

Austin Parks and Recreation Department

Amendment to Goodnight Ranch Planned Unit Development (PUD)

Parks and Recreation Board
June 2020

Scott Grantham Principal Planner Parks and Recreation Department

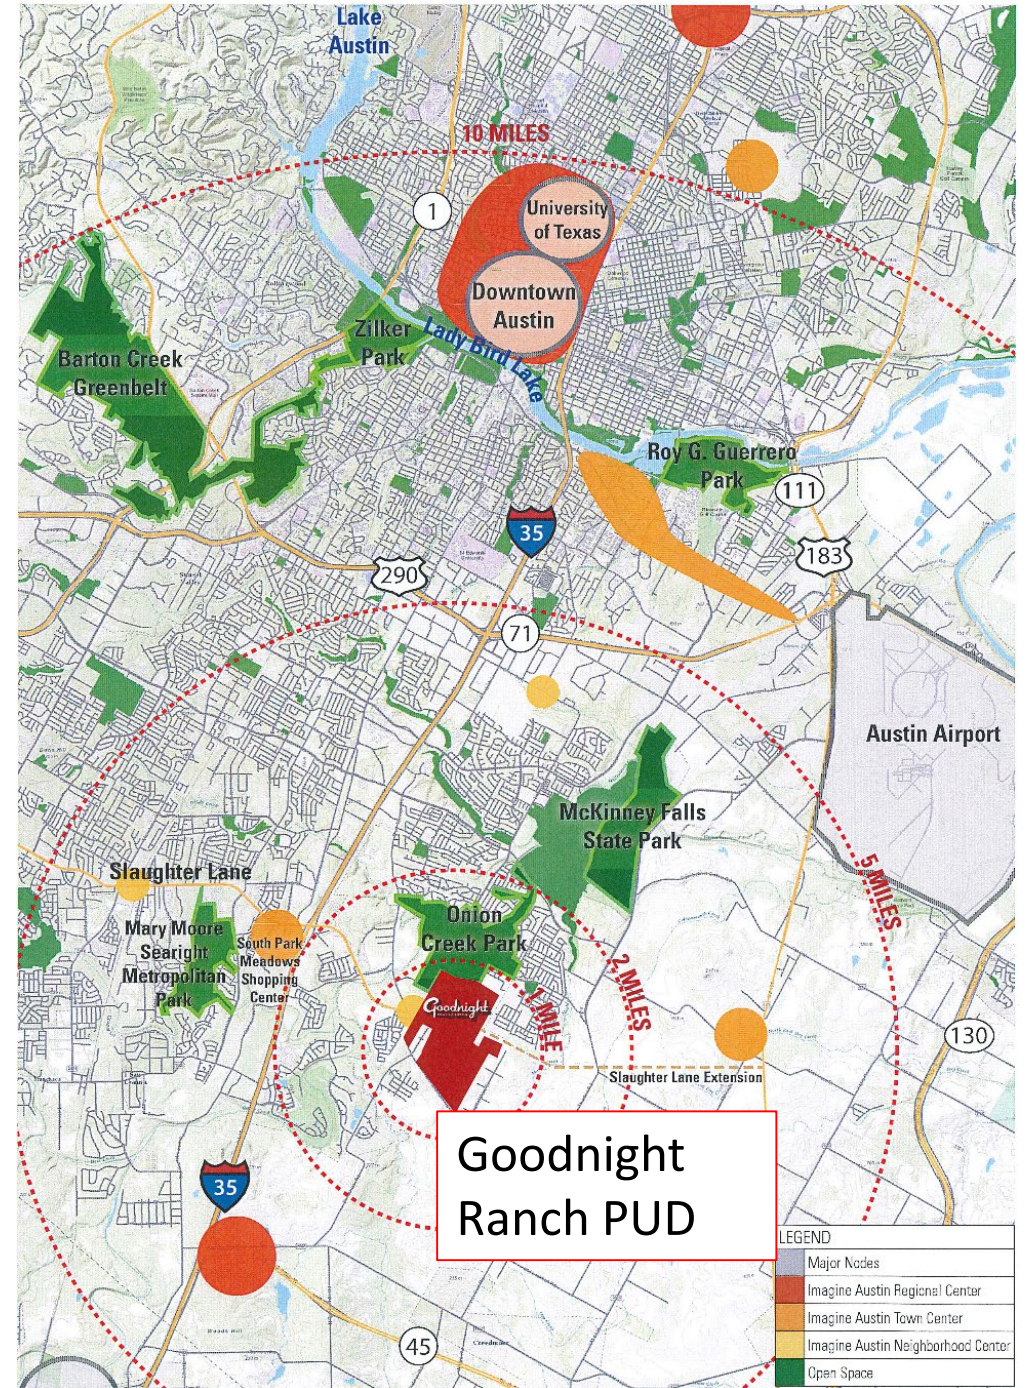

Overview

- Consider a request for an amendment to the Goodnight Ranch Planned Unit Development (PUD)
 - Overview
 - Background
 - Original PUD, superiority, and PUD Amendment
 - Recommendation
- The Parks and Recreation Board will be asked to make a recommendation to City Council regarding the Goodnight Ranch PUD amendment as it pertains to parkland.

