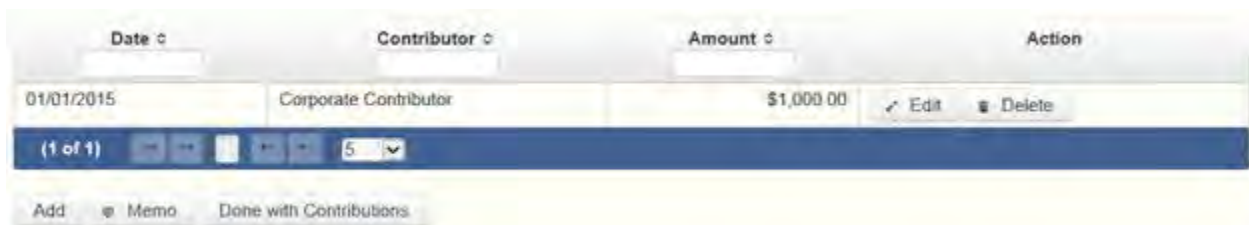

Schedules C3 and C4 are only for a general-purpose committee that accepted corporate or labor organization support. Other general-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively and accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations use Schedules C1 and C2 to disclose such corporate or labor organization contributions.

Schedule C3 is used to itemize all monetary payments made by corporations or labor organizations to:

- finance the establishment or administration of your committee; or
- finance the solicitation of political contributions to your committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families.

You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization monetary support payments, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as pledges, non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Monetary Support List: After you enter and save your first monetary payment made by a corporation or labor organization in support of your committee, the filing application will begin a list of all monetary support payments entered on Schedule C3 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each monetary support payment:

Date	Contributor	Amount	Action

Add Memo Done with Contributions

The monetary support list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered monetary support payment. To enter a new monetary support payment, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding monetary support payment(s) entered on this schedule.

Date: Enter the date of the monetary payment made by the corporation or labor organization in support of your committee.

Payments Made By Credit Card: There is a special reporting rule for payments made by credit card. For reports due 30 days and 8 days before an election (pre-election reports) and for runoff reports, the date of a payment made by credit card is the date the credit card is used. For other reports, the date of a payment made by credit card is either the date of the charge or the date the credit card statement is received. A filer can never go wrong by disclosing the date of the payment as the date of the charge.

Amount: Enter the amount of the payment made by the corporation or labor organization in support of your committee.

Itemize box: This box is always checked on this schedule. Your committee is required to itemize all monetary payments from corporations or labor organizations regardless of the amount. If your committee accepted support in two or more payments from the same corporation or labor organization, enter each payment separately.

Entity Name: Enter the name of the corporation or labor organization that provided the monetary support to your committee.

Entity Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the corporation or labor organization that provided the monetary support to your committee.

MPAC: Schedule C4

NEW! Enter only incoming non-monetary corporate or labor organization support on Schedule C4. (Monetary corporate or labor organization support is now entered on Schedule C3.)

Schedules C3 and C4 are only for a general-purpose committee that accepted corporate or labor organization support. Other general-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively and accept monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions from corporations or labor organizations use Schedules C1 and C2 to disclose such corporate or labor organization contributions.

Schedule C4 is used to itemize all non-monetary support provided by corporations or labor organizations to:

- finance the establishment or administration of your committee; or
- finance the solicitation of political contributions to your committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families.

You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization non-monetary support, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, pledges, loans, or interest) enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Non-Monetary Support List: After you enter and save your first non-monetary support entry, the filing application will begin a list of all non-monetary support entered on Schedule C4 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each non-monetary support entry:

Add Memo Done with Contributions

The non-monetary support list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete previously entered non-monetary support provided by a corporation or labor organization to your committee. To enter a new non-monetary support entry, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding non-monetary support entered on this schedule.

Date: Enter the date the corporation or labor organization provided non-monetary support to your committee. The payment date is the date the corporation or labor organization incurs the obligation to make a payment. The payment date is not necessarily the date goods or services are received. It is the date on which the obligation to make a payment is incurred, as long as the amount of the payment is “readily determinable”. Generally, the amount of a payment is known (and therefore readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases the amount is not known until the receipt of a bill.

Amount: Enter the fair-market value of the non-monetary support provided to your committee by a corporation or labor organization.

Itemize box: This box is always checked on this schedule. Your committee is required to itemize all non-monetary support from corporations or labor organizations regardless of the amount. If your committee accepted two or more instances of non-monetary support from the same corporation or labor organization, enter each non-monetary support separately.

Entity Name: Enter the name of the corporation or labor organization that provided non-monetary support to your committee.

Entity Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the corporation or labor organization that provided non-monetary support to your committee.

MPAC: Schedule D

This schedule is only for general-purpose committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. Such committees also use Schedules C1 and C2 to disclose corporate or labor organization monetary and non-monetary (in-kind) contributions. Other general-purpose committees that receive support from corporations or labor organizations to establish or administer the committee or to solicit contributions to the committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families use Schedules C3 and C4 to disclose such support.

NEW! As always, you must disclose a corporate or labor organization pledge on Schedule D in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged corporate or labor organization contribution on Schedule C1 (used for monetary corporate or labor organization contributions) or C2 (used for non-monetary corporate or labor organization contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee actually receives the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: On June 20 a corporate supporter promises to give a monthly committee $1,000 on October 20. The committee accepts the corporation's promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 5 monthly report covering the period in which the committee accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary corporate contribution on Schedule C1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule D is used to itemize all pledges (monetary or in-kind) from corporations or labor organizations accepted by your committee during the reporting period. You must itemize all such corporate or labor organization pledges, regardless of the amount, on this schedule. If your committee accepted other types of incoming funds or activity (such as monetary contributions, non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, corporate or labor organization support, loans, or interest), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Pledge of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution from a corporation or labor organization, the filing application will begin a list of all pledges entered on Schedule D for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

Date	Pledgor	Amount	Travel	Action
01/01/2015	Corporate Pledgor	$1,000.00		Edit Delete

(1 of 1) Add Memo Done with Pledges

The pledged contributions list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new pledges, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding pledged contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

Pledge Date: Enter the date your committee accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. Note that your committee must accept a pledge before you are required to report it.

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If your committee accepts a pledge in one reporting period and then receives the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge received in same reporting period as accepted: If your committee receives a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date your committee accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which your committee accepted the pledge. If your committee never actually receives the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: On June 20 a corporate supporter promises to give a monthly committee $1,000 on October 20. The committee accepts the corporation's promise. The committee must disclose the pledge on its July 5 monthly report covering the period in which the committee accepted the pledge. (Note: When the committee receives the $1,000, the committee will disclose it as a monetary corporate contribution on Schedule C1 of the report covering the period in which the committee received the money. Also, if the committee never receives the $1,000, the committee does not correct/amend its report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of any pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: This box is always checked on this schedule. Your committee is required to itemize all pledges from corporations or labor organizations regardless of the amount. If your committee accepted two or more pledges from the same corporation or labor organization, enter each contribution separately.

Contributor Name (Entity Name): Enter the full name of the corporation or labor organization that made the pledge.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the corporation or labor organization that made the pledge.

In-Kind Description: If the pledge was for goods or services or any other thing of value, enter a description of the in-kind pledge of goods or services or other thing of value. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing the committee's report to understand what was pledged.

In-kind Contribution For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind pledged contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

MPAC: Schedule F2

NEW! Schedule F is now split into two schedules: Schedule F1 and Schedule F2. Enter only expenditure obligations that your committee has incurred but not yet paid on Schedule F2. (Political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule F1. Non-political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule I. Expenditures made by credit card are disclosed on schedule F4 (used for expenditures made by credit card).)

Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose when your committee actually pays the incurred expenditure. You must disclose the outgoing payment on Schedule F1 or I as applicable, in the reporting period in which your committee pays the expenditure.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Schedule F2 is used by a general-purpose committee filing monthly to itemize political expenditures the committee has incurred but not yet paid that exceed $10 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. Also use this schedule to itemize any non-political expenditures your committee has incurred but not yet paid during the reporting period, regardless of the amount. If your committee had other outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political funds), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Notice to Candidates and Officeholders: If the committee makes political expenditures or accepts political contributions in support of a candidate or officeholder, the committee must provide written notice to the candidate or officeholder who benefits from the committee's activity. The notice must be given before the end of the reporting period during which the committee made the political expenditures or accepted the political contributions. The notice must inform the person that the committee has made political expenditures or accepted political contributions on his or her behalf, and include the full name and address of the political committee and its campaign treasurer and an indication that the committee is a general-purpose committee. NOTE: Such notices are not required if the committee is the principal political committee of a political party.

Unpaid Incurred Obligations List: After you enter and save your first unpaid incurred obligation, the filing application will begin a list of all unpaid incurred obligations entered on Schedule F2 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

Schedule	Payee	Amount	Date	Travel	Direct Expenditure to benefit C/OH?	Action

You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. To Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the payee is an individual or an entity.

Tell Me More About Incurred Expenditure Obligations

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the incurred expenditure obligation.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this incurred expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F2. The automatic default is to itemize. As a general-purpose committee filing monthly, your committee is required to itemize incurred political expenditures that exceed $10 (in the aggregate) to a single payee. Your committee is required to itemize any non-political expenditure, regardless of the amount. If your committee incurred two or more political expenditures to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $10, enter each incurred political expenditure obligation separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Incurred Political Expenditure Obligations of $10 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F2 incurred political expenditures to a single payee that do not exceed $10 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize incurred political expenditures of $10 and less on Schedule F2, you must total all such incurred political expenditures and enter the lump sum total on the Totals page of this report. If you enter information about such incurred political expenditures here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F2.

Type of Expenditure: Select whether the incurred expenditure was political or non-political. NOTE: As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures.

Check if Austin, TX officeholder living expense: For expenditures made on or after July 1, 2014, check this box only if the incurred expenditure is an officeholder expense for living in Austin, Texas.

Expenditure from Corporate Funds box: Check this box to indicate an expenditure paid in full or in part from corporations or labor organizations.

Payee Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the payee of the expenditure obligation. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee of the expenditure obligation.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the incurred expenditure is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity that is conducted by making the incurred expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. State whether the expenditure was to support or oppose a candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure, and identify the candidate, officeholder, political party, or ballot measure. If your incurred expenditure was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter “political contribution” and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the expenditure was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political expenditure for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

MPAC: Schedule F4

NEW! Schedule F4 is a new schedule used to disclose information about expenditures made by credit card. Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose committee expenditures charged to a credit card on this schedule and identify the individual, entity, or vendor who receives payment from the credit card company. (When your committee pays the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule.)

Schedule F4 is used to itemize expenditures your monthly committee made by credit card that exceed $10 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If your committee had outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political funds), or obligations that your committee has incurred but not yet paid, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Expense Date: Enter the date your committee made the expenditure by credit card.

Note: There is a special reporting rule for expenditures made by credit card. For reports due 30 days and 8 days before an election (pre-election reports) and for runoff reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is the date the credit card is used. For other reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is either the date of the charge or the date the credit card statement is received. A filer can never go wrong by disclosing the date of the expenditure as the date of the charge. See Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures for more information.

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the credit card expenditure.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this credit card expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F4. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize political expenditures made by credit card that exceed $10

(in the aggregate) to a single payee. You are required to itemize any non-political expenditure made by credit card, regardless of the amount. If your committee made two or more expenditures to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $10, enter each expenditure made by credit card separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Credit Card Expenditures of $10 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F4 political expenditures made by credit card to a single payee that do not exceed $10 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize political expenditures made by credit card of $10 and less on Schedule F4, you must total all such credit card expenditures and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such credit card expenditures here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F4.

You do not report the name of the credit card company on this schedule.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee of the expenditure obligation.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the credit card expenditure is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Note: Do not select "Credit Card Payment" as the category for an expenditure made by credit card when an individual, entity, or vendor receives payment from the credit card company. Instead, select the category that corresponds to the goods, services, or other thing of value purchased from the individual, entity, or vendor.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the committee activity that is conducted by making the credit card expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. If your credit card expenditure was a contribution to a candidate or officeholder, or to another committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

MPAC: Schedule Subtotals

entered on the schedule entry screen (reported itemized and reported unitemized) and any other unitemized total you enter as a lump sum amount here (user entered lump sum unitemized).

You are always required to itemize or report detailed information for contributions, expenditures, and loans over a certain monetary threshold. The thresholds vary depending on the type of activity (see "Itemization Thresholds" below). For smaller contributions, expenditures, and loans that do not exceed the threshold (in the aggregate from a single source), you may report them in one of two ways: 1) add them all together and enter the unitemized total as a lump sum; OR 2) enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen (and choose to itemize or not).

Note: If your committee qualifies and chooses to use the \$20 itemization threshold for contributions disclosed in this report, you must check the Higher Contribution Itemization Threshold box on the Cover Sheet page.

Itemized transactions: You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen AND the "itemize" box is checked. The filing application calculates the sum of the entries for each schedule and the amount is displayed in the Reported Itemized column for the applicable schedule.

Unitemized transactions: Depending on your choice of entry, your unitemized transactions are shown under one of the following columns:

Reported Unitemized – You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen and the "itemize" box is NOT checked. The transaction will remain unitemized, unless you manually check the "itemize" box or you enter additional transactions from/to the same source which cause the aggregate total to exceed the itemization threshold.

User Entered Lump Sum Unitemized – You chose not to enter the detailed information, but rather to enter the total of all your unitemized transactions as a lump sum for the applicable schedule. You must manually enter the lump sum total. DO NOT INCLUDE in a lump sum total any transactions for which you chose to enter detailed information.

Itemization Thresholds for Each Schedule: To return to the instructions for each schedule, click on the applicable link.

Monetary Political Contributions (A1) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $10 or less (or \$20 or

Interest, Credits, Gains, Refunds, and Contributions Returned to Filer (K) –

You are not required to itemize any credit, gain, refund, or interest (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less, other than contributions returned to your committee. You must itemize all returned contributions, regardless of the amount. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

Pledged Contributions (B) - You are not required to itemize pledges (in the aggregate from a single source) of $10 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Non-monetary (in-kind) Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C2) – This schedule is only for political committees that support or oppose measures exclusively. There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all non-monetary contributions from a corporation or labor organization.

If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all non-political expenditures made by credit card, regardless of the amount.

You are required to include in your committee's campaign finance report the following total amounts of contributions, expenditures, and loans:

1. Total Unitemized Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized contribution amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2) for:

Reported Unitemized (contributions of $10 or less (or \$20 or less if committee qualifies) in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (contributions of $10 or less (or \$20 or less if committee qualifies) in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

Note: If your committee qualifies and chooses to use the \$20 itemization threshold for contributions disclosed in this report, you must check the Higher Contribution Itemization Threshold box on the Cover Sheet page.

2. Total Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political contributions you accepted in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 1 (total unitemized contributions of $10 or less or \$20 or less if committee qualifies) plus the total Reported Itemized (contributions which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1), Monetary Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C1), Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2), Non-monetary (In-kind) Contributions from Corporation or Labor Organization (C2), Monetary Support from Corporation or Labor Organization (C3), and Non-monetary Support from Corporation or Labor Organization (C4).

3. Total Unitemized Political Expenditures of $10 or less: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized political expenditure amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), and Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4) for:

Reported Unitemized (expenditures of $10 or less in the aggregate to a payee for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (expenditures of $10 or less in the aggregate to a payee which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

4. Total Political Expenditures: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political expenditures you made in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 3 (total unitemized political expenditures of $10 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (expenditures which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), and Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4).

5. Total Political Contributions Maintained as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the total amount of political contributions, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if your committee does not maintain political contributions, including interest or other income earned on those contributions, as of the last day of the reporting period. (This is different from the total contributions reported on Line 2. Only contributions accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Line 2.)

The law requires you to disclose the total amount of political contributions accepted, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained in one or more accounts in which political contributions are deposited as of the last day of the reporting period.

The "total amount of political contributions maintained" includes: the total amount of political contributions maintained in one or more accounts, including the balance on deposit in banks, savings and loan institutions and other depository institutions; the present value of any investments that can be readily converted to cash, such as certificates of deposit, money market accounts, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, etc.; and the balance of political contributions accepted and held in any online fundraising account over which the filer can exercise control by making a withdrawal, expenditure, or transfer.

