TREND: ANTI-CITY TONE: STATE LEADERSHIP

"I think a broad-based law by the state of Texas that says across the board, the state is going to pre-empt local regulations, is a superior approach"

– Governor Greg Abbott¹

"Our cities are still controlled by Democrats...and where do we have all our problems in America? ...in our cities that are mostly controlled by Democrat mayors and Democrat city council... That's where you see street crime." –Lt. Governor Dan Patrick²

1: "Abbott wants "broad-based law" that pre-empts local regulations" Texas Tribune, March 21, 2017

2: "Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick blames city governments for "all our problems in America" Texas Tribune, AUG. 4, 2017

DEVELOPING THE CITY'S LEGISLATIVE AGENDA: PRESERVING THE COMMUNITY'S VALUES

- ❖ Protect Austin residents' right to govern themselves and work with their City government to adopt and enforce ordinances that address the health, safety, and public welfare of the community, including but not limited to, the ability to regulate earned sick leave, payday lending, and fair chance hiring.
- ❖ Oppose legislation that limits or prohibits the City's current ability to communicate or advocate with legislators or limits or prohibits the authority of the Texas Municipal League to use any funds to communicate with legislators.

DEVELOPING THE CITY'S LEGISLATIVE AGENDA:

THE COMMISSION ON WOMEN

- ❖ Support adequate funding for public health care programs, including Women's Preventative Health and Family Planning Services, chronic disease prevention, behavioral health and substance abuse programs, to support the uninsured and underinsured residents of Austin and all local and regional health care programs.
- ❖ Support legislative efforts to continue support for sexual assault victims, including the continuation of the Texas Sexual Assault Survivors Task Force, the completion of the State Auditor's Office's audit of the investigation and processing of sexual assault cases in Texas, and the clearing of rape kit backlogs.
- ❖ Support legislation and funding that creates equitable access to and availability of affordable, safe, quality child care and education for all families of children aged birth to five; affordable, safe, quality after-school programming; evidence-based home visiting programs for families with young children; and that strengthens the resiliency of the child care industry.
- ❖ Support legislation that promotes equity for residents of Austin including pay-equity, education-equity, housing-equity, and health-equity.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION: LOOKING FORWARD

- IGRO wants to work with you on a resolution in support of the agenda and lobby team.
- Boards & Commissions can recommend additions to the legislative agenda to Council with a resolution to Council or reaching out directly to Council Members.
- IGRO presented the agenda to Council on September 17. The agenda can be amended at any time.
- IGRO will also keep you updated throughout the session.
