NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION: Old West Austin Neighborhood Association; Clarksville Community Development Corporation.

BASIS FOR RECOMMENDATION:

The ca. 1930 house is over 50 years old, but has lost its integrity of materials. The 1:1 wood frame windows shown in the 2000 Clarksville survey have been replaced with modern vinyl 6:6 windows; the front porch has been modified; the exterior has sheet paneling as siding. The house has neither architectural nor historical significance sufficient to warrant landmark designation.

ARCHITECTURE

One-story, side-gabled, rectangular-plan frame house with central, partial-width independent porch on plain square wood posts; modern panel sheet siding; modern 6:6 vinyl fenestration.

HISTORY OF THE PROPERTY

The Thompson-Carter house appears to have been built around 1930. The first occupant, according to city directories, was Link Thompson, an African-American yardman, who moved to this house from another Clarksville address. Thompson and his family lived here on Waterston until 1935; he was employed as a chauffeur and butler for families on Niles Road. The 1937 city directory shows the occupant and owner as Otis Kerr, who also worked as a chauffeur. Kerr and his family lived here until 1948, when the house was occupied by Kelly Meador, a teacher at the State Blind Deaf and Orphan School for Colored Youth. The Carter family moved into the house in 1954. Shirley Carter, who is listed as the owner from 1957 on, was a busman at the Greyhound Coffee Shop.

Mr. Steve Sadowsky
Historic Preservation Officer
505 Barton Springs Road, 4th Floor

Dear Mr. Sadowsky

As you know per my two presentations to the Historic Commission Board, I am opposed to the Commission's recommendation to impose a historic zoning for my property located at 1815 Waterston. Unfortunately the majority of the Historic Commission Board did not take your recommendation and my factual pleadings of the condition of the house into consideration for their decision. Consequently I have hired Mr. Jim Bennett to represent me in this case.

Sincerely,

Virgilio Altamirano