6. Total Principal Amount of all Outstanding Loans as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all loans accepted for political purposes as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if your committee did not accept any loans during the period covered and has no outstanding loans as of the last day of the reporting period. The "total outstanding loans" must include outstanding principal of loans made in this reporting period as well as outstanding principal of loans made previously. (This is different from the information reported on Loans (Schedule E). Only loans accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Schedule E.)

7. Total Unitemized Pledges: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: A printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule B and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized pledge amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Pledged Contributions (B) for:

Reported Unitemized (pledges of $10 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (pledges of $10 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

8. Total Unitemized Loans: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: A printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule E and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized loan amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Loans (E) for:

Reported Unitemized (loans of $10 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (loans of $10 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

MPAC: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering the amount of total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the reporting period under Report Totals). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a contributor or payee). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE: If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (contribution, loan, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

MPAC: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides check boxes for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report. You may also use this area to request a waiver or reduction of a late-filing penalty for this correction, if any, and state the basis of your request.

Sworn Statement Check Boxes: Check the box next to the statement, if applicable.

For Any Corrected Report: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

A corrected monthly report filed with the COA-EFS after its due date is not considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties if the report meets this "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction (contribution, loan, expenditure, etc.) that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted to help you identify the transaction.

MPAC: Dissolution Report Affidavit

You must file a Dissolution report in order to dissolve the committee. Your committee may file a Dissolution report if your committee expects to have no further reportable activity. There is not a fixed deadline for this report. A Dissolution report terminates the appointment of campaign treasurer (Form GTA) and relieves the campaign treasurer of the duty to file additional reports. (In this case, the Dissolution report serves as the treasurer's termination report.) A Dissolution report does not relieve the campaign treasurer of his or her responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties. Remember: A political committee may not make or authorize political expenditures or accept political contributions without having a campaign treasurer appointment (GTA) on file.

Dissolution Report Affidavit: This page includes the Dissolution report affidavit language. You must agree to and acknowledge the affidavit to indicate that you understand the consequences of filing a Dissolution report. To do so, select the radio button next to the statement, "I agree to and acknowledge the above affidavit."

If your committee intends to have additional campaign activity and is not ready to file a Dissolution report, select the radio button next to the statement, "I do not agree to the above affidavit." You will have some options as to how you wish to continue:

Continue Working on a Different Report Type: (This option is only available if you started the Dissolution report in combination with another report type.) Selecting this option will return you to the "Cover Sheet" screen. From here, you can select "Clear This Report?" if you do not wish to file a Dissolution report at this time.

Go Back to My Reports Page: Selecting this option will return you to the “Manage My Reports” screen without creating the Dissolution report. From here, you can continue working on an in-progress report or start a new report.

Return to Dissolution Report Affidavit: Selecting this option will return you to the Dissolution Report Affidavit screen. From here, you can choose to agree to the Dissolution report affidavit in order to continue with the Dissolution report.

MPAC: Appendix

Change Of Status

A change in political activity may mean that a political committee has changed from a specific-purpose political committee (SPAC) to a general-purpose political committee (GPAC/MPAC) or vice versa. If this happens, the committee is subject to new filing requirements.

SPAC becoming a GPAC/MPAC. If an SPAC engages in activities that make the committee a GPAC/MPAC, the committee must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form GTA) with the City of Austin before it may accept more than $500 in total political contributions or make more than $500 in total political expenditures as a GPAC/MPAC. On Form GTA, the committee may choose whether to file according to the regular filing schedule (filer type GPAC) or monthly filing schedule (filer type MPAC).

In addition to filing Form GTA with the City of Austin, the campaign treasurer of the new GPAC/MPAC must give notice of the change in status to the filing authority with whom the committee filed reports as an SPAC. This notice is due no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file as an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as a GPAC/MPAC and that those reports will be filed with the City of Austin.

GPAC/MPAC becoming an SPAC. A GPAC or MPAC that chooses to limit its activities to the activities of an SPAC must file a new campaign treasurer appointment (on Form STA) with the appropriate filing authority. See "Where to File an Appointment of Campaign Treasurer" in the PAC guide. Further, the new SPAC may not make expenditures in an election supporting or opposing a candidate for a statewide office, the State Legislature, the State Board of Education, a multi-county district office, or a judicial district office unless it has had its appointment of campaign treasurer as an SPAC on file for at least 30 days before the election.

In addition to filing a new Form STA with the appropriate filing authority, the campaign treasurer of the new SPAC must give notice to the City of Austin of the change in status. This notice must be given to the City of Austin no later than the due date for the next report the committee would have had to file with the City of Austin if the committee had not become an SPAC. The notice must state that the committee will file future reports as an SPAC and must identify the filing authority with which those reports will be filed.

Alternative Reporting Requirement for Some Committees

For a report due on or after September 1, 2005, a general-purpose committee filing monthly with less than $20,000 in total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the preceding reporting period may choose to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $20 (instead of $10) from one person during the reporting period. If your committee qualifies for the higher itemization threshold, you may select it by checking the box on the Cover Sheet page of the report.

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

You can never go wrong by disclosing the date the credit card was charged as the expenditure date. For 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports, the expenditure date is the date of the credit card charge, not the date of the credit card bill. For all other reports, the expenditure date may be either the date of the charge or the date of receipt of the credit card bill that includes the expenditure.

If you make an expenditure for goods or services to benefit another candidate, officeholder, or committee, disclose the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of the candidate, officeholder, or committee that benefitted from the expenditure. Include that person's name under the purpose description.

Did a staff worker make political payment(s) out of his or her personal funds? How you disclose the payment(s) depends on two things: 1) the aggregate total of those payments in the reporting period; and 2) whether or not you reimburse the staff worker in the same reporting period.

Staff Reimbursement Examples:

Case #1: The payment out of the staff worker's personal funds does not exceed $5,000 in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will simply itemize the payment (if over the $100 itemization threshold) on Schedule F1 as if you made the expenditure directly to the vendor out of your political funds, with the name of the vendor who sold the goods or services as the payee for the expenditure. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker.

Case #2: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds are over $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing everything on the same report: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) On Schedule F1, disclose the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Case #3: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds do not exceed $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period BUT you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in a different reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing steps 1 and 2 on the same report and step 3 later, when the reimbursement occurs: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) When you reimburse your staff worker, if ever, disclose on Schedule F1 of the report covering the period in which the reimbursement occurs the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Examples Of Expenditures

This list is for illustrative purposes only. It is intended to provide helpful information and to assist filers in reporting the purpose of an expenditure. However, it is not, and is not intended to be, an exhaustive or an exclusive list of how a filer may permissibly report the purpose of an expenditure.

- (1) Example: Candidate X is seeking the office of State Representative, District 2000. She purchases an airline ticket from ABC Airlines to attend a campaign rally within District 2000. The acceptable category for this expenditure is “travel in district.” The candidate activity that is accomplished by making the expenditure is to attend a campaign rally. An acceptable brief statement is “airline ticket to attend campaign event.”
- (2) Example: Candidate X purchases an airline ticket to attend a campaign event outside of District 2000 but within Texas, the acceptable category is “travel out of district.” The candidate activity that is accomplished by making the expenditure is to attend a campaign event. An acceptable brief statement is “airline ticket to attend campaign or officeholder event.”
- (3) Example: Candidate X purchases an airline ticket to attend an officeholder related seminar outside of Texas. The acceptable category is “transportation equipment and related expenses” and an acceptable brief description is “purchase of campaign/officeholder vehicle.”

Incurred Expenditure Obligations

The date of an expenditure is not necessarily the date that goods or services are received. It is the date on which you incur the obligation to make a payment, as long as the amount of the payment is "readily determinable." Generally, you know the amount of an expenditure (and therefore it is readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases you may not know the amount until the receipt of a periodic bill. An amount is readily determinable if the vendor can provide the amount at your request.

Example 1: On June 29th, a committee orders political signs. On July 16th, the committee receives the invoice for the signs. The date of the expenditure is June 29th, if on that date the vendor can provide the amount the committee will owe the vendor for the signs. Filers should request a vendor to provide the amount of an obligation at the time the obligation is incurred and disclose that unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the August 5 monthly report covering the period (June 26 through July 25) in which the unpaid obligation is incurred. (Note: When the committee makes the payment, the committee will disclose it as an outgoing payment on Schedule F1 in the report covering the period in which it pays the expenditure.)

Example 2: A committee maintains a political office. The committee does not know the cost of the office's June utilities until it receives the periodic monthly bill on July 16th. The filer will not disclose the expense as an unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the August 5 monthly report, since the amount was not readily determinable until after the end of the reporting period.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card

Beginning on September 1, 2015, all expenditures made by credit card must be reported on a new schedule: "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). This requirement applies to filers of electronic and paper campaign finance reports, including candidates, officeholders, political committees, political parties, and direct campaign expenditure filers.

When a credit card is used to make a reportable expenditure, the expenditure must be reported on the new schedule by identifying the name and address of the vendor who sold the goods or services, NOT the credit card company that issued the credit card. The date, amount, and purpose of the expenditure must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Once the credit card bill is paid, the payment must also be reported using the appropriate existing disbursement schedule (e.g., Schedule F1, Schedule G, Schedule H, or Schedule I) by identifying the credit card company that receives the payment. The date, amount, and purpose of the payment must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Please see the following examples of reporting expenditures made by credit card:

Example 1: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses her credit card to buy $1,000 in campaign office supplies from an office store. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from her political contributions account to pay the $1,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the office store as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Office Overhead/Rental Expense,” and a description as “Campaign Office Supplies.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for campaign office supplies.”
- Both $1,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 2: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Personal Funds to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses his credit card to purchase $3,000 in political advertising materials from a print shop. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from his personal funds account to pay the $3,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which he made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the print shop as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising Materials.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures Made from Personal Funds” Schedule (G). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising materials.” If the candidate intends to seek reimbursement from political contributions, the candidate may also check the appropriate box in Section 6.
- Both $3,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 3: Political Committee Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A general-purpose committee uses its credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The committee receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the committee sends a payment to the credit card company, it makes a $500 payment from its political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the committee’s campaign treasurer would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the committee’s campaign treasurer would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the payment to the credit card company:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”
- The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 4: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A candidate for judicial office uses her credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The candidate receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the candidate sends a payment to the credit card company, she makes a $500 payment from her political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the candidate would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which the payment to the credit card company was made:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”

The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

MPAC: Glossary

A

Accepting a Contribution: A committee must report contributions that the committee has accepted. Receipt is different from acceptance. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received.

Failure to make a determination about acceptance or refusal: If you fail to make a determination to accept or refuse a contribution by the end of the reporting period, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

Returning refused contributions: If you receive a political contribution but do not accept it, you must return the contribution not later than the 30th day after the end of the reporting period in which the contribution was received. If you fail to do so, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

(1) corporations that are organized under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas For-Profit Corporation Law, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law, federal law, or law of another state or nation; or

(2) the following associations, whether incorporated or not: banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, government-regulated cooperatives, stock companies, and abstract and title insurance companies.

D

Direct Campaign Expenditure: A "direct campaign expenditure" to benefit a candidate is not a "political contribution" to that candidate. A direct campaign expenditure is a campaign expenditure made on someone else's behalf and without the prior consent or approval of that person. This is in contrast to a political contribution, which the person has the opportunity to accept or reject.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

E

Financial Institution: A corporation that has been legally engaged in the business of making loans for more than one year.

Full Name of the Contributor: Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Even if you do not itemize a contribution, you must maintain a record of all the information related to a contribution for two years after the deadline for filing the report. You must also identify the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.

Non-Monetary Support: Support provided by a corporation or labor organization through the use of goods or services to either establish or administer your committee, or solicit contributions to your committee from the employees, stockholders, or members of the corporation or labor organization and their families. Examples of non-monetary support include:

- The use of corporate or labor organization office space
- The use of a corporate or labor organization mailing list
- The use of any other corporate or labor organization asset

Non-Political Expenditure: An expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures. Examples of non-political expenditures:

- Charitable donation, if you receive no benefit in return
- A political committee uses political contributions to pay a lobbyist to work on legislative matters

O

Officeholder Expenditure: A payment or agreement to pay certain expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, if the expenses are not reimbursable with public money.

Austin Texas Officeholder Living Expense: refers to payments made to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of duties or activities as a public officeholder, including payment of rent, utility, and other reasonable housing or household expenses incurred in maintaining a residence in Travis County by members of the legislature who do not ordinarily reside in Travis County. Examples include:

- Rent for Austin apartment
- Phone line and internet access for Austin apartment
- Installation expense of security system at officeholder apartment

Pledge: a promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other things of value. A pledge is not a reportable contribution, unless it is accepted.

Political Contribution: Any transfer of or promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other thing of value, including a loan, that is given to a committee with the intent that it be used either:

- (1) in connection with a campaign for elective office or a measure to be submitted to the voters; or
- (2) to defray expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, provided that the expenditures are not reimbursable from public money

A donation of money to a political committee at a fundraiser is a monetary contribution.

A contribution of goods or services is a non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Examples of non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are:

- Donation of office space
- Donation of an item to be auctioned at a fundraiser
- Donation of a mailing list
- Donation of material and labor for printing campaign signs

A political contribution in the form of a pledge must be reported on the appropriate schedule. For example, a promise to give you money after the election to pay debts incurred in connection with the election is a pledge.

A loan from an incorporated financial institution that has been in business for more than a year is not considered to be a contribution, but you must report any such loans taken out for campaign or officeholder purposes on the appropriate schedule.

TEMA: Nuevo: Sistema E-Filing de la Ciudad de Austin para Reportar Finanzas de Campañas

De acuerdo con el Código de la Ciudad, candidatos, oficiales en puestos electos, comités políticos, entidades, o personas que por requisito del Código de la Ciudad o de ley estatal deberán archivar un informe financiero de campaña con la Secretaria de la Ciudad, deberán además del informe requerido, también proveer a la Secretaria de la Ciudad un archivo de datos estructurados con el contenido del informe financiero de campaña. Usted está recibiendo este mensaje porque usted o está actualmente archivando informes financieros de campaña con nuestra oficina o aún tiene archivado un formulario de tesorero de campaña “activo”.

Principiando con el Informe C/OH del 15 de julio, 2020, todo informe y datos asociados serán sometidos a la Secretaria de la Ciudad mediante el Sistema E-Filing electrónico de la Ciudad situado en <https://austintexas.ethicsefile.com/EthFile/>. Del 1 de julio, 2020 en adelante, la oficina de la Secretaria de la Ciudad no aceptará copias impresas de los informes, ni de los archivos de datos pertinentes.

Si usted piensa que ya no tendrá más actividades que reportar, el tesorero de campaña podrá archivar un informe de disolución que exime al tesorero de la campaña del requisito de archivar informes adicionales. Información pertinente a la disolución de campañas está disponible en <https://www.ethics.state.tx.us/forms/coh/cohfrm.php>. Antes del 1 de julio, 2020, informes de disolución se pueden archivar en copias impresas junto con el archivo de datos pertinente. Después del 1 de julio, todos los informes incluyendo informes de disolución deberán archivar en formato electrónico.

Hemos adjuntado un folleto informativo tocante el Sistema de Archivar Electrónico, instrucciones para solicitar cuenta y fechas de sesiones próximas de capacitación.

Si usted tiene alguna pregunta, puede hacerla a la Oficina de la Secretaria de la Ciudad por email a efiling@austintexas.gov o llamando al 512-974-2210.

INSTRUCCIONES PARA ARCHIVAR UNA PETICIÓN EN VEZ DE PAGAR LA CUOTA PARA APUNTAR SU NOMBRE EN LA BOLETA

El Artículo III, Sección 4 de la Carta de la Ciudad requiere una cuota de $500.00 para archivar la candidatura. La Sección 143.005 (c) del Código Electoral de Texas requiere que la ciudad provee a candidatos una alternativa a la cuota de archivar su candidatura. Por lo tanto, en vez de la cuota para archivar la candidatura, la Ciudad de Austin provee que un candidato podría archivar su solicitud para ser apuntado en la boleta junto con una petición. La petición deberá tener el número apropiado de firmas válidas [vea abajo]. Para los distritos concejales, cada firma válida tendría que ser de un votante calificado dentro del distrito en particular. El número requerido de firmas válidas se determina por referencia en la Sección 143.005(d)(2) del Código Electoral de Texas.

