The city clerk's certification here will inform the council of the result of her examination of the initiative petition as supplemented.

The city council received the city clerk's certification with regard to the original initiative petition on February 17, 2005. As provided by Article IV, Section 4 of the City Charter, an initiative petition may be amended by filing a supplementary petition within fifteen days after the petitioner is notified by the City Clerk that the petition is insufficient. The initiative petition was supplemented on February 22, 2005.
