by the following vote:

Ayes: Councilmen LaRue, Long, Shanks, Mayor Palmer
Noes: None
Absent: Councilman White

The Mayor announced that the ordinance had been finally passed.

Councilman Long made the following statement regarding her vote:

"I vote 'aye' with reservations. I do not think it is strong enough, and I am hoping that we will be able in the near future to see the need for committees that can work with this Human Relations Commission and encompass more people in the City to become concerned in this program." Councilman Long reiterated this reservation after each reading of the ordinance.

Mayor Palmer made the following statement regarding the passage of the Ordinance:

"I hope the City will realize the intent and purpose set out. Many times there can be a strong Ordinance; and if people do not subscribe to it, it will do no good. With good intent and a good strong Commission, we can accomplish what we want to in Austin. We hope there will be a continuation of the good feeling that we have had in Austin among all people, and hope and pray this will accomplish what we wish."

Councilman LaRue made the following statement regarding the passage of the Ordinance:

"We have been working on this problem now. This problem has been in existence for some 100 years; and to hope it will be overcome in a period of days is out of the question; but with the thought and consideration that has been put on this for the last six weeks, I sincerely hope that all groups and all individuals will participate in making this work, and I feel and sincerely believe it can and will work because of the cooperation the City has given already."

There being no further business Councilman LaRue moved that the Council adjourn. The motion, seconded by Councilman Shanks, carried by the following vote:

Ayes: Councilmen LaRue, Long, Shanks, Mayor Palmer
Noes: None
Absent: Councilman White

The Council adjourned at 4:30 P.M. subject to the call of the Mayor.