Abajo sigue la lista del número de firmas que se requieren para la Elección del 3 de noviembre, 2020:

Distrito 2:	96 firmas
Distrito 4:	60 firmas
Distrito 6:	137 firmas
Distrito 7:	180 firmas
Distrito 10:	195 firmas

La Sección 141.066 del Código Electoral de Texas declara:

- Se prohíbe firmar más de una petición.
- El siguiente desplegado debe aparecer al encabezado de cada página de la petición:
"Firmar la petición de más de un candidato para el mismo puesto oficial en la misma elección es prohibido."
- La firma de la persona en la petición de un candidato queda invalidada si el firmante firmó la petición después de haber firmado la petición de otro candidato para el mismo puesto oficial en la misma elección.

Completar la Petición

- Fecha en que él/ella firma la petición
- Firma de la persona
- Nombre en letra de molde (impreso) del firmante.
- Dirección incluyendo el número de la residencia, la calle, la ciudad, el estado y código postal. Se pueden usar comillas [“ ”] si la ciudad es la misma indicada en la línea antecedente. El nombre de la ciudad deberá ser escrito al menos en la primera línea de la firma.
- El Condado (Hays, Travis o Williamson).
- El número de registro del votante.
- La fecha de nacimiento.

(Ya sea el número de registro de votante o la fecha de nacimiento se deberán proveer. Se recomienda que los dos se incluyan para asegurar que se verifique la firma correcta.)

4. En la parte baja del formulario, va la Constancia de la Persona que Circula la Petición (Affidavit of Circulator) y se debe completar, y certificar por un Notario. La Constancia de la Persona que Circula la Petición (Affidavit of Circulator) deberá adjuntarse a las páginas de la petición circuladas por dicho individuo. Esta sección se deberá completar por cada persona que circula la petición. Si la persona que circula va a entregar múltiples páginas de firmas, entonces se acepta una sola constancia para todas las páginas siempre y cuando las firmas hayan sido colectadas antes de la fecha de la constancia notariada.

Verificación de las firmas

Al recibir la petición, la Oficina de la Secretaria de la Ciudad verificará las firmas para asegurar que las firmas son válidas y que la petición cumple con las leyes. Si el número de firmas válidas es igual o más del número que la Ley Estatal requiere, se declara válida la petición. Si el número de firmas válidas es menos del número que la Ley Estatal requiere, se declara inválida la petición. Se recomienda que se colecten más firmas del número requerido para asegurar la validez de la petición. Cuando se haya completado el proceso de validación, el/la candidata/a será notificado de los resultados.

Si la petición se declara ser inválida y no ha pasado la fecha límite para que el/la candidato/a archive la solicitud para ser incluido en la boleta, se puede archivar otra solicitud junto con la cantidad de $500.00 para pagar la cuota de archivar o se puede someter una petición nueva.

Also provide the amount of the expenditures on transportation, meals, or lodging. You are not required to include items you have already reported as political contributions on a campaign finance report, or expenditures required to be reported by a lobbyist under the lobby law (chapter 305 of the Government Code). The prohibition does not apply if: (1) the representation is pursuant to an attorney/client relationship in a criminal law matter; (2) the representation involves the filing of documents that involve only ministerial acts on the part of the agency; or (3) the representation is in regard to a matter for which the legislator was hired before September 1, 2003.

PFS: Deadline Extension Request

If your PFS report is due on the regular annual April 30th filing deadline, you may request a 60 calendar day extension to this filing deadline. You can request this extension beginning March 1st through midnight Central Time on the night of the April 30th annual filing deadline. Note: If April 30th falls on a weekend or holiday, the annual filing deadline is automatically extended to the next business day.

Extensions are not allowed for PFS reports due on any alternate deadlines.

If you have not yet filed your PFS report, when you log into the PFS filing application from March 1st through the April 30th annual filing deadline, you will see an Apply for Extension button on your "Manage My Reports" page.

To apply for the filing deadline extension, click on the Apply for Extension button. If you qualify for the extension, your request will be automatically granted. You will see a message on your screen stating "Your PFS extension request has been approved. Your PFS report covering calendar year 2015 is due July 1, 2016." You will receive an email notification to your primary email address on file confirming that your extension has been granted.

After your PFS filing deadline extension request has been granted, you will no longer see the Apply for Extension button on your "Manage My Reports" page. However, you will continue to see the "Your PFS extension request has been approved. Your PFS report covering calendar year 2015 is due July 1, 2016." statement at the top of your "Manage My Reports" page to remind you of the new filing deadline.

If you are not eligible for the extension and you click on the Apply for Extension button, you will see a message on your screen stating "No filer event found. Extension cannot be granted at this time".

For more information on the PFS filing deadline extension, see the Helpful Hints for Filing Your Personal Financial Statement brochure.

PFS: Cover Sheet – Calendar Year & Reason for Filing

This page is designed to help you fill in the required cover sheet information. For information regarding who is required to file a PFS, the period covered, filing deadlines, and other general information see the General Instructions in the Appendix.

Period Covered: In most cases, the personal financial statement covers activity for the entire calendar year preceding the year the statement is due. For example, a personal financial statement due in 2005 covers activity occurring between and including January 1 and December 31, 2004.

New Appointees: An appointed city official, appointee filling a vacancy in elective office, or the department executive head must file a PFS during the first year of his or her appointment. For these newly appointed officials, the period covered by the first required personal financial statement is determined by the date the official is appointed to the office. A new appointee's first personal financial statement covers the entire calendar year preceding the year of appointment rather than preceding the year the statement is due. For example, a person appointed city official effective December 15, 2008, is required to file a personal financial statement due January 14, 2009. This personal financial statement covers activity occurring between and including January 1 and December 31, 2007. The PFS will cover activity for the entire calendar year preceding the year the statement is due.

Select Year: Select the year for filing the PFS from the dropdown menu.

Reason for Filing: Select the appropriate reason for filing the PFS from the dropdown menu and enter the corresponding office title.

If you are unsure whether you are required to file a PFS, please see the appendix for Personal Financial Statement Frequently Asked Questions and the General Instructions.

Candidate: If you are a candidate for an elected office, check this title and indicate which office you seek. Identify the office completely, including the district or place name, if applicable.

Elected Official: If you are an elected officeholder, select this title and indicate which office you hold. Identify the office completely, including the district or place name, if applicable.

Example: Frank is running for council office district 2. He should select "Candidate" and write "Council Member, District 2" to indicate the office he seeks. Jane is the judge for Austin Municipal Court. She will select "Elected Official" and write "Judge, Austin Municipal Court."

Executive Head: If you are the executive head of a city department, select this title and indicate the department.

PFS: Family Members

Names of Family Members Whose Financial Activity You Are Reporting: In Parts 1 through 18, you will disclose information about your financial activity during the preceding calendar year. In Parts 1 through 12, and 14, you are required to disclose not only your own financial activity, but also that of your spouse or a dependent child in which you have an ownership interest (e.g., community property). You are also required to disclose the separate financial activity (e.g., separate property) of your spouse or a dependent child if you had actual control over that financial activity, notwithstanding a partition agreement. See Texas Ethics Commission Rule § 40.2.

Note: If you have no financial activity to report for a dependent child, do not enter that child's name into this report.

Family Members List: Click the Add button to enter information about a family member for whom you will be reporting financial activity. After you enter and save your first family member, the application will begin a list of all family members on this section of the report. The list will display columns showing each family member:

Name	Relation	Action
Sam Spouse	SPOUSE	Edit Delete
John Doe	DEPENDENT	Edit Delete
Add Done with Family Members

The family members list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this section. From this list you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered family member. To enter a new family member, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding an entry.

Note: If you have no financial activity to report for a dependent child, do not enter that child's name into this report.

Spouse or Dependent Child? Indicate whether the family member is your spouse or a dependent child.

Dependent Child. If you are reporting any financial activity for a dependent child on this financial statement, enter the child's full name here. If you are reporting information about more than one dependent child, please list the children separately on the appropriate lines. A child (including an adopted child or a step-child) is considered a dependent if you provided more than 50 percent of the child's support during a calendar year.

PFS: Worksheet Summary

Worksheet Summary is a new page in the filing application designed to help you keep track of the parts required for this report and the activity you enter. If you indicated by answering "Yes" on the previous Walk Thru screen that you have activity to report, those parts/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Part: This column displays all categories of financial activity and the designated number of each part/category you may possibly need for this report. (For example, the name of the first category is Sources of Occupational Income and the designated number for that schedule is PART 1.) If you indicated on a previous screen that you have activity to report for a certain part/category, those parts/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Number of Entries: This column keeps a running tally and displays the number of entries you have entered and saved for a particular part/category.

Action: To begin entering activity for a particular part/category, click on "Start" in this column. After you have saved your first transaction, the link that you can click changes from "Start" to "Continue" in this column.

PFS: Part 1A Sources of Occupational Income

Complete this part for each source of occupational income. Occupational income refers to income derived from current occupational activity rather than income received as a pension or from a retirement plan associated with past occupational activity. Information about retirement funds or income may be reportable under some other category. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 392.

Sources of Occupational Income List: After you enter and save your first occupation, the filing application will begin a list of all employers entered on Part 1A for this report. The list will display columns showing each employer:

Family Members	Employer	Action
• Spouse, Sam(SPOUSE)	ABC Corp	<input type="button" value="Edit"/> <input type="button" value="Delete"/>

The sources of occupational income list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this part. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered employer or occupation. To enter new employers or occupations, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding occupation(s) entered on this part.

To whom does the information relate? Indicate whether the source of income relates to you, your spouse, or a dependent child. Note: You can only enter occupation information for one person at a time.

Self Employed? If the individual is self employed, check the box and provide the nature of the occupation, e.g., attorney, carpenter, etc.

Name of Employer: If the individual is employed by another, provide the name and address of the employer and the position held.

Street Address: Enter the street address of the employer. If you are listing your home address here, please indicate this by placing a check in the box provided.

Position Held: If the individual is employed by another, provide the position held during the period covered by the report.

PFS: Part 1B Retainers

Part 1B Retainers asks for information about fees received by you, your spouse, or a dependent child, or received by a business in which you, your spouse, or a dependent child have a "substantial interest," as a retainer for a claim on future services in case of need, rather than fees for services on a matter specified at the time of contracting for or receiving the fee. Report such retainers only in cases in which the value of the amount of work actually performed during the calendar year did not equal or exceed the value of the retainer.

Example: Last year you received a retainer for $15,000 for consulting services in case of need. You ended up providing $5,000 worth of services during the calendar year. You should report the entire $15,000 retainer on this year's financial statement, which covers last year's activity.

Substantial Interest. An individual has a substantial interest in a business entity if the individual:

- (1) has a controlling interest in the business entity;
- (2) owns more than 10 percent of the voting interest in the business entity;
- (3) owns more than $25,000 of the fair market value of the business entity;
- (4) has a direct or indirect participating interest by shares, stocks, or otherwise, regardless of whether voting rights are included, in more than 10 percent of the profits, proceeds, or capital gains of the business entity;
- (5) is a member of the board of trustees or other governing board of the business entity;
- (6) serves as an elected official of the business entity; or
- (7) is an employee of the business entity.

Disclosing Confidential Information. City officials who are physicians are not required to include on their financial disclosure reports a patient's identity because that information is made confidential by the Medical Practices Act. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 21. The commission has declined to extend this exception to accountants who would be reporting information regulated by the Public Accountancy Act. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 22 (Public Accountancy Act does not make a client's identity confidential and therefore does not conflict with financial disclosure requirements). The commission has also indicated that this exception would not be extended to attorneys in cases where disclosing a client's identity would not reveal a confidential communication. See id.

Retainers List: After you enter and save your first retainer, the filing application will begin a list of all retainers entered on Part 1B for this report. The list will display columns showing each person providing a retainer:

Family Members	Retainer Name ↕	Retainer Amount ↕	Action
• Sam Spouse(SPOUSE)	Carlos, Client	$5,000 - $9,999	Edit Delete
(1 of 1) < << 1 >> > 5 ▼
 Add Memo Done with Retainers

The retainers list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this part. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered retainer. To enter new retainers, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding any retainer entered on this part.

To whom does the information relate? Indicate whether the retainer was received by you, your spouse, or a dependent child. Note: You can only enter information for one person at a time.

Retainer Received from Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the retainer was received from an individual or an entity and provide the full name and address of the individual or entity from whom the retainer fee was received.

Name of business receiving retainer (if applicable): If the retainer was received by a business in which you, your spouse, or a dependent child has a “substantial interest,” provide the name of the business.

Amount of Retainer: Check the appropriate fee category for the amount received.

PFS: Part 2 Stock

Part 2 Stock is for information about business entities in which you, your spouse, or a dependent child held or acquired stock. If stocks are held in a managed investment account for which the filer does not make investment decisions but where the filer retains ownership of the individual stocks in the account, the filer is still required to disclose the individual stocks held in the account. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 326. However, if the stocks are held in a fund, of which the filer owns shares of the fund, the filer is required to report only the ownership of the fund (see Part 4, Mutual Funds). Id.

Stocks List: After you enter and save your first stock, the filing application will begin a list of all stocks entered on Part 2 for this report. The list will display columns showing each stock:

Family Members	Stock	Action
• Spouse, Sam(SPOUSE)	ABC Corp.	<input type="button" value="Edit"/> <input type="button" value="Delete"/>

(1 of 1)

The stocks list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this part. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered stock. To enter new stocks, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding stock(s) entered on this part.

Who held/acquired the stock? Indicate whether the stock was held or acquired by you, your spouse, or a dependent child.

Name of Business Entity Stock that was held or acquired: Enter the full name of the business entity in which the stock was held or acquired.

Number of Shares: If the number of shares held or acquired fluctuated during the year, indicate the category for the greatest number of shares held or acquired during the year.

Were Stocks Sold? Complete this section if any of the indicated stock was sold during the year. Check whether the sale resulted in a net gain or a net loss and indicate the amount of the net gain or net loss by checking the appropriate monetary category. If you had several transactions involving stock of a particular entity, indicate the net gain or net loss resulting from those transactions for the year. You do not have to show the net gain or net loss from each sale of stock in the same business entity.

PFS: Part 3 Bonds, Notes, and Other Commercial Paper

If you received a fee for providing services to or on behalf of a person required to be registered as a lobbyist under chapter 305, Government Code, or for providing services to or on behalf of a

See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 252. You are not required to disclose fees received from a business entity by which you are employed unless the business entity is merely an alter ego of the city official. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 333.

You "actually" know that someone directly compensates or reimburses a person required to be registered as a lobbyist if you personally know that the person does so or you could readily determine that fact by contacting the person or the Texas Ethics Commission. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 333 (1996).

Disclosing Confidential Information. City officials who are physicians are not required to include on their financial disclosure reports a patient's identity because that information is made confidential by the Medical Practices Act. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 21. The commission has declined to extend this exception to accountants who would be reporting information regulated by the Public Accountancy Act. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 22 (Public Accountancy Act does not make a client's identity confidential and therefore does not conflict with financial disclosure requirements). The commission has also indicated that this exception would not be extended to attorneys in cases where disclosing a client's identity would not reveal a confidential communication. See id.

PFS: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not uploading the Trustee Statement for a Blind Trust). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a business association). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE: If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (retainer information, blind trust, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

PFS: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides a check box for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report. You may also use this area to request a waiver or reduction of a late-filing penalty for this correction, if any, and state the basis of your request.

Sworn Statement Check Box: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted.

PFS: Appendix

General Instructions

Every year, appointed officers and executive heads of some state agencies, board members and executive heads of river authorities, members of the Texas Legislature, statewide elected officers, justices of a court of appeals, district judges, district or criminal district attorneys must electronically file a personal financial statement (PFS) with the Texas Ethics Commission.

If you have questions about whether you are required to file this form, please visit our website, at <http://austintexas.gov/departments/campaign-finance-reports> . The website also provides access to Chapter 572 of the Government Code, Commission rules, filing schedules, and personal financial statement brochures.

WHO IS REQUIRED TO FILE?

