The Goodnight Ranch area (approximately 714 acres) is located in Travis County east of Old Lockhart Highway approximately one tenth of a mile east of the intersection of Slaughter Lane and Old Lockhart Highway and is the site of a proposed mixed use development including 4200 single family lots. This area is adjacent to the city's full purpose city limit on the north side.

Goodnight Ranch is being proposed for consensual limited purpose annexation and phased conversion to full purpose status in conjunction with a PUD currently in process.
