May 13, 1948

10:30 A.M.

Council Chamber, City Hall

The meeting was called to order, with Mayor Miller presiding.

Roll call

Present : Councilmen Bartholomew, Johnson, Mayor Miller, Councilman
Thornberry - 4

Absent : Councilman Glass

Present also: Guiton Morgan, City Manager; J. E. Motheral, Director of Public Works; Trueman E. O'Quinn, City Attorney; and R. D. Thorp, Chief of Police.

The reading of the Minutes was dispensed with.

Mr. Stanford Payne submitted a request to have Bellaire Subdivision taken into the city limits and certain portions of it zoned as commercial and the rest as residential. He was advised that the City does not zone property prior to its annexation, but that at the time the zoning of said Subdivision is under consideration, his request will be granted unless there are valid objections to same. He was further advised to file the necessary data with the City Manager in order that annexation proceedings may be started.

It was the sense of the Council that action on the following zoning changes now pending be postponed to the next regular meeting on account of the absence of Councilman Glass:

Lewis R. Fisher, from "A" Residence District to "B-1" Residence District, of property located between West 19th and West 22nd Streets, and between Cliff Street and the alley east of David Street;

S. R. Fulmore, Agent, from "A" Residence District to "C" Commercial District, of property fronting Shirley Avenue in Plaza Place, about three blocks long;

Wendell Addington, Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas, came before the Council and asked that the action of the City Manager be overruled and the Communist Party be granted permission to use the City Library Auditorium on Saturday evening, May 15, for a meeting. Councilman Thornberry moved, seconded by Councilman Bartholomew, that the action of the City Manager be upheld and the permit be denied, and, further, that the City Council go on record as being opposed to the use by the Communist Party of any tax-paid-for property in the City of Austin for public or private meetings. He was advised that the City Council had no jurisdiction in the matter, as it was not on public property.

The Oath of Office was administered by the City Attorney to the Members of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Commission, to-wit: Edward Robinson, Jr.; David T. Lamme, Jr.; and Leo Kuhn. The Members of the Commission then drew for their terms, with the following result:

Hart, submitted to the Council a request in writing for an extension of the City limits to include Burnet Heights, a subdivision consisting of approximately 41.07 acres of land and lying partly between the Burnet Road on the west, Koenig Lane on the south, Camino Real Street on the east, and Payne Avenue on the north.
