This review should rely on joint Arts Commission and Music Commission Recommendations set forth and submitted to Council in April,

2020:

Project(s) should specifically address historic inequity and alleviate the crisis-level issues facing the creative community, including: affordability, and rapid loss of creative spaces, including theatres, galleries and music venues.

Project(s) should provide long-term, affordable and accessible creative space(s) invulnerable to the City's rapidly escalating property values and increasing cost of living/working. Creative Space Bond funds be used to acquire, build, improve or re-purpose a multi-use/multi-purpose facility or facilities that meet the expressed needs of the arts and music communities while serving a public purpose and enriching the cultural life of the city. Ideal project/facility/facilities will be city-owned property that is/are built and operated/managed by a partner or team of partners that meet certain minimum and other requirements established by the City and set forth in a Request for Proposal (RFP) for the selection of said partner or partners. AMENITIES

The selected facility/facilities must be fully built out and ready for use upon completion/opening and would address the current gap in amenities including, but not limited to:

Flexible rehearsal spaces to include small rooms for bands/theater companies/performance artists to rehearse

• Performance venue with a capacity of at least 50 seats

(may include outdoors)

- Visual arts studio and gallery space(s)
- Educational space(s)

- South of Lady Bird Lake, North of Ben White (HWY-71)
- Downtown (Lady Bird Lake to MLK and I-35 to MoPac)
- North of 30th Street, South of US-183;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

Given these recommendations as guidance, the City Manager is directed to work with the Urban Renewal Board to identify City-owned properties and facilities within the District that are appropriate for developing a major music-centric, multi-arts 'cultural hub' facility to serve as the permanent core institution for arts and culture professionals providing cultural content programming for the District. City Manager should work with appropriate City Departments, private-nonprofit organizations, private-sector creative industry professionals and consultants to:

Develop and implement a two-phase plan to:

1. Identify an existing public cultural use of City-owned property

(and work in conjunction with the adjacent National Register Historic Property); proceed with investment into cosmetic enhancements, infrastructure build-out, and facility amenities upgrades to be completed and operational within 12 months.

This establishes the permanent location of the music-centric, multi-arts hub of the District (1100 Block of E.11th Street, Block 18/Victory Grill and Kenny Dorham's Backyard)

- Work with a consortium of appropriate City Departments, community-based private-nonprofits, private-sector creative industry professionals, consultants and educational institutions to actualize the Kenny Dorham Center/AACHD Cultural Hub concept.
- 3. Consistent with prior directives and recommendations to Council from the Arts Commission and Music Commission, development of the Kenny Dorham Center facility should be a sustainable long-term capital investment in a permanent cultural institution owned by the City, but operated in partnership with a consortium of specifically-qualified, strategically selected parties.

As envisioned, planning for the Kenny Dorham Center should be a multi-story

mixed-use development and accommodate:

• Outdoor performance space/amphitheater and publicly accessible green space

- Indoor performance space, café/pub
- Audio/video Recording studio (learning laboratory and professional)

- Rehearsal space
- Classroom/meeting/conference room
- Small studio rooms for practice, lessons, art-making
- Shared work/office space co-op for African American nonprofit arts organizations

Co-working space for AACHD professional creatives and students

- Art gallery
- The Kenny Dorham Museum (a mini-archival collection dedicated to the life and music of Kenny Dorham, but also home to an active research project/educational site for the study and collection of materials documenting

Black Music History of Austin and the cultural history of

Central East Austin/AACHD)

Coffee shop, book store, music store, art supply store or other related street-level retail Top-level residential: 12-18 one and two bedroom truly affordable apartments reserved for working creatives residencies of 2-3 years maximum. Cements the notion of creating a synergistic cultural hub community and provides opportunities for Austin creatives to actually afford to live in the midst of over-heated rapid gentrification, while being adjacent to real-life professional opportunities in the arts; and

While steering the development of this major cultural institution, City

Manager must take into consideration:

- Options for capital investment and long-term sustainability of cultural facilities operated by third parties on city-owned properties; and
- Options for public-private partnerships that may have difficulty achieving or need additional time to meet their private fundraising commitments to the City; and
- Early preparation and development of proposals for the next creative bond package.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

By Austin City Council adoption, this resolution serves to correct deficiencies found in the original Resolution establishing the African American Cultural Heritage District and plots a path forward to fully recognize, support, and invest in the District's growth and sustainability into the future.
