

Austin City Council MINUTES

For MAY 10, 1988 - REGULAR MEETING - 3:00 P.M.
CONVENED AS BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ELECTRIC UTILITY

Council Chambers, 307 West Second Street, Austin, Texas

Memorandum To:

Mayor Cooksey called to order the Regular meeting of the Council and announced the purpose of the meeting was to meet as the Board of Directors of the Electric Utility. Mayor Cooksey noted the absence of Mayor Pro Tem Trevino, Councilmembers Humphrey and Urdy.

ELECTRIC UTILITY COMMISSION REPORT

Mr. Albert H. Fairweather, Chairperson, Electric Utility Commission, presented their report and read two resolutions which they had passed. One resolution dealt with IBM's initiation of separate negotiations with the Council to obtain specific rate relief unique to it and unique from other ratepayers in its class. The resolution stated the Electric Utility Commission opposes any privately negotiated rates outside the proper ratemaking venue of the Hearing Examiner Ordinance. The other resolution deals with recommendations concerning policy guidelines for customers choosing on-site generation. Copies of both resolutions are on file in the City Clerk's office. The resolutions were not passed by Council.

CITY MANAGER REPORT

John Moore, Director, Electric Utility, presented a report to Council by means of graphics which included the introduction, key issues, financial report and the report on major performance indicators and fuel.
