Last year, the City entered into a written contract with NextGen Healthcare (NGH) for the purchase of a Practice Management and Medical Management System for the Community Health Centers. The NGH Contract is between the City and NGH and NGH services have been provided by the City, through its contract with NGH, to five County Community Health Centers. The purpose of this interlocal is to allow the City to collect $72,857, which is the County's portion for services NGH provided from October 1, 2003 – September 30, 2004
