Re: 1204 E. 6th Street – Austin, TX 78702

I, Irene Sanchez, am one of the former heirs of the house and property located at 1204 E. 6th Street in Austin, Texas. This home was in my family for 75 years.

Over the decades, we witnessed East 6th Street evolve drastically to become the vibrant commercial district that it is today.

While our home played a large role in our lives, we recognized that the location was no longer ideal for single-family use as it is now heavily populated with entertainment venues and many other commercial uses. Therefore, we decided to sell the property in 2021.

The new owners of this property have stated that they would like to relocate the house, which is over 100 years old, to a more fitting residential location where restoration will be more fitting and viable.

I am providing my support for the application for this relocation.

Sincerely,

Irene Sanchez