The mayor, city council members, city manager and city attorney are the only city staff that is required to file a PFS statement as required by Texas Government Code Sec. 572.021, Sec. 572.026, Tex. Election Code Sec. 145.004\(a\)-\(c\), and Sec. 1.006.

Other Local Filers. Other local officers, candidates, or even employees may also be required to file a personal financial statement with a local filing authority. Some of those filing authorities may choose to use the Texas Ethics Commission Form PFS. Consult chapter 159 of the Local Government Code for additional information.

Municipalities With Populations of 100,000 or More. The mayor, members of the governing body, the municipal attorney, and the city manager of municipalities with a population of 100,000 or more are required to file personal financial statements with the clerk or secretary of the municipality. The Texas Ethics Commission does not have jurisdiction over this filing requirement. See chapter 145 of the Local Government Code for additional information.

COMPLETING THE FORM

All Personal Financial Statements filed with the COA must be filed electronically.

WHAT NOT TO INCLUDE

Please note that personal financial statements are public records. Do not include unrequired information that is confidential or proprietary, such as your social security number, driver's license number, or copies of your tax returns.

PERIOD COVERED

In most cases, the personal financial statement covers activity for the entire calendar year preceding the year the statement is due. For example, a personal financial statement due in 2005 covers activity occurring between and including January 1 and December 31, 2004.

New Appointees. For a newly appointed officer, the period covered by the first required personal financial statement is determined by the date the officer is appointed to the office. A new appointee's first personal financial statement covers the entire calendar year preceding the year of appointment rather than preceding the year the statement is due. For example, a person appointed to serve on a board effective December 15, 2008, is required to file a personal financial statement due January 14, 2009. This personal financial statement covers activity occurring between and including January 1 and December 31, 2007.

FILING DEADLINES

Annual Statement. The regular filing deadline for the annual personal financial statement is April 30 for non-candidates.

A candidate for an elected office, check this title and indicate which office you seek. Identify the office completely, including the district or place name, if applicable.

Candidate must file Personal Financial Statement with the City Clerk not later than the 20th day after the deadline for filing an application for a place on the ballot. Tex. Local Gov't Code § 145.004(c).

TIMELY FILINGS

A personal financial statement required to be filed with the COA must be filed by midnight Central Time Zone on the last day for filing the report under the law requiring the filing of the report.

EXTENSION OF THE APRIL 30TH DEADLINE

Sec. 145.004 (e) of the Local Government Code states: A municipal officer or a person who is appointed to a municipal office may request the clerk or secretary of the municipality to grant an extension of not more than 60 days for filing the statement. The clerk or secretary shall grant the request if it is received before the filing deadline or if the officer's physical or mental incapacity prevents the officer from filing the statement or requesting an extension before the filing deadline. The clerk or secretary may not grant more than one extension to a person in one year except for good cause shown.

COA-EFS CORRECTION INFORMATION

If you discover after the filing deadline that the personal financial statement you filed was incorrect or incomplete, you must file a corrected financial statement. Correction to electronically filed reports must be using the electronic filing application. See the Correction Affidavit Page Help for further information.

RECORDS RETENTION

The commission recommends that you retain a copy of a filed financial disclosure statement and the supporting documentation for at least two years after the deadline for filing the statement. See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 236.

Personal Financial Statement -- Frequently Asked Questions

See the commission's frequently asked PFS questions on the commission website.

This screen displays a table with the address information currently on file with the City of Austin Electronic Filing System (COA-EFS) for your filer account. If you have filed a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) with the Austin City Clerk's Office, the treasurer's address information currently on file is also displayed. The COA-EFS will use this address information to send you correspondence that cannot be sent by email. Please note: It is important for you to keep this information up to date so that you do not miss any notices regarding your filing requirements.

Any changes you make to your filer or treasurer address(es) in the filing application will also update your information on file with the COA-EFS. C/OH: Cover Sheet – Report Type & Period Covered

What kind of report do you want to file? (Report Type): You can only select one of these report types for this report. If you need to file more than one of these report types, you must file each as a separate report. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with the "Final" or "15 Day After Treasurer Appointment" reports below, if applicable. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for the report type that applies to the event for which you are filing.

January 15th Semiannual Report: All candidates and officeholders who file with the COA-EFS must file a semiannual report by midnight Central Time on the January 15 report due date. Note: Anyone who has a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file must file semiannual reports, even after an election has ended and even if the filer lost the election. To end this semiannual filing requirement, the filer must cease campaign activity and file a Final report. (See "Final Report" below for more information.)

July 15th Semiannual Report: All candidates and officeholders who file with the COA-EFS must file a semiannual report by midnight Central Time on the July 15 report due date. Note: Anyone who has a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file must file semiannual reports, even after an election has ended and even if the filer lost the election. To end this semiannual filing requirement, the filer must cease campaign activity and file a Final report. (See "Final Report" below for more information.)

30th Day Before Election Report: Opposed candidates in an election who did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this pre-election report. If an opposed candidate chose modified reporting, but then exceeded a threshold before the 30th day before the election, the candidate must file this report. (Note: Candidates who are unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) The report is due no later than 30 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

8th Day Before Election Report: Opposed candidates in an election who did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this pre-election report. If an opposed candidate chose modified reporting but then exceeded a threshold before the 8th day before the election, the candidate must file this report. (Note: Candidates who are unopposed in an election are not required to file pre-election reports for that election.) The report is due no later than 8 days before the election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Exceeded $500 Limit Report: Candidates who chose to file under the modified reporting schedule but then, after the 30th day before the election, exceeded $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with the election must file this Exceeded $500 Limit report within 48 hours after exceeding the $500 limit.

Runoff Report: Candidates who are participating in a runoff election and did not choose the modified reporting schedule must file this runoff report. The report is due no later than 8 days before the runoff election and must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time on the report due date.

Less Commonly Filed Reports: These reports are only required if you meet certain criteria. You can select one of the following report types as a stand-alone report or in combination with one of the reports listed above, if applicable. Select the radio button for one of these less commonly filed reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Final Report: You may file a Final report if you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file with the COA-EFS and meet all of the following: 1) do not expect to accept any more campaign contributions or make or authorize any more campaign expenditures, 2) expect to take no further action to get elected to a public office, and 3) do not intend to continue accepting contributions to pay campaign debts. There is not a fixed deadline for this report.

Important Things to Know Before Filing a Final Report:

- You must have a CTA on file to accept contributions to offset campaign debts or to pay campaign debts. If you intend to continue this campaign activity, do not file a final report at this time.
- A final report will terminate your CTA and relieve you from any additional filing obligations as a candidate. If you are an officeholder, you will still be subject to the filing requirements applicable to officeholders. If you are not an officeholder but have surplus political funds or assets, you will be required to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports. (See Unexpended Contributions under "Other Reports" for more information.)
- Terminating a CTA does not relieve you of your responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties.
- A candidate who does not have a CTA on file is still required to file a personal financial statement (PFS) in accordance with chapter 572 of the Government

Code. You can set up a PFS filer type with COA-EFS to file PFS using this filing application, if applicable.

15 Day After Treasurer Appointment Report (For Officeholders Only): An officeholder must file this report if he or she appoints a campaign treasurer after a period of not having a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file. This report is due no later than midnight Central Time on the 15th day after an officeholder files Form CTA with the COA-EFS. It is not required of officeholders who are merely changing their campaign treasurers. Candidates who are not officeholders do not file this report.

Other Reports: These other reports are only required in certain circumstances and cannot be combined with other report types. Read the information concerning each of the report types. Select the radio button for one of these other reports only if the report type applies to the event for which you are filing.

Daily Pre-election Report of Contributions: Daily Pre-election reports are time-sensitive reports due during the period beginning the 9th day before an election and ending at 12 noon on the day before the election. If you are an opposed candidate in an election for statewide office; district office filled by voters of more than one county; judicial district office filled by voters of only one county; State Board of Education; state senator; or state representative, you must file a Daily report each time you accept contribution(s) from a single source that in the aggregate total more than $1,000 during the Daily report period. You may be required to file more than one Daily report during the Daily report period. A Daily report must be received by the COA-EFS no later than midnight Central Time the first business day after the date you accepted the contribution that triggered the reporting requirement. Note: Contributions disclosed on a Daily report must be disclosed again on the next required report. Don't worry; the filing application will automatically copy contributions from any Daily report you file into your next required report.

Legislative Special Session Report: This report is filed after a special legislative session called by the governor. You must file this report ONLY IF you are a statewide or legislative candidate or officeholder who accepted contributions during the period covered by the Special Session report. (Statewide officeholders and members of the legislature may not accept political contributions during a regular legislative session. This restriction does not apply during a special session.) The Special Session report must be filed no later than 30 days after the date of final adjournment and must cover the period beginning on the date the governor signs the proclamation calling the special session and ending on the date of final adjournment of the special session. You are not required to file a separate Special Session report if another report is due no later than the 10th day after the date on which the Special Session report would be due.

If you do not accept any contributions during the period covered by the Special Session report, you are not required to file the report. (This is an exception from the usual requirement that you must file a report even if you have no activity to report.)

A Special Session report is a report of contributions only, not expenditures. Contributions reported on a Special Session report must be reported again on your next regular report. (Don't worry; the filing application will automatically copy contributions from any Special Session report you file into your next required report.) In addition, you must include on your next regular report any expenditures that occurred during the period covered by the Special Session report.

Unexpended Contributions Report-Annual (For Former Candidates and Former Officeholders without a Campaign Treasurer Appointment on File): You must file this report if one of the following descriptions applies to you:

- (1) You filed a final report as a candidate at a time when you were not an officeholder, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you filed the final report; or
- (2) You ceased to be an officeholder at a time when you did not have a campaign treasurer on file, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you ceased to be an officeholder.

If you are a former candidate or officeholder with unexpended funds or assets, you must file an annual Unexpended Contributions report by midnight Central Time on January 15 following each year in which you maintained unexpended contributions or assets. You must continue to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports until you have disposed of all your unexpended contributions or assets. (See "Unexpended Contributions Report-Final" below for more information about the report of final disposition.) Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Unexpended Contributions Report-Final (For Former Candidates and Former Officeholders without a Campaign Treasurer Appointment on File): You must file Unexpended Contribution reports if one of the following descriptions applies to you:

- (1) You filed a final report as a candidate at a time when you were not an officeholder, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you filed the final report; or
- (2) You ceased to be an officeholder at a time when you did not have a campaign treasurer on file, and you had unexpended political contributions, interest, assets, or other money earned from political contributions at the time you ceased to be an officeholder.

(See "Unexpended Contributions Report-Annual" above for more information about the annual reports.) Once you have disposed of all your political contributions or assets, you will file an "Unexpended Contributions-Final" report. You may not retain unexpended contributions or assets longer than 6 years after the date you filed your final report or ceased being an officeholder, as applicable. The latest possible date for filing a "final disposition" report of unexpended contributions is 30 days after the end of that six-year period. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Period Covered: The filing application will calculate the period covered for your report based on the report type you select. You can modify the start and end dates as long as your modified start date does not precede the filing application calculated start date and your modified end date does not extend past the filing application calculated end date. If you need to report activity outside of the filing application calculated date range for this report, you will need to file multiple reports.

A reporting period includes the Start date and the End date. The report due date will be after the end of the period. Generally, a report picks up where the last report left off and there should be no gaps or overlapping periods. The exceptions are Daily Pre-election reports and Special Session reports, which do create overlaps because you are required to report the activity twice.

First Reports. If this is the first campaign finance report that you have filed, the start date will depend on the date your campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) was filed or the date you took office.

- If you are a candidate (an individual who has filed a Form CTA) and you are filing your first report, the start date will be the date your Form CTA was filed.
- If you are an officeholder who was appointed to an elective office and who did not have a Form CTA on file at the time of the appointment, the beginning date for your first report will be the date you took office.

January 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is July 1 of the previous year or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is December 31 of the previous year.

July 15th Semiannual Report Period: The start date is January 1 or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The ending date is June 30.

30th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 40th day before the election. (This report is not required for unopposed candidates or candidates who are filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

8th Day Before Election Report Period: The start date is the 39th day before the election if you were required to file a 30th Day Before Election Report. If you were not required to file the 30th Day Before Election Report, the start date is the day after the last day covered by your last required report. If this is the first report you have filed, please see the "First Reports" section above. The end date is the 10th day before the election. (This report is not required for unopposed candidates or candidates who are filing under the modified reporting schedule.)

Exceeded $500 Limit Report Period: (This report is only required for candidates who selected the modified reporting schedule but exceeded the $500 limit after the 30th day before the election.) The start date for the report is either the day you appointed your campaign treasurer or the day after the last day covered by your last required report, whichever is later. The end date is the day you exceeded the $500 limit for contributions or expenditures. (See "Exceeded $500 Limit Report" in the "Report Type" section above for more information.)

C/OH: Worksheet Summary

Worksheet Summary is a new page in the filing application designed to help you keep track of the schedules required for this report and the activity you enter. If you indicated by answering "Yes" on the previous Reporting Period Activities screen that you have activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Return to Cover Sheet button: Click on this button to go to the beginning of this report's Cover Sheet (report type and period covered). You may also go to the cover sheet by clicking on the link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Walk me through all schedules button: Click on this button to be guided through a series of questions to determine whether-or-not you may have activity to disclose on a report schedule. This option takes you through ALL the schedules in the report from beginning to end. During the walk-through, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column on the Worksheet Summary screen.

Report Totals button: Click on this button to go to this report's Subtotals and Totals pages, where you can view the calculated totals of activity entered in this report and enter lump sum totals for unitemized contributions, pledges, loans, and expenditures.

Upload File button: Click on this button to import your contribution and expenditure data into the filing application.

Worksheet Summary Grid: The reporting schedules/categories are organized into three main areas:

- Incoming Funds – any money coming into your political account(s);
- Outgoing Funds – any payments going out of your political account(s); and
- Additional Activity – other types of activity, such as non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, pledged contributions, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations.

Under each main area, the information is displayed in the following columns:

Category: This column displays the name and letter code of each schedule/category you may possibly need for this report. (For example, the name of the first schedule is Monetary Political Contributions and the letter code for that schedule is A1.) If you indicated on a previous screen that you have activity to report, those schedules/categories are highlighted in green in the grid.

Walk Thru: Click this link to be guided through a series of questions to help you determine whether or not you may have activity to disclose on a particular report schedule. This option allows you to walk-through a single schedule only. During the walk-through, if you choose to "work on this later" the schedule will be flagged with a check mark in the Work on Later column.

Count: This column keeps a running tally and displays the number of transactions you have entered and saved for a particular schedule/category.

Sub-Total: This column displays the total amount of transactions you have entered and saved plus any lump sum-total you entered on the Schedule Subtotals page for a particular schedule/category.

Action: To begin entering activity for a particular schedule/category, click on "Start" in this column. After you have saved your first transaction, the link that you click on changes to "Continue" in this column.

Work on Later: If you choose to do a "walk thru" of all schedules or one particular schedule, any schedules that you choose to "work on this later" will be flagged with a check mark in this column. Once you enter and save data on a checked schedule, the check mark will be removed; but remember, you can always enter information on any category/schedule, as needed, until you file the report.

C/OH: Schedule A1

NEW! Schedule A is now split into two schedules: Schedule A1 and Schedule A2. Enter only incoming monetary contributions on Schedule A1. (Non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are now entered on Schedule A2.)

Schedule A1 is used to itemize incoming monetary political contributions that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If you accepted other types of incoming funds (such as loans or interest) or non-monetary contributions (such as in-kind contributions or pledges), enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contributions List: After you enter and save your first contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule A1 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each contribution:

Date	Contributor	Amount	Action

(1 of 1) Add Memo Done with Contributions

The contribution list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered contribution. To enter new contributions, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. You may also use the Memo button to provide additional explanation regarding contribution(s) entered on this schedule.

From Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the contributor is an individual or an entity.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

Browse to Upload PDF. Attach a copy of one of the following required documents in PDF format to be included with your report:

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date you accepted the contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution.

Contribution Amount: Enter the amount of the contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this contribution will be itemized on Schedule A1. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more contributions from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A1 monetary contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize monetary contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A1, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A1.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Employer and Occupation Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation or Job Title: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

C/OH: Schedule E

Schedule E is used to itemize loans made for campaign or officeholder purposes by financial institutions or individuals, and loans to your campaign from personal funds. You must itemize all loans that you accepted during the reporting period from financial institutions regardless of the amount. Additionally, you must itemize loans exceeding $50 from one person that you accepted during the reporting period.

