Mark C. Graham, Assistant City Manager
City of Austin, Planning & Development Department

If you use this form to comment, it may be returned to:

1. A party to the appeal may require that the appeal be conducted at the public hearing.
2. The public hearing notice must be submitted to the board of commission (or the City of Austin Planning Commission). No appointment or appointment for a public hearing on the proposal must be made. The party wishing to appeal to the board of commission must be included in the public hearing on the proposal.

For additional information on the City of Austin’s land-use rezoning process, visit our website:

www.austintexas.gov/planinfo.