Background

- PUD amendment zoning case is currently in review.
- PUD developments are evaluated for superiority to existing City requirements.
- PUD amendments add additional entitlements; superiority can be modified for one or more review disciplines but should be made up in another aspect of the discipline or in overall superiority for the PUD.
- Parks Board is one of several that will consider the amendment and send feedback to Council.

Background

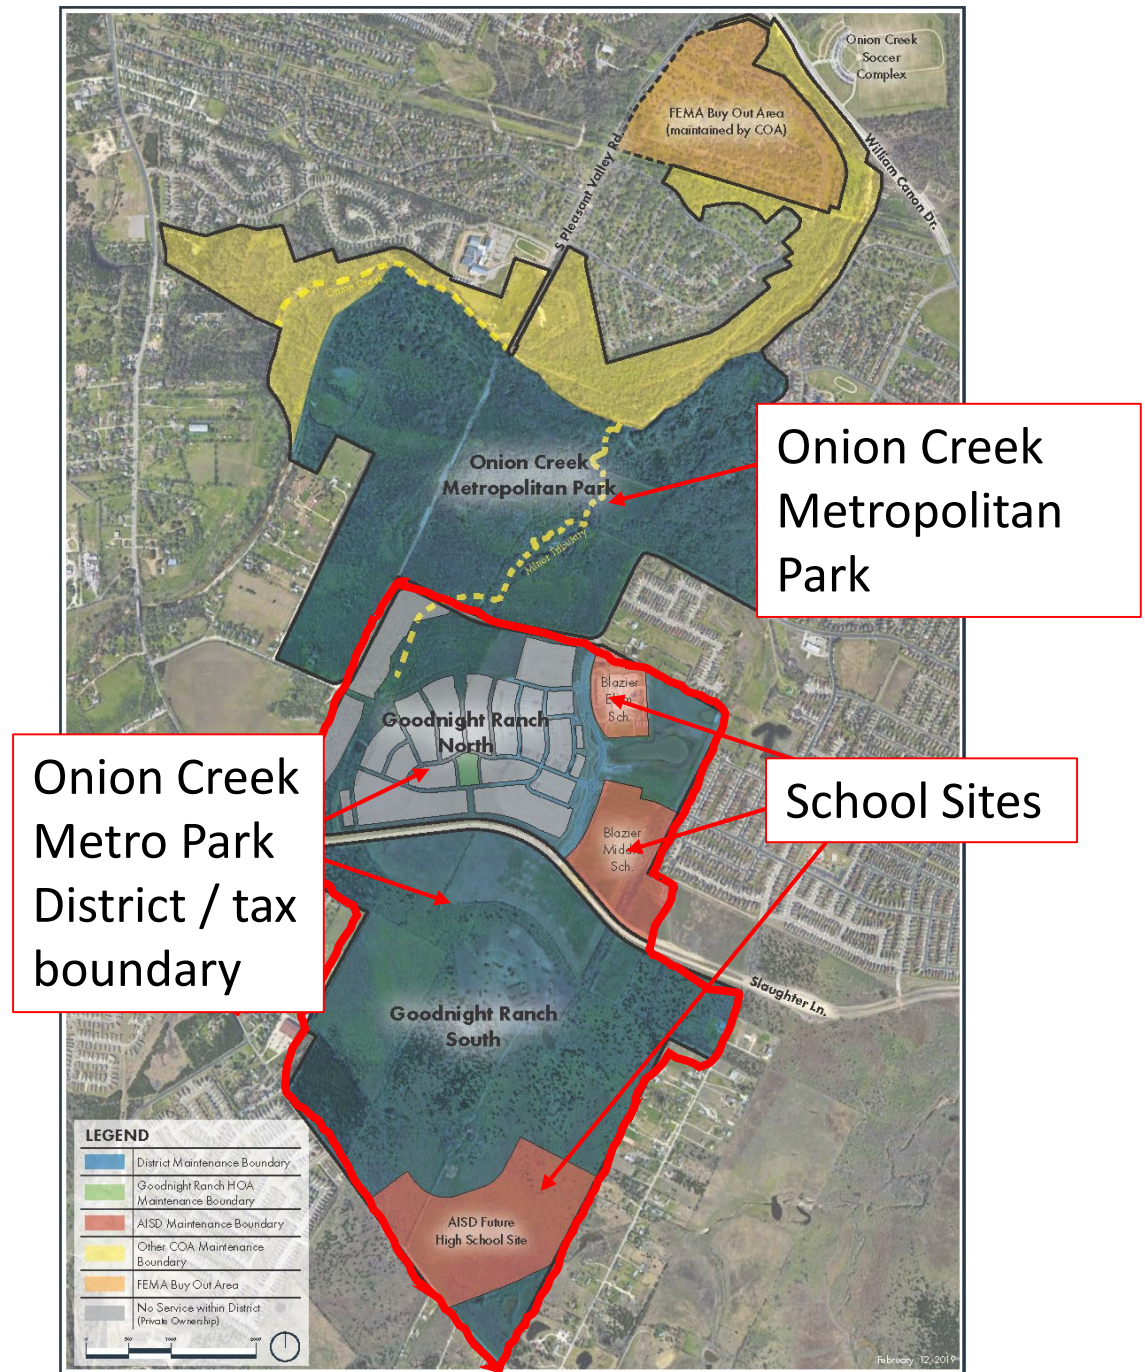

Timeline

- 2004- 2006 – Application for PUD Zoning, Original PUD approved
- 2011 – Applicant Petitioned State Legislature to create Municipal Management District (Onion Creek Metro Parks District)
- 2013 – City Council Approved resolution supporting Parks District; Legislature passed SB 1872 to create the Parks District
- 2013 – 2014 – PARD and APF managed Master Plan; Consent Agreement approved by City Council
- 2014-2015 – Vertex Boulevard and 26-acre Vertex Pond Park and trail constructed
- 2016 – PUD Amendment initiated
- 2016-2017 – First residential section constructed
- 2018 – Present – 8 subdivisions constructed, including 3 small neighborhood commercial sites; over 1,300 residential units (including 728 affordable to 65% and 80% MFI)

Background

- What is a Municipal Management District?
 - Created by the State Legislature (SB 1872), as a public governmental authority
 - Consent Agreement required, approved by Austin City Council
 - Also known as Taxing District or Parks District (full name is Onion Creek Metro Park District – OCMPD)
 - Taxes paid by residents to operate and maintain parks
 - Parks are dedicated to the District, and open to the general public

PUD Amendment

- Residential entitlement from 3,533 to 6,033 (increase of ~2,500 units)
- Commercial/retail/office from 250,000 to 500,000 gross square feet (increase of ~250,000 gsf)
- Amend school plan for middle school and high school sites; add fire station