Loans to Your Campaign from Your Personal Funds: If you make a political expenditure from personal funds and intend to seek reimbursement of any amount, the simplest way to disclose the expenditure is to use Schedule G (see the Schedule G Page Help for more information). Another way is to disclose political expenditures from personal funds as a loan to your campaign on Schedule E. Outgoing political expenditures made from that loan must then be disclosed on Schedule F1. Remember: The amount you disclose as a loan from yourself in a reporting period may NOT exceed the amount you actually spent from personal funds in that reporting period. In other words, do not report a $100,000 loan to your campaign if the amount actually spent from your personal funds in the reporting period was $5,000. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, disclose the reimbursement as another outgoing political expenditure on Schedule F1. (Note: The reimbursement may not exceed the amount disclosed as a loan.)

Personal Funds Deposited into a Political Account: If you choose to deposit personal funds in an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code, disclose the deposited amount as a loan on Schedule E and check the box indicating "Personal Funds Deposited into Political Account." (Note: Personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restriction.) Disclose the outgoing political expenditures made from that loan on Schedule F1. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, disclose the reimbursement as another outgoing political expenditure on Schedule F1. (Note: The reimbursement may not exceed the amount disclosed as a loan.)

If you accepted two or more loans from the same person, the total of which exceeds $50, enter each loan separately.

Loans of $50 or less from persons other than financial institutions: Although you are not required to do so, you may itemize on this schedule loans from persons other than financial institutions that do not exceed $50 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize loans of $50 and less from persons other than financial institutions on Schedule E, you must total all such loans and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report.

A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. If you made two or more political payments to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each payment separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Payments of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F1 political payments to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize payments of $100 and less on Schedule F1, you must total all such political payments and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such payments here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F1.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the political payment is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the political payment. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. If your payment was a contribution to another candidate or officeholder, or to a committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure for Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the payment was an expenditure for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political payment for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Direct Expenditure to Benefit C/OH? Check this box if the payment was a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another candidate or officeholder (C/OH). The description of a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another C/OH must include additional information about the C/OH. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Candidate Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule F1. Do not complete this section if the expenditure was not a direct campaign expenditure.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

C/OH: Schedule G

Schedule G is used to itemize outgoing campaign or officeholder payments made from your personal funds during the reporting period. If you had other types of outgoing funds (such as investment purchases, political expenditures from political contributions, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When you use political contributions to pay the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Reimbursement from Political Funds. If you intend to seek reimbursement in any amount from political contributions for a political expenditure made from personal funds, you must either itemize the expenditure here (Schedule G) and check the box to indicate that you intend to seek reimbursement or itemize the expenditure as a loan to yourself on Schedule E. The political expenditure from personal funds must be properly disclosed in the report covering the period in which the expenditure is made. You may not correct a report to allow reimbursement. If you deposit personal funds in an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code, you must report the deposited amount as a loan on Schedule E. See the Schedule E Page Help for additional information.

Officeholder Expenditures: An officeholder is not required to disclose officeholder expenditures from personal funds, if the officeholder does not intend to seek reimbursement of those expenditures from political funds.

C/OH: Schedule I

Schedule I is used to itemize non-political expenditure payments made from political funds, regardless of the amount. If you had other types of outgoing funds (such as political expenditures from political or personal funds, investment purchase, or unpaid incurred expenditure obligations), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

A non-political expenditure is an expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures and should not be disclosed on Schedule I. Remember that you may not convert political contributions to personal use.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. Payments to a Business of Candidate or Officeholder: Do not report on this schedule non-political expenditures from political contributions made to a business in which you have a participating interest of more than 10%, a position on the governing body, or a position as an officer. Report those types of expenditures on Schedule H. See the Schedule H Page Help for more information about these types of expenditures.

Contributions from Out-of-State Political Committees (These fields will be activated only if "Entity" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Contribution Date: Enter the date you accepted the non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Accepting a contribution is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a contribution when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. This may or may not be the same day that you receive the contribution.

Contribution Amount: Enter the fair market value of the in-kind contribution.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this in-kind contribution will be itemized on Schedule A2. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize contributions that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more contributions from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each contribution separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Contributions of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule A2 in-kind contributions that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize in-kind contributions of $50 and less on Schedule A2, you must total all such contributions and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such in-kind contributions here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule A2.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the contributor. If the contributor is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the contributor.

Contributor Employer and Occupation Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Principal Occupation or Job Title: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the in-kind contribution. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing your report to understand what goods or services were contributed.

In-kind Contribution for Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

C/OH: Schedule B

NEW! As always, you must disclose a pledge on Schedule B in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose the receipt of the pledged contribution on Schedule A1 (used for monetary contributions) or A2 (used for non-monetary contributions), as applicable, in the reporting period in which you actually receive the pledged money or thing of value. If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Schedule B is used to itemize pledges (monetary or in-kind) that exceed $50 from one person during the reporting period. If you accepted monetary incoming funds (such as contributions, loans, or interest) or received non-monetary (in-kind) contributions, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Contribution of Personal Services or Travel: You are not required to include pledges of an individual's personal services or travel if the individual receives no compensation from any source for the services.

Pledged Contributions List: After you enter your first pledged contribution, the filing application will begin a list of all contributions entered on Schedule B for this report. The list will display pertinent information for each contribution:

Is the Contributor an out-of-state PAC? Check this box only if the contributor is an out-of-state political committee (PAC). Certain restrictions apply to contributions from out-of-state PACs. The fact that a political committee has a mailing address outside of Texas does not mean that the committee is an out-of-state PAC for purposes of these restrictions. A political committee that has a campaign treasurer appointment on file in Texas is NOT an out-of-state PAC. A political committee that makes most of its political expenditures outside of Texas may be an out-of-state PAC. A political committee must determine if it is an out-of-state PAC.

PAC FEC #: If the out-of-state PAC is registered with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), enter the PAC's FEC identification number (FEC #).

If you do not have an FEC # for the out-of-state PAC, you must provide other documentation as explained below.

Browse to Upload PDF. Attach a copy of one of the following required documents in PDF format to be included with your report:

If you accept over $500 in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $100 to the out-of-state PAC during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution.

If you accept $500 or less in a reporting period from an out-of-state PAC (including pledges), you must include one of the following with your report:

- a copy of the out-of-state PAC's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state PAC; or
- a document listing the committee's name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee's campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee's campaign treasurer.

NOTE: If you accepted contributions from an out-of-state PAC and do not enter the FEC # or attach a PDF copy of the required information, you must timely file a paper copy of the required information at the time you file your electronic report.

Pledge Date: Enter the date you accepted the pledge. Accepting a pledge is different from receiving a contribution. You accept a pledge when you decide to accept it rather than reject it. (If the pledge is accepted and received in the same reporting period, it is no longer a pledge disclosed here; it becomes a contribution disclosed on the applicable contributions schedule.)

Pledge accepted and received in different reporting periods: If you accept a pledge in one reporting period and then receive the pledged money or other thing of value in a later reporting period, you will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. You will also disclose the receipt of the pledged money or other thing of value on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans) in the reporting period in which you received the pledge.

Pledge accepted and received in the same reporting period: If you receive a pledge in the same reporting period in which it was accepted, then you will not report the pledge on this schedule. You will only disclose the contribution on the appropriate incoming funds schedule (such as monetary or non-monetary contributions, or loans). The date of the contribution will be the date you accepted the pledged contribution, regardless of when the pledged contribution was actually received.

Pledge accepted but never received: You will disclose the pledge on this schedule in the reporting period in which you accepted the pledge. If you never actually receive the pledge, it is not necessary to correct your report to delete the pledge.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Pledge Amount: Enter the amount of the pledge or the fair market value of the pledged goods or services or other thing of value, as applicable.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this pledge will be itemized on Schedule B. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize pledges that exceed $50 (in the aggregate) from a single contributor. If you accepted two or more pledges from the same contributor, the total of which exceeded $50, enter each pledge separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Pledges of $50 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule B pledges that do not exceed $50 (in the aggregate) for the reporting period. If you do not itemize pledges of $50 and less on Schedule B, you must total all such pledges and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such pledges here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the system will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule B.

Contributor Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the person who made the pledge. If the contributor of the pledge is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the contributor of the pledge is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Contributor Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the person who made the pledge.

Contributor Employer and Occupation Information (These fields will be activated only if "Individual" is selected for the type of contributor.)

Employer: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the employer of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

Principal Occupation or Job Title: Candidates for and holders of statewide offices in the executive branch and candidates for and holders of legislative offices must disclose the principal occupation or job title of an individual from whom the candidate or officeholder has accepted contributions (including pledges) of $500 or more during the reporting period. In other circumstances, filers are not required to report this information but may do so.

In-kind Description: Enter a description of the in-kind pledge of goods, services, or other thing of value. The description should be sufficiently detailed to allow a person reviewing your report to understand what goods or services were pledged.

In-kind Contribution for Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the in-kind contribution was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of an in-kind contribution or pledge for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

C/OH: Schedule F2

NEW! Schedule F is now split into two schedules: Schedule F1 and Schedule F2. Enter only expenditure obligations that you have incurred but not yet paid on Schedule F2. (Political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule F1 (used for political payments from political funds) or Schedule G (used for political payments from personal funds), as applicable. Non-political expenditures that were paid in this reporting period are disclosed on Schedule I.) Expenditures made by credit card are disclosed on schedule F4 (used for expenditures made by credit card).

Effective January 1, 2015, you must also disclose when you actually pay the incurred expenditure. You must disclose the outgoing payment on Schedule F1, G, or I, as applicable, in the reporting period in which you pay the expenditure.

NEW! Expenditures Made By Credit Card: Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on Schedule F4 and not on this schedule. When you pay the credit card bill, you will disclose the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

Schedule F2 is used to itemize political expenditures you have incurred but not yet paid that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. Also use this schedule to itemize any non-political expenditures you have incurred but not yet paid during the reporting period, regardless of the amount. If you had outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political or personal funds), or expenditures made by credit card, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page.

Unpaid Incurred Obligations List: After you enter and save your first unpaid incurred obligation, the filing application will begin a list of all unpaid incurred obligations entered on Schedule F2 for this report. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each payee:

The unpaid incurred obligations list will be the first screen you see each time you return to this schedule. From this list, you will be able to Edit or Delete a previously entered unpaid incurred obligation. To enter a new unpaid incurred obligation, click the Add button located below the list. You can also sort the list in ascending or descending order by clicking on the column header in which you are interested or search the list by entering the search word in the field at the top of each column. Tell Me More About Incurred Expenditure Obligations

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the incurred expenditure obligation.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this incurred expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F2. The automatic default is to itemize. You are required to itemize political expenditures that exceed $100 (in the aggregate) to a single payee. You are required to itemize any non-political expenditure, regardless of the amount. If you incurred two or more political expenditures to the same payee, the total of which exceeded $100, enter each incurred expenditure obligation separately and be sure the box is checked for each entry.

Expenditure Obligations of $100 or less. Although you are not required to do so, you may also itemize on Schedule F2 incurred political expenditures to a single payee that do not exceed $100 for the reporting period. If you do not itemize incurred political expenditures of $100 and less on Schedule F2, you must total all such incurred political expenditures and enter the lump sum total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. If you enter information about such incurred political expenditures here and remove the check from the "Itemize" box, the filing application will include the amount on the Totals page but the entry will not appear on Schedule F2.

Type of Expenditure: Select whether the incurred expenditure was political or non-political. NOTE: As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures. Remember that you may not convert political contributions to personal use.

Check if Austin, TX, officeholder living expense: For expenditures made on or after July 1, 2014, check this box only if the incurred expenditure is an officeholder expense for living in Austin, Texas.

Payee Name (First, Last, Title, Suffix; or Entity Name): Enter the full name of the payee of the expenditure obligation. If the payee is an individual, enter the full name, first, last, and suffix (Jr., III, etc.) if applicable (title is optional). If the payee is an entity, enter the full name of the entity.

Payee Address (Street Address, Country, City, State, Zip Code): Enter the complete address of the payee of the expenditure obligation.

Expenditure Purpose. You must disclose the purpose of the expenditure in two parts: Category and Description. Merely disclosing the category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the expenditure is made does not adequately describe the purpose of an expenditure.

Examples of Acceptable Ways to Report Expenditure Purpose

Category: Select a category of goods, services, or other thing of value for which the incurred expenditure is made. If none of the listed categories apply, select "Other" and enter your own category.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the incurred expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. If your incurred expenditure was a contribution to another candidate or officeholder, or to a committee, enter "political contribution" and identify the recipient.

Expenditure For Out-of-State Travel? Check this box if the expenditure was for travel outside of the state of Texas. The description of a political expenditure for out-of-state travel must include additional detailed information. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Travel Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule T.

Direct Expenditure to Benefit C/OH? Check this box if the expenditure was a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another candidate or officeholder (C/OH). The description of a direct campaign expenditure to benefit another C/OH must include additional information about the C/OH. To enter the required information, click on the "Enter Candidate Info" button that activates when you check the box. This information will be included in your report on Schedule F2. Do not complete this section if the expenditure was not a direct campaign expenditure.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

C/OH: Schedule F4

NEW! Schedule F4 is a new schedule used to disclose information about expenditures made by credit card. Effective September 1, 2015, you must disclose expenditures charged to a credit card on this schedule and identify the individual, entity, or vendor who receives payment from the credit card company. (When you pay the credit card bill, you will enter the payment to the credit card company on the appropriate disbursements schedule.)

Schedule F4 is used to itemize expenditures you made by credit card that exceed $100 to one individual or entity during the reporting period. If you had outgoing funds (such as investment purchases or political payments from political or personal funds), or obligations that you have incurred but not yet paid, enter them on the applicable schedules associated with the categories shown on the Worksheet Summary page. See Expenditures Made by Credit Card for more information.

To Individual or Entity? Indicate whether the payee is an individual or an entity.

Note: Disclose the name of the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee, NOT the credit card company. You do not report the name of the credit card company on this schedule.

Expense Date: Enter the date you made the expenditure by credit card.

Note: There is a special reporting rule for expenditures made by credit card. For reports due 30 days and 8 days before an election (pre-election reports) and for runoff reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is the date the credit card is used. For other reports, the date of the credit card expenditure is either the date of the charge or the date the credit card statement is received. A filer can never go wrong by disclosing the date of the expenditure as the date of the charge. See Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures for more information.

Expense Amount: Enter the amount of the credit card expenditure.

Itemize box: Checking this box indicates that this credit card expenditure will be itemized on Schedule F4. The automatic default is to itemize. Credit Card Expenditures of $100 or less. If you do not itemize political expenditures made by credit card of $100 and less on Schedule F4, you must total all such credit card expenditures and enter the lump sum-total on the Schedule Subtotals page of this report. company. Instead, select the category that corresponds to the goods, services, or other thing of value purchased from the individual, entity, or vendor.

Description: Enter a brief statement or description of the candidate or officeholder activity that is conducted by making the credit card expenditure. The brief statement or description must include the item or service purchased and must be sufficiently specific, when considered within the context of the description of the category, to make the reason for the expenditure clear. C/OH: Schedule Subtotals

Schedule Subtotals is a new page of the reporting form intended to supplement the report totals (cover sheet, page 2). This page displays the calculated Subtotal for each report schedule, based on the amounts you entered on the schedule entry screen (reported itemized and reported unitemized) and any other unitemized total you enter as a lump sum amount here (user entered lump sum unitemized).

You are always required to itemize or report detailed information for contributions, expenditures, and loans over a certain monetary threshold. The thresholds vary depending on the type of activity (see "Itemization Thresholds" below). For smaller contributions, expenditures, and loans that do not exceed the threshold (in the aggregate from a single source), you may report them in one of two ways: 1) add them all together and enter the unitemized total as a lump sum; OR 2) enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen (and choose to itemize or not).

Itemized transactions: You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen AND the "itemize" box is checked. The filing application calculates the sum of the entries for each schedule and the amount is displayed in the Reported Itemized column for the applicable schedule.

Unitemized transactions: Depending on your choice of entry, your unitemized transactions are shown under one of the following columns:

Reported Unitemized – You chose to enter the detailed information on the schedule entry screen and the "itemize" box is NOT checked. The transaction will remain unitemized, unless you manually check the "itemize" box or you enter additional transactions from/to the same source which cause the aggregate total to exceed the itemization threshold.

User Entered Lump Sum Unitemized – You chose not to enter the detailed information, but rather to enter the total of all your unitemized transactions as a lump sum for the applicable schedule. You must manually enter the lump sum total. DO NOT INCLUDE in a lump sum total any transactions for which you chose to enter detailed information.

Itemization Thresholds for Each Schedule: To return to the instructions for each schedule, click on the applicable link.

Monetary Political Contributions \(A1\) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Loans \(E\) – You are not required to itemize loans (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less from a person other than a financial institution. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You must itemize all loans from a financial institution regardless of the amount.

Interest, Credits, Gains, Refunds, and Contributions Returned to Filer \(K\) – You are not required to itemize such activity (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

Political Expenditures from Political Contributions \(F1\) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G) - You are not required to itemize political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. (Note: You are required to itemize political expenditures from personal funds in any amount, if you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions.)

Payment from Political Contributions to the Business of a C/OH (H) – There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all such payments.

Non-political Expenditures from Political Contributions (I) – There is no itemization threshold for this schedule. You must itemize all non-political expenditures from political contributions.

Purchase of Investments from Political Contributions (F3) – You are not required to itemize investments (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. You are not required to enter a lump sum for this schedule.

In-kind Political Contributions (A2) – You are not required to itemize contributions (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Pledged Contributions (B) – You are not required to itemize pledges (in the aggregate from a single source) of $50 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum.

Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2) – You are not required to itemize incurred but not yet paid political expenditures (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all incurred but not yet paid non-political expenditures, regardless of the amount.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4) – You are not required to itemize political expenditures made by credit card (in the aggregate from a single source) of $100 or less. If not entered on this schedule, you must enter a lump sum. You are required to itemize all non-political expenditures made by credit card, regardless of the amount.

You are required to include in your campaign finance report the following total amounts of contributions, expenditures, and loans:

1. Total Unitemized Political Contributions of $50 or less (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum-total of the unitemized contribution amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2) for:

Reported Unitemized (contributions of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (contributions of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

2. Total Political Contributions (other than pledges, loans or guarantees of loans): (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political contributions you accepted in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 1 (total unitemized contributions of $50 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (contributions which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Monetary Contributions (A1) and Non-Monetary (In-kind) Contributions (A2).

3. Total Unitemized Political Expenditures of $100 or less: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of the unitemized political expenditure amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4), and Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G) for:

Reported Unitemized (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (expenditures of $100 or less in the aggregate to a payee which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

4. Total Political Expenditures: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries.) This is the sum total of all political expenditures you made in the reporting period. It includes the total amount shown on Line 3 (total unitemized political expenditures of $100 or less) plus the total Reported Itemized (expenditures which you itemized on the schedule entry screen) amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Political Expenditures (F1), Unpaid Incurred Obligations (F2), Expenditures Made by Credit Card (F4), Political Expenditures from Personal Funds (G), and Payment from Political Contributions to a Business of C/OH (H).

5. Total Political Contributions Maintained as of the Last Day of the Reporting Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the total amount of political contributions, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if you do not maintain political contributions, including interest or other income earned on those contributions, as of the last day of the reporting period. (This is different from the total contributions reported on Line 2. Only contributions accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Line 2.)

The law requires you to disclose the total amount of political contributions accepted, including interest or other income on those contributions, maintained in one or more accounts in which political contributions are deposited as of the last day of the reporting period.

The "total amount of political contributions maintained" includes: the total amount of political contributions maintained in one or more accounts, including the balance on deposit in banks, savings and loan institutions and other depository institutions and the present value of any investments that can be readily converted to cash, such as certificates of deposit, money market accounts, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, etc.

Personal Funds: The "total amount of political contributions maintained" does NOT include personal funds that you intend to use for political expenditures, unless the personal funds have been disclosed as a loan to your campaign and deposited into an account in which political contributions are held as permitted by section 253.0351(c) of the Election Code. Any unexpended funds from such a loan at the end of the reporting period are required to be included in the "total amount of political contributions maintained." Note: Personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restrictions.

6. Total Principal Amount of all Outstanding Loans as of the Last Day of the Reporting

Period: (The total amount is a required field that you must manually enter here.) Enter the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all loans accepted for campaign or officeholder purposes as of the last day of the reporting period. Enter "0.00" if you did not accept any loans during the period covered and have no outstanding loans as of the last day of the reporting period. The "total outstanding loans" must include outstanding principal of loans made in this reporting period as well as outstanding principal of loans made previously. (This is different from the information reported on Loans (Schedule E). Only loans accepted during the period covered by the report are entered on Schedule E.)

7. Total Unitemized Pledges: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: a printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule B and not on Cover Sheet page 2.) This is the sum total of the unitemized pledge amounts shown on the Subtotals page under Pledged Contributions (B) for:

Reported Unitemized (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (pledges of $50 or less in the aggregate from a contributor which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

8. Total Unitemized Loans: (The total amount is automatically calculated based on your entries. Note: a printed copy of your report will display this total on Schedule E and not on Cover Sheet

Reported Unitemized (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) for which you entered detailed information on the schedule entry screen and did not check the "itemize" box); plus

User Entered Lump Sum Totals (loans of $50 or less in the aggregate from a lender (other than a financial institution) which you entered as a lump sum instead of detailing on the schedule entry screen).

C/OH: Direct Expenditure – Candidate Information

Direct Expenditures to Benefit a Candidate/Officeholder: If you made a direct campaign expenditure payment to benefit another candidate or officeholder, you must include additional information about the candidate/officeholder. Do not complete this section if the expenditure was not a direct campaign expenditure.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

Direct Expenditure Candidate Information List: After you enter and save candidate information for a direct campaign expenditure, the filing application will begin a list of all the candidate information entered for this expenditure. The filing application will display the payee name, date, and amount of the expenditure for which you are entering detailed candidate information. The list will display columns showing pertinent information for each candidate information entry:

C/OH: Report Error Check

Report Error Check is a tool to assist you in fulfilling your reporting requirements. The Error Check details errors and omissions in the data entry; it does not verify that the report has satisfied all legal requirements. You should review the applicable COA-EFS Guide and the filing application PAGE HELP to ensure that ALL required information is included before you file your report.

If the Error Check finds errors in your report, the errors will be listed for you in a table on this screen. You can also click the View as PDF button to view the error list as an Adobe Acrobat .PDF file (requires Adobe Acrobat reader or equivalent viewer to view) or click the View as Excel button to view the error list in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet.

The errors list includes the following information:

Severity: The error records are ranked in terms of severity:

HIGH: These are major omissions in information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering the amount of total political contributions maintained as of the last day of the reporting period under Report Totals). This information is considered very important and you MUST CORRECT these errors in order to file the report.

LOW or MEDIUM: These are omissions or errors in other information that indicate non-compliance with certain reporting requirements (such as not entering address information for a contributor or payee). You should correct these errors to be in legal compliance with your reporting requirements. You may, however, choose to accept these errors and file the report as is. NOTE: If you file the report with errors, you could be subject to a sworn complaint for reporting violations.

Tracking Information: This column shows the transaction (contribution, loan, etc.) containing the error and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Error Record: This column shows the name of the data field containing the error and provides a link directly to the entry screen where the error is located. After correcting the error and saving the transaction, you may run the Error Check again by clicking the Check For Errors link in the Report Menu navigation sidebar always displayed down the left side of your screen.

Message: This column provides a brief explanation of the required information that is missing or in error.

C/OH: Correction Affidavit

A filer who files a corrected report must submit a Correction Affidavit. The affidavit must identify the information that has changed. The affidavit also provides check boxes for your use in swearing to certain statutory provisions regarding the corrected report, if applicable.

Explanation of Correction: Use this box to explain why there were error(s) on the original report, what information is being corrected, and how the new information is different from the information on the original report.

Sworn Statement Check Boxes: Check the box next to any and all applicable statements.

For Any Corrected Report: Check this box if you are filing this corrected report not later than the 14th business day after the date you learned that the report as originally filed is inaccurate or incomplete and any error or omission in the report as originally filed was made in good faith.

A corrected report (other than an 8th Day Before Election Report or a Daily Pre-election Report) filed with the COA-EFS after its due date is not considered late for purposes of late-filing penalties if the report meets this "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision.

A correction to an 8th Day Before Election Report must also meet the "14th business day in good faith" statutory provision; however, the corrected report could be subject to a late-filing penalty unless the report as originally filed substantially complies with the applicable law as determined by the Ethics Commission.

For Corrections to Semiannual Reports: Effective September 1, 2011, a Semiannual Report (due January 15 or July 15) that is amended/corrected before the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed. A Semiannual Report that is amended/corrected on or after the eighth day after the original report was filed is considered to have been filed on the date the original report was filed if: (1) the amendment/correction is made before any complaint is filed with regard to the subject of the amendment/correction; and (2) the original report was made in good faith and without intent to mislead or misrepresent the information contained in the report.

Correction Tables: Any corrections made to this report are listed in a table below according to the type of correction (added, updated, or deleted). Only the applicable table(s) will display. If you make additional changes before you file the report, those changes will be reflected here.

Added Record Table: This table contains any new records you entered in this corrected report that were not previously disclosed in the original report.

Updated Record Table: This table contains any records you changed in this corrected report that were previously disclosed incorrectly in the original report.

Deleted Record Table: This table contains any records you deleted in this corrected report that were previously disclosed in error in the original report.

Each table includes columns with the following information:

Record Type and Tracking Information: Shows the type of transaction (contribution, loan, expenditure, etc.) that you added, updated, or deleted, and other information to help you identify the transaction.

Record Detail: Shows the specific data you added, updated, or deleted.

C/OH: Final Report Affidavit

You may file a Final report if you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file with the COA-EFS and meet all of the following: 1) do not expect to accept any more campaign contributions or make or authorize any more campaign expenditures, 2) expect to take no further action to get elected to a public office, and 3) do not intend to continue accepting contributions to pay campaign debts. There is not a fixed deadline for this report.

Important Things to Know Before Filing a Final Report:

- You must have a CTA on file to accept contributions to offset campaign debts or to pay campaign debts. If you intend to continue this campaign activity, do not file a Final report at this time.
- A Final report will terminate your CTA and relieve you from any additional filing obligations as a candidate. If you are an officeholder, you will still be subject to the filing requirements applicable to officeholders. If you are not an officeholder but have surplus political funds or assets, you will be required to file annual Unexpended Contribution reports. (See Final Disposition of Unexpended Contributions for more information.)
- Terminating a CTA does not relieve you of your responsibility for any delinquent reports or outstanding civil penalties.
- A candidate who does not have a CTA on file is still required to file a personal financial statement (PFS) in accordance with chapter 572 of the Government Code. You can set up a PFS filer type with COA-EFS to file PFS using this filing application, if applicable.

Final Report Affidavit: This page includes the Final report affidavit language. You must agree to and acknowledge the affidavit to indicate that you understand the consequences of filing a Final report. To do so, select the radio button next to the statement, “I agree to and acknowledge the above affidavit.”

If you intend to have additional campaign activity and are not ready to file a Final report, select the radio button next to the statement, “I do not agree to the above affidavit.” You will have some options as to how you wish to continue:

Continue Working on a Different Report Type: (This option is only available if you started the Final report in combination with another report type.) Selecting this option will return you to the “Cover Sheet” screen. From here, you can select “Clear This Report?” if you do not wish to file a Final report at this time.

Go Back to My Reports Page: Selecting this option will return you to the “Manage My Reports” screen without creating the Final report. From here, you can continue working on an in-progress report or start a new report.

Return to Final Report Affidavit: Selecting this option will return you to the Final Report Affidavit screen. From here, you can choose to agree to the Final report affidavit in order to continue with the Final report.

C/OH: Final Report Officeholder Status

Are you currently an officeholder? If you are an officeholder at the time of filing your Final Report, select “Yes.” Otherwise, select “No.”

You Are an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report: You are still required to file semiannual reports for any period during which you are an officeholder, regardless of whether you have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file.

You will not have to worry about surplus political funds and assets until you cease to be an officeholder. If you cease to be an officeholder at a time when you do not have a campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA) on file, and you retain political contributions, interest or other income from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions after filing the last required report as an officeholder, you must file an Annual Report of Unexpended Contributions not earlier than January 1 and not later than January 15 of each year following the year in which you filed the last required report as an officeholder. You may not retain these unexpended funds longer than six years after the date you ceased to be an officeholder. Remember: You may not convert unexpended political contributions, unexpended interest or income earned on political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions to personal use. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

You Are Not an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report: You will no longer be required to file reports unless you retain political contributions, interest or other income from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions. If you retain any of those items, you must file an Annual Report of Unexpended Contributions not earlier than January 1 and not later than January 15 of each year after the year in which you filed your Final report. You may not retain these unexpended funds longer than six years after the date of filing a Final report. Remember: You may not convert unexpended political contributions, unexpended interest or income earned on political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions to personal use. Proper Ways to Dispose of Unexpended Funds and Assets

Unexpended Contributions & Retained Assets (These fields will be activated only if you indicated that you are not currently an officeholder.)

Select the applicable radio buttons to indicate that you either do or do not retain unexpended contributions, unexpended interest or income earned from political contributions, or assets purchased with political contributions or interest or other income from political contributions. See You Are Not an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report for more information.

Officeholder Statement: Check the box next to this statement only if you are a current officeholder. Checking this box indicates that you understand your filing responsibilities as an officeholder. See You Are an Officeholder at the Time of Filing a Final Report for more information.

C/OH: Appendix

Final Disposition of Unexpended Contributions.

The obligation to file annual Unexpended Contributions reports ends when the former candidate or officeholder files a report of "final disposition" of unexpended contributions.

A former candidate or former officeholder has six years from the date of filing a Final report or leaving office (whichever is later) to dispose of surplus funds and assets. The latest possible date for filing a "final disposition" report of unexpended contributions is 30 days after the end of that six-year period. At the end of the six-year period, a former candidate or officeholder must dispose of surplus assets or funds in one of the following ways:

- (1) You may give them to the political party with which you were affiliated when your name was last on the ballot.
- (2) You may give them to a candidate or a political committee. If you do so, however, you must report the contribution twice as described below.

Extra Reporting of a Contribution To Candidate Or Committee. If you contribute unexpended contributions or assets to another candidate or committee, you must report the contribution twice. You must include the contribution on your annual Unexpended Contributions Report. You must also report the contribution on Form ASIFSPAC. You must file the ASIFSPAC report with the filing authority with whom the candidate or political committee files reports by the date by which the candidate or political committee receiving the contribution must report the receipt of the contribution.

NOTE: You will need a separate ASIFSPAC filer ID to file Form ASIFSPAC using the filing application. Contact COA-EFS for assistance in setting up an ASIFSPAC filer ID.

(3) You may give them to the comptroller for deposit in the state treasury to be used to finance primary elections.

(4) You may give them to one or more persons from whom you received political contributions, but the total returned to any person may not exceed the aggregate amount accepted from that person during the last two years during which you were accepting political contributions.

(5) You may give them to a recognized charitable organization formed for educational, religious, or scientific purposes that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and its subsequent amendments.

(6) You may give them to a public or private post-secondary educational institution or an institution of higher education as defined by Section 61.003(8), Education Code, for the purpose of assisting or creating a scholarship program.

A former candidate or former officeholder may dispose of unexpended contributions or assets in this manner at any time during the six-year period. A former candidate or former officeholder who has disposed of all surplus funds and assets must file an Unexpended Contributions "final disposition" report. This report may be filed as soon as the former candidate/officeholder has disposed of all funds.

Extra Reporting for Contribution to Candidate or Committee

If you contributed unexpended contributions or assets to another candidate or committee, you must report the contribution twice. You must include the contribution on your Annual Report. You must also report the contribution on form AS IF-Specific Purpose Committee Campaign Finance Report (AS IF-SPAC). You must file the AS IF-SPAC report with the filing authority with whom the candidate or political committee files reports by the date by which the candidate or political committee receiving the contribution must report the receipt of the contribution.