- Add permitted uses; (e.g. equipment repair, printing and publishing; recreational equipment sales; electronic prototype assembly)

PUD Amendment

- 3 mile loop trail clarified with note: “Future trails will be constructed as adjacent properties are developed occupied and approved by the Onion Creek Metro Park District Board”
- Process for park and trail development described in Consent Agreement and Amendment
- Language added to the PUD, pointing to Consent Agreement as controlling document for Parkland and Open Space

Superiority of Original PUD

- Original Goodnight Ranch PUD approved in 2006
- Superiority is based on current code (2006)
- Goodnight Ranch PUD was determined to be superior with:
 - 65 Acres of Private Parkland
 - Payment of Fees for 3,533 units

Comparison with PUD Amendment

- Original Goodnight Ranch PUD approved in 2006
- Superiority is based on current code (2006)
- Goodnight Ranch PUD was determined to be superior with:
 - 65 Acres of Private Parkland / 120+ Acres Public, Opportunity for more parkland (150 – 160 Acres)
 - Payment of Fees for 3,533 units / Development fees for additional units, ongoing operation and maintenance of Parks District (currently $400,000 per year. Property taxes will generate annual revenue for operations and maintenance)

Additional Factors

- Formation of an independently funded and maintained parks district, which includes Onion Creek Metropolitan Park, and is open to the public
- Baseline requirements for 120 acres of parks with opportunity for more
- Several miles of trail system, connecting residential areas, parks, and schools
- 3 schools with their own respective parks (not counted in acreage)
- Staff finds that the Goodnight Ranch development exceeds superiority standards laid out in the original PUD, and recommends approval of the amendment

Recommendation

Make a recommendation to City Council regarding the proposed amendment to the Goodnight Ranch Planned Unit Development as it pertains to parkland.