NOTE: You will need a separate ASIFSPAC filer ID to file the ASIFSPAC report using the filing application. Please contact the COA-EFS for help in establishing an ASIFSPAC filer ID.

Examples of Reporting Expenses from Personal Funds

Spending your own money on your campaign? Avoid common reporting errors! If you intend to seek reimbursement of any amount from political contributions for a political expenditure made from your personal funds, report the expenditure in one of three ways. Method 3 is a new method that will become available on September 28, 2011. We think that Method #1 is the simplest method. Keep in mind that this reporting system is not an accounting system and duplication of expenditures is not uncommon when reporting transactions related to expenditures made from personal funds.

Method #1: Itemize the expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Personal Funds” schedule (Schedule G) and check the box to indicate that you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions. (You may not correct a report to allow reimbursement without subjecting yourself to a possible penalty.) When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1).

Example: On December 1, 2007, Candidate A spends $500 of her own personal funds to purchase political advertising signs. She reports the expenditure to the vendor on Schedule G and checks the box to indicate that reimbursement is intended. One year later, Candidate A reimburses herself from political contributions. She reports the reimbursement on Schedule F1. Candidate A is the payee and the purpose of the expenditure is to reimburse herself for a political expenditure made from personal funds on December 1, 2007.

We stress that if you intend to seek reimbursement from political contributions for a political expenditure of any amount made from personal funds, you must itemize the expenditure on Schedule G.

Method #2: Report the political expenditures made from your personal funds as a loan to your campaign on the “Loans” schedule (Schedule E). Next, report the political expenditures made from that loan on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1). Remember, the amount you report as a loan in a reporting period may NOT exceed the amount you actually spent from personal funds in that reporting period. In other words, do not report a $100,000 loan to your campaign if the amount actually spent from personal funds in the reporting period was $5,000. When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on Schedule F1.

Example: In one reporting period, Candidate B spends $5,000 of his own personal funds to purchase political advertising materials. He spends $3,000 at Business One and $2,000 at Business Two. He reports the expenditures as a $5,000 loan on Schedule E and then itemizes each of the two expenditures as a political expenditure on Schedule F1. A year later, Candidate B reimburses himself from political contributions. He reports the reimbursement on Schedule F1. The payee in this instance is Candidate B, the category of the expenditure is “Loan Repayment/Reimbursement,” and “political expenditure made from personal funds reported as a loan” is an acceptable brief description.

Method #3: Deposit personal funds in an account in which your political contributions are maintained and report that amount as a loan on the “Loans” schedule (Schedule E). Next, report the political expenditures made from that loan on the “Political Expenditures” schedule (Schedule F1). When you reimburse yourself, which could be months or years later, report the reimbursement on Schedule F1. (Note that the reimbursement may not exceed the amount reported as a loan. Also note that personal funds deposited in an account in which political contributions are held are subject to the personal use restriction.)

Example: In one reporting period, Candidate C opens a campaign bank account and deposits $5,000 of her own personal funds into the account. She makes one $3,000 expenditure for political advertising. Candidate C has no other activity in the reporting period. She reports the $5,000 as a loan on Schedule E, itemizes the $3,000 expenditure for the political advertising on Schedule F1, and includes the remaining $2,000 on her contributions maintained at the end of the reporting period total. A year later, Candidate C reimburses herself from political contributions by disclosing the reimbursement on Schedule F1. The payee in this instance is Candidate C, the category of expenditure is "Loan Repayment/Reimbursement," and "political expenditure made from personal funds reported as a loan" is an acceptable brief description.

Use of Political Funds to Rent or Purchase Real Property

A candidate or officeholder is prohibited from using political funds to purchase real property or to pay the interest on or principal of a note for the purchase of real property.

A candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code § 253.038(a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Reporting Tips to Avoid Common Pitfalls: Outgoing Expenditures

You can never go wrong by disclosing the date the credit card was charged as the expenditure date. For 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports, the expenditure date is the date of the credit card charge, not the date of the credit card bill. For all other reports, the expenditure date may be either the date of the charge or the date of receipt of the credit card bill that includes the expenditure.

If you make an expenditure for goods or services to benefit another candidate, officeholder, or committee, disclose the vendor who sold you the goods or services as the payee. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of the candidate, officeholder, or committee that benefitted from the expenditure. Include that person's name under the purpose description.

Did a staff worker make political payment(s) out of his or her personal funds? How you disclose the payment(s) depends on two things: 1) the aggregate total of those payments in the reporting period; and 2) whether or not you reimburse the staff worker in the same reporting period.

Staff Reimbursement Examples:

Case #1: The payment out of the staff worker's personal funds does not exceed $5,000 in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will simply itemize the payment (if over the $100 itemization threshold) on Schedule F1 as if you made the expenditure directly to the vendor out of your political funds, with the name of the vendor who sold the goods or services as the payee for the expenditure. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker.

Case #2: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds are over $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period AND you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in the same reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing everything on the same report: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) On Schedule F1, disclose the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.

Case #3: The payment(s) out of the staff worker's personal funds do not exceed $5,000 in the aggregate in the reporting period BUT you reimburse the staff worker from political funds in a different reporting period – You will use a 3-step process, disclosing steps 1 and 2 on the same report and step 3 later, when the reimbursement occurs: (1) On Schedule E, disclose the total amount paid from the staff worker's personal funds as a loan from the staff worker to your campaign; (2) On Schedule F1, itemize the payments made by your staff worker separately, with the names of the vendors who sold the goods or services to your staff worker as the payees for the expenditures. DO NOT disclose as the payee the name of your staff worker; and (3) When you reimburse your staff worker, if ever, disclose on Schedule F1 of the report covering the period in which the reimbursement occurs the payment to your staff worker for the reimbursement of the loan.-----

Payments To A Business Of The Candidate Or Officeholder

A candidate or officeholder is required to report payments from political funds to a business in which the candidate or officeholder has a participating interest of more than 10 percent; a position on the governing body of the business; or a position as an officer of a business.

A candidate or officeholder may not make a payment to such a business if the payment is for personal services rendered by the candidate or officeholder or by the spouse or dependent child of the candidate or officeholder. (Nor may a candidate or officeholder use political contributions to pay directly for such personal services.) Other payments to such a business are permissible only if the payment does not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the business for actual expenditures made by the business. See generally Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 35 \(1992\).

A candidate or officeholder may not make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from such a business. A candidate or officeholder may not knowingly make or authorize a payment from political funds for the rental or purchase of real property from: (1) a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or (2) a business in which the candidate or officeholder (or a person related to the candidate or officeholder within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity) has a participating interest of more than 10 percent, holds a position on the governing body, or serves as an officer. Elec. Code § 253.038(a-1). This restriction applies to a payment made from political funds on or after September 1, 2007, without regard to whether the payment was made under a lease or other agreement entered into before that date.

Incurred Expenditure Obligations

The date of an expenditure is not necessarily the date that goods or services are received. It is the date on which you incur the obligation to make a payment, as long as the amount of the payment is "readily determinable." Generally, you know the amount of an expenditure (and therefore it is readily determinable) when the obligation is incurred, but in some cases you may not know the amount until the receipt of a periodic bill. An amount is readily determinable if the vendor can provide the amount at your request.

Example 1: On June 29th, a filer orders political signs. On July 16th, the filer receives the invoice for the signs. The date of the expenditure is June 29th, if on that date the vendor can provide the amount the filer will owe the vendor for the signs. Filers should request a vendor to provide the amount of an obligation at the time the obligation is incurred and disclose that unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report covering the period in which the unpaid obligation is incurred. (Note: When the filer makes the payment, he will disclose it as an outgoing payment on Schedule F1 in the report covering the period in which he pays the expenditure.)

Example 2: A filer maintains a campaign office. The filer does not know the cost of the office's June utilities until she receives the periodic monthly bill on July 16th. The filer will not disclose the expense as an unpaid incurred obligation on Schedule F2 in the July 15 semiannual report, since the amount was not readily determinable until after the end of the semiannual reporting period.

Expenditures Made by Credit Card

Beginning on September 1, 2015, all expenditures made by credit card must be reported on a new schedule: "Expenditures Made by Credit Card" Schedule (F4). This requirement applies to filers of electronic and paper campaign finance reports, including candidates, officeholders, political committees, political parties, and direct campaign expenditure filers.

When a credit card is used to make a reportable expenditure, the expenditure must be reported on the new schedule by identifying the name and address of the vendor who sold the goods or services, NOT the credit card company that issued the credit card. The date, amount, and purpose of the expenditure must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Once the credit card bill is paid, the payment must also be reported using the appropriate existing disbursement schedule (e.g., Schedule F1, Schedule G, Schedule H, or Schedule I) by identifying the credit card company that receives the payment. The date, amount, and purpose of the payment must also be disclosed, in addition to other information.

Please see the following examples of reporting expenditures made by credit card:

Example 1: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses her credit card to buy $1,000 in campaign office supplies from an office store. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from her political contributions account to pay the $1,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the office store as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Office Overhead/Rental Expense,” and a description as “Campaign Office Supplies.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- For the payment to the credit card company: a $1,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for campaign office supplies.”
- Both $1,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 2: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Personal Funds to Pay the Credit Card Bill in the Same Reporting Period:

A candidate for non-judicial office uses his credit card to purchase $3,000 in political advertising materials from a print shop. During the same reporting period, the candidate makes a payment from his personal funds account to pay the $3,000 credit card bill.

To report that activity, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form C/OH) covering the period in which he made the credit card charge and sent the payment to the credit card company:

- For the credit card charge: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the print shop as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising Materials.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.

- For the payment to the credit card company: a $3,000 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures Made from Personal Funds” Schedule (G). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising materials.” If the candidate intends to seek reimbursement from political contributions, the candidate may also check the appropriate box in Section 6.
- Both $3,000 amounts reported on each schedule will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 3: Political Committee Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A general-purpose committee uses its credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The committee receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the committee sends a payment to the credit card company, it makes a $500 payment from its political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the committee’s campaign treasurer would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the committee’s campaign treasurer would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form GPAC) covering the period in which it made the payment to the credit card company:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”
- The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

Example 4: Candidate Using Credit Card to Make a Political Expenditure and Using Political Contributions to Pay the Credit Card Bill in Different Reporting Periods:

A candidate for judicial office uses her credit card to buy $500 in political advertising in a newspaper. The candidate receives the statement from the credit card company but does not send a payment until after the reporting period ends. When the candidate sends a payment to the credit card company, she makes a $500 payment from her political contributions account.

To report the credit card charge, the candidate would report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which she made the credit card charge:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4). The schedule identifies the newspaper as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Advertising Expense,” and a description as “Political Advertising.” In Section 9 of the schedule, the box for “Political” is also checked.
- The $500 amount reported on the “Expenditures Made by Credit Card” Schedule (F4) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

To report the payment to the credit card company, the candidate would also report all of the following on a campaign finance report (Form JC/OH) covering the period in which the payment to the credit card company was made:

- A $500 expenditure on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1). The schedule identifies the credit card company as the payee of the expenditure and includes the address, date, amount, a category of the expenditure as “Credit Card Payment,” and a description as “Payment of credit card bill for political advertising.”

The $500 amount reported on the “Political Expenditures from Political Contributions” Schedule (F1) will also be included in the appropriate sections of Cover Sheet Pages 2 and 3.

C/OH: Glossary

Accepting a Contribution: A candidate or officeholder must report contributions that he or she has accepted. Receipt is different from acceptance. A decision to accept a contribution must be made by the end of the reporting period during which the contribution is received. (A decision to accept a contribution made during the period covered by a Legislative Special Session report must be made by the third day after the contribution is received.)

Failure to make a determination about acceptance or refusal: If you fail to make a determination to accept or refuse a contribution by the end of the reporting period, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

Returning refused contributions: If you receive a political contribution but do not accept it, you must return the contribution not later than the 30th day after the end of the reporting period in which the contribution was received. If you fail to do so, the contribution is considered to have been accepted.

COA-EFS: City of Austin Electronic Filing System

(1) corporations that are organized under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas For-Profit Corporation Law, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Law, federal law, or law of another state or nation; or

(2) the following associations, whether incorporated or not: banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations or companies, insurance companies, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, government-regulated cooperatives, stock companies, and abstract and title insurance companies.

D

Direct Campaign Expenditure: A "direct campaign expenditure" to benefit a candidate is not a "political contribution" to that candidate. A direct campaign expenditure is a campaign expenditure made on someone else's behalf and without the prior consent or approval of that person. This is in contrast to a political contribution, which the person has the opportunity to accept or reject.

Example: If you made an expenditure to prepare and distribute an endorsement letter in support of a candidate and you did not get the candidate's approval before you made the expenditure, you made a direct campaign expenditure. However, if you asked for and received the candidate's approval before making the expenditure, you made an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

E

Financial Institution: A corporation that has been legally engaged in the business of making loans for more than one year.

Full Name of the Contributor: Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Even if you do not itemize a contribution, you must maintain a record of all the information related to a contribution for two years after the deadline for filing the report. You must also identify the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.

Modified Reporting: On the campaign treasurer appointment (Form CTA), there is an option to choose "modified reporting" for the next election cycle. A candidate must make this selection at least 30 days before the first election to which the selection applies. Modified reporting excuses an opposed candidate from filing 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports and a runoff report. An opposed candidate is eligible for modified reporting only if the candidate does not intend to exceed either $500 in contributions or $500 in expenditures in connection with an election cycle.

A selection to file on the modified reporting schedule lasts for an entire election cycle. In other words, the selection is valid for a primary, a primary runoff, and a general election (as long as the candidate does not exceed one of the $500 thresholds).

If an opposed candidate chooses modified reporting on Form CTA, but then exceeds one of the thresholds before the 30th day before the election, the candidate is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file reports 30 days and 8 days before the election.

If an opposed candidate chooses modified reporting, but then exceeds one of the thresholds after the 30th day before the election, the candidate must file an "Exceeded $500" report within 48 hours of exceeding the threshold. At that point, the candidate is no longer eligible for modified reporting and must file according to the regular filing schedule.

N

Non-Political Expenditure: An expenditure that is neither a campaign expenditure nor an officeholder expenditure. As a practical matter, very few expenditures made from political contributions are non-political expenditures. For instance, expenditures for administrative expenses, banking fees, and professional dues are typically political expenditures.

Examples of Non-Political Expenditures: (1) a charitable donation, if you receive no benefit in return; (2) payments to a lobbyist to work on legislative matters.

O

Officeholder Expenditure: A payment or agreement to pay certain expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, if the expenses are not reimbursable with public money.

Austin, Texas Officeholder Living Expense: refers to payments made to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of duties or activities as a public officeholder, including payment of rent, utility, and other reasonable housing or household expenses incurred in maintaining a residence in Travis County by members of the legislature who do not ordinarily reside in Travis County. Examples include:

- Rent for Austin apartment
- Phone line and internet access for Austin apartment
- Installation expense of security system at officeholder apartment

Opposed Candidate: You are an "opposed" candidate if you have an opponent, including a minor party candidate, whose name is printed on the ballot. If your only opposition is a write-in candidate, you are not considered opposed for filing purposes. Note: If you are a write-in candidate, you are an "opposed" candidate for filing purposes.

P

Pledge: a promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other things of value. A pledge is not a reportable contribution, unless it is accepted.

Example: In June a supporter promises that he will give Juan Garcia $1,000 in the last week before the November election. Juan accepts his promise. Juan must disclose the pledge on his July 15 report covering the period in which he accepted the pledge. (Note: When he receives the $1,000, he will disclose it as a monetary contribution on Schedule A1 of the report covering the period in which he received the money. Also, if he never receives the $1,000, he does not correct/amend his report to delete the entry for the pledge.)

Political Contribution: Any transfer of or promise to transfer money, goods, services, or other thing of value, including a loan, that is given to a candidate or officeholder with the intent that it be used either:

- (1) in connection with a campaign for elective office or on a measure to be submitted to the voters; or
- (2) to defray expenses in connection with an officeholder's duties or activities, provided that the expenditures are not reimbursable from public money.

A donation of money to a candidate/officeholder at a fundraiser is a monetary contribution.

A contribution of goods or services is a non-monetary (in-kind) contribution. Examples of non-monetary (in-kind) contributions are:

- Donation of office space
- Donation of an item to be auctioned at a fundraiser
- Donation of a mailing list
- Donation of material and labor for printing campaign signs

A political contribution in the form of a pledge must be reported on the appropriate schedule. For example, a promise to give you money after the election to pay debts incurred in connection with the election is a pledge.

A loan from an incorporated financial institution that has been in business for more than a year is not considered to be a contribution, but you must report any such loans taken out for campaign or officeholder purposes on the appropriate schedule.

§ 2-2-15 - LIQUIDATED DAMAGES.

Each campaign contract shall provide for liquidated damages payable to the City and to other candidates for the same office who sign a campaign contract, in substantially the following form:

"The actual damages that may be sustained by the City and by another candidate by reason of a candidate's breach of a campaign contract are uncertain and would be difficult to determine. The parties stipulate that a reasonable and just compensation to each damaged party, including the City and another candidate, for a candidate's breach of the contribution or expenditure limits in a campaign contract would be three times the amount or value of the excessive expenditure made or contribution accepted. In addition, the City may recover as damages from a candidate who breaches a campaign contract of the amount paid to that candidate from the Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund.

"A candidate who signs a campaign contract shall promise to pay, and the City and each other candidate for the same office who signs a campaign contract shall agree to accept, in lieu of other damages, the amounts set out in this section as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in the event of a breach of the campaign contract. The city council may waive this ineligibility by a unanimous vote.
- (B) This article is enforceable as a matter of contract law in the courts of the state of Texas. Except for a violation of the required notice provisions of Section 2-2-14 (Disclosure of Compliance with Chapter), this article is not intended to create criminal liability.

 - (2) one or more candidates files for the same City office who by the filing deadline has not entered into a campaign contract or filed a notice of intent, under the Texas Election Code, to raise and spend less than $500; or
 - (3) direct campaign expenditures, as defined in Article 4 (Direct Campaign Expenditures), in a race for the same council office by one person exceed $10,000 at any time before the election.
- (B) A candidate who signed a campaign contract may, up to the end of the filing period for a place on the ballot, elect to opt out of the contract if another candidate has filed a designation of campaign treasurer for that office and has not within 30 days signed a campaign contract or a notice of intent, under the Texas Election Code, to raise and spend less than $500. If a candidate opts out of a contract, he or she may continue to use the disclaimer provided for in Section 2-2-14, but shall not be eligible to receive funds from the Austin Fair Campaign Finance Fund.

- (C) A candidate who receives bundled contributions shall notify each bundler of the requirements of this section. A bundler shall provide to each candidate, at the time the bundler delivers bundled contributions to the candidate, the information necessary for the candidate to report the information required by this section. The failure of a bundler to provide the information required by this subsection does not excuse any failure by a candidate to report the required information.
- (D) Except as may be further limited by Subsection (E), a person who is registered, who is required to register, or who is employed by a person who is registered or required to register under Chapter 4-8 (Regulation of Lobbyists) may not bundle contributions totaling more than five times the contribution limit set by Article III, Section 8(A)(1) of the City Charter for any one candidate in a campaign period.

Partners, shareholders, principals, employees, and persons who conduct business through the same business association, are considered to be a single bundler for the purpose of this subsection. The total amount bundled by all the partners, shareholders, principals, employees, and persons who conduct business through the same business association when added together may not exceed ten times the contribution limit set by Article III, Section 8(A)(1) of the City Charter for the entire business association for any one candidate in a campaign period.

Accordingly, no person who is compensated to lobby the city council and who is required to register with the City as a lobbyist, and no spouse of the person, may contribute more than $25 in a campaign period to an officeholder or candidate for mayor or city council, or to a specific purpose political committee involved in an election for mayor or city council.

CHAPTER 2-7. - ETHICS AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

ARTICLE 1. - GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 2-7-1 - DECLARATION OF POLICY.

- (A) It is the policy of the City that the proper operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that governmental decisions and policy be made in proper channels of the governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government. In recognition of these goals, a code of ethics for all City officials and employees is adopted.
- (B) This code has the following four purposes:
 - (1) To encourage high ethical standards in official conduct by City officials and employees;
 - (2) To establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for all such officials and employees by setting forth those acts or actions that are incompatible with the best interests of the City;
 - (3) To require disclosure by such of official and employees of private financial or other interests in matters affecting the City; and
 - (4) To serve as a basis for disciplining those who refuse to abide by its terms.
- (C) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to political contributions, loans, expenditures, reports or regulation of political campaigns or the conduct of candidates in such campaigns.

§ 2-7-2 - DEFINITIONS.

In this chapter:

- (1) AFFECTED means in the case of a person, entity or property, means reasonably likely to be subject to a direct economic effect or consequence, either positive or negative, as a result of the vote or decision in question. For instance, a person or entity owning real property, entering into a contract with the City, or seeking a permit or franchise is "affected" by votes or decisions such as zoning of the property, approval of the contract, or granting of the permit. Affected does not include those persons or entities who are subject to an indirect or secondary effect from official action. Creditors, independent contractors, or guarantors of a person "affected" by a vote or decision are not also deemed to be "affected" by virtue of their relationship with the affected person. The vote or decision need not be the only producing cause of the economic effect or consequence reasonably likely to result. In determining whether a person, entity or property is or was "affected by" a vote or decision, it shall not be necessary to prove the actual existence or occurrence of an economic effect or consequence if such effect or consequence would be reasonably expected to exist or occur. Additionally, a vote or decision to place a matter on a ballot is deemed to affect a person, entity or property to the same extent that the results of the election would effect the person, entity or property.
- (2) CITY EMPLOYEE or EMPLOYEE means any person employed by the City but does not include independent contractors hired by the City.
- (3) CITY OFFICIAL or OFFICIAL, unless otherwise expressly defined, means the mayor, members of the city council, municipal court judges (including substitute judges), city manager, assistant city managers, city clerk, deputy city clerks, city attorney, deputy city attorneys, all department heads or deputy department heads, whether such person is salaried, hired or elected, and all other persons holding positions designated by the City Charter, as it may be amended from time to time. City official, unless otherwise expressly defined, includes individuals appointed by the mayor and city council to all City commissions, committees, boards, task forces, or other City bodies unless specifically exempted from this chapter by the city council.

- (4) DECISION means any ordinance, resolution, contract, franchise, formal action or other matter voted on by the city council or other City board or commission, as well as the discussions or deliberations of the council, board, or commission which can or may lead to a vote or formal action by that body. A decision of a City employee means any action in which the employee exercises discretionary authority, including but not limited to the issuance of permits, imposition or collection of fines or fees, authorizations for expenditures, and other non-ministerial acts.
- (5) DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY means the power to exercise any judgment in a decision or action.
- (6) ENTITY means a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited partnership, firm, corporation, professional corporation, holding company, joint stock company, receivership, trust or any other entity recognized by law through which business may be conducted, but does not include a governmental body.
- (7) HARM means anything reasonably regarded as loss, disadvantage, or injury, including harm to another person in whose welfare the person affected has an interest.
- (8) INCIDENTAL INTEREST means an interest in a person, entity or property which is not a substantial interest and which has insignificant value, or which would be affected only in a de minimis fashion by a decision. This chapter does not establish dollar limits on the terms "insignificant value" and "de minimis," which shall have their usual meanings and be subject to interpretation on a case by case basis.
- (9) LIMITED OR DE MINIMIS USE means use of City facilities, time, equipment or supplies that:
 - (a) does not interfere with or impede the job performance or productivity of the City official or employee;
 - (b) does not interfere with or impede the City's conduct of official business;
 - (c) is not used for a personal benefit, as defined in Section 2-3-5 (Powers and Duties) ;
 - (d) is too small, minor or insignificant to have an economic impact; and
 - (e) is used in accordance with the law, including the City Charter, Article XII, Section 2 prohibiting the use of City resources for election campaigning.
- (10) MINISTERIAL ACT means an act performed in a prescribed manner and not requiring the exercise of any judgment or discretion.
- (11) REMOTE INTEREST means an interest of a person or entity, including a City official or employee, who would be affected in the same way as the general public. The interest of a councilmember in the property tax rate, general City fees, City utility charges, or a comprehensive zoning ordinance or similar decisions is incidental to the extent that the councilmember would be affected in common with the general public.
- (12) SUBSTANTIAL INTEREST means an interest in another person or an entity if: the interest is ownership of five percent or more of the voting stock, shares or equity of the entity or ownership of $5,000 or more of the equity or market value of the entity; or funds received by the person from the other person or entity either during the previous 12 months or the previous calendar year equaled or exceeded $5,000 in salary, bonuses, commissions or professional fees or $20,000 in payment for goods, products or nonprofessional services, or 10 percent of the person's gross income during that period, whichever is less; the person serves as a corporate officer or member of the board of directors or other governing board of the for-profit entity other than a corporate entity owned or created by the city council; or the person is a creditor, debtor, or guarantor of the other person or entity in an amount of $5,000 or more except that a home mortgage loan for the person's homestead or a loan or lease of a personal automobile shall not be deemed a substantial interest in the creditor or guarantor if entered into at a market rate with a commercial lending institution before the previous 12 months.

- (13) SUBSTANTIAL INTEREST IN REAL PROPERTY means an interest in real property which is an equitable or legal ownership with a market value of $5,000 or more.

Further, the complainant must disclose to the commission and the respondent any additional evidence discovered during the complaint process that negates guilt or mitigates the seriousness of the offense until the commission has taken final action on the complaint.

§ 2-7-42 - DEFENSE OF OFFICIAL OR EMPLOYEE BY CITY ATTORNEY.

In the event a complaint is filed with the Ethics Review Commission against any official or employee of the City, alleging a violation of Article 4 (Code of Ethics), if the official or employee reasonably believed the conduct charged was not prohibited by Article 4 (Code of Ethics) and acted in reasonable reliance upon a public opinion rendered by the city attorney, the city attorney shall be authorized to represent the official or employee before the commission, or to employ and pay private counsel to represent the official or employee before the commission.

§ 2-7-43 - PROHIBITION OF EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS.

After a complaint has been filed and during the pendency of a complaint before the Ethics Review Commission, a member of the commission may not communicate directly or indirectly with any party or person about any issue of fact or law regarding the complaint, except at a meeting of the commission. This prohibition does not prohibit a communication by a city employee with the commission in the performance of the city employee's official duties.

§ 2-7-44 - PRELIMINARY HEARING.

- (A) The issue at a preliminary hearing shall be the existence of reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of a provision within the jurisdiction of the Ethics Review Commission has occurred. The complainant, or the legal counsel for the Ethics Review Commission in cases considered on the commission's own initiative, shall state the alleged violation and shall describe in narrative form the testimony and other evidence which would be presented to prove the alleged violation as stated in the written complaint. Statements at a preliminary hearing shall be under oath, but there shall be no cross-examination or requests for persons or evidence issued for the hearing. Members of the commission may question the complainant, legal counsel for the commission, or the respondent.
- (B) The respondent shall have the opportunity to respond but is not required to attend or make any statement. The respondent may describe in narrative form the testimony and other evidence which would be presented to disprove the alleged violation. If the respondent agrees that a violation has occurred, the respondent may so state and the commission may consider the appropriate sanction or prosecution.
- (C) The complainant and the respondent shall have the right of representation by counsel.
- (D) At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the commission shall decide whether a final hearing should be held. If the commission determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation within the jurisdiction of the commission has occurred, the commission shall schedule a final hearing. If the commission does not determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation has occurred, the complaint is dismissed. A decision to conduct a final hearing is not a finding that a violation has occurred.
- (E) The commission, at any time during the preliminary hearing, may also dismiss a complaint if the complaint does not allege conduct which would be a violation of a provision within the jurisdiction of the commission. Before a complaint is dismissed for failure to allege a violation, the complainant or the legal counsel for the commission shall be permitted one opportunity, within a period to be specified, to revise and resubmit the complaint.

- (F) The complainant, legal counsel for the commission, and the respondent may ask the commission at a preliminary hearing to request certain persons and evidence for a final hearing, if one is scheduled.

§ 2-7-45 - FINAL HEARING.

- (A) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or by a vote of the commission, the final hearing shall be held not later than the 60th day after the determination by the commission that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation within the jurisdiction of the commission has occurred.
- (B) For good cause, the chair may postpone a scheduled final hearing on the request of the complainant, the respondent, or an identified person.
- (C) The complainant and respondent must attend a final hearing. If the respondent fails to attend, the commission may proceed with the final hearing at the commission's discretion.
- (D) The issue at a final hearing shall be whether a violation within the jurisdiction of the commission has occurred. The commission shall make its determination based on the preponderance of the credible evidence in the record. All parties and witnesses shall make their statements under oath.
- (E) If the commission determines that a violation has occurred, the commission shall state the commission's findings in writing, shall identify each code section or charter provision that has been violated, and, not later than the 10th working day after the final hearing, the chair shall cause a copy of the commission's findings to be sent to the complainant, if any, to the respondent, to any identified person whose contact information is listed on the complaint form or is reasonably ascertainable, and to the city clerk.

§ 2-7-46 - OATHS AND REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION.

- (A) Subject to the limitations in this section, if a complaint proceeds to a final hearing, the commission may subpoena or request witnesses to attend and testify, administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence, and subpoena or request the production of books, papers, records, or other evidence needed for the performance of the commission's duties or exercise of its powers, including its duties and powers of investigation.
- (B) Before the commission may issue a subpoena, the commission shall submit a written request for a person to appear before them, for the production of documents, or for any other evidence. All city officials and employees will cooperate with the commission to assist it in carrying out its charge, and must supply requested testimony and documents if the documents are public records as set forth in the Public Information Act (Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code) or other applicable law. Identifying information about any informant or witness in documents provided to the commission must be redacted.
- (C) The commission may issue a subpoena on its own or upon request of a complainant or respondent. If requested by a party to the complaint, the party must make a sworn request and state that the party in good faith believes that such item or testimony exists. The party must provide a detailed description of any requested items or testimony sufficient to be able to identify the items or information; must state that the party has attempted to obtain such items or information otherwise; and, that the party in good faith believes that the person or entity whose name and address is specified in the sworn request does possess or control the requested item or information.

- (D) Any subpoena issued by the commission is subject to the following requirements:
- (1) the subpoena may only be served within the Austin-Round Rock Metropolitan Statistical Area defined as Travis, Williamson, Bastrop, Hays, Burnet, and Caldwell;
 - (2) may not be served on a current City employee;
 - (3) may not be served on current or former staff in the Law Department or outside legal counsel retained by the City; and,
 - (4) may not include a request for documentation which the city could withhold under the Public Information Act (Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code).
- (E) Objection to subpoena. If a subpoena is issued upon the request of a party to the complaint, a person may object to a subpoena within seven working days after receiving the subpoena. Objections to subpoenas must be in writing and submitted to the city clerk. Not later than the fifth working day after the city clerk receives the objection, the city clerk shall acknowledge the receipt of the objection to the subpoena and provide a copy of the objection to the city attorney, the chair of the commission, the complainant and the respondent. If the commission issued the subpoena upon request of the complainant or respondent, the complainant or respondent shall within three working days after receipt of the objection provide a written response to the city clerk. The city clerk shall provide notice of receipt of a response to the objection in the same manner as receipt of an objection as set forth in this subsection. The commission shall rule on the objection. If a person to whom the subpoena is properly issued fails to object to a subpoena within the time specified in this section, the person waives any objection to the subpoena.
- (F) Appeal. A person that is a party to the complaint or subject of a subpoena may appeal the commission's decision on an objection to a subpoena to the Audit and Finance Committee of the City Council by filing an appeal with the City Clerk's office no later than ten days after the commission's decision. The request for an appeal must include a concise statement detailing the reasons the person believes the commission's decision should be overruled. The City Clerk will distribute the request for an appeal in the same manner described in subsection (E) above. The staff assigned to the commission will place the appeal on the next available committee agenda in accordance with the council's committee meeting procedures. The committee may vote to adopt, reject or modify the decision of the commission. A member of the Council may not take any part in a deliberation, vote, or decision regarding a subpoena issued to the council member or is issued in a complaint alleging a violation by the council member or a member of their staff.
- (G) The commission may request assistance from the city auditor with the investigation of allegations in a complaint.
- (H) The commission may consider the city auditor's investigation at a final hearing on a complaint.
